Mr. HILL, chairman of the special committee, said the report meant what it said. The Minister of Education and the Departmental Regulations told them they could define the duties of an Inspector. It was the first time he had ever known Mr. Dumble to ride the conventional horse. He proceeded to point out that it was time we had a change in our school system in Peterborough as evils had existed for years. Mr. Dumble said it was humiliating to the teachers to have an Inspector placed over them, having practically full charge over everything and every one. London, Peterborough, Ottawa, Lindsay and other places had such an Inspector, and they got along well. The previous speaker had said no man could perform the duties laid down successfully. It was done in London, Hamilton and other places, where the duties were far more rigid and more varied than those laid down in the report. The Inspector appeared in the school once a week. He was the intermediary between the Board and the teachers. How many in the Board were capable of reporting on teachers? If they did so, no one would put faith in their report. The Inspector was of reporting on a teacher. The Board could get as cheap and good a man as Lindsay, which paid her Inspector $1 000 to superintend fifteen teachers, Peterborough with her twenty-five teachers was surely able to pay more. Ottawa paid her Inspector $1,800 to superintend thirty teachers, and at the same rate Peterborough would have to pay about $940; they might possibly have to give more. In Toronto and Ottawa an Inspector had done these duties for years, and these cities were well satisfied. Toronto had two inspectors and four principals, who did the same work as suggested in Peterborough. At the last meeting of the Board nine had voted for the report and only one against it, and if one member was going to rule the Board it was time to call a halt. The motion had nothing to do with the dismissal of the inspector—it had to do only with his duties. Mr. Hill closed by hoping that every member of the Board feeling an interest in the public school would vote for the motion.

THE ONLY MAN CAPABLE

Mr. DEANE said they had no fault to find with the present inspector. Only a few months ago they had raised his salary in order that he might give more attention and spend more of his time in the schools.

OBJECTIONS TO THE CHANGE.

Dr. BOUCHER said the changes were too sweeping. The work in the schools had gone in remarkably well and the schools were in a good state. The school expenses should not be increased. Owing to the increased attendance at the Institute another teacher would probably have to be added, which would still further increase the school expenditure. No man would take the position of inspector with all the duties expected of him, for less than $1000 or $1500. Here the inspector was doing more than was required of him. He had given the schools great attention for very little money. The speaker thought no change was necessary.

THE INSPECTOR HEARD.

On motion Dr. Tilly was heard. He said he was sorry to hear the discussion assume the shape it had. When he took hold of the Inspectorship, four years ago, he did not seek the position, as all knew, and when he asked what were his duties, he was told to do the best for the schools. He had tried to do so. Four teachers had been reported against in his term. Two the first year and one each subsequent year. When he came there were nineteen teachers on the staff, some not duly qualified. He had reported them at once. There were only twelve of the same teachers now on the staff, all had regained their positions except two through his influence. During the past four years twenty-three appointments have been made on the staff. It was difficult to select teachers who would do the very best work. Three have been removed from those appointments making seven removals in all from the staff since he was Inspector. He did not think it wise to advertise to the world that a change wanted to be made in the public school system. If schools could be built up by working up teachers it was the best way. It was much easier for a headmaster to remove poor teachers than to make those teachers better, although the last was an honester way of working. He had carefully considered the work of all the teachers and had advised freely. He believed the teachers to-day were far more efficient than four years ago. Two or three years ago the teachers were not doing the work that he would like, but the work and the teachers had changed since that time. If in view of this, the Board desired to make a change he would not stand in their way. He thought that if the committee would receive suggestions it would be well to talk the matter over. They could either work harmoniously or separate. They could bring several matters up before the committee and discuss them. The schools were all doing well. No other places admitted the weak points of their schools. He had reported on buildings and grounds and found the public school buildings and equipments much out of repair when he first came here, but they had all been improved. He had visited many schools in West Ontario, and nowhere were they in better condition than in Peterborough. He and the staff worked harmoniously together, and all the teachers were painstaking, prudent careful and efficient in their work.

Mr. HAMILTON was in favor of the report. He thought Mr. Dumble rather cast a reflection on the Board when he questioned the candour of the committee, and stated that they had not given the matter due consideration. They were all business men on the committee and knew what they were doing. In recommending an Inspector with certain duties who, if he was efficient would, he thought, cost $1000 or $1200 a year. The matter had been impressed upon his mind ever since he had become a member of the Board that the schools had been run on loose and unbusinesslike principles. He did not want to cast a reflection upon the schools as they had been improved from year to year. He thought it was a very important period in the history of the schools, and they were required to be looked after carefully. A great responsibility fell upon them as trustees. He gave Mr. Dumble credit for a thoroughly honest desire to help the efficiency of the schools. He had formed the opinion that a good man having charge of all the teachers could do more efficient work than was being done under the present system. If they wanted to employ a man who would assist and benefit the teachers, the matter of the dollars and cents was a secondary consideration. If it paid to give the present inspector a little more salary to give the schools more attention it would pay, he thought to give few more hundred dollars and have an inspector devote all his time to the schools and their interests. The greatest difficulty would be in securing a proper person.

Mr. HARTLEY said as far as he was personally concerned he knew no one in this matter. He wanted to act in the interest of the schools. He had not yet given the present matter sufficient attention to enable him to decide and he suggested that the question be postponed and be discussed in committee.

Mr. DUMBLE said it would be more credit to examine the schools before proceeding in this matter. An investigation should be held and reports received of each school. He understood that Mr. Smith passed as many pupils into the Collegiate Institute as any two Lindsay masters. The motion was one to dismiss the present inspector unless he would give the whole of his time to the work. In opposing this motion he was not standing by a man—he was standing by the public school of Peterborough. The idea of a man speaking so highly of Lindsay schools and never having spent an hour in them was preposterous. He received his information from some member of the Lindsay Board who was not going to run down his own schools. Mr. Hill admitted that four years ago the Lindsay schools were the worst in the province. They might be better now. Lindsay had not a single male principal. Peterborough had four pivotal inspectors in their head male teachers, and ever since a good inspector who visited the schools nine times a year when he was required by law to visit them only twice. In Lindsay they had a walking boss and had to pay for an inspector besides. If the report was adopted and the local superintendent appointed the town would have to have an inspector, as the Government required it. He did not want to pursue a course like that pursued in other places whose schools were not as good as ours. Mr. Dumble closed by urging strict examination into the public schools, and if they were not found to be equal to or better than those of Durham, Northumberland and other places, he would heartily join the Board in any move for the bettering of their condition.

Mr. DEANE said Mr. Dumble was inconsistent. At the last meeting he had said there were teachers who should be dismissed.

Mr DUMBLE replied that he had only said so in reference to teachers who were paid such small salaries that effectiveness was not to be expected.

Mr. HILL said the committee from inquiring amongst ratepayers learned that ten out of twelve parents were not satisfied with the schools.

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE BOARD.

Mr. HILL asked that his motion be put. He called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. HARTLEY moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Ferguson,—That Mr. Hill's resolution be referred to a committee of the whole Board to report. This was carried.

Mr. DUMBLE said that owing to the large number who would pass the entrance examination this year—about 40 more than were leaving—another teacher would be required on the staff of the Collegiate Institute. It rested with the board to decide whether they would engage one now, or wait until later on, when all good teachers would be engaged.

Moved by Mr. Hamilton, seconded by Mr. Hartley, that the chairman of the Committee on Appointments be authorized to instruct the secretary to advertise for a junior master, if the principal of the Collegiate Institute considers his services will be required.—Carried.

The board adjourned at 10.45 o'clock.

Why So Many Infants Died Last Month.

In several of our largest Canadian cities the death-rate amongst infants, during the month of June, was larger than we expected, considering the efforts that had been put forth by the health authorities in sanitary matters.

This question of excessive infant mortality during the hot summer months is a difficult one to deal with, and can never be successfully handled by the health officers of any city.

Physicians do not hesitate in declaring that improper infant dieting is the main trouble—the direct cause of the large proportion of infant deaths. They tell us that stale and sour cow's milk, and impoverished and scanty breast milk, coming from mothers who are feverish or otherwise physically unfit to nurse their infants, are fruitful sources of sickness and disease to the babies.

This accounts for the loss of thousands of infants in Canada every summer, and we believe the large mortality last month can be traced directly to the troubles just referred to. What result will the present month show? We fear to think of it. It will be appalling if the weather is hotter.

In the face of all this, it is cheering to know that thousands of little infants are progressing with amazing rapidity during the present hot weather, simply because they are being nourished on health-giving Lactated Food.

This valuable Food is life to the infant in summer time, it is a guard and shield from all the terrible diseases which are now so prevalent. Lactated Food is in very truth the only known substitute for nature's own food—breast milk—because it contains all its healthy ingredients. Our best physicians have tested it in their daily practice, and declare it to be the best in the world. Try it, mothers, at once. You can save your infants.

Hanlan Defeats Hosmer.

BOSTON, July 5.—An exciting international single scull race came off yesterday on the Connecticut River between Edward Hanlan and George W. Hosmer for a purse given by the Boston Regatta Committee.

The course was three miles with three turns.

Hanlan won the race by about 10 feet. His time was 18.55.

A Third-rate Canadian Team Defeated in Detroit.

DETROIT, July 5.—The champion M.A.A. team tackled a picked eleven of All Canada here yesterday and won by 4 goals to 1. McWhirter scored three of Detroit's points and generally played well. McKendrick scored the other goal and McCallum tallied for Canada. About 800 persons saw the game. The teams were:

Canada (1): Caldwell, Galt, goal; Henning (Preston), Arndt (Toronto Scots), backs; Sohrt (Preston), Loudon (Galt), Barrett (Galt), half-backs; Spear (Preston), Lang (Essex), Cress (Preston), centre; Nourse (Chatham), McCallum, (Toronto Scots), forwards.

M. A. A. (4): Sims, goal; John McKendrick, McPherson, backs; Collie, Mohillan, Waggoner, half-backs; Williams, James McKendrick, Henderson, centre; McWhirter, Stuart, forwards.

Frank Walters, Essex Centre, referee.

[This match was hugely advertised as a contest between M.A.A. and a representative Canadian team. The above is about an Ontario third-rate eleven. How could a team be representative of Canada on the Association football field without Thomson, Senkler and such men! A properly-selected Toronto team could defeat any aggregation belonging to the City of the Straits by about 7 goals to nil.]

Schuylkill Defeats Niagara.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 5.—The lacrosse twelve of the Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy defeated the Niagaras here to-day by 4 games to 3. The visitors braced up and showed much superior form than in Toronto. It was a good exhibition of Canada's national game. The Navy men scored the second, fourth, sixth and seventh games, the last two in 2 and 3 minutes respectively.

Cures Others

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true, of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."—H. L. "August Flower"

Dyspepsia. There is a gentleman at Malden-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., named Captain A. G. Pareis, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says:

"I have used your preparation called August Flower in my family for seven or eight years. It is constantly in my house, and we consider it the best remedy for Indigestion, and Constipation we Indigestion. have ever used or known. My wife is troubled with Dyspepsia, and at times suffers very much after eating. The August Flower, however, relieves the difficulty. My wife frequently says to me when I am going to town, 'We are out Constipation of August Flower, and I think you had better get another bottle.' I am also troubled with Indigestion, and whenever I am, I take one or two teaspoonfuls before eating, for a day or two, and all trouble is removed." ●

AN ACRE OF BLAZING COTTON.

R. R. & R. Knight, the Big Rhode Island Manufacturers, Burned Out.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., July 5.—The mammoth storage warehouse of R. R. & R. Knight at River Point, together with 6700 bales of cotton and 1000 pieces of cloth, was destroyed by fire shortly after 10 p.m. Monday. The loss is estimated at $500,000. The building was of wood and covered over an acre of ground.

The fire departments of River Point, Phenix and surrounding villages were quickly on the scene, but could make no impression on the flames, which spread rapidly throughout the building.

The flames lit the entire valley, and three of the four tenement blocks, a few hundred feet from the burning shed, were at one time on fire, as were a number of freight cars sidetracked near by.

The Knights are the largest cotton manufacturers in the country and operate half a dozen mills in the valley, most of their cotton being stored at River Point.

FATAL BALLOONING.

Two Men Killed and a Third Aeronaut Injured.

BOSTON, July 5.—One of the attractions of the Fourth was a balloon ascension from Boston Common, the occupants being Prof. August Rogers of Malden, Maine, T. Fenton, his assistant, and Delos E. Goldsmith, a representative of the City Press Association.

The balloon rose but a few hundred feet when it sailed away to the south, and when over South Boston rose to a considerable height, continuing its journey directly out to sea. When about five miles down the harbor Prof. Rogers tried to open the valves so as to alight on Thompson Island.

In his efforts to do this he accidentally made a rent in the side of the balloon, which at once began to descend at a terrible rate of speed. When it finally struck the water the immense bag seemed to entirely collapse. Prof. Rogers sank at once and his body has not yet been recovered.

Fenton and Goldsmith managed to clamber in the basket and were rescued, but the former died en route to the city.

Death's Quick Verdict.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 5.—William J. Pilcher, an Oakland real estate dealer, was arrested yesterday on a charge of forgery. When placed under arrest he was seized with a fit of apoplexy and died shortly afterward. The forgery in which Pilcher was implicated was daring and unique. Two years ago a woman calling herself Emma Dick went before a notary accompanied by two men and had a mortgage for $8000 on Miss Dick's property drawn up. She secured the money, when it was discovered that she was not Miss Dick. Gracie Gilbert, who acknowledged the mortgage, was arrested in the State of Washington and confessed she had personated Miss Dick, and stated that Pilcher and J. E. Wells assisted her in the scheme. Wells was also arrested here yesterday.

Run Down by Trains.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 5.—Mrs. Fred. Grazelle attempted to drive across the C.P.R. at Pim-street crossing, when the rig was overtaken by a train. Both horses were killed and the woman was seriously crushed and bruised, but will recover.

LONDON, Ont., July .—Thomas Haywood, aged 60, fish pedlar, was driving across the G.T.R. at Egerton-street, where the rig was struck by a train. The wagon was smashed into kindling wood and Haywood was frightfully mangled, his head being crushed in and right leg cut off. Death must have been instantaneous.

A Young Girl's Suicide.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 5.—Edith Edgar, aged 17, employed in a candy factory in Barnard-street, jumped from Westminster-avenue bridge Sunday night.

She was seen to take the fatal plunge and a plank was thrown to her; but she made no attempt to grasp it, allowing it to float past her.

Before jumping she placed her parasol on the bridge, but a Bible she carried in her hand she took with her.

No motive can be assigned for the rash act, as she seemed comparatively happy and had many friends.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1892.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

New modes in Lilliput land are distinguished by quaint simplicity at once child-like and comfortable, and new materials are picturesquely old-fashioned in design and gay in coloring. The lawns, organdies, dimities, and cambrics restored to fashionable favor in the grown-up world with challies, zephyrs, and wash silks, are the fabrics now employed in the little maid's summer outfit.

For these thinner fabrics, printed or embroided in floral designs, the Empire or Watteau frock is usually selected as most graceful, pretty, and becoming, besides adding to its many excellencies the supreme grace of being easily laundried. Embroidered batistes and white muslins are also most effective made after this model, which has a short, full waist but little deeper than a yoke, huge puffed sleeves, and a full gathered skirt, reaching just below the knee on girls of six or eight years. The waist is gathered about the neck beneath a turned down frill, and the skirt is joined to it with a cord, which is sometimes covered with a broad, soft sash of silk or fine mull, tied in a single knot in front. The model shown is of old blue batiste with an embroidered pattern of pink and olive flowers. The sash is pink mull, and the large flopping hat is also of mull shirred and edged with white lace. Many mothers find that the so-called inexpensive zephyrs, plus the exorbitant cost of laundrying at the summer resort, are expensive luxuries, and replace them with flannel or serge gowns for morning country wear. A pretty design for a serge frock for a little girl is of blue or crimson, according to fancy, with graduated reveres, embroidered with gold anchors, opening over a shirt of white, made with a yoke, on which appears again the gold anchor. The skirt is plain, and its jointure with the bodice is covered with a soft scarf of the contrasting color. Full Bishop sleeves have white caps with turned back cuffs, embroidered with the anchors. The little suit is very pretty made of blue and crimson serge in combination. For the more dressy challies or wash silks the peasant's waist over a guimpe of lace or fine embroidery is usually employed. A little French challie with a sprinkling of yellow primroses on a pale green ground has four tucks in the edge, each one sewed in with a tiny velvet ribbon in a decided shade of green. The belt is also of green velvet, and the large puffed sleeves are gathered to a band of velvet and worn over close white sleeves of point de gene. A fall of deep lace completely hides the waist in the front and at the back, and a high-necked guimpe of the point de gene appears in the square neck above it.

We used to take a big blue pill,
It did so surely tear and gripe,
We felt for purgatory ripe,

To-day, when sick, we take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are gently aperient or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Cures Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Put up in vials, hermetically sealed, hence always fresh and reliable. Purely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. Sold by druggists, at 25 cents a vial. ●

There are more cases of sickness and death from diseased kidneys than from all other diseases combined. It is your own fault if you allow your kidneys to remain in an unhealthy condition when the cure is at hand. Dodd's Kidney Pills are guaranteed to cure the worst cases. It costs but little to give them a trial. They are for sale by all druggists and dealers or by mail on receipt of 50 cts. or 6 boxes for $2.50. Write for book called Kidney Talk.

Propositions to abolish the debates altogether and another to limit reports to the House and omit supply and committee were made but not accepted, and the report was adopted.

Arraigning the Chinese.

On the second reading of the Chinese Immigration Act Mr. Gordon spoke strongly against Chinese immigration as being injurious to the labor, social and all other interests of British Columbia. They imported smallpox, leprosy and all kinds of diseases into the country, so much so that the province was forced to keep a lazaretto on the island near Victoria. Whatever little money they made in the country they took out of it. He favored their exclusion, the same as was the case in the United States. The bill was read a second time.

The Civil Service Act was read a third time.

Two Cent Mileage.

Hon. Mr. Haggart moved the third reading of the bill to amend the Railway Act.

Mr. Maclean (East York) moved the amendment of which he had given notice, that a maximum rate of two cents per mile should be adopted on all railways in Canada. He said that he would first deal with the objection raised that Parliament had not the power to regulate railroads. He claimed that this Parliament, which had assisted the railroads by large subsidies and grants of land and had given them franchises, had power also to regulate railroads in every respect. This was a sound principle and one that could be maintained. Even the municipalities of the country had power to regulate their street railways, and surely if the municipalities had that power the Parliament of Canada had equal powers. The United States controlled its railways, as also did the countries in Europe. This railway problem in Canada, he said, was next to the labor question. His proposal for a two-cent passenger rate was in the interests of the people of the country. It would create increased travel, and greater intercourse between the provinces. It would have the effect of binding people together, and create a community of interests between different provinces.

Would Benefit Commerce.

Commerce would be greatly benefitted. He had met a great many Toronto merchants who said that if they could get cheaper travel they would send out more travelers, and consequently do more business. It was travel that made the man. This amendment was also in the interests of labor. There was always work in the country, but with high rates of travel the workman could not reach it. Cheaper travel would settle this matter.

His amendment would also operate in the interest of the railways. With greater travel the revenue of the railway would increase. This was shown by the lowering of the postage and telegraph rates. The traffic increased and the revenue also increased.

Mr. Van Horne was the great whale of Canada while he (Maclean) was a small fish, but it was time that the small fish did something before they would be gobbled up by the great whale. [Laughter.] Mr. Maclean then proceeded to show what had been accomplished in Hungary by the lowering of the rates.

It being 1 o'clock the Speaker left the chair.

When the House resumed Mr. Maclean concluded his speech by moving his amendment making it compulsory for railways to carry passengers at 2 cents per mile. His amendment would not apply to railways west of Port Arthur.

Mr. Wood Suggests the Railway Committee.

Mr. Wood (Brockville) said that the mover of the amendment learned something since he first introduced his amendment, having now curtailed it to a certain portion of the Dominion, while in the first instance it was applicable all over the Dominion. The proposition was one which involved consequences of a most important character to the whole Dominion. It would be unfair to adopt any such amendment until the whole question was made a subject of a Parliamentary enquiry. There was no doubt but the Railway Committee of the Privy Council had the power to remedy all matters connected with railways and Mr. Maclean ought to bring his grievances there for adjustment. The proposition was one which asked Parliament to deliberately confiscate rights which had been conferred on these companies by an act of Parliament. There was one grievance which he (Wood) intended bringing before Parliament next session in connection with railways, and that was the inconvenience caused to passengers in Eastern Ontario through the ignoring of connections between the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk Railways. A passenger arriving at Brockville from Ottawa by the Canadian Pacific would just get there in time to see the Grand Trunk leaving the station.

Mr. Edgar Calls it Confiscation.

Mr. Edgar opposed the amendment, which would simply be one of confiscation considering the investments which had been made in these roads.

Dr. Sproule spoke in favor of the amendment. A poor man would have no chance to go and fight against a great corporation before the railway committee of the privy council.

Mr. Corby spoke against the amendment, stating that it would lower the wages of the working man.

Mr. Cockburn said it was absurd to come one day to Parliament and ask for millions of dollars to construct railways, which could not be constructed without this money, and then to bring in a resolution to the House to deprive these roads of one-third of their earnings. A pressure of this kind put upon the railway companies would cause a reduction of the wages of the railway employes. The House was not yet possessed of sufficient information to legislate upon such an important matter.

Lieut.-Col. Tisdale said that the mover would look in vain for any legislation which had reduced the maximum rates on railways except on the New York Central, and the circumstances connected with that change would be no precedent for the legislation which was now proposed. He denied that railway companies had not reduced their passengers' fares for 30 years and gave several instances to show that such was the case.

The Vote.

The House divided on the amendment, which was lost by 20 for to 128 against. The 20 who voted for the amendment were:

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago, it would have saved me $200.00 and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body, and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was $5 worth. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00, you would have had the money. I looked like the picture (No. 2, page 47) in your book, "How to Cure Skin Diseases." But now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times.

DENNIS DOWSING, Waterbury, Vt.

BRITISH ELECTIONS

Gladstonian Gains 29; Conservative Gains 14.

CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY NOW 45.

Thomas Sexton Defeated in West Belfast—Balfour and Joe Chamberlain Elected—A Remarkable Liberal Reverse in Glasgow—Several Liberal Gains in Scotland—O'Brien and Thomas Healy Returned in Cork.

LONDON, July 7.—Up to 2 a.m. yesterday morning returns have been received which show the election of 239 members to the new House of Commons. Of this number 93 are Liberals, 19 Liberal-Unionists, 123 Conservatives, and 4 anti-Parnellites. This is a net gain of 15 for the Liberals.

The total Liberal gains are 29 and Conservatives 14.

The Liberals made seven net gains today, or a total of 15 to date, leaving the Conservative majority still 45, giving the anti-Parnellites to the Liberals.

The total membership of the House of Commons is 670, of which Ireland has 103.

When Parliament was prorogued the House was divided as follows:

Conservatives and Liberal Unionists	369
Liberals and Nationalists	301
Ministerial majority	68

To overcome the Unionist coalition, therefore, it will be necessary for the Gladstonians to win 35 seats.

If the same proportion is kept up throughout the canvass the Liberals will gain less than enough to give Mr. Gladstone a majority.

If his majority is not exclusive of the Nationalist members he will be handicapped.

The united Nationalists in the last House numbered 86. They are likely to be less in the next.

In the face of the three days' polling, a majority for Mr. Gladstone, independent of the Nationalist members, is impossible.

It is early yet to predict the final result. Of the members returned many were unopposed. These seats were held by both parties to be unassailable.

Liberal Gains.

Newcastle-Under-Lyme: Mr. W. Allen (Liberal) defeated Mr. D. H. Coghill (Unionist) by a majority of 1268. In 1866, Unionist majority 144.

In Bristol, north division, Mr. C. Townsend (Liberal) defeated Mr. Lewis Fry (Unionist) by a majority of 345. In 1886, Unionist majority 850.

Whitehaven: Mr. Little (Liberal) defeated Sir J. Bain (Conservative) by a majority of 218. In the election in April, 1891, Conservative majority.

Great Yarmouth: Mr. J. M. Moorson (Liberal) defeated Sir Henry W. Tyler (Conservative) by a majority of 268. In 1886, Conservative majority.

Newington—Capt. C. Norton (Liberal) defeated Charles W. Radcliffe (Conservative). The Conservative majority last election was 387.

Glasgow—St. Rollox division, J. Carmichael (Liberal). The Unionist majority in 1886 was 119.

Devenport (2)—Hudson and Kearley (Liberals). The constituency returned two Conservative members in 1886 by over 1000 majority each.

Salford—North division, W. H. Holland (Liberal.) The Conservative majority in 1886 was 159.

Oldham (?) J. M. Cheetham and Right Hon. J. T. Hibbert, both Liberal, and both defeated in 1886 by about 800 majority.

Bermondsey—J. R. Rogers (Liberal). In 1886 the Conservative majority was 358.

Portsmouth—J. Payor, W. O. Clough (Lib.) At the last election a Unionist and a Conservative were elected.

Finsbury, Central Divisions—D. Navrop (Lib.) In 1886 the Conservative was elected by 5 majority.

Walworth—This was a gain for the Liberals, the old member, Lewis Henry Isaacs, being defeated.

Conservative Gains.

Perth—Mr. W. Whitelaw (Con.) defeated Mr. C. S. Parker (Lib.), 1171, and Mr. J. Wooten (Ind.) by a plurality of 227. In 1886 Liberal majority 453.

Wolverhampton, West Division—Sir A. Hickman (Con.) defeated Sir W. C. Plowden (Lib.) by a majority of 1116. In 1886 Liberal majority 123.

Stockton—Mr. T. Wrighteon (Con.) defeated Sir Horace Davey (Lib.) by a majority of 311. In bye-election in 1888 Liberal majority 396.

Scarborough—Sir G. Sitwell (Con.) defeated Mr. J. Rountre (Lib.) by a majority of 171. In 1886 Liberal majority 102.

Barrow-in-Furness—Mr. C. W. Crayzer (Con.) defeated Mr. J. A. Duncan (Lib.) by a majority of 422. In the bye-election in 1890 Liberal majority 132. In 1885 the Liberal majority was 346.

West St. Pancras Division of London—Mr. H. R. Graham (Con.) defeated Mr. H. L. W. Lawson (Lib.) by a majority of 42. In 1886 Liberal majority 64.

Glasgow, Camlachie Division—Alexander Cross (Unionist) is elected. The Liberal majority in 1886 was 159.

Belfast west: Thomas Sexton (Nationalist) was defeated by Arnold Foster (Unionist). Sexton was elected in 1886 by a vote of 3632 to 3729 obtained by J. H. Haslet (Conservative).

Wednesbury: Wilson Lloyd (Conservative). In 1886 Lloyd was defeated by Hon. Philip Stanhope (Liberal) by 662 majority.

Glasgow, Blackfriars and Hukberton: Henry Mitchell (Conservative). The Liberal majority in 1886 was 344.

Edinburgh—West division, Lord William Waldegrave Palmer Wolmer (Liberal Unionist), elected by 3728 to 3216 for Thomas Reiburn Buchanan (Liberal). This is a serious reverse for the Liberals, Mr. Buchanan having been returned without a contest in 1881. In 1886, Mr. Buchanan was a Liberal Unionist and was elected by 3089 to 2293 for Wallace (Liberal). Mr. Buchanan became a convert to Irish home rule in 1892 and offered himself for re-election. His constituents approved his conversion by re-electing him 3224 to 2248. The division now goes back to Liberal Unionism and the Liberals lose a valuable Scottish member.

Mr Henry Tyler Among the Defeated—

LONDON, July 7.—Major Edwards, formerly of the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont., Liberal and Socialist, was defeated in Dover by 1253 out of a total vote of 2306.

Thomas Sexton, the well-known Nationalist, is defeated in West Belfast.

Hon. Philip Stanhope is defeated in Wednesbury, England.

Sir Charles Russell is re-elected in South Hackney.

William O'Brien and Maurice Healy were both elected in Cork.

Mr Henry Tyler Hawled Out.

The defeat of Sir Henry Tyler, who sat as the Conservative representative of Yarmouth for a dozen years, has occasioned no little dismay in Tory circles. The constituency was on all sides regarded as safe for him. He was returned in 1886 by 2907 votes against 2011 secured by Capt. Cecil Norton (Liberal).

Sir Henry is president of the Grand Trunk Railway Co., and the news of his overthrow in this political struggle will be heard with regret in interested circles in Canada.

Stanley's Defeat.

There was almost as earnest cheering at the news of Stanley's defeat. They say he himself took the result in dumbfounded amazement. Some one had provided a magnificent bouquet to present to Mrs. Stanley when her husband's triumph should be announced, but somehow it never reached her. Stanley himself sat staring blankly when the figures were read out and the successful candidate, according to form, rose and made a little speech, moving a vote of thanks to the returning officers Stanley's agent had to nudge him and explain that it was his function to second this motion. At first he refused, but finally was induced to get up, but only to call out curtly, and move to second the motion.

The events of Tuesday among the provincial boroughs are full of surprise to both sides. Nobody pretends, for instance, to understand why Yarmouth, always heavily Tory, should have flopped so decisively the other way. Equally unaccountable is Barrow's desertion of Liberalism.

In Sir Charles Dilke's old seat, Chelsea division of London, C. A. Whitmore increased the Conservative majority from 160 to 506.

The majority against Richard Chamberlain in West Islington was 730.

W. Burdett Coults (Conservative) is elected in the Westminster division of London.

John Burns, the labor candidate, author of "Damn Your Sympathy, Give us Your Vote," was elected in Battersea.

The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, Government leader, is re-elected from Manchester.

Joseph Chamberlain, the Liberal Unionist leader, is elected in West Birmingham.

Sir George Otto Trevelyean (Liberal) is re-elected in Bridgeton division of Glasgow.

J. H. Wilson (Labor) is elected in Middlesborough, an old Liberal seat.

Another Grist of Candidates Returned Without Opposition.

LONDON, July 7.—The following members were returned unopposed yesterday:

Yorkshire—West riding, North Keighley division, Isaac Holden (Liberal), re-elected.

Glamorgonshire—Rhounda, W. Abram (labor), re-elected.

Hampshire—Andover, W. W. B. Black (Conservative).

Cork—Middle division, Dr. Charles Tanner, anti-Parnellite, re-elected.

Yorkshire—West riding, South Hallamshire division, Sir F. T. Mappin (Liberal), re-elected.

Armagh—North division, Col. Edward J. Sanderson, the noted Irish Conservative, re-elected.

Clare—East division, Capt. Donnellan (Nationalist).

Antrim—South division, W. G. Ellison Macartney (Conservative), re-elected.

Shropshire—Oswestry, Stanley Leighton (Conservative), re-elected.

Waterford, Ireland—West division, Alfred West (anti-Parnellite), re-elected.

Mr. Blake's Opening Address.

LONDONDERRY, July 7.—In his opening address to a crowded meeting of Justin McCarthy's supporters yesterday, Mr. Blake said he had returned to the country of his origin, though not of his birth, to pay a debt which every son of Ireland owed to the old land. He had been asked by their respected leader to come and help them in the struggle for justice and freedom.

He did not aspire to the leadership of the Irish party; he desired to serve in the ranks.

He denied that Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule scheme meant the separation and disintegration of the empire. On the contrary it would voluntarily bind the people of the three kingdoms together.

He does not approve of the absence of Irish representatives in the Imperial Parliament. He looked forward to the federalization of the United Kingdom with subordinate parliaments in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland.

In Canada they believed that the granting of Home Rule to Ireland would direct emigration to Canada rather than to the United States The Irish people would then not object to the protection of the British flag. The old feeling of bitterness in the hearts of Irishmen would be assuaged.

His experience with Home Rule in Canada had convinced him of the value of the establishment of an Irish Parliament under certain conditions and reservations, at the same time with all necessary power. For example, the Government would be of incalculable benefit to the country and of great advantage to the Empire. There could be no religious persecution in Ireland as a result of the establishment of Home Rule, because the bill granting Home Rule would expressly prohibit interference with the religion of any man and what might be regarded as undue prominence and power of the priests in politics would be counteracted by giving the people the responsibility of selecting the Government.

He believed in his soul that the Catholics of Ireland would deal with the minority fairly, either in regard to religion or education, while trade affairs would still be under the direct control of the Imperial Parliament. He believed that under Home Rule the Protestants would be the spoiled children of Ireland.

Nearly All on Board Lost.

YARMOUTH, N.S., July 7.—It was at first believed that 13 of the crew of the wrecked steamer Peter Stuart, which went ashore off Chebogue Point yesterday, had been saved, but inquiry among the houses along the shore shows that only four succeeded in reaching the shore. They include the captain and first mate. Only two bodies have so far been recovered.

RIOT WITH BLOODSHED

Between Pinkerten Men and Workmen

IN A PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

Twenty Dead and Over Fifty Wounded.

An Awful Story of Carnage—Workmen Resist an Attempt of the Detectives to Land and a Fight Ensues in Which Cannon and Winchesters Are Used With Deadly Effect.

PITTSBURG, July 7.—Pittsburg has had another experience with labor riots, and this time, as during the fearful scenes which were witnessed during the railroad riots of 1877, blood has been shed, life jeopardized and valuable property placed in danger. This time there was no destruction of property but the mob was thoroughly well organized, well disciplined and had efficient officers at the head to conduct the operations. The forces embraced all the men employed in the extensive plants of the Carnegie Iron and Steel Co. at Homestead, some eight miles east of Pittsburg, and a battle which for bloodthirstiness and boldness of execution has not been excelled in actual warfare, waged from 4 o'clock in the morning till 5 o'clock this afternoon, and only ceased when the force of Pinkertons brought to the place to suppress the strike unconditionally surrendered, leaving their arms in the barges in which they had been transported to the works.

The riot yesterday was the culmination of the troubles which have been brewing at Homestead for the past month.

Strikers Offered to Protect the Works.

Yesterday the Carnegie Company announced their intention to proceed to get ready to make repairs and the officials asked the sheriff to appoint deputies to protect their property. The sheriff sent a small squad of men up to the works, but the strikers assembled in force and notified them to get out of town, as no disorder was intended and no damage would be done to any property. They even offered to be sworn in as deputies and to give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties as conservators of the peace. When this offer was declined the Advisory Committee, which had been directing the action of the workmen and which had held the turbulent spirits among the workmen in check, was immediately dissolved and all the records of the committee were promptly destroyed.

The developments yesterday showed that the applications made for assistance of the sheriff was merely for the purpose of covering what was intended to be a coup de main on the part of the Carnegie Co. in clandestinely introducing a body of Pinkerton detectives into the mill enclosure. The detectives had been rendezvoused some five or six miles below the city on the Ohio River, at which point two model barges had been prepared for them. The barges were of the best build and were used in shipping iron rails down the river from the Carnegie mills at Braddock. The holds were filled up with bunks, cooking arrangements and other accommodations, and as an extra precaution as if in preparation for the siege to which they were subjected to-day were lined with heavy steel plates on the inside, while the whole back deck was protected in a similar manner.

The Strikers Well Prepared.

It was the intention that the men should reach the works about 3 o'clock this morning, but the guards who were on duty along the river got word of the threatened invasion of the Pinkerton men and prepared to receive them. The barges were towed up the river by a tow boat, but long before the Pinkerton men reached Homestead thousands of strikers had gathered on the banks of the river ready to give them a warm welcome. When the boats attempted to land the workmen broke through the fence surrounding the mill and entrenching themselves behind piles of steel billets prepared to resist the landing of the detectives. By 4 o'clock in the morning an effort was made to land the detectives, but the strikers met them and a fierce battle was precipitated, both sides exchanging a heavy volley of shots.

The detectives were all armed with Winchester rifles, but at the point where the attempt to land was made there was a steep embankment and they were compelled to go in single file, and were soon driven back to the boats by the steady fire from the shore.

The noise of the battle spread about the borough like wildfire, and thousands of men, women and children thronged the river bank to witness the fight in progress.

A Fight to the Death.

The Pinkerton men were determined to land, and they poured volley after volley into the ranks of the strikers, many of whom were stricken down by bullets, some of them being fatally injured and others killed outright.

As the battle progressed the strikers took up a position behind breastworks hastily constructed of steel rails and billets, and from this place of safe refuge were able to pick off the detectives as soon as they appeared on the deck of the boats.

One of the Bloodiest Battles on Record.

HOMESTEAD, Pa. July 7.—At an early hour yesterday morning 300 Pinkerton detectives arrived in Pittsburg from the east. They were rapidly marched to the Monongahela River where they were loaded on barges and shipped to Homestead at 2.15 a.m. The news of their arrival spread rapidly, and when the steam tug Tide, towing the barges, arrived at Homestead, there were 5000 waiting to meet it.

As soon as the Pinkertons attempted to land they were met by a firm resistance from the men, and a battle followed. Both elements claim that the other fired first. Be that as it may the Pinkertons fired and at the first volley two workmen fell. This enraged the crowd and they bore down upon the Pinkertons with resistless force. Nobody stopped to enquire whether the new comers were deputy sheriffs, Pinkerton detectives or non-union laborers. After the exchange of shots, the crowd grouped on the bank fell back and climbed over the heap of rubbish and rushed towards the big trestle leading to the Pemicky Railroad bridge. Probably 3000 men stood their ground and returned a desultory fire with their revolvers at the invaders. Their shots did little or no damage, and the band

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Wednesday last as several men were engaged in shingling a barn belonging to Mr. William Comrie, the scaffold gave way and Alex. a son of Mr. Comrie, was precipitated to the ground a fall of about fifteen feet. He luckily escaped without receiving any serious injury. We are glad to learn that he is able to attend to his duties. Great precaution should be used in erecting scaffolds to have them perfectly secure.

Several farmers in this neighborhood have commenced to cut their hay which is a good crop, but owing to the wet weather they find it rather difficult to cure it.

The Keene boys and a team of the Hiawatha lads purpose to play a game of baseball some day during this week in the Keene school ground.

Stallion Trot at the Fair.

Mr. W. Clancy, proprietor of the City hotel and owner of the far famed trotting stallion "Mambrino Mitchell," has made a generous offer to the Peterborough Central Exhibition directors for the purpose of arranging a stallion trot at the fall fair. He will give $50 towards a purse on condition that it be open only to stallions that have stood for service this year in the county of Peterborough and that the owner of each stallion entered also put up $50, not less than four to enter; the first deposit of $25 to be deposited with the treasurer of the Society not later than August 1st and the second $25 not later than Sept. 1st, and the race to be a sweepstake. It is probable that the offer will be accepted by owners of trotting stallions and that the race will come off at the fall fair.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

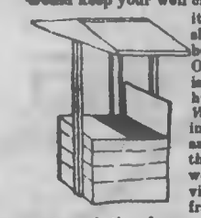
A filthy well is an abomination and if you would keep your well clean you must keep it covered. Here is a sketch of a cheap, but effective covering: Observe that the lid is in two pieces, one hinged to either side. When the bucket is in use these are lifted and buttoned against the post. Several wells in our pretty village are neatly framed in above the curb and the frame covered with wire cloth. This is more expensive, but decidedly ornamental, especially if white houses and green blinds prevail as here. Lattice-work with apertures 1½in. square looks well and is better than no protection, but is not as desirable as the close covers described.—Farm and Home.



A SOCIETY LEADER ON FARMING.

The Chief of New York's 400 Agrees with Washington and Tells Why.

The Father of our Country has said that agriculture is the noblest occupation of man, and Sterne tells us in his "Sentimental Journey" that he who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before is a public benefactors. Among the ancients we find that Cicero preferred his farm at Tusculum to the charms of Rome, and Horace, man of the world that he was, sought his Sabine farm with delight.

With these examples before me I naturally took to farming, and in 1853 bought forty-six acres of land on Newport Island, a promontory extending far enough into Narragansett Bay to give you a glimpse of the ocean. I then, like Cincinnatus, ploughed my own land, sowed my corn, raked and gathered in my hay. The farm was a bare lot, without even a shrub; it had on it a few tumble-down fences, but utterly unproductive. For a year or two I had to buy all my fodder. The work on the place I supervised myself and was absorbed in it. The destruction of a cauliflower by a grub-worm in my farm garden would cast a temporary shadow over my life. The bursting into leaf of a shrub, evidencing its having taken root, elated me. The place was so exposed that neither shrubs nor trees would live and thrive without protection. I found it as difficult to grow trees as to bring up a delicate child, so I at once grouped all my shrubbery for protection and built high fences around each group, giving them a shield from the winds until, the one supporting the other, they could stand unprotected.

Two groups of trees alone cost me $6,000, counting their protection and the expense of preparing the land. I spent a small fortune on buildings, drainage, etc., and then had to disburse annually $3,500, if not more, to pay the running expenses of the farm. The only return was a few eggs and chickens, but it gave me daily occupation for six months in the year, a place to drive to, dine and picnic at, with good fishing for myself and friends. The question of expense began to annoy me, as it was all outlay and no substantial return. So I got a good young man and put the place in his hands to be worked on shares, supplying him with everything.

I then went in for profitable farming, turned my place into a dairy farm and took to sheep raising, my farmer readily finding a market in Newport for his milk and cream. Four hundred chickens, 125 turkeys and forty spring lambs soon created a bank account, and to my surprise the annual sales of produce on this forty-six acres amounted to from $2,500 to $3,200. For ten consecutive years my net profit, after paying all expenses, was fully $700 a year. I myself was one of the farmer's best customers, paying the highest market price for all he furnished me, taking from him milk and cream all the year in both New York and Newport. I must here say that this was the net profit after all improvements, repairs and purchases of new stock had been paid for. I put in my barn forty tons of hay, and had outside of it two stacks of four to six tons each. I also hired a pasture lot of fourteen acres for my cows.

This much for close attention and system in farming, and for having at hand the first and most important requisite—a market for everything you produce, getting the highest market price. This was 50 cents a quart for cream, 7 cents for milk, $12 each for spring lambs, $7 for those sold during the summer, all of them being Southdowns; 30 cents a pound for fall turkeys, and $2.50 each for chicken turkeys sold in August and September. No hay or straw was sold and the corn was fed to the poultry. Three good horses, a farmer and his boy did all the work.

The mowing-machine of these modern days, though it may have deprived hay-making of the picturesqueness which the poet so loves to describe, so modifies the farmer's anxiety as to rain destroying his crop that, with the use of a fair amount of judgment, he feels certain of gathering it in fine condition. A Governor of Massachusetts, at one of his large dinners, turning to a famous farmer sitting next him, asked what he should stock his farm with. The reply was, "Banknotes." This may have been good advice, particularly if he had to expend large sums of money for fertilizers. Fortunately I had three-quarters of a mile of shore, and collected vast quantities of seaweed and rockweed, with which I covered my meadows. Then, Newport being but three miles off as the crow flies, we carted out cord after cord of stable manure from the stables of the great millionaires, whose grooms indulge their horses to such an extent that we get load after load of the best and most expensive straw, which really only enters one door of their stables to go out at another, into my farm cart. It must be remembered that a small farm is proportionately more profitable than a large one; a small flock of sheep is also more easily handled than a large stock, for one can more readily shut up and secure them in a sheep-house each night. On Newport Island it is important to protect your sheep from dogs. True, the towns of Newport, Middletown and Portsmouth will pay you for all the sheep that stray dogs kill, sending an officer to examine each animal killed by a dog and pay for it. But valuable Southdowns are worth a fancy price, such as no town will award you.

My profit in farming is in my early lambs, selling them at $12 each during March and April to a fashionable butcher; also in sale of young chicken turkeys at $2.50 each (avoiding the expense of fattening them), and in the sale of poultry, milk and cream, pigs and squabs.

As to the revenue of the farm, all I can say is that my farmers for ten consecutive years have received cash from sales of farm product as follows:

In 1881	$3,716.78	In 1889	$3,169.24
In 1883	3,315.32	In 1884	3,140.41
In 1885	2,367.98	In 1886	2,374.06
In 1887	3,475.66	In 1888	3,478.42
In 1885	2,776.66	In 1890	3,696.02

One half of this yearly income I receive. The farmer receives the other half, first deducting the running expenses of the place. I was curious to know the result of the eight years' work of the man who took the farm in 1881 and left it in 1888. He told me that when he came to me he was literally worth nothing. He had during those eight years been able to marry, support a wife and three children and closed with $2,-800 in bank and three good horses, all made by his thrift and economy on my place. Such a man would take a place for $50 a month, his house, milk and garden. Instead of this I gave him the farm on shares, he furnished all the labor, I the horses, stock, farming utensils and what fertilizers he needed, a house to live in and a farm garden. For spring and summer work he hired Italian labor at a very low figure, getting it from Castle Garden and paying, say, $12 or $15 a month with board for an able bodied man. For sceptics on profitable farming I here give my farm account for month of August last, to show how the money is made. August is generally the best month of the twelve; i.e., it is the month in which you make the largest sales.

Cash from sales of milk and cream, month of August	$231.16
Cash from sales of five lambs at $7 each, in month of August	35.00
Cash from sale of chickens and eggs in month of August	69.55
Cash from sale of vegetables in month of August	9.60
Total cash sales in August	$335.31

When you look at these figures, and see what I have done without any special effort, it becomes a matter of surprise that so many fine New England farms should be abandoned, and others only held for want of purchasers. To my mind the solution is the loneliness of farm life. The young and enterprising men prefer to crowd into the larger cities; but it must be borne in mind that there is no such solitude on a Newport farm, for the whole is so thickly settled, and as all these farms are dairy farms, furnishing Newport with milk and cream, it necessitates a daily trip to town. One day it is the farmer, the next a member of his family, and so on, driving to Newport in a farm waggon, laden with milk, eggs and chickens. The monotony of their lives is thus broken, and in this way they all get a glimpse of fashionable life. You will find that all these farming people, young and old, are quite conversant with the daily habits, manners and dress of our fashionable throng. The Yankee farmer is a genius in his way. By his intelligence he accomplishes his work with a minimum of physical labor; he is in fact a human labor-saving machine. Their houses they keep (to use a Down-East phrase) "pizen nice," and cling to the old habits and customs of their forefathers. They are a proud race, and on this island they can in most cases trace their families to colonial days.

The love of farming seems to be natural to great men, for we read that the Emperor Diocletian, when urged to resume his power as Emperor (which he had abdicated), declined, preferring his farm in Dalmatia. Charlemagne, we are told, sold his asparagus, though the records of this are meagre. Many crowned heads have their farms as one of the interests of their lives. When I wintered in Florence I daily ate the butter sold from the farm of the Grand Duke of Tuscany. Marie Antoinette took much pleasure in her dairy. Our great Webster's heart lay in Marshfield. A farmer's close contact with nature gives him poetical ideas. Longfellow certainly had the heart of a farmer when he described the planting of Indian corn in these beautiful lines:

Make a bed for me to lie in
Where the rain may fall upon me,
Where the sun may come and warm me.
Day by day did Hiawatha
Go to wait and watch beside it,
Kept the dark mould soft above it,
Kept it clean from weeds and insects;
Till at length the small green feather
From the earth shot slowly upward,
And before the summer ended
Stood the maize in all its beauty.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. The Kingston Whig says: "Mr. Pakenham, secretary of the Peterborough lacrosse team, accompanied the 57th Rangers to Kingston as drum-major. He was seen with reference to arranging a match between Kingston and Peterborough, but was unable to give the club here any satisfaction whatever. The manager of the local club believes that Mr. Pakenham would have endeavored to arrange a match had the local team been defeated by the Canadians, but that he now foresees a hopeless case." Well, it happened to be the other way. Peterborough, after witnessing the poor playing of Kingston in the Young Canada, match, foresaw a glorious opportunity to give the Limestone City's team a sound drubbing, and it will be done in grand style at Belleville on Thursday July 14th.

Arrangements have been definitely completed for a game on that day in the Bay City, each team to pay their own expenses and to receive half the gate receipts. The trophy which will be played for is a silver cup put up by Mr. C. L. Bass, jeweller, of Kingston, to be donated to the winning team.

On the previous day, Wednesday, June 13th, the Peterboroughs will play the return match with the "Quintet" of Belleville, by their special request. The home team will remain in Belleville two days.

Removals on George Street.

Some removals of George street business men will take place next week. Mr. George Rutledge, who has been a successful tobacconist for years in Stevenson's block, corner of George and Hunter streets, will move on Monday next to the stand lately occupied by G. W. Wyatt, jeweler, and next door to Peter Conmal & Co. The premises have been splendidly fixed up for him. The store formerly occupied by Mr. John Best has also undergone great alterations and repairs, and will be occupied by Messrs. Mecklenburg Vineberg, ready-made clothing dealers, who will move from their present stand in the Bradburn block.

Not Yet Recovered.

The body of John McComb drowned yesterday morning, has not been recovered yet. A dozen men have been at work ever since the accident searching the river below Martin's dam for the remains, but as yet their efforts have been unsuccessful. Grappling hooks and pike poles have been used in the efforts to find the dead. Mr. James English was at work this morning discharging dynamite to locate the remains if possible. It may be that the body, caught by the swift current, has been carried down the river to the locks, or perhaps below. It is the opinion of some, however, that it is beneath the dam. The water at this point is very swift, and there is also a dangerous eddy near by.

St. Andrew's Sunday-School Outing.

The annual excursion of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church took place yesterday afternoon to Chemong Park, and was attended by about two hundred and fifty people. The steamer Maple Leaf with scow attached carried the excursionists to the park. A large number drove out to the grounds in the afternoon. The day was pleasantly spent in canoeing, swinging, fishing and other pleasing diversions. The happy excursionists returned at an early hour well pleased with the day's festivities. During the afternoon two young gentlemen in a canoe upset in front of the park. One swam to shore while the other clung to the craft. They escaped with a sound drenching.

Peterborough, Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie Road.

Last evening Messrs. R. Mulholland, Wm. Manson, and J. H. Burnham, secretary of the Board of Trade, called upon Mr. Ramsay, C.E., engineer of the proposed Peterborough, Sudbury & Sault Ste. Marie railway, with reference to the rumor that the road would possibly not touch Young's Point. During the interview it was shown that if the proposed line did not touch the Point it would seriously affect Peterborough's interests. Mr. Ramsay said he would place their views before the company; as yet he had not received definite instructions. He was looking over the road as far as Lakefield.

Larceny of a Pig.

On Sunday last as two tramps were proceeding along the G. T. R. track; when near McDonel street they heard a pig belonging to Mr. Fred Poulette squealing lustily in its sty. A happy idea struck them to relieve the swine both of its squeal and its owner. Accordingly they purloined the swine and followed the usual course in such cases—making off with the prey. Their actions were noticed by two boys of the neighbourhood, and they shouted "Bring back that pig." With this the itinerant gentry started to run, with the boys in hot pursuit. One tramp said to his brother of the profession, "Bedad, won't this make a fine roast, mate?" They, however, did not enjoy the luxury of the spoil, for finding their followers closing on them, the pig was dropped and the miscreants made off. The pig is now the talk of the western portion of the town.

George Street Improvements.

Great interior improvements have been going on for the past few weeks in the store of Mr. C. B. Rentley. Half a dozen workmen are engaged in extending the premises to the rear. A floor space 45 feet long and 22 feet broad has been added, increasing the room and accommodation of the premises greatly. The new addition has been finely plastered in plaster paris and finished in oak wood. Two large windows will allow a flood of light to enter from the rear making the extensive premises one of the brightest business houses on George street. A fine sky light has also been placed in the new addition. Shelving will be placed in the whole length of the store and the present stock moved to the rear, allowing triple room to place in a large stock of fine crockery and other fancy goods, which Mr. Rentley will deal extensively in.

A Sharp Business Scheme.

A number of citizens are complaining of the business methods of an agent of a portrait company. A deluded patron of this gentleman says that his way is to visit a house with samples of "a fine crayon portrait free"—on payment of 50 cents. The pictures seem cheap enough at that price. If a picture is taken 50 cents is paid and the agent as he is leaving, and not before, presents a ticket entitling the holder to a picture on condition of "purchasing frame for portrait from our store." Upon presentation of the ticket the holder is told that it will not be honoured unless the frame is purchased also, and the lowest price for ordinary frames is said to be $3 75, more than twice as much as any reputable establishment in town will charge for similar goods. If citizens of the town were loyal to the local business men and patronized those who pay taxes in the town and have an interest in it, and are always on hand to redress any grievance that may arise, they would get better value and satisfaction, than by listening to the slick plausibility of agents who are here today and gone to-morrow, and who, as a rule, don't care how much the public may lose so long as they make money. In nine cases out of ten legitimate local business houses will give far better value than peripatetic peddlers.

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

The Local Inspectorship.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I am interested in school matters, interested in school matters affecting the town, interested personally, interested officially. On account of my official position I have hitherto been prevented from speaking with that freedom which is the right of an ordinary citizen. If I did happen to say anything with regard to the schools of the town, it was attributed to dishonourable personal motives. In future, however, I intend to let my opinions be freely known, impugn my motives whose list.

At the meeting of the Board of Education, on Tuesday last, Inspector Talley is represented as saying:—"When I took hold of the Inspectorship, four years ago, I did not seek the position, as all know."

With regard to this I would like to ask:—

Who sought him?

Who introduced him to the board?

Did he interview any members of the Board previous to his appointment? If so what members?

Did he call upon his brother inspector, living in the town and consult with him regarding the matter, or did he sneak in without doing so? If the latter, why?

Did he, in order to obtain the position, enter into compact with another on the principle of:—"You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours"?

Did he in consequence of said compact report strongly in favour of a teacher and adversely with regard to other teachers, with a view to the former's advantage?

I pause for a reply.

J COYLE BROWN.

Resolution of Condolence.

At a meeting of the parishioners of St. Mary's church, Campbellford, held after mass last Sunday, the following resolution of condolence was passed:

"Moved by Thos. Callaghan, seconded by Thos. Bate, that the parishioners of St. Mary's church Campbellford, hereby express our heartfelt sorrow for the sad affliction sustained by our pastor, Rev. Father Casey, and bereaved family, by the death of his father, the late Richard Casey, Esquire, of Smith's Falls, and hereby extend to them our sincere sympathy and trust God will give them strength to bear their loss with resignation and submission to His holy will and humbly pray that He in His mercy will grant eternal rest to the soul of the departed, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Rev Father Casey.

Wedding Bells

The Nuptials of Mr. A. E. Benton and Miss Fanny Trollope.

A pleasant event took place yesterday afternoon at the George street Methodist church parsonage, when the pastor Rev. J. H. Locke united in marriage Mr. A. E. Benton, of the EXAMINER composing room, to Miss Fanny, second daughter of Mr. Henry Trollope, 350 Water street. The bride was supported by Miss Ella Dredge, while Mr. T. E. Benton, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony had been concluded the happy couple adjourned to the residence of the bride's father where, with a few immediate relatives, they partook of a choice wedding breakfast. The presents were numerous attesting to the popularity they enjoyed in their circle of friends. Among the presents may be mentioned the presentation made Mr. Benton by the EXAMINER office employees on Tuesday afternoon of two handsome sixteenth century easy chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Benton will reside on Weller street where their friends will wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Ask to see the Jackson Corset. Armstrong & Co., George Street.

"Its Real Mean."

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I wish for a few lines in your paper to point out a matter, which deserves attention. I am in favour of physical exercise for both gentlemen and ladies, but I do think that bicycling is one of the most selfish and meanest pastimes in the world. We see young men going out alone, roaming about like stray sheep, with not a civil word for a young lady all through the week. I think it's real mean of them. Society is founded upon the friendly relations of the sexes and what is to become of society if the bicycle is to take up the whole of the young men's attention? They have "spins" as they call them, when a lot of young men go out on their wheels to some out of the way village and I know they are doing nothing good there, for when they come back they can be heard telling about "whiskey sours," and John Collins and such things. I don't know who John Collins is, but I know he is some low fellow for I always hear him spoken of in connection with drinking places. I thing the young men should be ashamed of themselves.

Yours very sincerely,
GWENDOLYN,

Clematis Cottage, Wednesday.

P.S.—I forgot to say that the price of a bicycle is the price of a horse and buggy, which, would enable a young man to give pleasant drives to his mother or his sister or—somebody else; but they must stick to their nasty bicycles, which will only carry one—I was going to say—man, but every time I see a young fellow out alone on his wheel, I have to think of a trained pig. O, I could shake them! They don't remember coming to our houses last winter and passing pleasant evenings and being stuffed—the pigs—with coffee and cake. Now, next winter we shall see if John Collins will eat cake for the boys.

Yours etc.,
G.

P.S. No 2.—O, Mr. Editor! don't for the world print my real name, I should die of shame if anybody knew I wrote to the papers. They needn't think I care; I don't care one bit—for myself—I have a young man of my own and he is so light headed, the darling goose! that he couldn't say more balance himself on a bicycle than he could fly, and he doesn't know John Collins either, for I asked him and he says he never goes in such places. He knows what is due to our sex and I hope to devote a life time to repaying him.

Yours etc,
C.

The Departed Remembered.

Resolution of Condolence Passed by the West Peterborough Farmers' Institute in Reference to the Death of the Late Gen. Hilliard, Ex-M.P.

At a meeting of the West Peterborough Farmers' Institute held on Saturday afternoon last the following resolution of condolence to Mrs. Hilliard was passed by the institute, sympathizing in the recent affliction which had befallen her and the family. A copy of the following resolution was ordered to be forwarded to Mrs. Hilliard:—

To Mrs Hilliard,

DEAR MADAM,—The members of the Farmers' Institute of West Peterborough, in annual meeting assembled, desire to convey to you and your family their deep sympathy in the loss you have sustained in the death of your husband, George Hilliard, Esq.

We have known Mr. Hilliard for many years and only those who knew him could appreciate the loss his family sustains in the death of a man of so many excellent qualities of heart and head, one whose generous impulses were deep and yet easily moved, whose unselfishness was marked, and whose strong intellect was devoted to the services of others as much as to himself.

We feel keenly his loss, for although so largely engaged in other enterprises he was a leader in agriculture and gave much of his time to the study of agricultural problems. In our institute work he took a deep interest, and was a regular attendant at our meetings, where his advice was always timely and seasoned with strong good sense. Therefore, while in common with the whole community, we mourn the death of a good man and a public spirited and used citizen, as agriculturists we feel an especial void because we have to mourn one who was also one of us and a leader.

We again desire to tender you and your family our deepest sympathy.

ADIEU TO THE OLD MAID.

Changing Times Demand a Welcome to the Girl Bachelor Instead.

In the tumultuous revolution of the woman's cycle one old and time-honored institution, an important element in the economy of comfort, is being whirled into the vortex of desuetude. The old maid of romance and tradition has become the girl bachelor. The patient, uncomplaining, despised, and disconsolate old maid is a rare phenomenon. Perhaps she has been transplanted without dying, like the prophet, to her well-deserved reward, and if she has, every musty old martyr and worm-eaten saint will take off his halo and hustle into a back seat when her record of self-sacrifice and long suffering is published upon celestial bulletins.

The old maid of the past had prim, queer little "ways" of her own, narrow, conventional theories, precise methods, a humble, shy consciousness of infirmity magnified by the half scornful, half pitying patronage of her married sisters.

The girl bachelor is defiantly unconventional according to old standards, piquantly aggressive, serenely self-satisfied and self-sufficient, and if she has not a broader horizon, a more expansive view, a firmer grasp and surer hold, fuller experiences, grander possibilities, and greater freedom in the pursuit of happiness than married women know, she is mistaken.

The old maid wore turned gowns and did the family washing to help the boys through college; the girl bachelor takes university honors and joins a baseball nine herself.

In the old days the unappropriated blessing was summoned to the bedside of the sick and suffering, to assist at the ceremonies of nativity and dissolution, to vigils with other people's teething babies and colicky children, and, came the call from friend or stranger, she bundled up her slippers and clean apron and arrived on schedule time.

The girl bachelor has lost nothing of the divine gift of healing in the transition, but she practices it at regular physicians' rates; and the woman's knack of nursing, developed by training, she exercises for the equivalent of a thousand a year with her board and a trip to Europe and the Bermudas thrown in.

In the soul of the tiniest baby born into a flannelly, pin-pricking world, there slumbers a spark of divine individuality, the germ of the mystic ego. And in the ego feminine one of the strongest elements is a home-creating, home-governing force and instinct which life in another's home will not satisfy, and which restrained or turned of necessity into false channels, not infrequently makes the presence of a spinster in a household a blessing not altogether desirable. Under this old regime the maid without a husband meekly accepted the back bedroom in her married sisters' establishment, or stayed at home to devote her life to gratifying the whims of the old people's declining years. The girl bachelor rearranging old data and establishing more logical premises has discovered that women herself in the home center, and that the home idea does not involve a division of bureau drawers and closet room with a husband, and is not dependent upon a man to growl about the bills and the beefsteak, to smoke up the curtains, and bring company down to dinner.

Self-supporting woman, weary of cheerless hall bedrooms, with a baby on one side, a sewing machine on the other, and a cornet overhead; of boarding house lunches, warmed over mystery and nothingness fried in bad butter; of boarding house odors which Balzac likens to the corrosions of life; have embraced the home idea, and gone into sparrow housekeeping under the eaves of apartment houses and flats; and not only these, but young women of means and place, feeling their faculties cramped by conformity to other people's conditions and their possibilities paralyzed by other people's restrictions, have set up establishments of their own, surrounded themselves with bric-a-brac and pictures, rugs and hangings of their own selections, and experienced an exhilaration and interest in life, a freedom and definiteness of individuality unknown before.

But, if all this continues, who will marry the widowers with small children? Who will look after the Sunday schools, foreign missions, and insolvent ministers? Who will bring up the orphan children and take care of the invalid mothers? Who will teach the primary schools and sit up with the sick babies? How will the earth revolve on its axis if the old established way when the last old maid shall have gone over to the girl bachelor majority?—New York Sun.

People who give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial realize its great merit and are glad to say a good word for it. Have you tried it?

MALARIAL FEVER AND CHILLS are best broken up and prevented by using Milburn's Armenian Quinine Wine. dw

WILL be found an excellent remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them. dw

Fashion Brief.

The French bicycling costume consists of a tunic and knickerbockers made exactly like those worn by men, except that the tunic feminine is a little longer than that worn by men. The most approved costume for the maid awheel in this country has a full divided skirt, supported from the shoulders by suspenders, a light silk blouse held in place by a rubber band, a Windsor tie at the neck, a jacket like the skirt, beneath all a "union suit" of wool.

A housekeeper who prides herself on the immaculate fittings of her dining table will find these pretty doilies easy to make and a very dainty addition to her table fixings.

Get half a yard of white linen jean which costs 98c. a yard and is 24 inches wide. You have a wide selection before you as to the shape of your doilies, for there is everything that grows to choose from. The rounded geranium leaf or lily pad, the deeply dented maple or oak leaf, pansy or clover leaf, anything, in fact, which is not too much cut up. Take the clover leaf for instance; after you have cut it out work it in two shades of clover green. The deep edge shading is done first in long and short stitch in very light green. Then buttonhole around the edge with a heavier tint over a silver or gold or green cord. For the shading use threads of filo-floss and for the buttonhole edge, twisted embroidery silk. When the leaf is finished press it on the wrong side with a thin cloth between the work and the iron. Cut away any fringe of linen from the edge and interstices with a pair of small sharp-pointed scissors. Any of these doilies may also be used for a pin cushion, put on over a puffy slip of soft china silk of any shade that will harmonize with the top.

The Great Female Medicine.

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Cures Others

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."—H. L. Jarmann, 33 William st., New York City.

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South—Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BRIALS, Jr., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

THE SENATE THIS DAY.

The Senate had three sittings to-day and got through the second reading of the Redistributive bill after a long discussion and the voting down by 35 to 7 of Senator Boulton's amendment that the bill be referred to the Supreme Court for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

The criminal code will be taken up in the Senate to-morrow and a determined effort made to get it through so that prorogation may take place this week or Monday or Tuesday of next week. Should this be found impossible it is understood that a short bill will be introduced and passed authorizing the continuation of a consideration of the bill next year at the point it was left this year, so that the work done may not be lost. It is, therefore, pretty certain that prorogation, if it does not take place Friday night, will not be delayed beyond Tuesday.

The Washington Visit.

He said that they had prepared a minute of council which they had forwarded to the United States Government re canal tolls, and which would be laid on the table. It is substantially the same as the statements which have been sent from Washington and which have been published.

Beet Root Sugar.

Hon. Mr. Foster to-night gives notice that on Thursday night he will move the following resolution in committee of the whole:

That it is expedient to provide that the Governor-in-Council may authorize the payment out of the consolidated revenue fund of Canada, under such regulations and restrictions as are made by order in-council to the producers of any raw beet root sugar produced in Canada, wholly from beets grown therein between the first day of July, 1895, and June 30, 1895, of a bounty of $1 per 100 pounds, and in addition thereto to 83/4 cents per 100 pounds for each degree, or fraction of a degree over 70 degrees shown by the polariscope test.

A Buffalo Murder.

BUFFALO, July 6.—Frederick Logren of Hamilton, Ont., who travels around the country giving exhibitions of breaking stones with his fist, engaged in a fight in Paddy Moran's saloon, Canal-street, with Charles Severtson, a Chicago sailor. The dispute arose over a woman who passes as Logren's wife. The party were having a good time when Severtson said something that offended Mrs. Logren, who works in the dive. She slapped the fellow's face and he pushed her from him and she fell down.

Somebody in the room saw the scrap and ran down stairs and told Logren. He flew upstairs and attacked Severtson with his terrible fists. Blow after blow was landed on Severtson's head and face, and he at last dropped to the floor a corpse. Logren was arrested.

A Dead Horse Wins a Race.

WINNIPEG, July 6.—At Prairie Grove race meeting yesterday a valuable running horse dropped dead while contesting a race. The judges awarded the owner the first money as his horse would undoubtedly have won, the other owners not protesting the decision.

A Common Sense Whiffletree.

I recently came across a farmer whose horses were fastened to the wagon by an odd looking whiffletree. The sketch will give you an idea of the way it is made.

A and B are chains about 1 ft. long. C is a chain 2 ft. long passing around the pulley at the center of the stick. The iron which holds the pulley passes around the stick and has a swivel-hook, H, which answers for a clevis. The farmer said that his whiffletree was the best thing he had on his farm. It was light, strong and not at all clumsy, like the old-fashioned kind.—Charles Lewis.

Killed in Toronto.

TORONTO, June 6.—Martha Blake, aged 11 years, while picking up coal under a cart near the Pape-avenue railway crossing yesterday morning, was knocked down and the wheel passed over her head, killing her instantly.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayers Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

The well known strengthening properties of Iron, combined with other tonics and a most perfect nervine, are found in Carter's Iron Pills, which strengthen the nerves and body, and improve the blood and complexion. dw

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece is frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.

Anarchists Sentenced.

ROME, July 6.—The Court of Appeals sentenced the Anarchists who had been accused of participation in the May Day riots of 1891.

Cipriani, one of the leaders, was sentenced to 20 months' solitary confinement.

Thirty-eight others were variously sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from eight to 25 months.

BERLIN, July 5.—A number of the Anarchists tried by the Imperial Tribunal at Leipsic for high treason, in having distributed seditious fly sheets among the soldiers, were sentenced to-day. Hoener was sentenced to five years, three months of penal servitude; Camin and Reunthaler each to six years, six months penal servitude; Raff to five years, six months of the same punishment, and Wiener to four years' imprisonment. Dobberstein was acquitted.

The Wrecked City of Chicago.

LONDON, July 6.—The stranded steamer City of Chicago bumped heavily all night during a gale that caused a heavy sea to run. She has shifted her position and now lies with her stern closer to the rocks. Her stern has swung more broadside on against the cliff. Two tugs got lines from her stern and commenced to wing at daylight to keep her from swinging her broadside on the rocks. The weather is moderating.

For Your Newspapers.

This simple contrivance for holding newspapers can be easily made at home and if you have once owned one you will find it hard to get along without it. Take one long narrow piece of pulp board and size it well with thin glue.

When it is dry get out your box of oil paints, and mix several colors in various saucers with a little turpentine. Have one of bitumen for deep, rich shadows, for a glowing warm spot burnt sienna, then have two shades of zinnober greens and a little white and hell clair for flashes of high light and on another plate have two little heaps of gold and green bronze with some mixing medium in a dish near by. Now take a big stiff bristle and dip it first in one color, then another, scrubbing the tint into the pulp board till you have a beautifully mottled effect with splashes of gold here and there. Have two smaller boards which form the front pieces ready and treat them in the same style, only using a good deal of gold. Over this background paint a graceful design of ivy leaves in the same tint and put "Newspaper" in gilt letters, on the lower flap. When all the boards are thoroughly dry join the two pockets to the back with side pieces of heavy green sateen and add two bows of greenish ribbon to hang it by.

A Prominent Doctor Accused of Murder!

A gentleman recently made a startling accusation in the hearing of the writer. Said he, "I firmly believe that Dr. ——, intentionally or unintentionally, killed my wife. He pronounced her complaint—Consumption—incurable. She accepted the verdict, and—died. Yet since then I have heard of at least a dozen cases, quite as far advanced as hers, that have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Her life might have been saved, for Consumption is not incurable." Of course it is not. The "Discovery" will remove every trace of it, if taken in time and used faithfully. Consumption is a disease of the blood—a scrofulous affection—and the "Discovery" strikes at the root of the evil. For all cases of weak lungs, spitting of blood, severe lingering coughs and kindred ailments, it is a sovereign remedy. a fell back before the withering fire of the Winchesters.

RIOT WITH BLOODSHED.

The Opening Shot.

The first shot of the engagement came from the barge. It was aimed at a big Hungarian who stood at the water's edge. The ball went wide of the human target, but it was the signal to the Pinkerton men to begin, and for a full ten minutes they continued to fire. The first man to fall was Martin Merry, a heater in one of the mills. He was shot in the left side and fell face downward on a pile of ashes. Close beside Merry stood a big Hungarian. He stooped over Merry's prostrate body, and as he was in the act of raising him he was also shot.

This spectacle aroused the spirits of the crowd, and with a cheer half a dozen men rushed to the place where Merry and the Hungarian lay. They picked up the bodies and carried them behind the trestle. One of the rescuers, a Welshman, was shot in the left leg just as he raised Merry's head from the ground.

A Shower of Lead.

Before the second attempt was made to land, the officer in charge announced to the crowd of workingmen assembled on the bank that his men were Pinkertons and he would land them if he had to mow down every man in sight. He then ordered his men to advance and as they advanced from the barge they were met by a shower of lead from the rifles and pistols of the workmen. The officers fell back for an instant as if repulsed, but they promptly rallied and marching eight abreast endeavored to get ashore. They were driven back again, however. In this battle several more were killed, among the number being John Morris and Reuben Forest, who was shot through the heart.

Plotting Torches of Fire.

The strikers fired a car of oil standing near the works of the P.V. & C. Railroad for the purpose of firing the boat in the river, but the flames became extinguished before accomplishing the purpose for which they were intended.

The men placed a cannon on the hill on the north side of the river and fired into the Pinkerton boat. Balls and pieces of iron were used, and at every shot the boat's side was penetrated and many of the occupants were wounded.

The steamer Little Bill came down the river shortly before 11 o'clock to take off the Pinkertons who were imprisoned in the barge. There was a large number of men on the boat. The moment it reached the shore a regular fusilade took place. It continued for 10 minutes and was mixed with hoarse, derisive cheering from the men in the mill. The cannon across the river fired three cannon balls at the Little Bill. Their aim was bad and one ball, entering the open hearth department, took off a man's head. One Pinkerton man jumped off the boat and tried to swim. He was drowned. The pilot of the Little Bill was killed. The boat was driven off and proceeded down the river.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon one of the Pinkerton men raised his head above the edge of the barge and immediately a shot was fired, which struck him in the head and he fell back dead.

A flag of truce was displayed by the Pinkerton men and was shot down. It was hoisted the second time, with the same result. The third time the flag was riddled with bullets and hardly enough of it was left to hoist again.

The Pinkerton men on board the barges a few minutes after 5.30 p.m., again ran up a white flag and offered to surrender. The strikers accepted their surrender and they were allowed to land. They were at once arrested and placed in jail.

Cowardly Revenge.

The Pinkerton men were lodged in the opera house for the night.

The most dastardly deeds, however, were committed while the prisoner were being escorted through the street and the escort of guards appointed by the strikers. An angry mob lined the streets both sides. As the men passed by each in charge of two deputies the millmen and their friends kicked them and threw some of them down. The unfortunate detectives begged for mercy. Some of them had pistol shot wounds in their heads and three were seen that had their eyes shot out. Several were shot in the shoulders, arms and legs and could scarcely limp along. Blood was running in streams down their shirts.

After the prisoners had been removed from the barges the rioters had their revenge. They carried oil into the holds, poured it over the bedding and furniture and then set on fire, first securing the barges so that they could not float down the river and cause damage at points below.

More Than Twenty Dead and Two Score Wounded.

PITTSBURG, July 7.—A complete list of the killed and wounded was not obtainable at midnight. As far as could be ascertained 11 workmen and nine detectives were killed and 18 workmen and 21 detectives injured in the battle. In addition to this at least 100 detectives were seriously injured by the strikers while on their way to jail this morning.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—In the U.S. Senate yesterday, referring to the conflict at Homestead, Pa., Senator Pfeffer moved for the appointment of a select committee of three senators "of different political parties" to investigate and report the facts in relation to the existence and employment of Pinkerton detectives since their first appearance in the United States, how they organize, how and for what purpose and by whom they were employed, and what legislation is necessary to prevent their further unlawful use and employment.

The resolution went over.

PITTSBURG, July 7.—The steamboat Little Bell arrived yesterday. Her woodwork is perfectly perforated with bullets. John T. McCurry, who was shot in the groin, was interviewed and stated positively that the strikers fired first. The shore was crowded with the locked out men and their sympathizers when the Pinkerton men landed. Then the workmen opened fire, and not until three of the Pinkertons men had fallen did they respond to the fire. One Pinkerton man was shot through the head and instantly killed and five were wounded. McCurry confirmed the story that the strikers poured burning oil in the water with the object of burning the barge.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 7.—Captain F. H. Heine, who had charge of the Pinkerton men at Homestead, was brought to the homeopathic hospital in the city at noon, with five companions, who were wounded. Among the fatally injured is J. W. Kline. Capt. Heine will recover. Capt. Heine has been in the employ of Pinkertons for many years and has had charge of the men in several large strikes. He was always considered a very conservative man. When seen this afternoon, he said: "I had charge of these men and they were picked up in Chicago and New York. They were a very fair lot of men. They number 300 all told, and I gave them strict orders not to shoot until they were fired upon. When we proceeded to land the whistle blew and immediately the strikers commenced to shoot. To protect ourselves we had to return the fire. Seven or eight of our men are hurt."

Capt. Heine stated that he did not know much about the strike, but had been ordered to take charge of the men and protect the property and he did the best he knew how.

WINNIPEG, July 7.—There is great regret here at the announcement that Hugh John Macdonald insists on resigning his seat for Winnipeg in the Commons. Mr. Macdonald has done valuable work for this city while at Ottawa. Every effort will now be made to induce him to enter the Manitoba Legislature, which will not take up so much of his time. He will arrive here in a few days to attend the convention for the nomination of a Conservative candidate for Marquette.

TWO TEMPTATIONS!

While the July leaf is doing calendar duty, the Golden Lion is going to test the capacity of Low Prices to build up a big warm weather trade. To begin with we throw out Two Temptations for shrewd lady buyers, namely:—Absolutely straightforward Reductions in the two following seasonable lines—

1.—BLOUSES.
2.—PRINTS.

These goods are now set apart for sacrifice; and if we don't inaugurate a flurry in Blouses and Prints, it will be because ladies are more short-sighted than we think they are. Now is unloading time with us, and we have a lucky facility of getting rid of things—just as willing to face loss as profit when losing time comes. Anyway if you want Blouses and Prints, you'll never buy them cheaper.

MORE LIBERAL GAINS.

Looks Like a Small Gladstonian Majority.

Liberal Leaders Looking for Still Better Results.

They Mourn for Seats Lost Because the Labor Party Has Separate Candidates—The Liberals Return Lord Salisbury's "Black Man" by Three Votes—Intense Interest Maintained Throughout the United Kingdom—Gladstone and Balfour Exchange Compliments on the Hustings.

Total members elected	238
Conservatives	141
Liberal-Unionists	18—160
Liberals	116
Anti-Parnellites	10
Parnellites	2—128
Net Liberal Gain to Date	20
Conservative Majority to Date	32

LONDON, July 8.—The total number of Members of Parliament so far elected, including yesterday's pollings, is 238, of whom there are 141 Conservatives and 19 Unionists, making a total of 160 Tory-Unionists.

The Liberals have 116 members and the Irish Nationalists have 12, of whom 10 are anti-Parnellites and 2 Parnellites. In today's elections the Liberals captured 9 seats heretofore held by Conservatives or Liberal-Unionists and the Tories and Liberal-Unionists captured 4 seats from the Liberals.

The total Liberal gains are 35, Conservative 11 and Liberal-Unionists 4.

This leaves the Liberals with a gain of 20 seats. The pollings to-day showed that the Liberals came very near capturing a number of other seats, but, the result in the same however narrow the majority and the fact remains that the Tories and the Liberal-Unionists have managed to remain in possession of doubtful constituencies in which the Liberals were supposed to have excellent prospects of success. The indications last night are that the Liberals will fail to overcome the lead of the Tories and their allies.

Seats which were considered safe on each side have been lost, and contests which were regarded as hopeless have resulted favorably. On the aggregate vote, so far as it has been cast, the Liberals have made a great gain over the elections of 1886, but the number of seats actually won has not corresponded to this increase of political strength. The results of notable victories in closely-contested districts have been offset by defeats in strong Radical boroughs.

The sweeping victories anticipated so confidently on Sunday, that came so trippingly on Monday, that halted entirely Tuesday, that slowly begun to manifest themselves again Wednesday, did not make their appearance yesterday.

There is to be no Liberal tidal wave; that is sure.

Maintained at its present rate until the last of the 670 members is returned, the total Gladstonian gain would be too small to be effective.

What the Liberals Require.

The total majority of the Unionists in the Parliament elected in 1886 was 118. The result of the bye-elections of six years was a net loss of 25 seats, counting for 50 on a division. When Parliament was dissolved the Unionist majority was 66. At the close of yesterday's polling it was 32. It will be necessary for the Home Rule allies to gain 17 additional seats, or as many more as they now have gained in order to have a bare majority. A working majority will require still greater gains; and if the Liberals are to be independent of Irish support the counties will have to do much better than the boroughs have yet done.

Very much, however, depends upon the humor of Hodge, who is the most uncertain factor in English elections. As the boroughs invariably have the opening contests, their influence in determining the general result is very great. It is seldom practicable for the county voters to reverse the verdict of the boroughs. In the elections of 1880 this was done to a certain extent, but ordinarily the boroughs carry the counties with them. Indeed, whenever the results of the first few days' polling clearly indicate a victory for one side or the other, the effect is to carry over doubtful voters in the counties to the winning side with a rush.

If the first signs of the general result are not misleading Salisbury will return to power before the end of a fortnight.

The Liberal executive still anticipate a Gladstonian majority, but modify their forecasts, which vary from 50 to 100. No Liberal now predicts sweeping the country with a resultant majority of 150.

It is generally admitted that Mr. Gladstone will only be returned to power and be sustained in his place by the Irish vote.

How the Changes Were Made.

LIBERAL GAINS.

Limehouse (Tower Hamlets)—J. S. Wallace (Liberal) 2475; H. S. Solmel (Conservative) 2305 Conservative majority in 1885, 890.

Camberwell (Metropolis)—North Division, E. H. Bayley (Liberal.) Conservative majority in 1885, 365.

In North Kensington, Frye (Liberal) is elected. The Conservative majority in 1886 was 900.

In the east division of Hull, Clarence Smith (Liberal) is elected, reversing a Conservative majority of 37.

Right Hon. C. H. Ritchie, a Cabinet Minister and president of the Local Government Board, is defeated in St. George's East.

CONSERVATIVE GAINS.

Newcastle-on-Tyne (2)—C. Hanmond (Conservative) 13,829, and Right Hon. John Morley (Liberal) 10,981), elected; J. Craig (Liberal) defeated. The Liberals lose one seat here, Craig having been elected in 1886 by 515 majority.

PEOPLE WE ALL KNOW.

How the Great Political Guns of the Kingdom Fared.

LONDON, July 8.—The defeat of Thomas Sexton in West Belfast is all the more bitter for the Nationalists from the fact that his successful opponent is a son of the late Right Hon. D. R. Forester, at one time Chief Secretary for Ireland, where he was known by the title of "Buckshot."

Hon. Edward Blake will be opposed in South Longford by Mr. Miller (Conservative). The nomination took place yesterday.

The immense Unionist majorities in Birmingham district show the bold "Birmingham Joe" has upon the electors. His majority was 4300, while that of Home Secretary Matthews was 2900.

The Parnellite leader, John E. Redmond, defeated Sheehey, anti-Parnellite, in Waterford city.

John Morley's Narrow Squeak.

Hon. John Morley succeeded in securing re-election at Newcastle-on-Tyne, which elects two members, but the other Liberal candidate, James Craig, was defeated by G. F. Hammond, Conservative, who headed the poll. In 1886 both the seats were won by the Liberals.

The loss of the seat in Newcastle-on-Tyne is the greatest shock the Liberals have yet received. The London executive admit their surprise that the Conservative candidate was at the top of the poll. They were confident of the return of both Mr. Morley and Mr. Craig. They are amazed that the Conservative candidate should have been elected and more amazed at his immense majority. This election has had a panicky effect at the Liberal headquarters.

Louis J. Jennings, Conservative, who, under the nom de plume of "A Member of Parliament," cables letters to The New York Herald, narrowly escaped defeat in Stockport, where one of the seats was won from the Tories by a Liberal who headed the poll. The second Liberal, Maj. Hume, was only 110 votes behind Jennings in a poll of nearly 10,000.

One of Mr. Balfour's colleagues in the present Ministry, Sir James Ferguson, Postmaster-General, was returned for the North-east Division of Manchester by a majority of 110. His opponent this time, as on two previous occasions, was Mr. Scott, editor and proprietor of The Manchester Guardian, one of the best known of provincial newspapers.

A Seat for Sexton.

It is expected that William O'Brien will vacate his seat as a member for the north-east Division of Cork county which is overwhelmingly Nationalist in order to give Mr. Sexton, defeated in Belfast yesterday, an opportunity to take the seat.

Mr. Harry Marks, formerly of New York, was soundly beaten by a Liberal in the Northeast division of Bethnal Green.

Among the defeated candidates was Mr. Cunningham Graham, an advocate of Socialism, who represented the Northwestern division of Lanarkshire in the last Parliament and who was suspended on May 4 last for a week for refusing to obey the Speaker's call to order. This seat was lost, like that for Perth, by a split vote.

John Burns owes his return less to official Liberalism than to the trades' unions. Artisans abandoned their work to canvass for him, giving their days and nights gratis. Home Rule had a minor place in the contest. Labor questions and Mr. Burns' own strong personality gained the election. He will take his seat in Parliament free from any obligation to the Liberals, and will probably lead the Labor party.

Burns is an engineer by trade and a Scot by birth. He is the most active exponent of trades unionism, and worked in the great dock strike of 1889 with skill and energy. In 1886 he was tried for seditious conspiracy but was acquitted. The defeated candidate is W. M. Chinnery, the well-known athlete who founded the London Athletic Club. He is a member of the London Stock Exchange.

In Middlesborough the Labocites have scored a great success by the election of their candidate, J. H. Wilson. In this district both the Liberals and Conservatives had candidates, but the labor party was too strong for them, and Mr. Wilson won easily with 629 majority. This result is a bad defeat for the Liberals, who held the seat in the last two Parliaments.

Stanley is Disgusted.

The Chronicle claims the credit of having beaten Henry M. Stanley. It waged a persistent warfare against the explorer and printed extracts from his books to show how inhuman and merciless he has been in the slaughter of the Africans.

Stanley is about to take a holiday in Wales. He is worn out and disgusted. His wife and mother-in-law are also worn out and they are all going to Wales for a holiday.

Right Hon. Lord George Hamilton, First Lord of the Admiralty, is elected in Middlesex, Ealing division.

John Bright's Son.

J. A. Bright (Liberal-Unionist), son of the late John Bright, was re-elected in the central division of Birmingham. This was formerly a Liberal district, that party's majority in 1885 being 773. John Bright seceded from the party because of Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule measure and in 1886 he was returned as a Liberal-Unionist without opposition. Upon his death a new writ was issued and in April, 1889, he was succeeded by his son.

Another interesting figure in the next Parliament will be Parsee Naoroji, whom Lord Salisbury held up to mistaken ridicule as a "black man." His return by three majority was challenged by the Conservatives, but a recount confirmed Naoroji's poll. While the recount was pending the National Liberal Club men with whom this genial Indian is popular waited on tenderhooks. Volleying hurrahs rang out when his success was declared assured.

Herbert Gladstone, son of the Grand Old Man, was re-elected in West Leeds.

In Justin McCarthy's old seat, Newry, P. G. Carvill, anti-Parnellite, was elected.

Howard Vincent, the Conservative fair trade representative for the central division of Sheffield, had his majority pulled down from 1206 to 856.

Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett (Conservative) was re-elected in Ecclesall division of Sheffield.

Rt. Hon. William L. Jackson, Chief Secretary for Ireland, was re-elected in North Leeds by 1014 majority. At the bye-election in 1891 he was unopposed.

Rt. Hon. Sir Lyon Playfair (Liberal) is re-elected in South Leeds.

The Man Who Defeated Chamberlain.

Public attention is largely attracted to the man who has beaten Richard Chamberlain, Mr. Thomas Lough, the successful Liberal in West Islington. A year or so ago the position of goods guards, porters and shunters on the Great Northern Railway had been seriously deteriorating. They had lost the allowance for house rent, which the company had formerly granted, their maximum wage had been reduced by an oppressive system of classification, and they were getting embittered by the repeated refusals of the company to consider their demands.

Mr. Lough went into the whole matter, stated the case for the men with great moderation, and at the same time with signal power, and obtained an all-round betterment of their condition. As the sum of his exertions, one shilling a week house rent was allowed the men, six hours were taken off their weekly work, wages were increased by from one shilling to two shillings a week, and satisfactory arrangements were made for the Sunday service. Mr. Lough's services were appropriately acknowledged in a testimonial signed by 200 men, and they secured him the support of representative railway men.

Otto Trevelyan's Successor.

Sir George Otto Trevelyan, the well-known Liberal, who was formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland, was re-elected in the Bridgeton division of Glasgow by a slightly decreased majority as compared with the vote at the last election when the Liberal majority was [illegible]. Today this was reduced to [illegible]. Trevelyan was one of the Liberal [illegible] and Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule [illegible] when it was introduced in 1886, and [illegible] general election as was defeated. He subsequently became satisfied with Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy, and in the bye-election of 1887 he was returned from the Bridgeton division of Glasgow.

Incidents of the Battle.

LONDON, July 8.—Fleet-street, the Paternoster row of London, and the neighborhood of the National Liberal Club, of which Mr. Gladstone is president, are daily crowded with shouting Britons up to midnight. Boys are selling extras on the streets far into the west end, and the liveried servants of the big clubs in Pall Mall, Piccadilly and St. James-street are continually rushing out to buy newspapers containing the latest returns.

As the Most Rev. Conway, Bishop of Killala, was driving in the direction of Crossmolina, Ireland, a woman ran out of a cottage and threw a pail of slops into his face.

George Frye, the biggest bookmaker in England, yesterday performed an unprecedented electioneering feat. He drove from his residence at Beula Hill, voted at Wimbledon at 8 o'clock, then was off to London Bridge and on to Tottenham, where he possesses property. After voting there he journeyed to Ealing, where he was also entitled to a vote, and reaching Paddington in time to catch the Flying Dutchman reached Porlock, West Somersetshire, in time to record the vote he possessed there.

BROKEN HEADS IN IRELAND.

A Priest Shows Scalp Wounds and Makes Many Votes.

DUBLIN, July 8.—While an anti-Parnellite meeting at Ballina, County Mayo, yesterday was being addressed by Mr. John Dillon and Mr. Daniel Crilly, candidate in the North Mayo district, Rev. Father Conway, who was on the platform, bared his head and showed severe scalp wounds that had been inflicted by Parnellites. Thereupon over 100 Parnellite voters who were present declared that they would desert the Parnellites and cast their ballots for Mr. Crilly.

BALFOUR WELL PLEASED.

The Unionists, He Says, Are Unconquered and Unconquerable.

LONDON, July 8.—After the result of the polling in the East Division of Manchester had been announced, Mr. Balfour, the successful candidate, made an address to an enthusiastic assemblage of his constituents and others at the Manchester Conservative Club.

He congratulated his hearers that the attempts of their opponents during the past six years to discredit their policy and to vilify their political characters had failed absolutely to shake the phalanx of Unionism in Manchester. The flowing tide had not overwhelmed the popular intelligence.

It must be remembered, Mr. Balfour said, that their fight had been harder than in 1886. Six years of misrepresentation had brought back to the Gladstonian fold the less intelligent portion of the waverers who had abstained from voting in 1886.

The polls were now as great as at any crisis in English history. Against an enormous voting power the Unionists had shown that they stood unconquered and, he ventured to say, unconquerable.

Mr. Balfour concluded by declaring that this night's work augured well for the future of the country.

FROM MANY STANDPOINTS.

Casting the Horoscope From Returns Already In.

LONDON, July 8.—The Daily News says: The more cheering progress made by the Liberals yesterday strengthens the inference in favor of the return of Gladstone by an adequate if not substantial majority.

Gladstone addressed a meeting in the town of Corstorphine, Scotland, yesterday. He said he was satisfied with the result of the polling in London, but regretted that "the chances" were against him. He deplored the Liberal defeat in Perth, but rejoiced in having a majority of the Scottish votes. He was confident Scotland desired justice for Ireland.

The Edinburgh correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: Mr. Gladstone's reception in Midlothian has been far less enthusiastic than usual. His friends admit that the vote in 1885 may be reduced by thousands of votes. The indications are there will be far greater reductions than his friends concede, if his majority is not entirely wiped out.

The Freeman's Journal and The National Press, anti-Parnellite, commenting on the elections, say the smashing victory of O'Brien and Healy in Cork over the combined forces of Unionists and Redmondism is a splendid beginning. The heaviest blow Home Rule has yet sustained was the defeat of Thomas Sexton in West Belfast.

The Chronicle, after again reminding the Liberal party that their losses are due to disregard of the claims of labor, calls the Battersea victory the prime result of the London elections. "Nothing equals it," says The Chronicle, "in significance and social value. John Burns is the Premier-elect of London."

The Times says: "Weighed as well as counted in the balance the Gladstonian gains do not amount to much. * * * The most striking phenomenon on the Unionist side is the imposing Unionist vote in Birmingham. The Liberal-Unionist would remain a power in the state, even if they disappeared from the rest of the country, so long as Joseph Chamberlain is able to marshall such an imposing array."

Crushed by a Falling Roof.

LINDSAY, Ont., July 8.—Yesterday while three men were engaged in tearing down Guiry's schoolhouse, in the township of Emily, which was to be replaced by a new building, the roof suddenly fell in, and two of the men were crushed beneath the ruins. Their names are Miller and Bagley. Bagley is not likely to recover.

MR. BLAKE'S OPINIONS.

The Conservative press is anxious to make the public believe, that his mission to Ireland is a sign that he thinks Canada is in safe hands when it is governed by the Conservative party. Here is an indication of his opinion of the "safety" of Canada under the Conservative policy. In his celebrated farewell letter to the electors of West Durham, Hon. Mr Blake says:—

The Canadian Conservative policy has failed to accomplish the predictions of its promoters.

Its real tendency is towards disintegration and annexation instead of consolidation and the maintenance of British connection.

It has left us with a small population, a scanty immigration, and a Northwest still empty.

It has left us with enormous additions to our public debt.

It has led to an extravagant system of expenditure and an unjust and oppressive tariff.

It has left us restricted markets and a host of evils arising therefrom.

It has diverted trade from its natural into forced channels, and therefore into less profitable channels.

It has left us with unfriendly relations and frowning tariff walls, estranging us from the mighty English-speaking nation to the south, with whom we ought to be, as it was promised that we should be, living in generous amity and liberal intercourse,

"Worse, far worse." It has left us with lowered standards of public virtue and a deathlike apathy in public opinion.

It has left us racial, religious and provincial animosities rather inflamed than soothed.

It has left us with a subservient parliament, an autocratic executive.

It has left us with debauched constituencies, and corrupted and corrupting classes.

It has left us with lessened self reliance, and increased dependence on the public chest and on legislative aids.

It has left us possessed withal by a boastful jingo spirit far enough removed from true manliness, loudly proclaiming unreal conditions and exaggerated sentiments, while actual facts and genuine opinions are suppressed.

It has left us with our hands tied and our future compromised.

It has left us in such a plight, whether we stand or move we must run some risks which else we might have either declined or encountered with greater promise of success.

Of Interest to Canadians.

Canadians have a special interest in the fate of some of the candidates in the British elections. Mr. Blake's return for South Longford by acclamation seems to be assured. Lord Lorne, an old Govern-General, used to be a bit of a Radical, but lately, owing perhaps to family pressure, he has posed as a Liberal-Unionist. He was beaten the other day in the Central division of Bradford by Mr. Shaw-Lefevre the well-known Gladstonian. Sir Henry Tylar, chairman of the Grand Trunk, who sat as a Conservative for Yarmouth for many years, has been defeated by Mr. Mecreon, Q.C., his Gladstonian opponent. Stanley Africanus had been overwhelmed in North Lambeth, which he contested as a Liberal-Unionist.

Economic entomology, or the science which treats of insects injurious to crops and practical methods for preventing their ravages, has, during the past ten years, so much advanced that it may almost be said to be a new science. This remarkable advancement has been due chiefly to the discovery of new remedies and the invention of new apparatus for applying these. Among the former, spraying with Paris green and other arsenical poisons for all foliage-eating insects takes a prominent place, and of the latter the most important invention is a suitable nozzle for distributing liquid insecticides so that the material used may be thrown upon the foliage in a state of very fine division—in fact, as an actual spray or mist. In this way not only is the material economised by being spread over the largest possible area, but the chance of injuring the foliage is much lessened. The invention by the U.S. Entomologist, Dr. Riley, of the cyclone nozzle marks an era in this work, and since then various other devices have been produced, the most important being the "Vermorel," which is merely an improvement of the Riley cyclone nozzle. What is required is a nozzle which will break up the liquid into a very fine mist. I have not seen any Canadian-made pumps and nozzles which are now in the market; but suitable pumps are to be obtained for a few dollars from many of our seedsmen. There are three kinds of pumps: (i.) Large pumps requiring to be mounted upon a vehicle to be drawn by horses; (ii.) knapsack pumps, which contain about four gallons and can be carried on the back by a man, and (iii.) hand pumps, which are smaller, and can be placed in a pail and carried where required. For a few trees or a garden these last answer all purposes.

As stated above, spraying foliage with Paris green will destroy all leaf-eating insects, and there is no doubt that it will pay any farmer to purchase a spraying outfit, not only for protecting his crops against insects, but a force pump will also be found a very useful instrument to have on hand for many purposes about a farm-house, as washing windows and buggies or in case of fire.

Of insects for which a spraying pump will be found most useful are the following:

THE CODLING MOTH (Carpocapsa pomonella, L.)—The "apple worm" is too well-known to consumers of apples as a pinkish caterpillar, about three-quarters of an inch in length, found inside apples. The egg from which this caterpillar originated was laid in the center of the apple blossoms after they opened. In about a week after being laid the minute egg hatches, and the young caterpillar eats its way down into the core of the apple. It subsequently bores through the flesh of the fruit and leaves it to spin its cocoon in a crevice of the bark or some other suitable place. There are two broods of this insect in a season. The first of these is that mentioned above, and the eggs of which are laid in the spring, the moths appearing in July, and laying eggs on the forming fruit—generally the later varieties. These hatch soon after, and the young caterpillars eat their way in, frequently beginning between two apples where they touch each other.

Most of the caterpillars of this brood leave the fruit before winter sets in, and spin their cocoons in hollows of the bark; but some are harvested with the apples, and may be found in the barrels during the winter.

The perfect moth (Fig. 1, f. & g.), which emerges in spring and in July, is a beautiful little creature, but is very seldom seen by fruit growers, owing to the fact that it is nocturnal in its habits. It has deep brown wings streaked with gray, and at the end of each of the upper wings is a crescent of bronze scales.

Remedy.—The best remedy for this insect is spraying the trees a day or two after the flowers have fallen with Paris green in the proportion of one pound of the poison to 200 gallons of water. In spraying the foliage the spray must be forcibly applied so as to reach every part, but should be shifted from place to place as soon as the liquid begins to drip from the leaves. Dr. Riley recommends two sprayings, the first after the falling of the blossoms, or when the apples are about the size of peas, and the second a week or ten days later. The second spraying is to destroy caterpillars hatching from eggs which may be laid after the first spraying, as the poison is gradually washed off by rains. One spraying, however, I have found to give very good results in fine weather, but when rains fall immediately after the first spraying a second application would certainly be advisable.

For further information on spraying and insecticides I would refer your readers to bulletin 11 of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, which can be procured gratis by any farmer in Canada who applies for it. There is

NO DANGER OF POISONING.

To those who have not themselves sprayed apple trees with Paris green as recommended above, or to others who have not taken the trouble to think the matter out, it may at first sight appear that there might be some danger in deliberately distributing such a poisonous material as Paris green over fruit which was afterwards to be eaten. For the benefit of such I will merely mention the following facts, and leave it to their common sense to decide that there is no possible danger; but, on the other hand, there is very great advantage, both to themselves and to the country at large, by increasing the revenue:—

1. Where alternate trees have been sprayed in an orchard, these sprayed gave good crops of sound apples, while of those untreated the fruit was mostly wormy.

2. Most careful chemical analysis has shown frequently that in apples sprayed twice with Paris green in June not the minutest trace of arsenic could be detected on the ripened fruit.

3. The amount of poison which falls upon the fruit when applied in the usual proportion (one pound to 200 gallons of water) is so infinitesimally small when distributed over a large number of trees—an ordinary tree requiring from one to two gallons—that there is no possibility of injuring the consumer of the fruit.

4. At the time it is recommended to apply Paris green to apple trees the forming fruit is very small indeed, and being erect, is protected from the poison falling upon it by the lobes of the calyx. The minute and delicate caterpillar hatches inside this open calyx, where most of the spray which reaches the fruit must lodge, and therefore is killed in gnawing its way into the apple.

5. The fruit is so small at the time of spraying that even were it covered thickly on the outside with poison by the natural expansion of the fruit nearly, if not all, of the material would be pushed off as it attained its full size.

6. Paris green is not in the least of an adhesive or sticky nature, and Dr. Riley says (U.S. Farmer's Bulletin No. 7, p. 10): "As a matter of fact, careful microscopic examinations have been made of the fruit and foliage of sprayed trees at various intervals after spraying, which indicate that after the water is evaporated the poison soon entirely disappears, either through being blown off by the wind or washed off by rains, so that after fifteen days hardly the minutest trace can be discovered."

7. Paris green is practically insoluble, so cannot be absorbed by vegetable tissues, and if it were rendered soluble and if it could be absorbed by fruits, its corrosive nature would destroy the tissues.

PLUM CURCULIO (Conotrachelus nenuphar, Herbst.)—Fig. 2. Equally well known, from its work, with the Codling Moth of the apple, is the Curculio of the plum, which is shown in all its stages at Fig. 2. This insect passes the winter in the perfect state (Fig. 2 a.) As soon as new growth appears on the plum, cherry, peach, etc., trees, the beetles fly to them and feed on the new growth. When the fruit is about as big as large peas, the female (shown natural size on a cherry at d, and enlarged at c), having made with her jaws a small hole in the side of the fruit, pushes in one egg, and then cuts a crescent-shaped slit in front of the hole. The grub which hatches from this egg is white (shown magnified at a, the natural size is shown by the hair-line beneath.) Plums which are attacked fall to the ground before the fruit ripens; but cherries frequently hang on the trees until ripe. There is only one brood in the year, the perfect form being attained in the autumn.

Remedy.—The best remedy for this insect also is spraying with Paris green, 1 lb. to 200 gallons of water, to which, however, lime-water has been added at the rate of 2 gallons to 100 gallons of water. In making the lime-water, mix lime with water until it is the thickness of milk; this must be strained through a coarse cloth and then mixed with the Paris green mixture when it will have the effect of preventing the injurious effect of the Paris green upon the delicate foliage of the plum.

Spraying should not be done until the plums are well set. The proper time is once when the fruit is as big as peas, and again ten days later.

CANKER-WORMS (Anisopteryx pometaria and A. vernata.)—Of the leaf-eating insects which may be treated by spraying at the same time as the Codling Moth on the apple-tree are the canker-worms, leaf-rollers and many others. The cankers are sometimes very injurious, and are of the shape shown at Fig. 3. They are called loopers from their way of walking, in which they loop up their body at each step, as shown above.—James Fletcher, Dominion Entomologist, in Farmer's Advocate.

EXTENSIVE CHANGES IN THOMAS KELLY'S DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THE SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

Relentless Break in Prices —OF— SUMMER CLOTHING —AT— H. LeBRUN & CO'S.

He is Not Dead.

The Campbellford Herald has the following to say of a spoiled sensation:—Some weeks ago we reported in this paper the discovery by two boys, of a valise containing many articles, in the bushes alongside the road near Crow Bay, the owner of which was found to be William Simons, of Kingston. It was conjectured at that time that the man had committed suicide, but the supposition was wrong founded, he being still in the flesh. Mr. Chas. Leavitt, in whose possession the valise was, sent it to him, and a few days ago received a post card from Simons, saying the valise and all its contents had reached him, and thanking Mr. Leavitt for his kindness. Thus the little mystery is cleared up.

List of Appeals.

The following list of appeals against the judgment pronounced by the Court of Revision on the assessment rolls of Peterborough has been filed with the town clerk:—

Central Canada Loan and Savings Co., wrongfully assessed.

Joseph Lundy, on grounds of over assessment of real estate.

The appeals will be heard and determined before Judge Weller in chambers on Monday, July 18th.

Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Connor is making his annual episcopal visit to the northern districts of his diocese. He is accompanied by Rev. Father Guinane, professor in St. Michael's College, Toronto, and will be absent about three weeks.

At a meeting of the rural diaconal chapter of Northumberland, held here yesterday, a fitting appointment of a successor to the late Hev. Canon Davidson, of Colborne, who died suddenly in Toronto, was made by elevating his son, Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of Peterborough, to the position of rural dean.

The Canadian Electrical News says in its July edition. "A young man who has suddenly jumped into prominence in the financial and electrical work is Mr. A. O. Tate, Edisons chief aid and manager, of the Edison Manufacturing Co. Mr. Tate came to New York from a small Canadian village, about 9 years ago." That small village was Peterborough, where he was a former well known resident. His many friends will rejoice at his success.

At the commencement exercises of St. Francis Xavier College, Brooklyn, N.Y. the degree of Master of Arts was conferred on Messrs. Edward J. and John M. Sheridan. These young gentlemen are sons of Mr. J. W. Sheriden now of Brooklyn a former well known resident of Peterborough, who at one time conducted a book and stationery shop near the present site of Mr. W. A. Sanderson's establishment, and had the distinction of putting in the first plate glass shop window in Peterborough. Mr. Sheridan's many friends in town heartily congratulate him upon the success of his sons.

The Stewart House Removal.

Mr. Callanane, the Proprietor, Moves to His New Premises on Hunter Street.

As most of our readers are already aware the Canadian Bank of Commerce have arranged with Mr. Geo. A. Cox for the premises opposite the post office, heretofore occupied as an hotel, which will be made ready for their occupancy as soon as possible. These alterations will necessitate the expenditure of a large amount, as we understand the building when remodelled will be one of the handsomest banking premises, outside of Toronto, in the province. To allow of these changes Mr. Stevenson has fitted up in good style the premises recently occupied by Mr. Chas. Butler, as grocer, on Hunter street to which Mr. John Callanane, of Hamilton, who has so successfully and quietly conducted the Stewart House for the past year and a half has removed. The new premises consist of fourteen very comfortably fitted bedrooms, convenient dining hall, parlours and such other rooms as are a necessary adjunct to a comfortable and well equipped hotel. Mr. Callanane, who took possession of his new premises yesterday, is well pleased with the way they have been fitted up and trusts to conduct his house in such a way as to merit a continuance of the trade of the travelling public. While the hotel proper has been removed from the corner, Mr. Callanane will still retain possession of the yard and stables of his former premises. A convenient entrance is gained to these from Water street. Since coming to Peterborough the proprietor of the Stewart House has proved himself to be a first class hotelman, and in the management of his house has rigidly observed the law. No doubt the same large trade with which he has been favoured in the past will still stick to him in his new premises, where he will be able to cater to the public wants better than ever.

The new Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario is likely to prove one of the most popular Governors that Ontario has ever had, and the people will be glad of this opportunity to personally see the new occupant of the gubernatorial chair. It is not known which of the Cabinet will accompany him, but it is not at all unlikely but that it will be Hon. A. S. Hardy, Commissioner of Crown Lands.

The stock and other articles necessary to the making of a successful exhibit are in the town and county, and we hope that the farmers and townspeople will join hands and make this year's exhibition even more creditable than any heretofore held.

A Delightful Outing.

The Charlotte Street Methodist Church Sunday School Held Their Annual Excursion Yesterday—List of Sports and Winners.

The Sunday school of the Charlotte street Methodist church, Rev. George Edwards, pastor, held their annual outing yesterday to Chemong Park. The day was fine for picnicing and the three hundred and fifty excursionists passed the day in an enjoyable manner. Swinging, boating, fishing and other amusements helped to pass the day pleasantly and profitably. The large pavilion was open all day long for the use of all present. In the afternoon a fine programme of sports was run off, all the events being hotly contested by large numbers. Every child whose name is mentioned in the list below succeeded in getting a prize. The races were run off in classes, the members of each teacher's class running a race separately. The prizes consisted of books, toys, money, hats, balls, and other useful and pretty articles.

A Redletter Day for Clothing Buyers.

Bargains to Dazzle at Grafton & Co's. Semi-Annual Clearing Sale.

It's a way they have—that is Grafton & Co. make a regular practice of holding a semi-annual clearing sale. This sale is now on and the object is to clear out all summer goods, and this will be done if reduced prices, for first class goods will do the work. And the prices have been reduced; all summer clothing such as their office coats, unlined serge coats and vests, unlined tweed coats and vests, silk coats and vests, luster coats and vests, and every sort of summer clothing is marked down in red—marked down at half price. At half price remember. As cheap as Grafton's clothing has been this red letter clearing sale means half price—as half measures except in price. This is a wonderful opportunity for buying goods, all the firm's own manufacture, at half price. It is done because all summer goods must be cleared out to make room for an immense fall stock which the senior partner of the firm of Grafton & Co., is now making arrangements for in England. That is, he goes into the British markets with the cash in hand and buys immense quantities of the sterling cloths, tweeds, worsteds etc., which the Britishers are noted for making. These cloths are all manufactured into clothing at the firm's factory in Dundas. That is why Grafton & Co's clothing is of such superior quality at such reasonable prices. Room must be made for the splendid new fall stock, and the summer lines of clothing must be cleared out at half price. Remember that every article of summer wear is marked at half price—marked in RED. The public are invited to come and see what this means in the way of bargains. It has often been a subject of astonishment how Grafton & Co. have sold and do sell their goods at such extremely low prices—so low that no man is too poor to buy of them. Those who are wise enough to patronize Grafton's know that they do all they advertise. Every buyer is treated squarely and gets the best, both of goods and prices. This is the every day rule, but this summer clearing sale is a special boon to the buyer. All summer goods must go and to make them go they are marked down so half price. Remember all goods are marked in plain figures. Parties in need of clothing never had such a chance to buy to advantage in Peterborough. Think of clothing sold from day to day at the lowest prices, and then those prices cut down one-half. That's what Grafton & Co.'s summer clearing sale means. But if you wish to know the full import of its meaning, come and see, and though you may be straight-laced in religious matters, you will find yourself at a surprise party and no mistake. The public have learned by experience that Grafton & Co. have only one price to everybody, consequently when they inaugurate a clearing sale and mark prices down one-half in red—it means blood—and everybody knows that genuine bargains are to be had. Grafton's have just closed a remarkably successful three months business up to July—in excess of their most sanguine expectations, and they are correspondingly thankful for the liberal support they have received from the public. This is encouraging, and Grafton & Co. won't be ungrateful, but it will be their aim to give the people the best of value in first class goods. Meantime, remember the great red letter clearing sale of summer goods at Grafton & Co.'s—half price, marked in red.

The Baptist Picnic.

A Splendid Time Spent by all at Victoria Park—List of Sports and Winners.

The Sunday schools of Murray street Baptist church and the South Ward Mission held their annual excursion to Victoria Park yesterday, on the steamer Golden Eye. About three hundred attended and all returned well pleased with the pleasures of the day. On the way down the palace scow was taken on at the locks, where a large number got on board. The park was reached at 10 30 o'clock and the return made at 8 30 o'clock in the evening. The grounds were well adapted for picnic purposes, the day was fine and those present spent the time in various ways. A successful list of races was run off in the afternoon with the following winners:—

Boys' race, 5 years and under—1st F. R. Quirk, 2nd Andrew Davidson.
Girls' race, 5 years and under—1st Ella Connole, 2nd Lena Minore.
Boys' race, 8 years and under—1st Chester Kemp, 2nd Wm. Winters.
Girls' race, 8 years and under—1st Jessie Rose, 2nd May Logan.
Boys' race, 12 years and under—1st Harry Dunsford, 2nd J. Spenceley.
Girls' race, 12 years and under—1st Eva Chadburn, 2nd Mary Hutchison.
Boys' race, 15 years and under—1st Harry Dunsford, 2nd Harry Chaplain.
Girls' race 15 years and under—1st Eva Casdburn, 2nd Mary Hutchison.
Baby race, under four years—1st Ella Carscie, 2nd Lotta Minore, 3rd Norman Berry, 4th Hugh Quinn.

The hoosier's race, the last one on the list, was very exciting and provoked much mirth. Messrs. W. Aldridge and A. L. Grover, after a circuitous route and a wild scramble for first place, tied.

TARIFF CHANGES

Announced by Finance Minister Yesterday.

FIVE CENTS PER DOZ. ON EGGS

Increased Duty on Low Grade Molasses.

A Busy Day at Ottawa Yesterday—Premier Abbott Makes an Explanation With Respect to the Recent Behring Sea Seizures—The United States a Little Too Previous.

OTTAWA, July 7.—The extra indemnity for this session is "bust." The Liberals had a caucus yesterday morning and it was agreed that some of the Opposition at least would oppose the increase. When the House met at 11 o'clock there was a session of over an hour with closed doors, at which the question of payment to members who are absent from Ottawa from sickness was discussed and the extra indemnity incidentally touched on. It was urged by some of the members that members should be allowed to be absent for a limited number of days during the session without deduction and the result of the conference is shown in the following resolution, which Mr. Foster gave notice of last night for Friday.

That it is expedient to provide that for the present session the deduction of $8 per day mentioned in section 26 of chapter 112 of the Revised Statutes of Canada shall not be made in the case of members who have been absent from a sitting of the House or committee thereof during as many as 12 days if such members declare that their absence to that extent was occasioned by detention on public duty, or public business or illness.

This means that those members who have been away will save nearly $100, which would otherwise be deducted from their allowance, but those who have been here all the time will get nothing extra.

Rushing Through the Business.

Both Senate and Commons have done good work yesterday. In the former the Redistribution Bill passed through committee and was read a third time without amendment, after which the Criminal Code was taken up in Committee and has been discussed at both the afternoon and evening sessions, quite a number of clauses being read, but unless the old ladies "put on a spurt" they will never get through this week. To-morrow, however, it is expected more progress will be made, and it is still hoped that prorogation will not be later than Tuesday.

The Tariff Changes.

In the Commons the most important business has been the introduction of the tariff changes which except in two cases are not of very great commercial importance and will not have much effect on the tariff. These two changes are the placing of a duty on low grade molasses and the duty of 5 cents a dozen on eggs. The first is intended to keep out low grade refuse molasses and encourage the importation of a good article. The duty on eggs will commend itself to the farming community as a fair reply to the McKinley bill. Large numbers of southern eggs are imported into Canada in the spring, and it is but right that they should be made to contribute to the revenue.

The Behring Sea Seizures.

In the Senate yesterday Hon. Mr. Scott asked what was the latest information with regard to the recent seizures in Behring Sea.

Sir John Abbott replied that there had been no seizure of sealing vessels only of the supply steamer Coquillan with a large number of sealskins on board. There was no evidence to show that the steamer had been in Behring Sea or that any seals had been captured there. The vessel was outside the three-mile limit and consequently outside the jurisdiction of the United States. The pretence for the seizure was that the vessel had transfered cargo within the four-mile limit, but he did not know what that meant, as there was no such term recognized in international law. Beyond the three-mile limit no nation had any jurisdiction. The United States Government would, no doubt, assert that the Coquillan had been accessory to a violation of the modus vivendi, but the information received by the Canadian Government was that there had been no violation. The British Government had been apprised of all the facts. He had no doubt the vessel would be released on bonds.

Senator Power—Canada has no rights which the United States need respect.

Sir John Abbott: Well, I did at first think of sending up a couple of ironclads to assert our rights, but came to reflect that we had no ironclads. However, I believe we have a power behind our backs which will see justice done. [Applause.]

In many places it is necessary to lay down, for winter, tender climbers like the clematis, ivy, etc., and it is desirable to do this without detaching them from the trellis which supports them. In our illustration, Fig. 1, is shown the lower portion of a folding trellis, and in Fig. 2 the same is shown folded down for winter, in which position the vine is readily covered with straw or evergreen branches, as desired. The stakes that are driven in the ground should be of durable wood, and thoroughly soaked in oil to prevent decay. They should project above ground at least one foot. The lower hinges may be bolts, while the upper pin or stay should extend across the trellis, as seen in Fig. 1. It may thus be used for, and will act as a support to the vines, and when removed will allow them to be bent over without pressing, at right angles.

The Great Female Medicine.

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give it to who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Cures Others

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."—H. L. Jarmann, 33 William st., New York City.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

Ribbon Photograph Holder.

This pretty arrangement for photographs is very easily made and will make a bright spot on an easel or the corner of a picture or mantel; in fact, it may be pinned up anywhere. Take three pieces of ribbon each about 12 inches in length. Have the two outside strips of one tint and the center of a darker shade. In the one described the predominating color is yellow with the center strip in warm orange. The ribbons are carefully joined by invisible stitches and fringed at the ends. Then with yellow silk crochet over 36 small brass rings. Two rows of nine rings each are arranged far enough apart to hold the top and bottom of the photograph and one ring is fastened at the top of each end ring in the lower row. The upper row forms the foundation of a pyramid of rings which is very effective. The upper end of the ribbon is drawn through a metal or crocheted ring so that the end hangs over gracefully. The holder may be suspended by this ring or by a smaller ring tacked to the back.

A Physician's Opinion.

Sir James Crichton Browne, who has the credit of being one of the highest medical authorities in England, gives it as his opinion that owing to the difference in brain structure between man and women that the methods of education in the two sexes should be radically different. While fully admitting the beneficial influence of education in opening up to women interests and occupations that were formerly denied them, he asserts that these opportunities have their drawbacks, more especially in involving grave dangers to health. Sir James maintains that the brains of many school girls are worked in a manner which is not good for their intellectual or bodily development. He denounces the stimulation of examinations as inducing hundreds of pupils to attempt tasks beyond their strength, and also the continuation of work into the evening, at a period of the day when the minds of the students are least capable of exertion. That three girls out of every four should suffer from headache in going through the ordinary high school training may be taken, he says, as proving most conclusively that their brains are overtaxed. He was very severe on the folly of compelling girls to drill, in the vain hope that muscular effort would, when their brains were tired, give relief to cerebral fatigue.

How To Dress in Camp.

Bret Harte's eldest daughter, Jessamy, makes her literary debut in the July Ladies' Home Journal, in a most graphic article describing life in an Adirondack camp. She says: Crimson is a picturesque color for the feminine camping dress. A very striking costume for a young lady is a short kilt skirt, a little above the ankles, of some blue material; a short, blue corduroy velvet jacket, blue and white striped tennis skirt, russet leather leggings, and big, red felt sombrero. The men's get-up varies little from the ordinary mountain garb—short corduroy velvet trousers and jacket, woolen tennis shirt, and leather leggings. The latter are essential both for girls and men on account of the enormous amount of underbrush one encounters. You cannot imagine how picturesque these costumes look around the roaring camp-fire in the evening, or in groups on the shores of some beautiful lake.

Is This Possible?

Mr. Punch of London has taken up a new role—that of mentors to the Sisters of Telemachus. Any woman, according to his idea, can marry any man she likes, provided she is careful about two points. She must let him know that she would accept a proposal from him, but she must never let him know that she has let him know. In other words, the encouragement must be strong but gentle. To let him know that you would marry him is to appeal to his vanity, but to let him know that you have given him the information is to appeal to his pity, which is disastrous. The only trouble with this advice is that the girl that is clever enough to detect the subtle shadings of these differences is clever enough to get a husband without any device.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayers Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1890.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully, H. F. ATWELL.

TO PRESERVE ONE'S HEALTH.

Valuable Advice for Girls—Exercise That is Simple and Rational.

It is well to appeal to a growing girl's vanity somewhat in emphasizing the vast importance of "carriage." "A pity 'tis, but true," that "health talk" seldom, if ever, impress the youthful mind; but let young people once realise the great difference in looks that a full chest and arms and a well-posed neck will give, and they will be willing to take the trouble that the possession of these beauties requires.

There is nothing more noticeable in a ballroom, for instance, than a good carriage, combined with a good figure; it has far more effect than mere beauty of face. Now, while the latter gift is not a matter of one's own choosing, to a greater or less extent the former is. Every woman may have the charm of a good figure and grace if she choose. Mothers who have rapidly growing, stooping girls should absolutely insist upon some daily simple form of calisthenics, not only on account of their looks, but also on account of their health.

An eminent physician has said that if the following three simple movements are executed vigorously every day for twenty minutes, the effect in a year's time will be very apparent. Before going down to breakfast open wide the window, and for ten minutes go through the following exercise:

First, stand perfectly straight with heels together, and inflate the lungs with the pure morning air, drawing in the breath while fifteen is being counted, and expelling it in the same way; repeat this eight or ten times. Then bring the arms forward at full length with the palms together, and then throw them vigorously back, trying to touch the backs. At first this will seem impossible, but after a few days' practice it can be done. Do this from twenty-five to fifty times.

Then raise the arms above the head to the utmost with the palms outward; and then lean slowly forward, keeping the knees perfectly straight and try to touch the ground with the fingers. This, too, requires practice at first, but can be done after awhile. Then raise the arms gradually to the first position, and repeat the movement twenty-five to fifty times. At night go through the same movements. This simple little exercise if persisted in will prove to be of incalculable benefit, and will cure, they say, incipient phthisis. This "health cure" is so simple and involves so little trouble that it seems a pity that a girl should lose its benefit through a little want of perseverance on the part of mother and child.—N. Y. Tribune.

Farming in Foreign Lands.

Fresh outbreaks of swine fever have occurred in Scotland.

Olive trees are being grown in South Africa, in conjunction with vineyards.

Continued drouth has caused great anxiety throughout the island of Cyprus.

The soil of Hayti is very fertile. Corn is easily grown, and three crops can be raised annually.

The manufacture of starch from potatoes is attracting attention in the Australian colonies.

The yield of wheat in the Argentine, this season, is unsatisfactory, in some districts hardly paying threshing expenses.

The National Agricultural Society of Hungary has arranged a trial for reapers and binders, to be held on July 9th and 10th.

Cotton is one of the most important products of Persia, the annual crop amounting to about 35,000 bales, mostly Ispahan cotton.

In the Bahamas there are now planted 4,200 acres with 2,633,000 sisal plants. The fiber is worth $100 to $150 per ton, cleaned.

Germany, Holland, and Scandinavia have imported such large stocks of maize that their importations of wheat are declining.

Sheep in Cape Colony are looking poor and sickly, especially September lambs, which are infested with parasites internally.

The French Minister of Agriculture has drawn public attention to frauds in manure, especially with regard to the coloring of phosphates.

In New South Wales the dairy season has been a good one, produce plentiful, and prices of both milk and butter high, owing to export trade.

German sugar journals are suggesting restriction in the cultivation of sugar beets, so as to maintain the price of sugar at a paying rate.

The Merriest Girl That's Out,

"Bonnie sweet Bessie, the maid of Dundee," was, no doubt, the kind of a girl to ask, "What are the wild waves saying?" or to put "a little faded flower" in your button hole, she was so full of vivacity, and beaming with robust health. Every girl in the land can be just as full of life, just as well, and just as merry as she, since Dr. Pierce has placed his "Favorite Prescription" within the reach of all. Young girls in their teens, passing the age of puberty, find it a great aid. Dr. Heath, pale and sickly girls will find this a wonderful invigorator, and a rare corrective for all derangements and weaknesses incident to females. b

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE ABOUT COMPLETED.

The Chinese Immigration Act Amendment—More Restrictions Added—The Senate and the Lotteries—Death Knell of the Quebec Lotteries Sounded.

OTTAWA, July 8.—The second session of the seventh Parliament of Canada is practically at an end. Although the House will meet again at 3 o'clock to-day, and prorogation will positively not take place before Saturday and probably not until Tuesday, all the business is really over. The Commons are only waiting for the Senate to get through with the criminal code for His Excellency to drive in state to the Red Chamber and tell his faithful commons very politely to go about their business.

The Senate and the Lotteries.

The Senate has amended the lottery clause by restoring the portion of the sub-section relating to church lotteries and limiting the value of the article raffled to $50 and knocking out the sub-section which exempted the Province of Quebec Lottery from the provisions of the clause. This was regarded as good work and is not likely to meet with opposition in the Commons.

In the House.

At the morning session of the House the last report of the Printing Committee was adopted after Dr. Bergen, the chairman, had endeavored to impress on the House the necessity for practising economy.

Sir John Thompson moved that when the House adjourned it stand adjourned until 3 o'clock to-day, as there was no further necessity for morning sessions.

The remainder of the sitting was taken up discussing the resolution extending the bounty to beet sugar manufactured in Canada for two years. The debate was continued after 3 o'clock for a short time, when the resolution passed through committee and was reported and a bill based on it introduced and read a first time. The bounty is equivalent to about 1¼ cents per pound.

Sir John Thompson said that the Government did not see its way clearly to going on with the resolution increasing judges' salaries, but the matter would be introduced again early next session. Meanwhile it was intended that some representation should be made to the provincial governments with regard to an improvement of the judicial system. The bill relating to witnesses and evidence was also dropped.

At this point the newly-elected member for Pontiac, Mr. John Bryson, was introduced by Hon. Mr. Haggart and Mr Desjardines and was greeted with Conservative cheers.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced the resolution respecting sessional indemnity of which he gave notice last night, by which members are allowed for 12 days' absence from Ottawa without deduction. A bill founded on the resolution was introduced and read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Bowell moved the House into committee on the Chinese Immigration Bill. The bill reduces by one-half the number of Chinese immigrants a vessel may carry and provides greater safeguards against the fraudulant use of return certificates. The bill was read a third time and passed, and the House adjourned at 5.10.

Mr. Chapleau Ill Again.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau is again indisposed and was unable to be in the House yesterday afternoon to take charge of the Chinese Bill. He is suffering from a bronchial attack and his voice is very weak. It is not likely that he will be able to attend the railway celebration at St. Jerome on Saturday, at which he was to have spoken.

Mr. E. A. Charters, New Brunswick agent of the Department of Agriculture in connection with the World's Fair at Chicago, who has been here for a few days consulting with Professor Saunders, returned to New Brunswick yesterday. He expects that the province will make a large exhibit at the fair.

The Veterans of 1837.

Major McLennan and Messrs. White (Cardwell), Tisdale, Tyrwhitt, Carpenter and other M.P.s waited on Sir John Abbott this afternoon and urged the substantial recognition of the services of the surviving veterans of 1837-8 by a grant of money or land. The same gentlemen waited on His Excellency in his capacity as an Imperial officer and urged that the veterans should receive Imperial recognition in the shape of a medal. The deputation was kindly received in both instances and promised that their memorial should receive consideration.

Mrs. White, wife of the Speaker, gave her last reception yesterday. It was attended by nearly all the members of Parliament and the press gallery, who are still here.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 8.—The receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by 200 bushels of wheat at 80c for fall and 78c for spring.

Hay was in fair supply at $10 to $12.50 for timothy and $8 to $9 for clover. Straw sold at $8 to $10.

On call board No. 1 Northern wheat was offered at 88c without bids. Three cars by sample offered at 88c with 50c bid, and one car offered at 90c with 50c bid.

THE HOMESTEAD RIOTS.

The Town Resumes Its Usual Quietness—No More Deaths.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 8.—After the carnage of Wednesday afternoon the town of Homestead yesterday was almost as quiet as a sleepy country village and the sad duty of a decent interment to three of the five striking workmen, who were instantly killed in the battle that raged fiercely along the beautiful banks of the Monogahela, was the chief evidence of the storm of Wednesday. Up to 8 o'clock last night absolutely nothing has occurred to mar the peace which was profound.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 7.—Everything is quiet at Homestead yesterday and no further trouble is expected. The Pinkerton guards, who were kept in the opera house over night, were brought here this morning, and subsequently all, with the exception of the wounded, who are in the hospital, were sent to New York. There was nothing in the report that the Pinkertons were to be held on a charge of murder. There will be no prosecutions.

The course of Governor Pattison in declining to order the National Guard to Homestead until Sheriff McCleary had exhausted all means in his power to preserve order is generally commended. The prevailing opinion here is that had the militia appeared on the scene the bloodshed would have been much greater.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

An Old Lady's Terrible Death From Carbolic Acid.

WOODSTOCK, July 8.—Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland, aged 73, grandmother of Jas. Sutherland, barber, met with a terrible death at her residence in Birch-street last night, through carelessness. The old lady was preparing to retire when she complained of a pain in her stomach, and on going to the pantry in the twilight took what she supposed was a dose of Jamaica ginger, but which turned out to be carbolic acid. The mistake was discovered when too late. Her husband came in the house a few minutes later and found her lying prostrate on the floor in great agony. He at once summoned medical aid but the poison had done its work. Mrs. Sutherland never regained consciousness after taking the dose.

Abandoned to Her Fate.

LONDON, July 8.—A gale prevailed on the Irish coast last nigot, and the sea made a clean breach over the stranded City of Chicago. The steamer continued to pound heavily. Finally orders were given for all hands to abandon the ship. The officers and crew were all ready for this, and in a short time they went ashore, being assisted by the life-saving crew and coast guardsmen and the steamer was left to her fate.

At 2 o'clock yesterday she broke in two amidship and the after portion went down in 12 fathems of water. When she was abandoned water was pouring over her boilers and filling the engine-room.

Awful Accident to an Employe of the Waterous Co. of Brantford.

BRANTFORD, July 8.—Alfred Brown, foreman of the woodwork department at the Waterous Engine Works here, was this afternoon using a gummer when the belt slipped off the pulley, catching Mr. Brown on the leg and throwing him with such force against the brick wall that it scalped him. The top of his head was completely taken off, causing death instantly.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

To-Day Will Decisively Tell the Result.

LIBERAL GAINS YESTERDAY SMALL.

Justin McCarthy, the Leader of the Anti-Parnellites, Defeated In Londonderry—A Unionist Elected in the Very Heart of Home Rule Dublin—The Conservative Majority Increased To 30.

LONDON, July 9.—Hodge has been heard from and the result is a severe blow to those Liberals who anticipated a sweeping Gladstonian reaction.

Figures have been received this morning which show the return of 344 members to the new House of Commons. Of this number 191 are supporters of the Government and 153 followers of Mr. Gladstone.

Among the latter are 19 Nationalists, composed of 15 McCarthyites and 4 Parnellites.

The Liberal-Unionists number 24.

A balancing of gains and losses is in favor of the Gladstonians by 24.

The same proportion of gains must be maintained to the end for Mr. Gladstone to have a majority of 12 in the new House.

The Liberal gains yesterday were 6, as against 1 Liberal-Unionist and 3 Conservatives.

The surprise of the day was in Irish constituencies and the greatest surprise was the capture of St. Stephen's Green by a Liberal-Unionist. The very heart of Home Rule Dublin has been seized by the opponents of the measure. The Parnellites also slaughtered the antis in the other districts of Dublin.

Justin McCarthy was defeated in Londonderry, but this was anticipated.

The Liberals lost a seat in Wales to a Conservative, but also gained a seat from a Liberal-Unionist.

Out of the 24 county constituencies contested yesterday the Liberals lost two and won two. These results dispose of the last possibility that Mr. Gladstone will obtain a reliable working majority. "Though disappointed in the burgs," said the Liberal chiefs, "when the counties wheel into line we will sweep the country." As the elections hold yesterday are fairly representative, no great Liberal triumph can be expected from the county votes when completed. The Liberal executive relied upon capturing 10 counties in the voting yesterday. They admitted that their calculations must be realized in order to fulfil their expectation that the agricultural labor vote was theirs.

With their prediction falsified the last hope fades that the Gladstone Government will be buttressed by a strong coherent party. On the contrary the Liberal majority must now depend on the Irish party. Even with the support of both the Irish sections it is improbable that Mr. Gladstone will have much of a majority. At the Conservative headquarters a majority of more than 20 is held to be improbable.

Captain Middleton, who occupies in the Conservative party a position similar to that held by Mr. Schnadhorst in the Liberal party, can point to his estimate made prior to the elections as now being verified.

Among the certainties of the future nothing is so certain as that a long period of political turmoil is before the country. A Conservative Government with a small minority readily controlled and accustomed to obey would be secure against Mr. Gladstone with a small majority composed of motley groups of Liberals, Radicals, Laborists, McCarthyites and Parnellites would be unable to effect any serious legislation.

Home Rule Remote.

Liberals are beginning to admit that the chances of Home Rule passing the House of Commons are becoming remote. If ever it does pass no strain will be put upon the House of Lords in rejecting it. The peril to the House of Lords lay in voicing Home Rule as backed by the declared will of the country. All danger of that is now past. They can reject it with a light heart.

The Labor Element.

Other difficulties awaiting a Liberal Government is the formation of a labor party, not caring a rap for Home Rule and ready to coalesce with any side. Already Burns and Hardie, the strongest personal forces among the laborists, declare their intention to organize a party in Parliament and make terms for their support when a majority is doubtful. Even 10 laborists following Burns might decide the fate of the Government. Besides, along with the pure laborists the new London members will form a municipal Socialist group equally regardless of Home Rule and determined not to allow Irish questions to block the progress of social reforms.

With these and other factions operating against him Mr. Gladstone's cherished scheme to give Ireland a separate legislature even should he be elected seems a hopeless achievement.

Gladstone's Paper Cabinet.

Anticipating a new Cabinet the permanent heads of the departments have, as customary, sought to learn what new ministers they are likely to be required to serve. A leading treasury official told the representative of the Associated Press that he had obtained an unexpected intimation that Henry Fowler would be Chancellor of the Exchequer and Sir William Vernon Harcourt First Lord of the Treasury and Government leader in the House of Commons. This arrangement contains a startling implication that Mr. Gladstone will either retire to the House of Lords or that he will take the slightest post in the Government, the vice-presidency of the council. Not the slightest inkling of his intention has as yet reached the chiefs of departments.

The Gladstone entourage ridicule the notion of his accepting a peerage. They believe that despite his growing infirmities of seeing and hearing, he will remain in the House of Commons and fight Home Rule through before he withdraws from public life.

Where the Changes Took Place.

LIBERAL GAINS.

In the Ince division of Lancashire, Col. Blundell (Conservative) is defeated by Woods, a Labor candidate. This fight was distinctly not on the Home Rule issue. Col. Blundell is owner of the Pemberton colliery, and the general prejudice against owners of collieries was used against him. His defeat is counted a Liberal gain, on the general assumption that all the successful Labor candidates are Liberal.

In the Chester division of Cambridgeshire H. E. Hoare (Liberal) is elected by 288 majority over Sir Charles Hall, the late member. The constituency was Conservative in 1878 by 976.

Another Liberal gain was made in the Cricklade division of Wiltshire. Here the Liberal-Unionists' majority of 1718 in 1886 was wiped out and a Liberal majority of 908 established. J. Husband (Liberal) defeated M. H. N. Story-Maskelyne (Unionist), the former member. This is a signal victory for the Liberals in one of the industrial centres of England, for although the borough is called Cricklade after a remote country village, the heart of the borough is the town of Swindon, where the Great Western Railway has large workshops.

In Pembroke district, Wales, Egerton Allen (Liberal), with 2592, defeated General Laurie (Liberal-Unionist), who received 2285. In 1885 the Liberal majority was 285, and in 1886 the Conservative majority was 272.

In North Somerset Courtney Warner (Liberal) defeated the former Conservative member, Evan Henry Llewellyn, by 19, reversing a Conservative majority of 2165 in 1886.

CONSERVATIVE GAINS.

In Londonderry J. Ross (Conservative) defeats Justin McCarthy (anti-Parnellite leader) by 28 majority. Mr. McCarthy's majority in 1886 was 2.

Hon. H. Plunket (Conservative) is elected in Dublin County South, defeating Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmonde (anti-Parnellite).

In Montgomery district, Wales, Sir Pryce-Jones (Conservative) defeated Hon. Hanbury Tracey (Liberal) by 128. The Liberal majority in 1886 was 93.

In St. Stephen's Green division of Dublin, W. Kenny (Liberal-Unionist) wrested the seat from Lord Mayor J. M. Meade (Parnellite) by 15 plurality. The Nationalist majority in 1886 was 1887. The vote today stood: Kenny (Conservative) 2893, Meade (Parnellite) 2878; Pearson (anti-Parnellite) 615.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

Justin McCarthy Defeated In Londonderry—Prominent Members Elected.

LONDON, July 9.—The most important event of yesterday was the defeat of Justin McCarthy, leader of the anti-Parnellites, who has been defeated by a small majority in Londonderry by J. Ross, Conservative. This district has been a very close one, and the defeat of McCarthy did not, therefore, occasion the surprise it might otherwise have done. In 1885 the Conservative majority in Derry was 29. In 1886 this was reversed and a Nationalist majority of 1 substituted. It was in Londonderry Hon. Edward Blake delivered his opening address.

Right Hon. Edward Stanhope, Secretary of State for War, is re-elected in the Horncastle division of Lincolnshire.

Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, President of the Board of Agriculture, was re-elected in the Sleaford division of Lincolnshire. The Liberals pulled down the former majority of 1308 to 902.

Many Parnellite Gains.

Timothy Harrington, Parnellite, secretary of the Irish National League, has succeeded in retaining his seat for the Harbor division of Dublin. This is made a matter of rejoicing by the Parnellites, but their delight over this election is as nothing compared with their jubilation over the defeat of Timothy D. Sullivan, the anti-Parnellite candidate, who formerly represented the College Green division of Dublin. Parnellite candidate, Dr. J. E. Kenny, beat him with hands down. The Parnellites also defeated J. K. Pinkerton, anti-Parnellite, in Galway borough, A. Lynch being returned by 107 majority. In 1886 Pinkerton was returned unopposed.

The Parnellites won still another victory in Dublin. In St. Patrick's division Field (Parnellite) secured 3093 votes against 1096 obtained by W. M. Murphy (anti-Parnellite.) Murphy represented the borough in the late Parliament and took a stand against the Parnell branch of the Irish party.

Who Mr. Hamond Is.

Ald. C. F. Hamond (Conservative) who replaced James Craig (Liberal) Newcastle-on-Tyne, and lead John Morley, Mr. Gladstone's lieutenant, by 3000 votes had contested Newcastle six times. Once before he was elected. In this contest he advocated a fair trade policy.

Mr. Hamond made an active campaign. Placards were posted on dead walls and elsewhere declaring that "The Workingmen Plump for Hamond and Free Breakfast Tables." Mr. Hamond yesterday drove through the streets with red-jacketed postillions with his daughter seated by his side. The young lady was attired in scarlet, the candidate's colors. Mr. Hamond also dressed beggars in his colors. One blind man bore a placard reading, "Plump for Hamond, the Friend of the Blind."

The victory was largely due to a revival of the protection feeling, Ald. Hamond combining the advocacy of a protective tariff with that of the eight-hour question. He obtained the largest majority yet recorded in any constituency.

If Mr. John Morley becomes a minister he will have to be re-elected. His opponents in Newcastle mean to nominate Mr. Joseph Cowan to oppose him should he stand. Mr. Cowan is immensely popular and the Conservatives believe he would be likely to oust Mr. Morley.

Sir Henry Esmonde Defeated.

The faction fight in Ireland has resulted in Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmonde, the anti-Parnellite who formerly held the seat in Dublin County, South, being defeated by a Conservative, Hon. H Plunket. In 1885 Sir Thomas was elected by a majority of 1768 over J. T. Pim, Liberal-Unionist. The Conservatives took advantage of the row in the Irish party to nominate a strong man and the result justifies their action. Their candidate is elected over both candidates of the Irish parties. The poll stood, Plunket, (Conservative) 4371, Mullen (Parnellite) 2361, Esmonde (anti-Parnellite) 1452 The Conservatives are much elated over the result.

In Cornwall, St. Ives, T. B. Bolitho (Liberal-Unionist), re-elected without opposition. Vote in 1886, Sir J. St. Aubyn (Liberal-Unionist), 3395; Liberal 888. When Sir J. St. Aubyn became Baron St. Levan in 1887 a new election was held and Mr. Bolitho was returned unopposed. This seat had been Liberal 55 years, with one exception, until the Irish Home Rule issue was raised.

Godfrey Bundell Samuelson (Liberal), who had a reasonably sure seat in the Forest of Dean and gave it up to Sir Charles Dilke and took his chances against Sir John Warrington in the Tewkesbury division of Gloucester, was beaten by 920 votes.

The Labor Vote.

The London correspondent of The New York Times tables: The news that the single Conservative running led Morley on the poll by 2919 and had 3740 over Craig, the other Liberal member, fairly took the Liberals' breath away. Obviously it was quite as great a surprise to the Conservatives, else they would have run another candidate and thus taken both seats.

As it is, Morley only returns to Parliament by the grace of accident, and his colleague, Craig, is snowed under the biggest drift that has ever taken any member of the last House in this election.

This makes the sixth northern seat lost, either directly or indirectly, by the labor movement. Newcastle's action has emphasized the ugliness of the labor situation in the British political mind. Morley may eventually recover the authority he so worthily exercised in the councils of the Liberal party, but for the time being he will be under a cloud.

London has finished her voting with the exception of Deptford in a blaze of Radical glory. There have been 13 gains in all in the metropolis, which is quite up to the hopes of all but the wildly sanguine.

There is special jubilation over the defeat of Ritchie, because he is the minister who passed the bill creating the county council and then lent himself to the party designs for so crippling its powers as to render it powerless to do good. Ritchie is one of the cleverest of the most modern men in the late Cabinet, and his loss will be a grave one to the party. A fresh seat may be found for him, however, in Holborn by making the present member, Bruce, a judge.

THE IRISH CAMPAIGN.

Attack on John Dillon's House—Another Priest Hit With a Stone.

DUBLIN, July 9.—Crowds flocked to the court house early to await the counting of the votes. An attack was made early this morning upon the house of John Dillon, and the windows were riddled by the volley of stones hurled by the mob. Mr. Dillon is the anti-Parnellite candidate who is standing in East Mayo, his former seat. In an election address delivered yesterday Mr. Dillon said he had seen the Bishop of Killalla bathed in blood from the violence of the Parnellites. During the meeting Father Clarke, one of the best priests in Ireland, was severely cut in the face by a stone hurled by one of the crowd.

The Freeman's Journal and National Press say the Parnellites have abandoned the seven divisions in Cork county, the Leix division of Queen's county, North Tipperary, East Kerry, South Longford, Leitrim, West Waterford and Sligo. It adds that they have confined their contests to Ulster and those places where the fight may result in the defeat of the Tory candidates.

The Landlady Peppered the Crowd and Started a Riot.

LONDON, July 9.—During the election riot at Tiverton the landlady of a tavern there threw pepper into the crowd from a window. The mob attacked the tavern, and in their efforts to restore order the police were severely handled.

GLADSTONE ON RECIPROCITY.

He Says It Will Not Improve the Condition of Trade in Great Britain.

LONDON, July 9.—The Daily News Edinburgh despatch says:

"Messrs. Gladstone and Waechope were nominated to-day (Thursday) and the election will take place on Tuesday next.

"After the election Mr. Gladstone will go to Hawarden for a well-earned rest prior to the opening of Parliament. He started for West Calder to-day in excellent health and spirits.

"At West Calder a public hall had been formed out of a disused quarry. The platform was reached through a vista of tortuous subterranean passages, with an occasional tumble down a flight of steps. The hall was packed and the audience, on seeing Mr. Gladstone issue from the final tunnel, rose to its feet and gave a vociferous cheer.

"Mr Gladstone spoke an hour and 20 minutes with unabated vigor. Referring to the elections, he described the losses in Glasgow, Perth and Southport through Laborites splitting the Liberal votes, as losses involving on the Liberal party discredit and dishonor. 'A loss we can bear,' he said, 'may be repaired, but dishonor and discredit cannot be effaced from the record.' It was sad and sorrowful, he said, to think that three-fourths of the mischief had been done in Scotland, the 'home and fortress of Liberalism.' He heartily trusted that there would be no repetition of these crack-brained proceedings. The Liberal party could not afford to play such pranks without disaster.

"After a passing reference to Ireland, he proceeded to cite Tory prophecies made with a view to retard and defeat the Liberal proposals. The most effective portion of the striking and admirably marshalled list, given with a dramatic force and skill which hugely delighted the audience, was the instance of the Earl of Derby's opposition in 1857 to the proposal to concede the government to Canada. It would be utter ruin, Lord Derby had said, and would lead to the establishment of a sort of French republic in Lower Canada and would hand over the English-born minority to the tender mercies of the French colonists. It was precisely such a speech as might be made by Mr. Balfour or Lord Salisbury, although the Earl of Derby was discussing Canada in a less violent manner than Lord Salisbury was discussing Ireland.

"Against the Earl of Derby's prophecy Mr. Gladstone placed the testimony which Sir Alexander T. Galt, formerly High Commissioner in Great Britain for Canada, delivered the other night, to the effect that Canada had flourished exceedingly and had become more closely united to the Mother Country. 'So,' said Mr. Gladstone, in an eloquent passage, 'will it be with Ireland when she enjoys the blessings of Home Rule.'"

WHERE THE FUNDS CAME FROM.

Russia Charged With Having Supplied It for Murders in Bulgaria.

SOFIA, July 8.—The trial was resumed here to-day of the persons who are charged with being engaged in a conspiracy to assassinate Prince Ferdinand and a number of high Government officials.

Pinsoff, one of the prisoners, testified that his accomplice, Milaroff, described to him the plan to kill M. Stambuloff, the Prime Minister, and his family and other notables, and then to assassinate Prince Ferdinand.

The plotters also stated that Russia gave them 18,000 roubles to execute the plot.

Whisky Smuggling on the St. Lawrence.

QUEBEC, July 8.—Considerable excitement prevails here on account of a hasty move of the military authorities in forwarding a detachment of "B" battery and field-piece by the Government steamer Alert to reinforce the revenue cutter Constance, which has overhauled a whisky smuggler bent on mischief and full of fight.

MRS. THOS. WATTAM.

A WONDERFUL DELIVERANCE FROM DANGER?

A Serious Case of "Prolapsus Uteri."

THE DOCTORS COULD GIVE NO RELIEF

Paine's Celery Compound is Tried and Works Marvellously—Testimony That Will Gladden Many Hearts.

In Canada, as in other lands, physicians derive fully three-fourths of their income by professional attendance on women. We boldly assert that the great majority of women suffer through their own neglect and thoughtlessness. Thousands of women seem to bid defiance to nature's inexorable laws; they mark out for themselves a line of life and follow out their own course, until suddenly and abruptly halted by suffering and disease. Nature is long-suffering, patient and enduring, but always records, when tried and trifled with too long. Nature's laws, when observed by women, rich or poor, are always and gentle. Nature's laws, when observed and followed, are paths of peace and pleasantness; and her rewards are many and great in this life, and help to prepare for future bliss when earth is left behind.

We acknowledge that many estimable and good women, owing to circumstances of life and home, are made to suffer keenly and severely. The pressing and urgent cares of families demand their best efforts of mind and physical strength. The loving, uncomplaining and toiling mother works day after day for husband and children until she becomes broken-down and weak. This is the class of women with whom we sympathize; it is for them that special effort should be made, in order to relieve the distresses, burdens and tribulations.

To day, our aim is to offer comfort and consolation to all, who, through circumstances over which they have no control, are suffering. Physicians are aware of the fact that general debility, physical weakness and a run-down constitution, bring on that terrible trouble, "Prolapsus Uteri," or "Falling of the Womb."

Fortunately for such sufferers science has provided a remedy that is sure and unfailing—a remedy that has wrought wonders in scores of serious cases—we refer to Paine's Celery Compound, now so well known in every part of our Dominion as "Canada's honest and trustworthy medicine."

Thousands of women in our midst, weakened by physical suffering, are victims of the terrible ailment just referred to. Their condition is a truly dangerous and precarious one, and demands instant attention if life is valued. Their great danger is only known and understood by those who have seen the terrible results that follow when such troubles are neglected. Such women require new strength and new vigor. They require an agent that can build up in flesh, blood, bone and muscle. Every ligament, cord and nerve requires a strengthening power.

This work cannot be accomplished by the ordinary treatment of the physician, a special remedy must be used to produce desired results. To-day there is only one remedy in the domain of medicine that can meet the urgent wants of sufferers from "Prolapsus Uteri." This unfailing remedy—wonderful in its workings and power—was tried recently by Mrs. Thos. Wattam, of Plevna, Ont., and the results were quick and effectual. This lady had tried the skill of physicians, and the virtues of other boasted remedies—but all proved failures. Paine's Celery Compound, always true, honest and reliable, worked wondrously as soon as it was tried, and brought new hope and courage to a heart despondent and fainting, owing to past failures. This is only one strong proof out of many, which proves the vast superiority of Paine's Celery Compound over every other agent, whether in liquid or pill form. The glad news now conveyed to the women of Canada by Mrs. Wattam's testimonial, will be hailed with delight and great joy; and numberless women will, without doubt, be constrained to use the same great healing power.

Paine's Celery Compound is no stranger seeking for recognition and support. It is now the family medicine of Canada, and has achieved a degree of fame never reached by any other preparation. It has the confidence of men and women; it raises to life and strength and spreads happiness in our land.

Mrs. Thos. Wattam has sent us the following testimonial which is interesting and amusing:—

"WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.,

"DEAR SIRS:—I was advised by a friend a short time ago to give your Compound a trial, as I considered me ailed from the dentist. I have been suffering about two years from "Falling of the Womb" and general weakness. I am now happy to state that I am better at present than for a long time past. I am just finishing my second bottle; and if I keep on improving as I have done in the last month, I will be a well woman in a very short time—thanks to your medicine; it is a most wonderful remedy for such complaints as mine. You can use this as you see fit; and I am willing to answer any questions asked of me, by those who are troubled in the same way. Wishing you every success with your remedy, I am,

"Faithfully yours,

"MRS. THOS. WATTAM,

"Plevna, Ont."

Major Hughes' Latest.

The Quebec papers do not take much interest in Mr. "Sam" Hughes' quixotic scheme for shipping Orangemen from Ulster to effect the meagre migration of French-Canadians to Manitoba. The truth is more French-Canadians go to New England in a week than to Manitoba in a twelvemonth, and the French race is rapidly losing interest in that portion of the Dominion. If the politicians, Orange and Roman Catholic, wish to do something of service to the whole country, let them devise a plan for improving the condition of the Quebec people so that the terrible drain of the exodus may be checked. That would be more in keeping with the patriotic protestations of "Sam" and his cosigners in the lodges that this attempt to set up a Donnybrook in Manitoba. We all know that, no matter what decision the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council may render in the school question, the majority in that Province must ultimately have its way. You cannot by means of paper provisions restrain nine-tenths of a community blessed with local self-government from doing as it pleases with respect to educational matters. It is not necessary, therefore, to import Orangemen to help Mr. Greenway, but if they choose to go there and cultivate the soil in peace and quietness he will no doubt be glad to see them.—Globe.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

Strawberries and the Tariff.

A correspondent at Niagara Falls, Ont., calls attention to the fact that Canadian strawberries are admitted free into the United States, except for an entry charge, which varies from 25 cents to a dollar. Grapes and apples have to pay a stiff duty, but berries are allowed in free. Mr. McKinley showed sense in that. As a rule, the Canadian strawberry crop is marketed after the American crop is exhausted, so that free entry benefits the American consumer without injury to the producer. We, on the other hand, tax American strawberries three cents a pound, the weight of the package being included in the weight for duty, the result being that the Canadian consumer has to pay an artificial price for the imported strawberries he eats in the early part of the season.

Down by the Sea!

Lactated Food a Life-Preserver—A Baby Saved.

The "life preserver," Lactated Food, works in a marvellous way down by the sea. Infants born on the sea shore in summer time, and who have the privilege of inhaling the invigorating air from the mighty ocean, require Lactated Food as much as the infants born far inland. Weak and puny babies must have their lives sustained by the nearest possible approach to mothers' milk when this fails in quality and quantity, or when it fails altogether.

Mothers down by the sea, know from experience that cow's milk cannot sustain life, as it is often stale, watery and unreliable. They have made choice of Lactated Food and have not been disappointed.

The following letter is from a thankful mother, who will use no food but, "Lactated." :—

"Enclosed please find photo of my baby, John A. Robertson, aged twelve months, weight twenty-nine pounds. He has twelve teeth, and is now in the best of health. He was very ill when two months' old, and Dr. Thos. Walker advised me to feed him with your food. I have used over three dozen packages, and would not be without it, if it cost as much again. I cannot speak of it too highly, and I intend to continue its use. My baby weighed seven and a half pounds when he was born."

Methodist Church Corner Stone Laid.

A large crowd assembled to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist church at Bethel, says the Omemee Recorder, which took place on Dominion Day according to announcement. The stone was laid by Mr. Chas. Miller, of Peterborough, who was afterwards presented with the trowel. Appropriate addresses were made by the Revs. Greatrex, Falks, Raley, Saunders, Thompson and Brown. A splendid tea was served in the adjoining grove, and the Omemee band contributed largely to the enjoyableness of the day by their music. The proceeds amounted to about $140. The church is to be built of brick, 32x50 feet, with basement, and will cost, when finished, somewhere in the neighbourhood of $2,000. Mr. G. J. Jopling, of Bridgenorth, has the contract.

An Important Election.

One of the most important of the bye-elections held since the return of the present Parliament will be that fixed for the 15th in Algoquette. The constituency to be heard from on that day is the one riding west of Lake Superior that returned a Liberal in 1891 and in which a vacancy was created by Mr. Watson's acceptance of a seat in the Gateway cabinet. The peculiar interest aroused by the contest now on is due to the fact, however, that Senator Boulton will resign his seat in the Upper House for the purpose of offering himself as a candidate for the Commons on the straight free trade ticket.

Manufacturing Experiments.

Experiments in the manufacture of ultramarine have lately proved that excellent results may be expected from the following proportions of raw materials: Forty-two pounds of sodium sulphide, 20 pounds sulphur, 110 pounds kaolin or China clay, 106 pounds soda as carbonate, or 40 pounds of caustic soda—these qualities yielding about 200 pounds of ultramarine blue. The clay and soda are first roasted together at a red heat, so as to effect partial double decomposition, and the product is ground; "sulphur liquor" is then made by dissolving flowers of sulphur in a solution of sulphide of sodium to saturation. After this the ground material is made into a thick paste with the sulphur liquor, the paste dried in an oven, and this dried mass, broken into small pieces, is roasted without access of air in a closed earthenware retort, first at 250 to 300 degrees, Cent., for on hour, then at a red heat for eight hours, and finally just below dull redness in presence of a slow, regulated current of air, the retort to be quite cold before being opened.

The Largest Ever Mined.

There was recently transported from the mine of the Santa Barbara Asphelt Company of La Patera, California, a large block of asphaltum, weighing as it was taken from the mine some two and one-half tons, and believed to be the largest block of asphaltum ever mined in one mass. The mine in question has only been opened about one year. Though chiefly used, as is well-known, for street paving, its employment is increasing for other purposes, large quantities being now consumed in making floors for warehouses, cellars, wineries, breweries, etc., as it renders floors absolutely water-tight, besides not being affected by acids or gasses. For lining dams, levees, and reservoirs, a thin coat of the article put on in a melted state presents a permanent water-tight surface, preventing loss by seepage, even when backed by only an earth embankment. It is claimed to make conduits of wood almost if not quite as durable as iron.

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a Sweeping Clearance Sale of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. The Splendid Values which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. Prices will be a Secondary Matter! The Goods Must Go! There will be Bargains for Everybody!

Come and buy now, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

Seats Badly Needed.

Some of the candidates in the British elections may think they need seats badly, but they do not need them half as badly as the visitors at the park, on band nights especially. Of course it would be impracticable to supply seats for all, but if the public would occupy seats for a time, till they became rested, and then take a stroll, and give some weary lady a chance to rest, the practice of coming early and seizing a seat and holding it the whole evening would cease.

Chemong Park Arrivals.

The following are the arrivals at Chemong Park Hotel on July 7th and 8th:—Captain Bottum, Bobcaygeon; C. C. Rowse, Peterborough; Mordon Bird, Stirling; G. Fitzgerald, Smith; Miss Lefroy, B. S. G. E Mosley, Peterborough; John Hall, wife and daughter; A. J. Hall and wife, Smith.

Bobcaygeon Iron Bridge.

The iron swing bridge, says the Bobcaygeon Independent, over the canal is being erected by Mr. W. H. Law of Peterborough. A delay was occasioned at the Bridgenorth wharf through part of the material falling into the lake. In loading the scow the weight was placed too much at one end, and the old float quietly stood up on its hind legs and slid the stuff off into the water. To those accustomed to timber bridges the thin sheets of iron have a very flimsy appearance. It is amusing to see a person testing with his foot, as he would an inch basswood board, a girder calculated to carry about 50 tons.

Poems Become Classical

Mr. Wm. Telford, the bard of Smith, has reason to feel flattered at the recognition of his poems as classical. The first page of the pamphlet containing the "programme and announcement" of the Chautauqua Assembly, Beatrice, Nebraska, bears the following motto:

Life is a stage; each man must act his part,
Either to do good or to corrupt the heart.
Play well your part, and when life's scene is o'er
Your deeds will shine back brighter than before.—TELFORD.

This extract is from the poem entitled "Man's After Influence" contained in Telford's Poems.

Seasonable and Fashionable.

Now is the time to go to the back lakes. Ladies who intend taking a few weeks holidays should bear in mind that J. J. Sheehy is offering a beautiful selection of sea-side flannels in all the latest colourings at the marvellously low price of 25c per yard. There are over fifteen patterns to select from and no two alike. Mr. Sheehy is bound to keep all classes of goods which the various seasons call for. He would also respectfully call attention to a large lot of flannelettes which he has just received which goods are now being sold at 10 yds for a dollar. The goods measure over 26 inches in width and should be seen by all thrifty house-keepers before the selection is broken. To-night will be bargain night and as usual. No trouble to show goods. 1d1w

The Band Concert Last Night.

After a lapse of two weeks, caused by the band being away in Kingston last Friday night, the open air concerts at the park were resumed last night. A large number was present, lining the various walks and avenues, or reclining upon the velvety grass listening to the capital selections discoursed by Peterborough's first-class musical organization. Next Friday evening the band will give a high class concert in the drill shed, and as their object is a worthy one—that of raising funds to enable them to replace their old and worn-out instruments with new and more modern ones—they should receive the most generous support at the hands of the citizens. The band has been in preparation for this concert for some time past, and will make this one of the best entertainments of the season.

Eternal Vigilance

is the price of health. But with all our precautions there are enemies always lurking about our systems only waiting a favorable opportunity to assert themselves. Impurities in the blood may be hidden for years, or even for generations, and suddenly break forth, undermining health and hastening death. For all diseases arising from impure blood, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the unequalled and unsuppressed remedy. It is King of them all, for it conquers disease.

St. Paul's Church Outing.

Their Annual Picnic Held Yesterday at Victoria Park—Fine Grounds and a Good Time.

St. Paul's church (Presbyterian) Sunday school excursion to Victoria Park yesterday was perhaps the most successful of the season. The steamer Golden Eye took down two boat loads, one at 8 in the morning and the other at 2. About 350, including an unusual number of adults, took in the trip. The day was regular picnic weather. Dinner and tea was partaken of in the park. Games were contested by the children, and canoeing was a favorite pastime. The committee were painstaking and attentive, special credit being due to Mr. James Connal, who had the largest share of the work to do. Notwithstanding the large number of children, the purser and crew of the Golden Eye handled the excursion well, and they exerted themselves in every way possible for the safety, comfort and convenience of the excursionists.

The steamer service and the scenery of the river trip are deservedly popular. The voyage both up and down the river is pleasantly varied and the rich foliage of the trees fringing the river and at times dipping into the limpid water, make the shifting panorama exceedingly pleasant to the eye.

The steamer left about 5 30 and reached town about 8 p.m. No accidents of any kind occurred and all returned home pleased and delighted with the days outing, voting it the best Sunday school picnic they had ever held. Mr. Sheriff Hall was also very active in providing amusement for the little ones who thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon sports. No list of the races or prize winners was kept; it was the first event of its character that St. Paul's church has tried for the amusement of the children and it proved highly successful.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & Macdonald's or at the Peterborough Bookstore. d

Peterborough Bicycle Club.

The interest in preserving a vigorous Bicycle Club in Peterborough seems fast waning. The organization started with bright prospects this spring but they have gradually fallen into decay owing to the little concern taken in the club by both men and officers alike. On Thursday night less than half a dozen wheelmen turned out for the hebdomida spin and not a road officer was present. The track for the P.A.A.A. grounds has been put in good condition and $10 more expended on it would make it one of the best tracks out. Where are the races which the club was going to hold on the track every two weeks? Because the Canadian Wheelman's Association is over at Kingston that is no reason why the bicycle club here should fall like Lucifer—never to rise again.

According to Law.

At the last meeting of the Board of Education there was some criticism of the action of the chairman at the meeting held on June 7th, in declaring lost a motion to adopt the report of a special committee in reference to a local superintendent (which motion he considered tantamount to the dismissal of the present inspector), though nine members voted for the motion and one against. The chairman feels that he was perfectly justified in acting according to the spirit of the law. Section 157 of the "Education Department Act, 1891," says:—

Inspectors in towns and cities separated from the county shall be appointed by the Board of Public School Trustees, and shall be subject to dismissal by the Lieut.-Governor-in-Council, or by a majority of the members of the Board in case of inefficiency or misconduct, or by a vote of two thirds of the Board without cause, and no such inspector shall be re-appointed without concurrence of the party who dismissed him.

—The Bobcaygeon Independent makes a demand for the organization of a "bee" to clear up the village park fit for use. Mr. Smiff is in correspondence with "Club" Walker in reference to the supply of refreshment sufficiently loaded lasting for the coming log-rolling.

—The Lakefield Chronicle has re-appeared under the name of the Lakefield News. It is now under the management of Mr. Jas. W. Eldpath and the first issue bears a creditable appearance. It is neat in make-up, newsy in matter, and under it new proprietor will, it is hoped be a success.

—A drive of logs consisting of 230,000 pieces, the property of the Rathbun Company, of Deseronto, and the Gilmour Company of Trenton, is passing down the Trent river now. Over 100 men are employed on the drive, this being one of the largest that ever passed through these waters.

—The Kingston Whig says:—Things were about decided for a game with Peterborough lacrosse team on July 13th to occur at Belleville when a match was arranged with Madoc for the 12th. As Kingston goes to Brockville on the 15th a match with Port Hope cannot take place till near the end of the month.

—The tickets for the band concert on Friday night next have been issued and the people are taking hold of the matter in an energetic manner. The band are making every effort to make this concert a great success, and it is delightful to see the hearty manner in which the citizens are helping on the enterprise. Peterborough has a splendid musical organization and with new instruments the band would be second to none. All should help in this laudable object.

The aroma of the tobacco leaf is so completely conserved in the manufacture of "Myrtle Navy," that age has no effect in diminishing it; even after the plug has been kept for years it gives out its full flavor under the combustion in the pipe, mellowed in tone by its age and making the most exquisite smoke which tobacco can be made to give. Age, too, hardens the structure of the plug and gives to the tobacco, when cut, that almost granular appearance in which all connoisseurs delight.

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the Worst Case of Scrofula they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I Work all the Time. Before, I could do no work. I know not what to say strong enough to express my gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla for my perfect cure." GEORGE W. TURNER, Farmer, Galway, Saratoga county, N. Y.

George Street Church Outing.

A Delightful Day Spent at Chemong Park—Sports and Prize Winners.

The George street Methodist church Sunday school held their annual picnic at Chemong Park yesterday. About two hundred and fifty availed themselves of the trip and thoroughly enjoyed the day's outing. The day at the park was spent in bathing, swimming, fishing and other exhilarating exploits. On the way up the cars attached to the Maple Leaf struck a pier of the bridge while passing and gave some of the passengers a slight jolt, causing three or four ladies to sit down on baskets of provisions. In the afternoon a delightful programme of sports was run off under the supervision of Messrs. F. H. Dobbie, Geo. S. Ross and others. The return trip was made without mishap, the pleasure reaching home at the early hour of 7 o'clock. Following is a list of the sports and the winners:

For the Street Inspector's Eye.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Allow me space for a few lines as I want to draw the attention of our street inspector to some work that should be attended to at once, and if he will come with me to the corner of Sheridan and Hunter streets I will show him what I think should be done. We want a crossing from the foot of Sheridan street to the south side of Hunter street. We had part of one all along until a few days ago but some party was sent to clean out the drain along the side of the street, when he lifted what was left of the crossing and it has never been put back again. Now what is wanted here is a good crossing, as there are a good many people passing up and down Sheridan street, and when they want to cross Hunter they must plough through the mud or go away down to the bridge or up to Queen street crossing just opposite St. John's church, as their is no crossing between St. John's and the bridge. Then again, the crossing from the west side of Sheridan to the east side of Sheridan on Hunter street, is very low, and as Sheridan street is a sharp incline from Hunter street, and as there is not much, if any, chance for the water to pass away in time of rain, the water runs down bringing mud, stones, etc., along with it, and flowing right over the sidewalk and leaving it in a muddy state. I think some thing could be done to remedy this by raising the crossing and and letting the water run under the sidewalk. I feel sure that our street inspector will see that we need the crossing on Hunter street, and he will, no doubt, conceive some way to keep the mud and water off the other crossing on Sheridan street. I think that all our intelligent inspector wants is a gentle hint, when the work will be attended to at once. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space,

I remain, yours truly,
RATEPAYER.

Horse Sense.

These are sound words that Monroe Salisbury of Pleasanton, Cal., the owner of the great pacer, Direct, 2.06, said: "As between the standard-bred trotter that can't trot, and his non-standard bred brother that can go some, choose the latter every time. Pedegree cuts no figure with me, unless there is merit behind it. We are carrying this standard business to extremes, and the business of breeding trotters must eventually suffer from it. I expect the breeders of the country to throw up their hands when I say that I do not care a rap for pedegree unless the horse can perform. In our haste to produce extreme speed we are leaving out the important elements of style and roadster qualities." This is gospel truth and applies to all other breeds as well. If a horse cannot do what he is bred for, then discard him at once, even though his pedigree be gilt-edged enough to line the dome of heaven.

Bloody Milk.

The bloody milk from the cow that has lately come in is probably due to the congestion of the udder natural to the first flush of milk. Give one ounce of the nitrate of potash twice daily in the drinking water, and rub the udder firmly but gently 15 or 20 minutes at a time several times daily. If this does not cure the trouble dissolve one pound of epsom salts and a quart of hot water, and two teacupfuls of molassas and a tablespoonful of extract of Jamaica ginger and give the whole as a single dose, pouring it slowly into the cow's throat; her head being held up by an assistant during the administration. Bloody milk may be due to bruises, harsh milking, the effect on the udder of irritating food, and to garget or other disease of the udder. If your cow's udder is hot, painful and swollen you should call a veterinarian or an experienced cowman.

Feeds to Fatten Poultry.

In France some of the principal poultry fatteners make buckwheat the principle article of food, while others use equal proportions of buckwheat and barley meals. Food for fattening poultry should always be given in the form of meal, as digestion of soft food is much easier than that of grain. Many French feeders mix the food with skimmilk. This has the effect of helping the process, for milk has all elements for development of fat, and also makes the skin a good color. It is desirable to give food milk-warm, and the motto of the poultry fattener should be, Little and often. Regularity in feeding is an important matter, and food should not, under any circumstances, be permitted to stand over from one meal to the next.

Watching the Sheep.

The flock at pasture away from the barns should be visited every few days and salted. This is partly too keep the sheep tame, but largely to see that they are all right. A sheep is a helpless animal and often gets into trouble even when not pursued by dogs. One is sometimes found cast on rolling land or in small hollows. If [illegible] several days in this way it [illegible] would die. The attendant should also detect a sore foot or [illegible] starting of maggots and take steps for the immediate suppression of the trouble.

The Wool Growing Industry.

There is no industry that is so sensitive as wool growing, responding so quickly to appreciation or depreciation of price. The reason evidently is that it is almost the only animal industry that is liable to foreign competition, and is thus exposed to the hostilities and uncertainties of national legislation. There is, however, a gratifying revival of interest in sheep husbandry and a gradual increase of numbers during the past three years.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is looked on wonderful. He gathers all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Killed by a Sky Rocket.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 7.—Last night, as A. Caggie of Corinne was firing sky rockets, he touched one off and instead of mounting it ran along the street, and when in front of Mrs. H. L. Winn it caught on an obstruction, breaking the stick, which flew towards the woman, penetrating her breast, and causing instant death.

Staggers.

The horse that, although usually in good spirits, stops on the road after having been driven a few miles, doesn't mind the whip, trembles and seems rather dazed, has what is commonly known as the staggers. There is practically no cure for this trouble and as the animal is liable to be attacked at any time with a seizure during which he may run away or injure himself and those who may be about him he is an unsafe animal to drive.

The Standard (Conservative) considers that the Liberal attack on London failed, whilst it will take many minor advantages to console them for Birmingham's demonstration. It adds: "Mr. Burns is likely to prove a thorn in the flesh of his nominal allies. Unless the Liberals do much better than yesterday their enterprise is doomed to disastrous failure."

ORANGEVILLE, Ont., July 7.—The meeting held by the annexationists in Orangeville yesterday was largely attended and the sentiment expressed by the audience was unanimous in favor of British connection. Addresses were made by William Algie, T. M. White and Elgin Myers in favor of annexation and by Dr. Lewis and Rev. M. S. Gray in opposition. The latter gentlemen were cheered to the echo by the audience, who were unanimous in favor of loyalty to the empire.

They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the most especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

A Liberal Trumpet.

Scores of men and women who have always suffered their prejudices to blind them to the merits of Burdock Blood Bitters now use and praise this wonderful tonic purifier as the best remedy known for dyspepsia, constipation and all blood diseases. dw

These who are in the habit of taking an appetizer before meals could not do better, as well for the effect as for economy's sake, than make use of "Indigenous Bitters." As Indigenous Bitters are a highly laxative, those who suffer from habitual constipation, will derive great benefit, by regularly taking them, as they keep the bowels in good order and in that way aid digestion. 1d

Oh, My Head!

That splitting headache, aching brow and irritable feeling can be immediately relieved and permanently cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, the best remedy for headache, constipation and all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. dw

"German Syrup"

Martinsville, N.J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a Cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." REV. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, New Jersey, M.E. Conference, April 25, '90.

SUNK BY AN IRONCLAD.

A Trans-Atlantic Liner Run Down Off the Gulf of Lyons.

PARIS, July 8.—The trans-Atlantic steamer Marechal Canrobert has been sunk in collision with the French flagship Hoche off Planier, an island in the Gulf of Lyons. The Marechal Canrobert was literally cut in half. She was attempting to cross the line of the French squadron that was manœuvreing when the accident occurred.

There were 35 passengers on the deck of the Marechal Canrobert watching the manœuvres when the Hoche, which is the flagship of the squadron, crashed into her side.

The Canrobert was fastened in all haste to the ironclad to prevent her from sinking while her passengers were being transfered to the warship.

Immediately after the Marechal Canrobert had been detached from the Hoche she gave a lurch and disappeared beneath the waves.

Five of the passengers on the Marechal Canrobert were lost. It is supposed that they were killed by being struck by the ram of the Hoche when she crashed into the unfortunate steamer.

No Peace Along the Afghan Frontier.

SIMLA, July 8.—In spite of the declared intention of the Ameer of Afghanistan to extend clemency to the insurgents, the rebellion in the State of Bajaur, and in other places along the Afghan frontiers continues. Umra, Khan of Jandol, is at the head of the forces opposing the Afghans. The position of Gholam Hyder is critical, and he has applied for assistance from Jellalabad.

Heavy Cotton Failure.

LIVERPOOL, July 8.—Isaac Cook & Sons, prominent cotton brokers of this city, have suspended payment. A syndicate has been formed to take over their whole interest of 110,000 bales of cotton at the struck price. This cotton will be unloaded at the rate of 25,000 bales daily until their interest is liquidated.

A Shocking Crime.

GUELPH, July 8.—James O'Connor, aged 32, a worthless scoundrel, is locked up on a charge of outraging Jennie Marriott, aged 10.

O'Connor grabbed the girl as she was passing the Collegiate Institute last night about dusk, carried her into the grounds, and after placing his hands over her mouth to silence her screams, committed the offence.

Burglars at Chatham.

CHATHAM, July 8.—A youth while playing around the G.T.R. sheds yesterday found a kit of burglars tools. The police were notified, and set a watch for the owner. About 10.30 p.m. Pat Sharkey, a moulder from St. Thomas, put in an appearance and was at once arrested.

Later on a woman named "Olie" Smith, alias Hall, alias Johnson, a female housebreaker, was arrested.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.

DEAR SIR,—For many years, I have been a firm believer in your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills." Not with a blind faith, but a confidence wrought by an actual personal experience of their value and merit. My business is such that I spend much of my time away from home, and I would not consider my travelling outfit complete without a box of Morse's Pills.

A Model Haywork.

A wagon rack suitable for the convenient and easy loading of hay, grain or corn fodder was built by the students of the North Carolina Agricultural College last season, which is worth copying. It can be placed on any farm wagon by lengthening out the reach to suit the length. The list of materials, which cost $7.46 in Raleigh, N.C., is as follows: Two sills 2 x 6 in. by 14 ft. dressed on two sides, four pieces 1 1-2 x 3 in. by 3 1-2 ft., four cross pieces 3 x 4 in. by 6 1-2 ft., two boards 1 x 9 in. by 13 5-6 ft., two boards 1 x 4 1-2 in. by 13 5-6 ft., four side pieces 1 x 4 in. by 8 2-3 ft., six bows 1 x 3 by 6 1-6 ft. The two ladders take four pieces 1 1-2 x 3 in. by 6 1-3 ft., two pieces 1 1-2 x 2 in. by 2 1-4 ft., two pieces 1 1-2 x 2 in. by 2 3-4 ft., two rounds 3 7-12 ft. long, two stakes at the hind corners 1 1-4 x 1 1-2 x 20 in., 12 oak pins 3-8 x 3 in. There are two blocks needed under the front cross piece 4 x 4 x 2 3-4 in., four under the second cross piece 1 3-4 x 2 3-4 x 4 in. The bolts needed are two carriage bolts 5-8 x 14 in., six 5-8 x 10 in., four 5-8 x 7 in., 16 3-8 x 5 in., four 1-4 x 3 1-2 in., 20 1-4 x 2 1-2 in., eight screws of 5.8 in. wire and 2 in. long and 14 washers.

Quality in Eggs.

To most people an egg is simply an egg, and nothing more, but there are eggs and eggs. There is really as much difference between the flavor of a well-fed Langshan egg and that from a black Spanish hen as between the meat coming from these respective birds. The meat on the former is rich and well flavored; that on the latter is dry and insipid, and the eggs are pretty much the same. If some of our scientists would go thoroughly into the subject, and tell us the quality of eggs produced by each variety of our domestic fowls, they would render an incalculable service to the community at large. Doctors would then be able to discriminate between one and the other, and in ordering their patients these invaluable comestibles, could tell which to select. A bilious subject who dare not eat a Cochin or a Game egg might partake of a Minorca or a Spanish egg with less risk. Eggs can be influenced by the food consumed and the whole question is full of possibilities. All eggs are not alike; they each have distinct qualities; and it should be the object of poultry-keepers to encourage the buying of eggs by their breeds, for in that way will the best qualities obtain top prices. Perhaps some day we shall see eggs in shops labeled according to their breed as well as their freshness.—English Exchange.

Street Car Accidents in Toronto.

TORONTO, July 8.—Robert Currie fell off a McCaul-street car about 6 o'clock last night. The wheels of the car passed over his left arm and leg, crushing the bones. He was intoxicated at the time of the accident.

Alexander Lee, a 7-year-old boy, while jumping off a High Park car last night fell under the wheels. Both wheels passed over his body, almost severing his right leg and inflicting severe internal injuries, which will probably prove fatal.

Fell Overboard.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 8.—William Benoit, 19 years old, a resident of Paincourt, was drowned last night near the lighthouse by falling overboard from the steamer City of Chatham while the boat was making her return trip from Detroit. Benoit lived at Paincourt and with his elder brother and a sister had taken the trip to Detroit. The steamer was making the Paincourt dock at 7.30 when the accident occurred.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

Mrs. Broderick, aged 26, and her three children, were suffocated in a New York tenement house fire yesterday.

A C.P.R. train ran into some cattle on the Montreal wharf yesterday. Seven cars were wrecked and Arthur Gagnon, a workman, was killed.

C. R. Drake left Winnipeg on May 27 and was last heard of as being a passenger on the steamer Manitoba to Owen Sound on May 31. He is said to have been in the Salvation Army barracks in Owen Sound on the evening of June 3. Since then nothing has been heard of him.

Then and Now.

In ancient days for many an ill,
We used to take a big blue pill,
It did so surely tear and gripe,
We felt for purgatory ripe,

To-day, when sick, we take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are gently aperient or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Cures Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Put up in vials, hermetically sealed, hence always fresh and reliable. Purely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. Sold by druggists, at 25 cents a vial.

There are more cases of sickness and death from diseased kidneys than from all other diseases combined. It is your own fault if you allow your kidneys to remain in an unhealthy condition when the cure is at hand. Dodd's Kidney Pills are guaranteed to cure the worst cases. It costs but little to give them a trial. They are for sale by all druggists and dealers or by mail on receipt of 50 cts. or 6 boxes for $2.50. Write for book called Kidney Talk.

WILL be found an excellent remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them. dw

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for constipation and headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy for ladies in clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1 dw

CITY WIPED OUT BY FIRE

ST. JOHNS, NEWFOUNDLAND, LAID IN ASHES.

The Capital of the Blue Nose Colony Visited by a Conflagration Which Leaves Few Buildings Standing.—The Fire Raged All Night Long.

St. John's, N.F., July 9.—An extensive fire is raging here fanned by a high wind. The fire originated in a small wooden building on Long's Hill, near the top of the mountain. This street runs through the heart of the city to the waterside. The water supply was inefficient at the height where the fire originated and there was nothing effectual to stay the furious progress of the roaring elements. The high wind carried live embers in all directions, and soon a score of conflagrations were spreading destruction. Threatening flames swept towards the harbor, licking up everything in its wide swath. This included the Methodist college, the Masonic temple, Gower-street Methodist church, the majestic cathedral of the English and Roman Catholic churches, the two finest places of worship on the continent, built at a cost of half a million dollars, the Orange hall, the palace of Bishop Jones, the St. Patrick's hall and Christian Brothers school, the presentation convent, the Supre Court house and police headquarters, government offices, government savings bank, the Athenaum, the Union bank, the Commercial bank, the Presbyterian church. Everything in the path of the flames was swept before it. The whole centre of the city is one smouldering mass of ruins. Not a building is left standing in the path of the devouring element down to Water street, where the great stores, fish warehouses and warves soon yielded a ready victim to the roaring flames. At 8 o'clock the telegraph and cable offices were burned. The fire was still spreading southward toward the historial parliament buildings and governor's palace. It is impossible to estimate the loss, but already over 3,000 people are homeless.

The last great fire was in 1836, when three-fourths of the city was destroyed.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The House Adjourned at 3 O'Clock This Afternoon.

Ottawa, July 9.—The work of both House and Senate is over and prorogation took place at 3 yesterday afternoon. The session ranks as one of the longest on record, having lasted 139 days, but the holidays have been rather more numerous than usual and there have been only 87 working days. Although the session has not been as long or as sensational as last year it will still rank as one above the average in interest on account of some of the important measures which have become law such as the Redistribution Bill, the Consolidation and amendment of the Criminal law.

The Senators worked well yesterday. The morning session found them a little rusty and tired after sitting until within a few minutes of midnight. Refreshed by dinner, however, the Senators buckled down to their work like men and polished off the remaining 475 clauses of the bill before 6 o'clock, and last night it has passed its third reading.

The only important amendment made was increasing the penalty for grave-robbery from one year to five. In this connection reference was made to the mysterious disappearance of the body of the late Pat Purcell, ex-M.P., which has never been recovered.

The House only sat for an hour and cleared up the odds and ends of business left over yesterday. The bills respecting bounty on beet root sugar, sessional indemnity, railway subsidies, tariff changes and supply were read a third time and passed. On the beet sugar bounty bill Mr. Laurier moved an amendment to the effect that the bounty be paid to the farmers and not to the manufacturers, but he did not press the matter to a vote and the amendment was declared lost on division. As a matter of fact, there were only four Liberals present and about 25 Conservatives.

On the third reading of the Railway Subsidy Bill Hon. Mr. Laurier moved the long amendment of which he had given notice and which was to the effect that parties receiving subsidies should account for the manner in which they had been expended, and that contractors and sub-contractors should fyle affidavits that none of the money had been spent for political purposes. Again, however, he did not press his amendment to a vote, and it was declared lost on division.

Burglars at Forest.

Forest, Ont., July 9.—Burglars visited Forest last night and raided the postoffice, James Anderson's store and the office of the East Lambton Loan Company. At the postoffice they got $10 worth of stamps and change at Anderson's store and about $12 worth of silverware, but at the Loan Company's office nothing was taken. Entrance in each case was effected by breaking open back windows.

A Match Box in Place of a Corpse.

Port Dover, Ont., July 9.—Recently the grave of Robert England, who died about eight years ago, was found to have been despoiled, the body removed and a whisky bottle and a match box left in its place.

GLADSTONE CALLED DOWN.

His Claim of Long Service in the Free Trade Ranks Disputed.

London, July 9.—Earl Grey writes to The Times to contradict the assertion made by Mr. Gladstone in his speech on Wednesday that it took twenty of the most active years of his life to break down the system of protection and to establish free trade.

Earl Grey contends that until the very eve of the final triumph of free trade Mr. Gladstone was one of its most strenuous opponents, and he cites Mr. Gladstone's speeches of February and May, 1843, to prove the truth of what he says.

He declares that the whole tone of Mr. Gladstone's speeches during Sir Robert Peel's administration in 1841 showed that he was less inclined than Sir Robert himself to make timid advances in the direction of free trade.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in The Queen City.

Toronto, July 9.—The receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by 50 bushels of goose wheat at 66c and 200 bushels of oats at 31½c to 32c. Hay was in fair supply at $11 to $13 for timothy and $9 to $11 for clover. Straw sold at $8 to $10.

On call board No. 1 northern wheat was offered at 87c without bids. Three cars by sample offered at 66c with 50c bid, and one car offered at 90c with 50c bid.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty-eight years ago, it would have saved me $300.00 and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body, and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was $5 worth. If you had been here and said you would have saved me for $300.00, you would have had the money. I looked like the picture (No. 2, page 47) in your book, "How to Cure Skin Diseases," but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times.

TWO TEMPTATIONS!

While the July leaf is doing calender duty, the Golden Lion is going to test the capacity of Low Prices to build up a big warm weather trade To begin with we throw out Two Temptations for shrewd lady buyers, namely:—Absolutely straightforward Reductions in the two following seasonable lines—

1.—BLOUSES.
2.—PRINTS.

These goods are now set apart for sacrifice, and if we don't inaugurate a flurry in Blouses and Prints, it will be because ladies are more short-sighted than we think they are. Now is unloading time with us, and we have a lucky facility of getting rid of things—just as willing to face loss as profit when losing time comes. Anyway if you want Blouses and Prints, you'll never buy them cheaper.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

LIBERALS SLOWLY GAINING GROUND —NEWS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Conservatives Make One Gain in Ireland Owing to Parnellite Dissensions Where the Liberals Gained—Parnellites Suffer Defeats in Ireland.

LONDON, July 11.— At 5.15 Saturday evening the total returns show the election of 187 Conservatives, 157 Liberals, 28 Liberal-Unionists, 23 McCarthyites and 4 Parnellites.

Comfort for the Liberals.

LONDON, July 11.—Among the prominent candidates whose election is announced today is Sir Richard Webster, Attorney-General. He stood in the Isle of Wight division of Hampshire, where he was opposed by S. F. Mendle, Liberal. The latter succeeded in reducing the former Conservative majority in the district by 797 votes. In the Tavistock division of Devonshire the Liberals scored another victory over their opponents, wresting the seat from the Conservatives by a majority of 217. The Stroud division of Gloucestershire also underwent a radical change of sentiment, the former Conservative majority of 709 being overcome and replaced by a Liberal majority of 204.

Liberal Gains on Saturday.

In the Middle division of Leicestershire J. E. Johnson Ferguson (Lib.) is elected 4713 votes to 3992 for E. DeLisle (Con.) In the last election Mr. DeLisle was elected 4075 votes to 3940 for Mr. Johnson Ferguson.

Northamptonshire, South division—D. C. Guthrie (Lib.) elected 3930; T. L. M. Cartwright (Con.), 3882. Vote in 1886: Conservative 4003, Liberal 3881.

Wiltshire, Devizes—C. E. Hobhouse (Liberal), elected, 3986; W. H. Long (Conservative), 3758. This is a gain of another seat for the Liberals. Vote in 1886, W. H. Long (Conservative), 4123; Phillips (Liberal), 2397. The Liberals have overcome in this case not only the large antagonistic majority of 1886, but also the prestige of the Long family, which has for a number of years had a hold upon Parliamentary representation in Wiltshire.

Durham, North Tees division—Alderman Joseph Richardson (Lib.) elected 5560, Sir Henry Havelock Allan (L.-U.) 5396. In 1886 Havelock Allan (L.-U.) was elected by 4984 votes to 4045 votes for Boyd (Lib.). Allan was a gallant soldier and took part in the relief of Lucknow during the Indian mutiny.

Bedfordshire, Biggleswade division, G. W. E. Russell (Liberal) elected by 5600. Viscount Baring (Liberal-Unionist) was elected by 4853 votes to 4371 for the Liberal candidate last election. The division had been Liberal before the Home Rule issue and has returned to its old attachment.

Devonshire, Tavistock division—H. Luttrell (Lib.) elected 4458, Col. White Thompson (L.-U.) 4241. Vote in 1886 Liberal-Unionist 3917, Liberal 2722. Tavistock used to be overwhelmingly Liberal before the Home Rule question and has now returned to the old allegiance.

Gloucestershire, Stroud division — B. Jones (Lib.) elected 4612, G. Holloway (Con.) 4409. In 1886 Stroud, which had in former elections been Liberal, changed on the Home Rule question and elected George Holloway (Con.) by 4020 to 3911 for the Liberal candidate.

Parnellites in Pain.

DUBLIN, July 10.—The defeat of J. J. O'Kelly in the North division of Roscommon surprised the Parnellites, who were counting upon the division in that stronghold to secure the return of their candidate, who represented the division in Parliament since 1880.

Roscommon, North division—Bodkin (A.P.) elected, 3250; J. J. O'Kelly (P.) 3196. This is the gain of a seat for the anti-Parnellite from the Parnellites. In 1886 Mr. O'Kelly was returned without opposition and he made a splendid run today.

Antrim, East division—Capt. W. W. McCalmont (Con.), re-elected without opposition.

Armagh, South division—McHugh (A.P.) elected, 5489; O. L. Falkiner (Con.) 2242, Blane (P.) 959. In 1886 Mr. Alexander Blane, defeated to-day, was elected without opposition. This is another factional gain for anti-Parnellites.

Westmeath, South division — Donald Sullivan (A.P.) re-elected 2522, C. O'Donoghue (P.) defeated 1076. In 1886 Mr. Sullivan was elected without opposition.

County Mayo, West division—John Deasy (A.P.) re-elected 3456, Power (P.) defeated 609. Mr. Deasy was elected unopposed in 1886.

Tyrone, Middle division—Mathew Joseph Kenny (A.P.) re-elected 3667, Ely Thompson (Con.) defeated 2698, Plunket (P.) defeated 123. In 1886 Mr. M. J. Kenny was elected by 4136 votes to 2149 for H. Moore (Con.).

Kerry, West division—Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmonde (A.P.) 2490, Edward Harrington (P.) 1142. This is a gain for the anti-Parnellites. Mr. Edward Harrington, who is a brother to Timothy Harrington, has been the sitting member. Sir Thomas Esmonde was defeated in the South division of Dublin and was put forward in Kerry to be sure of a seat. In the election to-day Palmer (L.U.) received 43 votes.

Only a Little One for Salisbury.

Fermanagh, North division—Richard H. Dane (Con.) elected 2878, J. Jordan (A.P.) defeated, 2562. This is a gain for the Conservatives. In 1886 this division elected W. H. K. Redmond (N.) by a vote of 3128 to 2282 for W. H. Archdale (Con.). Fermanagh county had for many years been Conservative up to the election of Redmond in 1885, and the animosity aroused by the Parnellite quarrel has enabled the Conservatives to recapture it.

Glittering Personalities.

Derbyshire, East division—Rt. Hon. H. G. Osborne Morgan (Liberal) re-elected by 4188, Sir Watkin W. Wynn (Conservative), 3423. Vote in 1886: Morgan (Liberal) 3536, Wynn (Conservative) 3510. Mr. Morgan was formerly Under Secretary for the Colonies and is a distinguished Welshman.

Scotland, Leith, Burghs — R. Monroe Ferguson (Lib.) re-elected 5738, W. A. Bell (L.U.) 4095. Mr. Ferguson is married to a daughter of Lord Dufferin.

Lancashire, Blackpool division—Sir M. White Ridley (Con.) re elected 6536, Thomas Walker (Lib) 5487. In 1886 Right Hon. Col. Sir F. Stanley (Con.) was returned unopposed. When Col. Stanley was elevated to the peerage as Lord Stanley of Preston, now Governor-General of Canada, another election was held in August, 1886, when White-Ridley (Con.) had 6362 votes to 2573 for the Liberal candidate.

Isle of Wight—Sir Richard Webster (Con.) re-elected 6688, S. F. Mendle (Lib.) 5228. Vote in 1886: Conservative 6291, Liberal 4013.

Lancashire, Clitheroe division—Sir U. J. K. Shuttleworth (Lib.) re-elected 7697, William Briggs (L.-U.) 5505. In 1886 Shuttleworth (Lib.) was returned opposed. Sir U. J. K. Shuttleworth Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster under Mr. Gladstone.

Sussex, East Grinsted division—Hon. A. E. Gathorne-Hardy (Con.) re-elected 3967, Sir E. Jenkinson (Liberal) 2349. Vote in 1886, Con. 3239, Lib. 1877.

Wants for Mr. Blake.

MONTREAL, July 10.—The collection being made by Archbishop Cleary of Kingston in behalf of the Home Rule campaign in Ireland considerably strengthens Mr. Blake's hand, and his election is considered certain. The polling takes place Wednesday.

THE HOUSE PROROGUED.

Closing Day of the Session—His Excellency's Speech.

OTTAWA, July 11—The last gun has been fired, the last echo of the last blast of the band has died away in the Chelsea mountains, the Governor-General has raised his hat for the last time to the "Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate and Gentlemen of the House of Commons," and the second session of the seventh Parliament of Canada is at an end.

A Tired and Weary Ensemble.

The Commons met at 11, exactly four members of the Opposition, thirteen supporters of the Government and eight Cabinet ministers being present when Mr. Speaker took his seat for the 87th session of the House. The proceedings were of the most quiet kind, the members for the most part wore a tired and weary look, as if glad that their duties were over, but Mr. Mills managed to muster up energy enough to ask if the Government intended to appoint Lieutenant-Governor Tilley, whose term expired over a year ago, for another term or whether someone else was to be appointed.

The Three Fortentous Raps.

At a quarter to 3 the Speaker took the chair again, there being just 21 members present. There was no business to transact and no Jim Crow to make his little annual speech, so the Speaker simply sat and looked at the members, and the members looked at the Speaker until a quarter past 3 o'clock, when three loud raps on the door of the chamber, which had been carefully closed, announced the arrival of a messenger from His Excellency with a summons to the House to attend in the Senate chamber.

Sir John Thompson, Sir Adolph Caron and Hon. Messrs. Bowell, Carling, Costigan and Patterson stood outside the bar of the House among the faithful commons. After assent had been given to all the bills passed and not already assented to, His Excellency read the following speech:

His Excellency's Speech.

Gentlemen of the Senate: Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In relieving you from further attendance in Parliament I congratulate you on the useful legislation which has resulted from your deliberations during this long and arduous session. The adoption of the code of criminal law will confer a great benefit on all classes who are concerned in the administration of that branch of jurisprudence, and is an achievement which will reflect credit on the Parliament of Canada. The difficult task of readjusting the representation of the people in the House of Commons in accordance with the census returns has been accomplished with comparatively little disturbance of existing electoral divisions, and in a manner that I hope will prove to be satisfactory in its operation. The legislation relating to the Northwest Territories, Dominion lands, railways, patents, and to the inspection of provisions, and the various other measures which have been completed, are calculated to benefit the industrial and commercial interests of the country, and to promote its general welfare. You have been doubtless gratified by the announcement that the Government of Newfoundland is likely to hold a friendly conference with my Government upon the differences which had arisen between Canada and that colony, and that in the meantime all causes of further dispute or irritation have been removed. A representation has been made by the administration of the United States that the schedule of tolls which has been in force upon the Canadian canals for some years past operates to the disadvantage of the shipping and products of United States citizens on the great lakes. This complaint has been examined and discussed with the authorities of the United States, and a proposal has been submitted on behalf of my Government that the United States will restore the concessions that were made on the part of that country by the treaty of Washington as an equivalent for concession on the part of Canada as to the canals, but which were withdrawn by the United States without cause so far as Canada is concerned. This proposal has not yet been replied to, but it is hoped that the fairness of the position taken by my government will be duly appreciated by the Government of the United States, so that all further misunderstanding on this question may be avoided.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I trust that the provisions which you have made for the public service will be found ample for its demands.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate: Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

At the close of this session I take leave of you with the hope that the sacrifices which you have been called upon to make by so protracted an attendance may be regarded by proof that your labors have been fruitful of benefits to the Dominion and that our people in every part of Canada may likewise be blessed with prosperity in the harvest season which approaches.

The Last Sad Rites.

Hon. J. J. Ross, Speaker of the Senate, then announced that His Excellency was pleased to prorogue Parliament until Thursday, Aug. 18. His Excellency stepped down from the dais, everybody stood up while he walked out attended by his staff, the Speaker retired to his own side of the House, where the Sergeant-at-Arms carefully locked up the mace in the glass case, where it is kept while not on the table of the House, or reposing under the table while the House it in committee, and the second session of the seventh Parliament of Canada was at an end.

Three Men Drowned.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 11.—G. W. Atwell and Thomas McCullough, said to belong to Clarksville, Tenn., were drowned at Alexandria Bay yesterday while out boating. Three men belonging to A battery went out sailing here this afternoon, the boat capsized and Gunner Jacomb was drowned.

CHOLERA'S DEVASTATING SWEEP.

With Devastating Sweep it is Gaining Ground—Moscow Deserted—Riot at Astrakhan.

ST PETERSBURG, July 11.—It is rumored that despite the efforts made to prevent it, cholera has reached Moscow, where the total absence of sewerage renders the situation most dangerous. Several passengers on board the steamer Orlanoc, bound from Astrakhan for Nizani, died from cholera on the steamer. Owing to the prevalence of cholera at Baku the Government officers have been transferred to Kashari, 165 versts from Baku.

There have been reported in Saratoff 40 new cases of cholera and 11 deaths from the disease. In Astrakhan 112 new cases have been reported. The hospital record in Astrakhan is incomplete. At Baku there have been 94 deaths outside the hospitals. There have been taken to the hospitals 179 new patients and 18 more deaths have occurred in them. At Tiflis seven new cases and two deaths are reported.

Special boards of health have been appointed for 28 districts in St. Petersburg. Two sanitary inspectors and a doctor will watch each The municipal authorities have granted 200,000 roubles to allow these boards to take necessary precautions to prevent the introduction of the disease.

Riot in Astrakhan.

ASTRAKHAN, July 11.—A rumor spread Saturday that the quarantine precautions being taken by the authorities were unnecessary and that healthy people were being packed in the hospitals, and that many people had been buried alive. An immense crowd gathered and the infuriated populace attacked and set fire to the hospitals after removing the sick and the naked to the Governor's House. Here they were checked by a military detachment and finally dispersed. The leaders were arrested. On Friday 191 new cases of cholera and 22 deaths were reported in Astrakhan, 53 cases and 16 deaths in Saratoff, 160 cases and 37 deaths at Baku, 6 deaths in Tiflis and 9 new cases in Tsaritsin.

Three thousand emigrants from infested districts are quarantined in the roadstead of Astrakhan. They are in a miserable condition.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.—The riots at Astrakhan originated in reports that had been circulated among the ignorant populace that the sanitary measures taken to prevent the spread of cholera were unnecessary, so that the sick were put into the hospitals without cause, and that many were buried alive, being without medical attendance and food and water being scarce.

The Caspian flotilla is seizing all vessels that try to evade quarantine. Large numbers of the inhabitants are fleeing from Astrakhan and Saratoff.

NEWS FROM WINNIPEG.

Pierre Bourassa Will Get Five Years and Twenty Lashes.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 11.—At Regina on Saturday Pierre Bourassa was tried for rape on a girl under 14 years old, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary and 20 lashes.

The penitentiary warden on Saturday received word from Ottawa that the sentence of the Indian, Percee Sam, to die next month, for slaying a medicine man of his tribe, had been commuted to life imprisonment.

Major-General Herbert is expected here Wednesday to inspect the 90th Battalion.

Fifteen Chinamen in this city are in an uncomfortable position. They are returning Celestials from the Flowery Kingdom, and claim they have certificates of residence in the United States, where they lived for several years previous to their departure for their native land. The inspector at the border, however, does not recognize the certificates as good, and claims that they are held by others than to whom they were issued, and refuses to allow the Chinamen to pass into the United States.

Thomas Anderson of Stonewall was killed in a runaway accident.

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.

Several Chinamen Killed in a Powder Mill Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—An explosion occurred at the Giant and Judson Powder Works near West Berkeley, 12 miles from here, just after 9 o'clock Saturday morning, destroying the works and much property for several miles around. Five shocks were felt in this city within a few minutes, the last four being of terrific force, shaking buildings, cracking a number of walls, and breaking plate-glass in buildings eight blocks up from the water front.

One hundred and eighty men, chiefly Chinese, were employed there, and it is thought nearly all were killed. Among the white men known to have been killed are Wallace Dickenson, Charles Canburdy and John Bow. The body of a Chinaman was found on the railroad track half a mile from the works. The body of a boy frightfully mangled was found near the scene.

Every window in the county jail at Oakland was broken by the explosion. All windows in houses in the town of West Berkeley were broken and several buildings are reported destroyed.

At the office of the Giant Powder Company, this city, it was thought that the Judson Works, which are located at Labelle, about three miles from the Giant Works, were safe. The Giant Works are at Point Isabel and Highland, near Stege, and comprise five buildings and three magazines. Of these buildings the acid and nitro-glycerine works were destroyed and at least one magazine blown up. The other buildings not immediately destroyed took fire. The loss on property will be great.

Maggie Daoust Turns Up.

OTTAWA, July 9.—The young girl, Maggie Daoust, who so mysteriously disappeared from her parents' home in Montreal and has been searched for during the past week, was taken in custody by Detective Hatton. She was found in a house in Albert-street, where she had accepted a position as maid-servant. She was taken to the police station and will be detained there until her friends can be communicated with.

MOUNT AETNA'S ERUPTION.

An Eruption is Taking Place and the People are Panic Stricken.

ROME, July 11—Mount Ætna was unusually active Saturday A thick column of smoke in which lightning flashes were seen issued from the crater and rose to a great height in the air. Then, blown by the wind, it covered Catania with an immense cloud. Quantities of lava and ashes were also ejected from the crater. The phenomena lasted for an hour. Several shocks of earthquake occurred during the morning.

Black Knights, British American,
Marshals—Bro. Jno. MacLennan, and Bro. G. W. Hall.

The visitors occupied the central pews of the edifice, while the aisles and remaining seats were filled with a large congregation. Rev. J. E. Trotter, pastor, selected as his text the 1st verse of the 5th chapter of Galatians:

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made you free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."

The preacher said he did not intend to give an address on the origin, history or aims of the Orange order as he concluded every intelligent Orangeman was thoroughly informed on these points. The body had asked him to preach their annual sermon to them and he had chosen as his subject

CHRISTIAN LIBERTY.

Liberty in the text meant liberty or freedom of soul from the burden and bonds of sin. Man was bound up by sin and Satan and superstition and was a slave indeed. Liberty was freedom from this bond and also from the guilt and penalty of sin. Through this liberty that Christ gives man, was reconciled to God. Once without God and without hope in his soul, now he has the hope of eternal hope in his soul. The liberty also meant liberty of conscience, liberty to serve God as an enlightened conscience dictated. All know what physical liberty meant, liberty of the body, so with this liberty of conscience we had perfect liberty to read God's word, liberty to find it out, liberty to serve him and liberty to do his will when once we have found it out. There is that in man on which none can intrude. It was conscience and it was our God given right to enjoy freedom of conscience. Religious persecution and tyranny were utterly alien to the spirit of Jesus Christ and the Gospel. Another element embraced in the word liberty mentioned in the text, was civil liberty. God who was no respecter of persons, made all men equal. A slave in the Almighty's estimation was a man, the indigent person was also a man in Christ's estimation. Jesus knew nothing of world, station or class. Taxes were things brought about by poor, sinful man. Soul freedom, conscious freedom and civil freedom were all enjoyed by those who were in Jesus Christ. For any person to rise up and deprive his was a crime, a moral crime. When we see man in a true light, what does it mean for one man to enslave another? The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ was a law of equality, and under it all grinding and oppression cease. When this law of equality was recognized and acted upon and the Gospel practised and lived up to, all the strained and seemingly difficult relations between labor and capital, the weak and the strong, the right and the wrong, ceased. The gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ applied offered the only conditions of civil liberty, the right between man and man. This liberty was the gift of Jesus Christ. The speaker said that he desired more particularly to speak of that liberty we had in Christ Jesus wherewith He had made us free. Had we all that liberty? If not, he prayed God that He would help all to solve that question. We should take the law of Jesus Christ as our authority and obey His commandments which were pregnant with love and good-will to men, and then we could enjoy the fullest liberty.

The second principle to consider was not to become entangled again with the yoke of bondage. To do this we must not sleep. Incessant vigilance was demanded. The danger lay more in the aggressive spirit of Christ's enemies than the danger of again going back in connection with ourselves. Those who spoke lightly of and held with a loose grip the freedom which we enjoy and which was so dear to us were apt to become entangled again. When a citadel was being besieged by a storming host there was danger from two ways. One was from the advancing besiegers and the other was from within. An unwary sentinel might lose all. We all wanted to be spiritually alert. Lastly how was this liberty in Jesus Christ

TO BE GUARDED AND PERPETUATED.

The text said to stand fast. We should stand fast on moral grounds. There is rolling upon those who constitute the church of God, a tide of worldliness. We should stand fast against whatever comes, whether it come in as an angel of light or in the blackness of sin itself. We must resist and do it by the power of Him who is mighty to help. We must not trust in men but in God himself. We must be aggressive. We must put on the whole armour of God and stand against the invasion. This liberty was for all men, there was no monopoly about it. It was liberty for every man, whoever and wherever he was. We were bound to propagate the instincts of freedom and liberate those who were in bondage. We should all be tolerant. Concluding Rev. Mr. Trotter said, "let us seek to know for ourselves what this freedom is. Let us by God's help solve its depths, its breadth and its immensity. Let us stand in Jesus, name and defend that liberty that we may live and perpetuate the enjoyment of that wherewith Christ has made us free. Let us try to liberate those who know nothing of this freedom, who are bound up by superstition and sin. I pray God that you all may enjoy this liberty. May his blessing rest upon you all. Amen."

At the close Rev. Mr. Trotter thanked the Orangemen for their large attendance and for the marked attention they had paid him, notwithstanding the sultry weather A collection was taken up in the interests of the Protestant Home.

After service the procession reformed and marched back to their hall where an open meeting was held, Bro. J. G. Weir, County Master, presiding. A vote of thanks was moved by Bro. W. J. Green, D.S., seconded by Bro. T. Brown, P.M., thanking Rev. Mr. Trotter for his able and thought'ul sermon, the choir for providing special music, and the Board of Managers for the use of their church. The motion was unanimously carried.

A vote of thanks was also moved the marshalls for their efficient services, after which the meeting adjourned.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

EDISON SEWER AGAIN.

Discussed by the Board of Health Saturday Night.

The Town Council Must Take Prompt Action in the Matter—The Habit of Using the Creek and the George Street Sewer for Sewerage Purposes to be Stopped—Poor Closet Accommodation for the Public Around the Market and Town Buildings—Other Matters Before the Board.

A special meeting of the Board of Health was held in the town clerk's office on Saturday night. There were present Mr. Edg. Pearce, chairman, Dr. Clarke, Medical Health Officer, John E. Cobb, secretary, Chief of Police Rossel, Health Inspector Dan. Brennan and Fife, Messrs. R. Shortly, H. Burnham and E. H. D. Hall. The minutes of the previous meeting held on May 20th were read and approved.

Mr. Pearce said he had deemed it advisable to call the board together to see what had been done by the council in reference to Edison drain and to examine into the condition of health affairs generally. He said the cholera was spreading all over Europe, it had reached London and Paris and all knew the sanitary condition Peterborough was in if the dread epidemic came within our borders. The nuisance of using the creek as a sewer still continued unabated, and the Edison drain had not yet been remedied.

THE EDISON SEWER DISCUSSED.

Dr. Clarke said the council had talked about the Hamon drain a great deal, but had practically done nothing in the matter as yet. Complaints were still coming in from the residents in that locality.

Mr. Hall stated that the council had met the Edison Company's representatives and looked over the drain. They had come to the conclusion that it would not do to continue the flat drain into the bay. The drain would have to go down Townsend street. The sewerage committee had asked the Company to tender for the work, which they did. The tender had been submitted to Mr. MacDougall to see if it was fair and covered all purposes. He would report on Monday and give his opinion as to whether a 10, 12 or 18 inch pipe would be large enough on condition that it would be connected with the main system.

Mr. Pearce said that the discharge of sewerage into the creek was as bad as the Edison drain. The effluvia arising from the discharge of matter into this stream were at this season of the year when the water was low, most offensive.

Mr. Dennis said the output of the George street sewer into the river on King street was another serious cause of grievance. When the water was low as it would be next month the stench arising, the current not being strong enough to carry the matter away, would be simply unbearable; it was a foul nest for fever and disease.

Dr. Brennan asked where the Edison sewer would empty into the bay.

Mr. Hall said it would empty into the river about 100 feet below the pork factory on George street. The council were bound to put in the sewer.

THE COUNCIL GOING ON WITH THE WORK.

Mr. Cane said that he was not a member of the Board of Health, that he was only secretary. He asked for the right to speak to explain the council's position in reference to the Edison drain. He said that Mr. Hall's speaking struck him largely from an Edison standpoint. It looked as if he was using the board solely to urge on the council in connection with the Edison drain. The council knew they had to carry out their contract with the Edison company. Mr. Hall was present on behalf of the company when the matter was brought before the council two weeks ago and referred to the Sewerage Committee, and he went away evidently satisfied. The Edison Company wanted a 16-inch pipe put in, but had said that they would be content with a 12-inch pipe. When the committee had decided to go on and complete the work they instructed Mr. Belcher to prepare the plans and get everything that was necessary ready. These were to be submitted to Mr. MacDougall. The Edison Company seemed anxious to do the work themselves, and the council would rather that they would do it and release them from their contract. They asked the Edison Company to put in a tender for the work, which they did. The council wished to go on the safe side of economy. Mr. MacDougall could not give an estimate on the work owing to his not knowing the levels. The Sewerage Committee would bring in its report at the next meeting of the council. Mr. MacDougall would be down next week to prepare estimates and report whether the Edison tender for the work was satisfactory or not. The whole delay had arisen over a definite understanding not being arrived at between the Edison Company and the town. He had no doubt but that at the next meeting of the council to be held on Monday week the matter would be dealt thoroughly and satisfactorily with to the competence of both parties.

Mr. Hall said he was not trying to use the Board to get the council to go on with the drain. The Sewerage Committee had suggested that the Edison Company tender for the work. The company were not at all anxious to do the work themselves. They did not care who did the work so long as it was done. He said that Mr. Belcher had not prepared the plans and specifications for the work.

Mr. Pearce asked if the council was going to build the sewer in a reasonable time. If not the Board had better take hold of the matter.

Mr. Snowdy and Mr. Hall said they did not doubt but the council were taking up the matter in earnest.

Dr. Brennan said it would not be advisable for the Board to pass any resolution in view of what the council was doing in the matter.

DISCHARGE OF SEWERAGE INTO THE CREEK.

Mr. Pearce thought the sewer the town got in charge the better. It would stop the pollution of the creek, in consequence of which pollution the death rate in the two south wards of the town was double of that in the two north wards of the town. Nothing had yet been done to abate this nuisance. He asked if the only way in which this nuisance would be stopped by the sewerage system would be by the main sewer running half a mile east of this point through the central portion of the town?

Dr. Brennan asked if the by-law to raise $35,000 to provide for an outfall sewer on Townsend street would be submitted to the people first, and after that the sewerage system would be built under the local improvement plan?

The clerk informed him that was the plan.

Dr. Brennan stated that in order to stop the pollution of the creek he was in favor of moving a resolution.

Moved by Dr. Brennan, seconded by Mr. Dennis, that in the opinion of this board it is advisable to have the main sewer from Townsend street to the east lot in the Ormsby Survey constructed as speedily as possible and this board would urge on the town council to at once submit to the people a by-law authorizing them to build such sewer. And this Board declares its intention to prevent the pollution of the creek and of prosecuting any one using such creek for discharge of sewage, and George street sewer as soon as the main sewer is completed, and the people thus enabled to have built branch sewers under the local improvement system. And further this board declares its intention of prosecuting every one using such creek and George street sewer for discharge of sewerage in the event of the proposed bylaw by the people not being carried, and that the Clerk be requested to send a copy of this resolution to the town council.—Carried.

OTHER MATTERS COMING UP.

Dr. Clarke stated that he had heard complaints of the cellars under new market buildings. He had examined the premises and found that there was a foul smell existing there. There was no closet accommodation, no drainage from the cellars which had been used improperly by individuals.

Dr. Brennan said he thought some means should be provided for getting patients into the hospital without going through the arrangement of getting a certificate of entrance signed by the attending physician and the chairman of the board. If a patient was seriously injured he should be removed to the hospital without delay. It was necessary to the patient's health and probably, life.

Mr. Snowdy said he had been speaking to Messrs. Hall and McGill on the matter and the Chief of Police, or any physician had the right to send a patient to the hospital, who was severely hurt, without a written order, which could be obtained in such cases any time after the patient had entered.

Dr. Fife said he had often taken persons into the hospital in such a way, and obtained a certificate of entrance later on. There had been no hitch between the chairman of the Board and himself in so doing.

Dr. Brennan said any one could be taken in St. Joseph's Hospital on the authority of any physician.

Dr. Fife called attention to the poor water closet accommodation on the market and around the town buildings for the general public. He moved the following motion, seconded by Dr. Brennan, that the town council be recommended to provide water closets and urinals adjacent to the market for use of tenants of town buildings and the public.—Carried.

The Board then adjourned at 9 30 o'clock.

Dr. Sey's Remedy (of Paris) is undoubtedly the best known remedy for the prevention of any derangements of the digestive organs and the curing of affections to which they may be subject. It is a remedy composed of the purest aromatics which stimulate the digestive organs, and which, far from weakening like most medicines, impart tone to, and strengthen the system.

Further it contains a substance which acts directly on the bowels, so that in small doses, it prevents and cures constipation; and in larger doses it acts as one of the best purgatives.

It is important to note that Dr. Sey's Remedy can be taken in any dose without disturbing the habits or regime of those who take it. 1d

Hamilton, April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

The work on the new school in North Monaghan is progressing rapidly. The corporation work started on Saturday and within two weeks the structure will be completed. The new school is a modest and neat building, 40x30, built of brick with stone foundation and a large hall across the one end. Mr. A. A. McIntyre had the contract and the work cost $750. Caleutt's Free Gift Excursion.

The free gift excursion on the steamer "Golden-Eye" down the river on Saturday afternoon was a great success. It was given by Mr. H. Calcutt, and the destination was that beautiful pic-nic spot, Victoria Park. About 175 availed themselves of the trip and enjoyed it to the utmost. On the return trip, manager F. Dover distributed about forty presents to those on board. The winners of the lucky numbers were happy indeed in the possession of their prizes. A wild scramble and lots of excitement prevailed during the presentation. The presents consisted of handsome lamps, croquet sets, cruet and pickle dishes, cake baskets, marmalade jars, and other useful and ornamental prizes. This is the second free gift excursion Mr. Calcutt has given and both proved a great success. Another will be given probably on Saturday next.

Gun Club Shoots.

The Gun Club had two good practical shoots, one on Friday and one on Saturday. The wind on Friday blew across the range and was very deceiving. On Saturday a strong south east wind blew the birds back in the face of the marksman. This wind accounts for the low score on both days. Following are the scores:

Committed for Forgery.

Wm. Neill Arrested on Saturday for Forging a Stolen Check at the Ontario Bank.

Wm. Neill was arrested on Saturday afternoon by Officer Stewart charged with forgery. Neill has been released from gaol only a few days, where he served a couple of terms for drunkenness. At the police court on Thursday he was allowed to go, promising to reform. He stated that he was working on a farm in Monaghan, and would return thither if allowed a chance. Instead of doing this he lingered round town, drinking freely, and in consequence of this he has got himself into a position where he may not know what liberty is for some time. On Saturday he in company with Thos. Lydell, of Campbellford, an employe of the Rathbun Co., went into Mr. McCallum's restaurant. They had only 15 cents to pay for their breakfasts and as they attempted to decamp without him, Mr. McCallum called in the police. Lydell produced a time check from the Rathbern Co. for the amount of $12 70 which he wanted cashed. Neill and Lydell went to the Rathbun Co's office to get the check cashed but they told him that on proving his identity and endorsing it he could get it cashed at the Ontario Bank. They then left, and as events show Neill succeeded in stealing the check from his companion. He went to the Ontario Bank, and forging Lydell's name and referring Mr. McGill to several parties for his identity, he succeeded in getting the cheque cashed. He then proceeded to empty himself of the contents and went to Gough Bros.' store where he bought a suit of clothes for $6 75. He donned the coat and carried the vest and pants in a parcel. P. C. Stewart when returning from dinner noticed Neill in his new attire and suspecting that he had become possessed of his coat through some dishonest means, since he had not a cent in the morning, he arrested him and locked him up. Officer Stewart then with a great deal of shrewdness and detective ability sifted the case to the bottom. The Ontario Bank was notified that they had cashed a forged check before the institution knew it themselves. Lydell was also arrested and locked up as a witness in the case. He did not know where his check had gone and asked Constable Stewart who arrested him to hunt it up for him. At the police court this morning Mr. R. S. Davidson, J.P., presided, and the evidence of several witnesses was taken. The presiding magistrate committed Neill for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction which will be the fall assizes.

A Canoe Thief Arrested This Morning.

A few days ago Chief Reazel received a letter from Dr. R. McLennand, Roseneath, stating that his canoe had been stolen from Jubilee Point, on or about the 23rd of June. He described the man in his letter of whom he had strong suspicion as to taking his property. The details were not very full but the police exerted a great deal of shrewdness and have succeeded in working up the matter to such an issue that this morning Robt. Scriber, a fisherman, who resides on Smith street, was arrested by Officer Stewart charged with the crime. The police secured information which led to their locating the canoe at Mr. Wm. Coons, Bridgenorth, with whom Scriber had traded a canoe for a boat. The case was enlarged for a week at the police court this morning until Dr. McLelland could arrive. Scriber says he got the canoe from the Otonabee side of the river from a man whose name he does not know, but who gave him permission to take it.

Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the

The Otonabee Gives up Her Dead.

The Body of Twelve-year-old John McComb Found on Sunday Morning—The Funeral Took Place This Afternoon.

Ever since John McComb the twelve year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas McComb, 787 Water street, was drowned on Wednesday morning last near Martin's dam, search for the body has been diligent and unceasing. All night and day men have searched in boats with grappling hooks, pike poles and other appliances but invariably without avail. However the search for the recovery of the body was continued and at eight o'clock yesterday morning the efforts of the searchers were successful. Mr. Geo. Wright who resides on Smith street was walking on the boom with a pike pole in hand. When near the jack close to the second pier of what is known as the "Black Bridge," a short distance below Martin's dam, he noticed among some logs a heap of foam and sticks. He separated the small raft of logs with his pole and disclosed to view the remains of a human being which proved to be those of young McComb. The body was removed to Mr. A. Clegg's undertaking rooms where it was embalmed. Part of the face around the nose and mouth was disfigured and one side of the body was bruised. The funeral took place this afternoon from the residence of the deceased's parents on Water street to the Little Lake Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. McComb have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

Church Chimes.

Rev. W. A. Mallett, B. A., who was recently ordained in the Methodist church, preached an eloquent sermon in the George street Methodist church last night.

Rev. Walter Rogers, B.A., of London, preached both morning and evening in St. Paul's church yesterday. Rev. Mr. Torrance is in the East enjoying a holiday tour.

Mr. Hedley, of Trinity College, conducted the services in St. Luke's church, yesterday. Rev. Mr. Creighton of Bobcaygeon will conduct the services next Sunday. Baptismal service at 10 o'clock, Communion service at 11 o'clock.

Rev. W. A. Mallett, B.A., a graduate of Victoria University, preached in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday morning. In the evening the pastor, Rev. Geo. Edwards, delivered an earnest address from the words "go ye into all the world and preach the gospel unto every creature."

Yesterday morning at St. Andrew's church the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed to a large number, there being the addition of thirty new members. The pastor preached an appropriate sermon from St. Luke 14-17: "Come, for all things are now ready." The music by the choir was also very appropriate and well rendered. In the evening, by request, the pastor repeated the sermon from the text: "Nothing but leaves." Having answered the many objections and difficulties urged against the withering of the fig tree, the speaker proceeded to apply the great principle in the parable, namely, "Nothing but leaves then sure destruction," to nations, congregations and the individual. Having shown that history, secular and religious, proved that this principle applied to nations, as many nations once existing were no more, for, lacking in national fruit, they were withered by God. The speaker said, let those legislators, Tory or Grit, who would stifle the voice of electors by gerrymander, or who would connive at corruption, or those electors who would sell their birth right for a mess of pottage, a post office, a canal or a railroad, etc., beware. God is looking down upon them demanding the fruit of righteousness. He may tarry long, but the national day of grace ends, when He shall say as to the fig tree: "Let no fruit grow on thee henceforth forever," and the nation shall wither. "God save our beloved Canada." He then proceeded to apply the principle to congregations and individuals. This sermon will not soon be forgotten by the many who had the pleasure of listening to it. During the service Mr. Tilley sang a solo in fine voice.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition. They are the governors of the system, continual disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

The Electricians Again Victorious.

They do up the Peterboroughs at a Game of Baseball on Saturday Afternoon by a Score of 10 to 3.

The Edison and the Peterborough baseball clubs played the third match in their series of games on the P.A.A.A. grounds on Saturday afternoon. The spectators numbered few, and there is no good reason why these games should not be more generously patronized by the public. The Edisons succeeded by their fine field playing and by a series of errors made by their opponents in the fifth innings, in again repeating the defeat administered a fortnight ago, by a score of 10 runs to 3. The electricians were re-inforced by a new catcher, Landers, who can hold Pomfret well, Smith the former receiver, being transferred to centre field. Peterborough exhibits a woeful weakness at the bat, the majority of her men fanning the breeze. Then, too, her outfield is not quick or certain, and in throwing to bases exhibit the worst of all rank exhibitions of baseball, viz., throwing too high. McCabe in the box, Ray as short, Barnes on third and Lipsett on first bag put up a fair game, but the support is weak. the fielding poor, the muffs too many, and the batting not up to the average—all exemplifying the lack of practice. Nothing remarkable occurred in the first innings, the boys in red going to bat first and each going out in rotation. The Edisons succeeded in pounding the sphere for one run, Smith scoring on his two bagger to left field and by the catcher's error. The second innings passed off without any brilliant playing on either side, most of the men on both teams wielding the clubs for naught. In the third innings Peterborough "got a move on." O'Brien scored first run for the Association on Barnes's three bagger. On McCabe's hit he also got in. Tighe made a safe hit for first and McCabe came home scoring 3 in that innings in neat style and making the only runs scored by Peterborough throughout the whole game. In this innings Smith got first on Ray's error stole third and on Pomfret's strike made home. Pomfret on Parks left fielder got home making 2 runs. Landers was caught by Ray, Le Page out at first. In the next innings neither side scored and the excitement was intense. At the end of the fourth innings both sides were equal and many thought Peterborough would win, but in the fifth inning they went to fragments and all hope of victory was dispelled. In the fourth Foster made a good double play putting out both Cooke and Ray, and Barnes an excellent catch of Belnap's fly. In the fifth Parks made a beautiful play to third off Barnes's grounder putting out O'Brien who had made a two bagger and catching Barnes at first a double play. Duckworth, Pomfret on a three bagger, Parks on a two bagger, Le Page, Foster, Belnap and Sweetlove rolled up six runs for Edisons and the game was practically won. In the sixth innings neither side scored, the Edisons all being struck out by McCabe in one, two, three order. In the seventh the electricians scored one, Landers got his base on balls, stole to second and laird and on O'Brien's passed ball got home. In the eight and ninth nothing of interest occurred, neither sides scoring. In the first game Peterborough was by 10 to 13, in the second the Edisons by 9 to 3 and in the third also by 10 to 3. Following is a summary of the games:—

The game was somewhat late in starting. The boys should commence sharp on time if they want a large attendance at these games. The delay on Saturday was largely owing to Peterboroughs fault.

Edison baseball club plays Port Hope in Port Hope next Saturday afternoon.

Efforts have been made to get a game on with Lindsay, but without success. What is the matter? Is Lindsay afraid of the Edisons?

Gratification and Satisfaction.

R. PURDEN, Esq., Peterborough:

DEAR SIR,—Having seen several congratulatory paragraphs in the papers from persons who have had the pleasure of a sail with you this season on the Golden Eye, I thought since no one has recorded the pleasant trip conveyed under the auspices of St. James' Sunday School of Roseneath, from that place and Harwood to Peterborough, that I would undertake to voice the sentiments of our party. We were favoured at the outset on the day of our excursion, Saturday, June 25th, with a fair sunny sky and a gentle breeze. Though the journey from Robins' Landing round by Harwood to Peterborough is a long one, and although the boat was loaded to its full capacity, yet it made good time. The scenery on both the lake and river is most picturesque. These characteristics, together with the courteous way in which the crew, particularly yourself, used all the excursionists drew from them the unanimous expression of gratification and satisfaction. We got home at nine o'clock, greatly pleased with our day's outing. It is plain that the Golden Eye is forging for itself an improved commendable feature, that of "punctuality," and, consequently, manned by the present crew, will become more popular as it is patronized.

Yours, etc.,
W. G. DRAPER.

Do you know why so many mothers enjoy life and avoid all the home worries?

It is because they feed their babies on Lactated Food!

Why are so many infants cut down by summer complaints?

The Great Female Medicine.

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

A Liberal Triumph.

Scores of men and women who have always suffered their prejudices to blind them to the merits of Burdock Blood Bitters now use and praise this wonderful tonic purifier as the best remedy known for dyspepsia, constipation and all blood diseases. dw

Is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung trouble, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is used regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great Emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds and bronchitis, sore throats and lung troubles tending to consumption. In big bottles, 50c. and $1 at Peterborough drug stores. dw

DESTROY THE WORMS or they may destroy the children. Freeman's Worm Powders destroy and expel all kinds of worms. dw

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give honestly call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Scientific Laws Must be Observed.

Referring to the well-known satisfactory working of low-water alarms acting on the electro-magnetic principle, a writer in the Stationary Engineer urges upon inventors in this line to consider that, in the construction of any electro-magnetic contrivance, there are certain scientific laws that must be fully observed if a successful operating device is expected. An instance in point is the contriving of electro-magnetic brakes for cars, depending for their action upon the attraction between the magnet and its armature—in some cases the brake shoes with the iron brake beam constituting the magnet and pole pieces, while the car wheels and axle serve as the armature—it being expected that with such a device the attraction between magnet and armature must create a sufficient amount of friction or retarding force to serve the purpose; but such plans have uniformly failed to produce the desired results, for the simple reason that they are not in accordance with the laws governing the action of electro-magnets. Another instance is the electro-magnetic clutch designed for use on electro-motor cars, its construction being such that two disks are brought face to face, one being supplied with several electro-magnets at its back, with the idea that when it is magnetized by the passage of a given amount of current through the magnets the attraction between the two disks will be sufficient to transmit the power required—a simple experiment with a small armature and magnet readily demonstrating what the real action would be under such conditions.

The Bird of Wisdom.

An owl sat up in a hickory tree,
And said in an impudent manner to me.
"Tor-hoot! tor-hoot! tor-hoo!"

I asked her politely, "You lovely old bird,
Have you of the 'Golden Discovery' heard?"
She ruffled her feathers, and spoke but a word,
That dreary, monotonous "Who?"

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a warranted lung, liver and blood remedy, a powerful tonic and alterative, and a reliable vitalizer for weak persons; a panacea for scrofula and hip joint diseases, fever sores, swellings and tumors; contains no alcohol, and is a medicine without a peer. There is no risk in buying a guaranteed article. Your money back if it don't benefit or cure. a

CARNEGIE INTERVIEWED.

Powderly Stays for Homestead to See the Strikers.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Mr. Pinkerton, in an interview on the Homestead riot, says: "No further effort will be made to force the strikers into order. It simply means a lockout that will last forever, so far as union men are concerned. I know what I am talking about when I say no union men will ever again set foot in the Homestead mill. That is all I have to say on this subject."

T. V. Powderly, general master workman; J. W. Hayes, general secretary-treasurer, and A. W. Wright of the Executive Council of the Knights of Labor; M. Wilkinson, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and E. E. Clark, chief conductor of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, after a secret conference with the workingmen here left last night for the scene of the Pittsburg riots. They declined to talk except in a general way of the trouble there.

LONDON, July 8.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie arrived at Braemar, in Aberdeenshire, last night. He refused to talk on the subject of the troubles at his mills at Homestead.

Prince Edward's County Attorney Dead.

PICTON, Ont., July 9.—Philip Low, Q.C., died yesterday at 4 o'clock after an illness lasting two weeks. Mr. Low was one of the oldest inhabitants, having come here in 1836. He has been Clerk of the Peace and County Crown Attorney for many years, and has twice been mayor of Picton.

Why He Lost His Seat.

WINDSOR, July 8.—Judge Harve has unseated Ald. Bauer on the ground that an alien Matthew Britts voted. It appeared on the trial that Britts supported Mr. Bauer at the election and the court held as presumptive evidence that he voted for Bauer. The ballot being a tie and Britts having voted where he had no right to the court decided that that was sufficient to void the election.

Edward Bellamy's Wife.

Though she has been a wife for ten years, and a mother for seven, Mrs. Bellamy's face still retains much of the delicate bloom which is the heritage of New England girlhood, and her figure the slender grace of youth, writes Fanny M. Johnson in the series of "Unknown Wives of Well-known Men," in the July Ladies' Home Journal. She has dark-brown hair, bright, expressive eyes, and a manner marked by quiet cordiality, devoid of either formality or effusiveness. Her musical talent is her chief personal gift, her voice being a mezzo-soprano, and considerable attention has been paid to its cultivation. For several years she has sung in the choir of the village church, only a few rods distant from her home. She chiefly prizes her musical gift, however, for the pleasure it gives her husband and children, all of whom are exceedingly fond of music. The little melodeon which she learned to play upon when a girl still stands in one corner of the family sitting room, and no Sunday afternoon or evening would be complete or happy without her singing to its simple accompaniment. Marion and her father love best the sweet old ballads, and Paul glories in war songs, music of march and battle, and rollicking plantation melodies. The chief variation in this quiet life is in the summer, when the family spend a few months at the seashore or mountains. The summer of 1890 was passed at the seaside, but was saddened by the long and serious illness of the little daughter. Last year their summer outing was spent on the highest accessible spot of the Berkshire hills, and from that airy height the children came home rosy and healthy to fill the house and grounds with the merriment of happy child life.

CHOLERA'S RAPID MARCH

WORKMEN REFUSE TO WORK FOR FEAR OF THE DISEASE.

An Attempt to Compel Them to Remain Riotously Resisted—Many of the Rioters Killed or Wounded by the Military—The Malady Causes Alarm.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—The prevalence of cholera in Astrakhan caused a panic in that city. A large number of workingmen, after receiving an advance of their wages to induce them to remain in the city, made preparations to desert their employers and leave the place.

The authorities tried to compel the workmen to fulfil their engagements, and the result was a serious riot. The police could not handle the mob and the military were summoned to assist them. The rioters were not dispersed until a number of them had been killed or wounded.

Quarantine has been established at Batoum against arrivals from cholera infected districts. General alarm prevails owing to the official recognition of the presence of cholera in Saratoff, which from its position on the Volga and between Astrakhan and Moscow and Nijnii-Novgorod is the seat of an extensive trade.

Twenty-nine cases of cholera and six deaths from the disease have already occurred there.

It is feared that the epidemic has really penetrated much further into the interior of Russia than the officials admit.

The whole town of Nijnii-Novgored, where the largest fair in the world is held every year for several weeks during the month of July, will be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, so as to prevent as far as possible the scourge from making its appearance there.

All the inhabitants have been warned of the danger of infection, and those who refuse to conform to the sanitary regulations will be summarily expelled from the town.

It is reported that the municipal authorities of Astrakhan have not sufficient funds to execute necessary sanitary measures.

Astrakhan is irregularly built, with crooked streets, mostly unpaved and dirty. In the fishing season from 20,000 to 30,000 persons connected with the fisheries resort to the city.

The official information which is being received in St. Petersburg in regard to the progress of the epidemic is always of an optimistic character.

The officials of Baku, one of the most frequented ports on the Caspian Sea, where 100 deaths from the disease on an average are occurring every day, denied the existence of cholera in that town long after the newspapers had received authentic news of the outbreak.

At a meeting of the Cabinet to-day it was resolved to elaborate a general plan to cope with the cholera epidemic. Among other things it was decided to issue minute instructions to local officials as to how best to combat the disease.

Leaving in Droves.

HAMBURG, July 9.—The Boersenhalle says that half the inhabitants of the northern portion of Baku have already left, and that numbers of others are following daily.

Owing to the great increase in the number of passengers the transportation of merchandise has been suspended.

Many factories have been closed owing to the fact that the workmen have left, and others will be compelled shortly to stop work for the same reason.

LONDON, July 7.—The Lancet recently sent a special corraspondent to Paris to make an independent investigation of the health of the city as affected by the water supply.

The newspaper was inclined to believe that the facts in regard to the existence of a type of cholera were being concealed by the Parisian authorities. It declared that an expert, Dr. Proust, had prepared a report, giving a faithful picture of the situation, which the prefect of the Seine had suppressed, fearing that its publication would have a disastrous effect.

The special man sent by The Lancet now writes that the fears expressed by that newspaper are borne out by the facts, and that it will be impossible to much longer disguise the existence of an epidemic. The area covered is large and diverse and the deaths of the sufferers rapid.

The situation is alarming, but the Parisians do not seem to have any fears for their own safety, and their chief concern appears to be to avoid making any admissions or taking any steps which will tend to frighten away foreigners, and especially Americans, from whom a rich harvest of gold is being looked forward to this season.

PARIS, July 9.—The Mayor of Neuilly has been stricken with cholera.

Three deaths from the disease have occurred in St. Ouen and Asnieres, suburbs of this city.

Cholerine in France.

LONDON, July 9.—The Times' Paris correspondent says: "Cholerine has affected 24 villages. It causes deaths with appalling suddenness. In some cases death has ensued in two hours. The authorities are reticent on the subject. They deny that the disease is genuine cholera, yet I have been privately informed that the microbe of cholera has been found here a trifle shorter than that of Indian cholera but exactly similar to that of Saigon cholera.

"But whether it is like the Indian or the Indo-Chinese microbe matters little. In 1884 the epidemic began in a similar manner and had disappeared from the suburbs before it entered the city itself."

THE WORLD'S BEST.

ALL diseases curable by Electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenwend Appliances. The Dorenwend is the only practical Electric Belt made which fulfils the fundamental principles of Electro-medical science. It is a complete BODY BATTERY. It has an independent battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) which can be regulated to suit the general or local weakness child. It is a CURE FOR ALL DISEASES, and remedy a sensation current, and the genuine current in the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER and KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, NERVOUS HEADACHE, HEART DISEASE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, PARALYSIS, WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCY, SEXUAL DRAINS and all Weaknesses of the Nervous and Muscular System.

Remember that the Dorenwend Belt is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and supplies the best in the world; we defy anyone to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not allow this Belt with the humbug combinations of belts and medicines with which the country is being flooded. If you prefer to purchase with these articles, buy them, but if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt and one that will be a benefit get a Dorenwend Belt.

Send name and address for Illustrated Book on Home Electro-medical treatment and mention this paper. J. D. TULLY, Agent, Peterborough. 246 w

PREPARING FOR STRIFE.

THE HOMESTEAD STRIKERS STILL IN POSSESSION OF THE WORKS.

The Carnegie Works Still in Possession of a Strong Force of Determined Men—Rumors that Pinkerton Men and Ammunition Are on Their Way to Pittsburg.

HOMESTEAD, Penn., July 11.—The following telegram has been received here:

"Three cars of Pinkertons and two cars of ammunition passed here at 9 o'clock yesterday for Pittsburg. Be on guard."

It was dated East Buffalo, 12 o'clock At headquarters it was stated that the telegram was believed to be accurate, and that the leaders had information that the Pinkertons are employing men and massing them at various places. Hugh O'Donnell, Clifford, Sarver and others positively deny the truth of a report that two cannon are being shipped to them. They also deny that any of their men have entered the mill property recently, or that they are fortifying it against attack. No indication can be seen from the outside of any such preparation.

HARRISBURG, Penn., July 11.—It is stated that a large amount of ammunition was shipped from the State arsenal to Pittsburg on Thursday night, so that it might be convenient if needed for the troops.

Cannons for the Strikers.

BRENHAM, Tex., July 11.—Two 12-pounder Napoleon field-pieces, the first issued to the Brenham Field Artillery, were shipped here last evening with tags fastened on them bearing the inscription, "Strikers, Homestead, Penn." Inquiry at the Santa Fe station elicited the information that the bill of lading had been issued through Kansas City, and from there the officials did not know where the guns were going. The shipment caused a sensation.

Will Use Bombs.

PITTSBURG, July 11.—A startling rumor is being whispered about on the South Side, which, if true, shows that the Homestead men are determined to make the occurrences at that place as costly as possible before they will acknowledge defeat. The report is that several South Side men, who are thoroughly informed as to the manner of handling dynamite effectively, have been employed to act when emergency comes.

It is said that the locked-out men will not permit injury to the Carnegie mills until they have exhausted other means of defence. The last step will be the use of dynamite. As soon as an armed force appears on the ground, either deputy-sheriffs or the militia, it is asserted that the dynamiters will hurl bombs into the mill and that an effort will be made to destroy the entire plant. The men indignantly deny the truth of the rumor.

The Sheriff Can Do Nothing.

PITTSBURG, July 11.—Sheriff McCleary did nothing in the Homestead matter Saturday. He has exhausted all his means and will await developments. It is now certain that no posse will be taken there. The sheriff, in speaking on the subject, said: "It is impossible for me to get a posse. That has been fully demonstrated. Even if I could get 500 men to act as deputies, they would be resisted. The strikers say this themselves. They will give up possession of the mill only conditionally, and I, as sheriff, could not take it that way. Just what I will do I cannot say. I positively will not take men up there to be killed."

"Will you again ask the aid of the Governor?"

"That I do not know. I have asked for assistance four times already and it has not come. I am hoping for the best, however, and will do nothing until I can do something that is effective."

O'Donnell Admits Frick's Statement.

HOMESTEAD, Penn., July 11.—Hugh O'Donnell, the strikers' leader, was seen by the Associated Press correspondent. When asked what he had to say regarding the assertion of Mr. Frick that only 325 of the 3800 men were directly affected by the reduction, he replied:

"I frankly admit the truth of that assertion, but the situation as it now stands is this: If the men were to concede this point it would open the way for a general reduction in all departments. It is a matter of strict principle with the amalgamated to stand firmly by its men. One and all are banded together for mutual support and the cause of one member is the cause of all. If the men went back to work and consented to a reduction of the wages of 325 of their number, eventually the wages of all the others would be reduced. The men will under no consideration yield to the expiration of the scale in December. The output at that season is much less, and they could ill afford to lay idle at that time of the year, as there would surely be suffering among the poorer classes. No, sir; the final adjustment must be made now."

The London Telegraph's Comments.

LONDON, July 11—An article in The Telegraph on the Homestead troubles declaring that Pittsburg has been disgraced by a series of atrocities to which the annals of modern times of the Old World afford no parallel and commenting upon the alleged supineness of the Federal Government adds that the riots at Homestead are on a par with the New Orleans lynchings. Both incidents, in common with a hundred others of a similar kind which have occurred in America, says The Telegraph, must suggest a serious doubt whether after all Home Rule in America works satisfactorily in practice, as it is the fashion to assert.

PITTSBURG, July 9.—The committee of Homestead citizens who visited Governor Pattison last night have returned, and give it as their firm opinion that the Governor will not call upon the troops.

Reinforcements in Readiness.

JOLIET, Ill., July 11.—It was secretly reported here last night from official sources in the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers that the association of this, the 4th, district, numbering 13,000 members, has received orders to hold 1000 men in readiness with arms to march at any moment to the assistance of their comrades at Homestead. It was also given officially that the telegram ordering the draft to be ready states that 1000 armed members have been drafted from Wheeling, W. Va., and the Mahoning Valley and that they were marching last night for Homestead. The members of the association in the works of the Illinois Steel Company are full of fight and eager to go to the assistance of their comrades.

Pinkerton Protests.

Robert A. Pinkerton, the chief of the New York branch of the detective agency, when seen yesterday at his office in Exchange-place, refused to confirm or deny the stories told by his men.

"We have all along," he said, "adhered to a policy of silence in this matter, and I don't see any reason to depart from this course at present. In a day or two we may have something to say, and then we will make a general statement to the public. I don't mind telling you, however, that the papers have grossly exaggerated the whole matter, and some of the stories printed regarding our connection with the strike are simply ridiculous.

"Among the most absurd stories is the yarn about our deceiving the men whom we sent to Homestead They knew, every one of them, where they were going. They knew that they were to go to the Carnegie works and guard them. In our contracts with the men certain papers are drawn up and signed, which, in themselves, would have been sufficient to show the men what they were being engaged for. Besides, most of the men were old hands with us, who knew fully what strike work was.

Getting Ready for the Troops.

HOMESTEAD, July 11.—Shortly after midnight yesterday a call was sent out for a meeting of the advisory committee to consider the attitude which should be assumed toward the militia. The intention is that the committees shall take definite action, and that the great army of strikers shall be called upon to observe implicitly the recommendations of this committee. The meeting is being held at a private residence behind closed doors, as it is expected the troops will arrive early in the day.

72 CONTESTS TO-DAY.

THE FINAL STRUGGLE IN THE BRITISH ELECTION.

Two More Liberal Gains—The Voting in Midlothian Takes Place To-day—Forest of Dean Electors Denounce Sir Charles Dilke—Chamberlain's Son Defends His Former Tutor—A Seat to Be Found for Mr. Ritchie.

LONDON, July 12.—The total number of members elected up to this time is 425. Of these the Conservatives have elected 198 and the Liberal-Unionists 27, making a total for the Tories and Liberal-Unionists of 225. The Liberals have elected 165 members, including 7 labor candidates; the Irish Anti-Parnellite-Nationalists have elected 30 members and the Parnellites 5 members. Adding the Liberals, Anti-Parnellites, and Parnellites together makes a total of 200, so that the Conservative-Liberal-Unionist alliance leads all the opposition by 25 votes.

To-day is the heaviest and the deciding day of the elections. Seventy-two contests are to be settled. Mr. Gladstone comes up for election to-day.

The voting of to-day brings the aggregate of the Conservatives' and Unionists' poll up to 1,344,453, and the aggregate of the Liberal poll, including the labor vote, up to 1,416,712.

A soberer judgment on both sides prevails. The Gladstonians realize how far short their majority will be of their expectations, even should they not fail to secure it.

The men best qualified to judge on both sides are now anticipating a final majority for Mr. Gladstone of from 10 to 15.

The leaders of parties now recognize that the life is gone out of the struggle. The elections have been a series of surprises, sometimes Home Rule getting the lead of everything, sometimes labor questions or religious considerations being paramount, and constituencies here and there dropping over to one side or the other in the most unexpected fashion. The details of these things have ceased to have any interest for anybody, and they have had no effect on the ultimate results, except to completely knock the wind out of the Gladstone boom and the Home Rulers, a result perfectly well known some days ago.

Nothing is likely to happen now to give the Liberals a working majority in Parliament. The experience of 1885-6 is likely to be repeated, and the Conservatives, who are taking a much calmer and more reliable view of the situation than the Liberals or the various factions, look upon it as a foregone conclusion that another general election will occur next year. By that time the country will be thoroughly tired of the stoppage of the legislative machinery by the Home Rule fad, and will again give Lord Salisbury an adequate majority to carry on a Conservative program.

The Nationalists (for the Parnellites do not seem to be in the way of any power) are counting on a return to their former position of holding the fate of the two English parties in their hands. They are looking forward to advances from the Conservatives similar to the Carnarvon negotiations in view of the probability that the country will a second time refuse to give Gladstone a Home Rule mandate, as it did in 1886. The Conservatives prefer to await events, and are not wasting any time in vain talk and prognostication. It is more than likely that, finding himself utterly helpless in the face of a nation's rejection of his extreme Irish proposals, Mr. Gladstone will suggest co-operation with Lord Salisbury in the advancement of a large measure of local Government for Ireland—a course which he might just as well have adopted in the last Parliament, with every prospect of success and benefit to Ireland. It is doubtful now whether the Conservatives will feel that they can trust the Grand Old Man at all, or leave any legislation in his hands with safety to the empire.

Labor Members Independent.

As a forecast of the position which the Burns section of the Labor party will hold it may be mentioned that J Kerr-Hardie, the successful candidate in Westham, South, and John Burns' most energetic lieutenant, publicly denies that he owes any allegiance to Mr. Gladstone or to the Liberal party. On the contrary, he did his best at Bethnal Green to prevent the election in the north-east division of George Howell, who was elected as a Liberal, and is a labor Gladstonian opposed to the eight-hour movement. This is a very bad outlook for Mr. Gladstone in the Commons with the ridiculously slender and futile majority with which he will go in.

Where the Changes Occurred.

LIBERAL GAINS.

In Forfarshire, Scotland, J. Rigby (Lib.) secured 4943; J. W. Barclay (L.U.) 4077. In 1886 the Liberal-Unionist majority was 407.

Devonshire, Barnstable division, elected A. Belleon (Lib.), 4383; Leedham White (L.U.) 4236. In 1886 the Liberal-Unionist majority was 1262.

Prominent Parnellite Beaten.

In Kildare, Ireland, North division—Patrick J. Kennedy (anti-Parnellite) elected, 2083; James L. Carew (P.) defeated, 1745. In 1886 Mr. Carew was returned unopposed. While a member of the late Parliament he was arrested in his bed in Scotland on a charge of violating the Irish coercion law. On that occasion Mr. Parnell pleaded warmly in his behalf in the House of Commons. Mr. Carew spent some time in jail for his patriotism. He joined the side of Mr. Parnell in the recent differences and is now defeated.

LONDON, July 12.—The contest in East Worcester between Austin Chamberlain (Liberal-Unionist), son of Joseph Chamberlain, and Oscar Browning (Liberal) had some piquant features. Mr. Chamberlain was a pupil of Mr. Browning at Morton College.

Mr. Browning was assisted in his canvass by other college dons, while Mr. Chamberlain was assisted by a number of his college chums. His father's influence also helped him well. The result of the poll showed the election of Chamberlain, who received 5111 votes, against 2517 for Browning.

Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, who was defeated as the Unionist candidate in North Lambeth, is now looking for some other seat to contest.

The Calcutta correspondent of The Times says the native Indian press is jubilant over the election of Mr. Naroji to Parliament. All the schools will have a holiday to-morrow, and illuminations and fetes will be given to celebrate the event.

Lord Salisbury has gone to Windsor Castle to explain to the Queen the political situation.

The Liberals are beginning to clamor for the ministry to resign before the meeting of Parliament.

The Chronicle warns Gladstone that the advanced Radicals will not be fobbed off with a Whig Government packed with amiable derelicts from his earlier Governments and pledged to nothing but Irish Home Rule, which the House of Lords will reject with contempt.

After speaking daily for the past fortnight at various places A. J. Balfour has finally consented to take the advice of his physicians and has gone with his sister to Hay Lake, at the mouth of the River Dee, to rest and recruit his strength.

Mr. Gladstone was to address his constituents at Peaicuick, near Edinburgh, yesterday, but his strength cannot hold out forever, and he has decided to rest and to deliver only one more speech before the Midlothian election to-morrow.

Justin McCarthy, who failed to retain his seat for Londonderry city, will contest the seat for North Longford, where he is most confident of victory. Mr. McCarthy represented it in 1885 and 1886, before the Conservative victory that year.

A seat is to be found for Mr. Ritchie, President of the Local Government Board, the only member of the Cabinet who was defeated for re-election, by the elevation to the bench of Mr. Bruce, the Conservative member for Holborn. Mr. Ritchie will be welcomed alike by friend and foe, as he is a hard-working, conscientious and able member of the House.

LONDON, July 12.—An exciting scene occurred at a Liberal meeting held in the Forest of Dean division of Gloucester, where Sir Charles Dilke is standing as the Liberal candidate against Col. Chester Wemys.

A resolution was offered declaring against Sir Charles Dilke, and adding that the electors of the district desired only a man of high moral character to represent them in Parliament.

The wife of Sir Charles was on the platform when the resolution was put, and she wept bitterly. There was great excitement during the voting, which was heightened when it was declared that the resolution was carried.

Friends of Sir Charles demanded that a re-count be made, and this was done, only to confirm the previous result.

LONDON, July 12.—The Daily News has the following special despatch from Edinburgh:

"Reports from various contested seats show that the Liberal candidates have not had adversaries of Home Rule alone to contend with. They have had to fight the parson, the publican and the privileged classes.

"Perhaps the first was the most aggressively active. It was the Church question, entirely apart from Home Rule, that reduced Farquharson's majority in Aberdeenshire and held Peeblesshire for the Unionist. Noting these facts the ecclesiastical drum is being beaten with redoubled effect in Midlothian.

"Last night a new broad sheet was issued calling upon supporters of the church to make every effort to defeat Mr. Gladstone. That is an impossible task, but his committee do not disguise their conviction that, in addition to the ragged army of 'faddists,' all colors and classes recruited under Mr. Wauchope's flag, the addition of a solid phalanx of voters who are churchmen first, will considerably reduce Mr. Gladstone's majority."

DUBLIN, July 12.—John Dillon spoke at Castlerea Monday. He said that the Liberals were winning all along the line in England, and that if Ireland only did her duty the battle was won. The McCarthyites, he said, would have at least 72 seats, while the Parnellites would have only seven. If, therefore, the latter thought they were right, it was their duty to unite with the majority, because on the result of this crisis depended Ireland's future. Mr. Dillon denounced the outrage on Mr. Sheehy in Waterford as an indelible disgrace to that city.

Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Devonshire and Mr. Joseph Chamberlain have telegraphed their congratulations to Mr. Kenny upon his winning the seat for the St. Stephen's Green division of Dublin.

The Freeman's Journal, discussing Saturday's elections, says that a united Nationalist party is now assured; that the verdict of Ireland is unmistakable, and that such a wholesale repudiation of a political party as has been seen in the case of the Parnellites was never before witnessed.

WILLIAM WALDORF ASTOR DEAD.

The Many Times Millionaire Dies of Pneumonia in London.

NEW YORK, July 12.—A notice posted on the door of the office of the Astor estate, No. 23 West 26th-street, last night authoritatively announced the death of William Waldorf Astor as follows: "House closed on account of death of Mr. Astor."

LONDON, July 12.—An Associated Press reporter called at the Astor residence at an early hour this morning to enquire of the reported death of Mr. William Waldorf Astor. The domestics who answered the call stated that Mr. Astor was not dead. They declined to awaken members of the family for further information.

Kate Castleton Dead.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Kate Castleton, the actress, died in Providence yesterday.

SHE WANTS $300.

Because the Canadian C.E. Folks Didn't Go To Her House.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Suit has been begun by Mrs. Catharine Strebeigh, who keeps a boarding house in West Twenty-second-street, against Treasurer J. R. Wray of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, to recover from the society $360, said to be due upon a board bill.

The complaint says that William F. Stevens, chairman of the Hotel Committee of the society, entered into a contract with Mrs. Strebeigh to furnish board and lodging for 45 Canadian delegates for four days ending last night, at $2 per day. Mrs. Strebeigh bought large amounts of bedding and other furniture and got dinner for the expected guests.

When they failed to appear she sent word to Mr. Stevens, who said the train was late, and she prepared other meals, but afterwards learned that the visitors had gone elsewhere.

Killed at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 12.—While Wilbert Anderson was fishing in the rapids below the whirlpool on the Niagara River about 2 o'clock yesterday, he fell into the swift current, was dashed to death against the rocks and his body sank.

He was master mechanic of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Suspension Bridge and was 42 years old. He leaves a family. The body has not yet been recovered.

THE ST. JOHN'S FIRE.

HURRYING FORWARD FOOD TO THE STARVING PEOPLE.

Ten Were Killed, Two Children and a Woman Having Been Burned to Death, Two Persons Died from Fright and Five Were Drowned.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 12.—The [illegible] details heretofore sent from St. J[illegible] but a vague idea of the horrors of [illegible] tion, the appalling nature [illegible] tion and [illegible] utter ruin [illegible] and the colony is overwhelmed by [illegible] Now a new danger threatens. Starvation seems certain for [illegible] of the homeless people unless succor comes from the outside world. Aid has been offered and food and clothing are on the way from Halifax and Montreal. Relief measures are being actively projected. The leading Catholic citizens by invitation of Bishop Power met in the Episcopal Cathedral and appointed a committee to co-operate with the Government looking towards relief measures.

Ten Persons Killed.

The loss of life so far as known gives a total of 10 persons. Five men were drowned in the harbor while carrying away goods, and two children were burned to death in the second house that caught fire. One man named Lindley and a woman named Murray dropped dead from fright. The acutal number lost will probably never be known, as it was impossible to get the aged and children away from the fiery furnace. The body of a woman named Molloy, 68 years of age, was found in the ruins of her home in Bell-street this morning. She had reached her house and dropped just inside the doorway. It is thought she died from fright before the fire destroyed the building.

The estimated loss is $15,000,000. The insurance, it is believed, will not reach 33 per cent. of the losses.

Stories of the Homeless.

Stories told by some of the homeless yesterday are pathetic in the extreme. They witnessed the destruction of the city from the high lands back of the city. Some managed to save a few articles of apparel, but the vast majority had only what they stood upright in. Meanwhile flames were leaping from building to building and from street to street, licking up everything in their path. Huge piles of masonry like the Church of England Cathedral, the Masonic Hall and the Athenæum buildings apparently yielded as easily to the flames as the flimsiest wooden shells. When the fire reached the great stores in Water-street it was fed by vast supplies of kerosene oil, seal oil, pork, flour, turpentine, drygoods, powder and other inflammable material, and was given great impetus.

Streets Wiped Out.

The accurate list of streets wiped out is: Water-street, Military-road, Duckworth-street, Prescott street, Queen's-road, Cochrane-street, Gower-street, King's-road, Cathedral Hill and Long's Hill.

The drill shed parade rink, Browning's bakery and Clouston's factory have been made ready for the houseless as rapidly as the work can be carried on. Sheds are being erected in Bannerman Park to shelter the houseless.

The convents have opened food depots for the destitute. Bishop Powers of the Episcopal church offers the church library for a food depot.

President Harrison offers assistance. He has telegraphed the Governor from Loon Lake, N.Y., asking what is wanted in the shape of aid.

Some of the lower class of merchants have begun extorting money for flour and provisions and threats are being made against them. Her Majesty's ship Blake, with a great quantity of canvas for tents, is now here.

The Forest Fires.

The forest fires near the city are raging fiercely. Three hundred additional men hired by the municipal government, making 800 in all, went to the scene of the fire yesterday and are digging up turf and forming trenches to check its advances. The main body is under control, but one or two offshots have necessitated extra care. The new Catholic bishop, Howly, and clergy are working hard at the scene and greatly enthusing the workmen.

The insurance agents at St. Johns report to England direct, so that the loss by the conflagration of Friday will fall on the home office of the companies and will not be chargeable to the Canadian branch offices. Large lines on the English system are written, but it will be difficult to obtain an accurate list of the companies interested.

Dominion Government Sends Aid.

OTTAWA, July 12.—The Dominion Government has lost no time taking action in the matter of prompt relief to the sufferers by the terrible catastrophe at St. John's, Nfld.

Yesterday the Premier telegraphed the Administrator of the Government in Newfoundland, expressing the greatest sympathy for the people of St. John's, and informing him that a vessel with a load of provisions would be sent at once for the relief of the sufferers.

Yesterday orders were sent to Halifax to have the Government steamer Newfield loaded at once with flour, meat, pork and other necessaries and despatched Wednesday, if possible to load her in that time. Governor Daly of Nova Scotia has been asked to superintend the despatch of the Newfield.

Suicide At Ridgetown.

RIDGETOWN, July 12.—Mr. L. W. Fish, an aged shoemaker of Ridgetown, committed suicide last evening by taking morphine. Discouragement on account of an expensive life insurance policy is said to have led to the act. This was the third attempt he made to end his life. He leaves a widow.

A Fatal Runaway.

TAMWORTH, Ont., July 12.—John Wilson, an aged farmer of the eighth concession of Camden, was driving to church Sunday with his son and the latter's family when the horses became frightened and ran away, overturning the wagon. When picked up Mr. Wilson's skull was found to have been crushed and death must have been instantaneous. The rest were unconscious and badly hurt. But slight hope is entertained for Mrs. Wilson's recovery.

Flashes From the Cable.

A boat containing members of a Strasburg musical society, who were making an excursion on the river, capsized and 11 men were drowned.

Baron Wimmerleigh (John Wilson Patten) died yesterday, aged 80 years. He was Chief Secretary for Ireland in 1868. The title, which was created in 1874, expires with him.

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1892.

PINKERTON, the detective, and Homestead, Pa., head bandit, speaking in reference to the Homestead riots in Pennsylvania, says that it means a look out for ever so far as union men are concerned. "I guess," he says, "Carnegie and his partners have money enough"—to enable them to hold out. Possibly they have, but where did they get the money? The money was created by the striking workmen and their kind, and came from the sweat of their toil-blackened brows. A protective tariff has enabled him to put the highest price upon his products, and to grind the working men down with the lowest wages. Carnegie, with the money made by his workmen, who received hardly enough to keep soul and body together, has built castles and palatial residences in two or three kingdoms. The bandit tariff has permitted him to rob the public and grind down the workingmen. Yes, Carnegie and his partners have money enough—but a very small part of it belongs to him, except by virtue of an iniquitous fiscal law. If the workingmen had got back a fair proportion of the wealth their toil created, there would have been no strike and no bloodshed. Not satisfied with the authority derived from the law to rob the public, Carnegie must squeeze another drop of blood out of his workingmen's hearts by lowering wages still further. Does protection create high wages and permit monopoly?

THE M'Kinley tariff, the Monetary Times says, has received a remarkable illustration by the way the strike in the Carnegie steel works, at Homestead, Pennsylvania, has been met. The mouthpiece of the company, which has made millions by favour of a high tariff, Mr. Lovejoy, says: "This fight is not a matter of politics; it is purely one of business and no political considerations will influence us." The tariff is a political affair, and the workmen complain it does not protect them. Republican politicians see a tariff question in the strike, and they are anxious that the difficulty should be smoothed over. The Carnegie company talks as if it were not under any obligations to to the tariff. When Protectionists go to Congress for favours, they do so in the name of the working man, whom they profess to be most anxious to protect against the pauper labour of Europe; but when the workmen refuse to submit to a reduction of wages, the issue is purely one of business. Such is the difference between promise and performance.

THE Monetary Times says:—"A bit of tariff retaliation has been indulged in by the Canadian Parliament in the form of a duty of five cents per dozen on eggs. Retaliation is apt to act as a boomerang, and to injure the country which indulges in it, quite as much as the one against which it is directed. What benefit can Canada derive from a five cent duty on eggs?"

Lives of others oft remind us
Married life may be sublime.

We trust to be forgiven this parody of lines from Longfellow's immortal "Psalm of Life." Husbands who are wise and thoughtful know that the happiness of the home depends largely on the health of the mistress of the home. Many are the tasks which daily confront her. How can a woman contend against the trials and worries of housekeeping, if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weaknesses peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy sold by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper. b

End of the Session.

The session of parliament which closes to-day will go into history as one utterly barren. A crude and ill-digested criminal code has been passed, to be tinkered with and patched at future sessions. Four months and a half were spent over legislative work which could have been disposed of in six weeks had the government introduced its measures promptly and in proper shape. An iniquitous gerrymander bill was introduced, which the Reformers resisted and denounced until the ministers were glad to amend it. Had the government introduced the Redistribution bill even in the shape in which it finally became law, the discussion upon the measure would not have lasted a week. New burdens were imposed upon the people by the granting of five millions of dollars in bonuses to railway corporations and a bounty of nearly two cents per pound upon all sugar manufactured from beets, whereas nothing has been done to lighten the burden of taxation which is now oppressing the producing classes of the country. The Reformers succeeded in preventing an outrageous gerrymander of the constituencies and likewise defeated the organized attempt of the Ministerialists to increase the indemnity of the members. They also prevented the consummation of the scheme to increase the salaries of superior court judges. But the Ministerialists can boast of a few purchased victories at bye-elections if they cannot point to any legislation in the interest of the country. In proportion as the electors are made poor by legislation in the interests of monopolists they become more susceptible to the "get something for the county" argument. The impecuniosity of the voters makes it an easy matter to purchase constituencies.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

A Few Weather Notes and Remembrances.

June, the beautiful, is gone, no doubt leaving many changes throughout the world. In looking back we find many things both to grieve and comfort us. The month came in hot. At the morning examination we find the thermometer standing at 65°; from 2 o'clock to 5 at 90°, and sundown 88°. The second morning and throughout the day was only 2° colder than the above one. The next hottest was on the 12th, morning examination, 70; at 2 p.m. the mercury went up to 92°, and at sundown fell to only 80°. The day following was a little above the previous one, the morning examination showing 68°, half past one 97, sundown 89°. Our coolest day was on the 29th, the mercury coming down to 47°, with indications of frost in some localities, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 66°. Rain fell on fifteen days to the depth of 4 inches 25-100, being high for June. The Montreal Family Herald, July 5th, says:—"The rain fall for June up to noon Thursday at McGill's observatory is 8 07 inches; the rainfall for the same month in 1891 was 1.75, in 1890 2.72, in 1889 4 73, in 1888, 3 12, in 1887, 2.41, the present rainfall only being exceeded in August 1890, falling 8.08 inches; but we must bear in mind a great deal of our summer rains are local storms. Take, for instance, Ottawa on the 5th, a heavy gale, hail and rain passed there on that day while we had no rain in Peterborough. I find in looking over my records I see for the last twelve years rain has fallen in June as follows: In 1881 it fell 2 89 inches, in 1882, 5.54, in 1883, 3.64, in 1884, 1 84, in 1885, 2.77, in 1886, 0 94, in 1887, 1.92, in 1888, 1 87, in 1889, 3 16, in 1890, 2 46, 1891, 1 06, and in our present year as above 4 25. So it will be seen in 1882 I exceeded the Montreal record by 47.100 nearly half an inch but in '86 I had only 0 94 100 all told. Little need for umbrellas that month. During the month we had thunder 7 times although not always accompanied with rain, once auroral lights, once mock sun, twice halo and once lunar halo and twice rainbows before sun setting. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month respectively, namely, southwest 8 days, east 4 days, south 1 day, northeast 5 days, southeast 4 days, northwest 6 days, and west 2 days.

PETERBOROUGH, Tuesday morning, July 12—At sunrise yesterday morning the thermometer stood at 56°, 9 o'clock at 80° at 12 up to 87°, at 1 to 90°, at 2 to 92°, at 5 still at 92°, and at sundown 80°. Don't you think that hot, it will be hotter to day.

A Grain Ration is Not Necessary.

To learn the effect of a grain ration on cows at pasture the Cornell experiment station has carried on experiments for three consecutive years. The results of these experiments may be summarized as follows: In 1890, in a season when pasturage was very luxuriant throughout the whole summer, with three cows in each lot, the grain-fed lot gave considerably less milk which was so much richer in butter fat that the total butter production was practically the same in the two lots. In this experiment the grain feeding was begun about a month after the cows had gone to pasture.

The pasturage was luxuriant all through the season of 1890, except for a short time in the middle of the summer. With three cows in each lot, the total amount of butter fat produced was almost exactly the same in both lots. In this experiment, the grain fed lot continued to receive the same ration on pasture that they had been receiving during the winter on dry feed. This season an experiment on soiling with grass alone was also tried. With grass and grain, just about enough more butter was produced by the grain fed lot to pay for the increased cost of the grain ration.

Some objection was made to these previous experiments on the ground that the pastures used were too rich and the cows too well fed to show the results of grain feeding in the summer time. To overcome this the experiment of 1891 was transferred to a herd of 16 Jerseys and Jersey grades, owned by C. M. & W. L. Bean, of McGrawville, N.Y. This herd had been accustomed to only a moderate grain ration in winter and never had any grain in summer. It was divided into two lots of eight cows each, the division being made by the station on the basis of weight, length of time in milk, length of time in calf, yield of milk per day and per cent. of fat in milk, and was indorsed by the owners of the herd in the opinion that the cows were as evenly divided as it was possible for them to be. The experiment continued from May 23 to Oct. 23, or 22 weeks. One lot of cows received each day four quarts of a mixture of two parts corn meal, one part bran and one part cottonseed meal by weight, fed in two feeds, night and morning, when the cows were brought in to be milked. At no time was the pasture very luxuriant. The grain-fed lot produced just about enough more milk and butter to pay for the increased cost of the grain ration. In this experiment the grain feeding was begun about two weeks after the cows went to pasture. This seems to show that no great advantage is gained from the grain ration. The station will follow up this work this season, to see if any new facts can be brought out, as they do not feel that the matter is conclusively settled yet.

DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

POSITIVE ALTERATION SALE!

About a year ago extensive alterations and improvements in our George and Simcoe Street premises were contemplated and publicly announced in good faith, and preparations were commenced to transform our store into one of the finest business premises in Peterborough. Unfortunately, owing to difficulties which arose at the time, we were compelled to postpone the work indefinitely. Now, however, we have determined that These Improvements must go on, no matter what the Cost. We, therefore, beg to announce that during the month of July, in order to allow these important alterations to be made, we will be of the premises altogether, for about a month. To avoid the expense and trouble of removing the goods, we have decided to sell off our whole stock, and will commence at once a SWEEPING CLEARANCE SALE of everything in the store. Nothing will be reserved during the next two months. The stock consists of regular Staple Goods—all new and fashionable—bought for this season's trade. THEN SPLENDID VALUES which will be given will afford the greatest inducements to Dry Goods Buyers which have been offered for many years to the people of Peterborough.

To secure a complete clearance we are prepared to make great sacrifices in every department. PRICES WILL BE A SECONDARY MATTER! THE GOODS MUST GO! THERE WILL BE BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

Come and buy NOW, if you want to reap the great benefit of the surrender of profits which must be made during this Positive Alteration Sale.

For the Street Inspector's Eye.

There are a few bad places in the sidewalks of the town which ought to be repaired before they cost some pedestrian a broken limb, and the town a bill of damages. It is felt certain that all it will be necessary to do is to call the street inspector's attention to these deficiencies in our walks and they will be attended to at once:

There is a plank off the sidewalk on the west of George street near McDonnel.

Another plank is broken on the bridge crossing the creek on Park street, near the West Ward school.

There is a large hole in the road near the Sherbrooke street bridge.

Two dangerous broken planks are at the sidewalk on the north side of the Hunter street bridge.

A "Russell Sage" Escapade.

Yesterday afternoon a citizen stepped out of his place of business on George street into an adjoining barber shop to undergo the operation of a shampooing at the hands of a tonsorial artist. Hardly had the operation began when a terrible explosion occurred in his shop, the report sounding like the blowing up of some mighty powder magazine, it was so terrific. The proprietor ran out—his hair, covered with sea-foam, standing upon end—white with rage, his eye darting wrathful glances and his fists clinched with a vice-like grip. Several merchants and others also followed, and as they went to the scene of the great disaster. The only vestige left—the explosion breaking and blowing to atoms everything around—was the smouldering remnant of a five-cent "cheroot" exhaling its powdery breath on the floor.

A Peterborough Boy who is a Noted Bicyclist.

The Daily Gleaner of Fredricton, N.B., in its issue of July 2nd, gives a long account of the great bicycle races held in the capital on Dominion Day. The most important race was the pneumatic safety dash, half mile heats, best two in three. Mr. David Crowe, son of the late Chas. Crowe, of Ashburnham, was the successful winner of this race, taking the handsome gold medal offered the winner, in two straight heats. The Gleaner says that Crowe in both heats tagged fully forty yards behind his opponents and was thought to be practically out of the race but each time in the last round he spurted and by a magnificent burst of speed succeeded in passing his competitors, winning both heats quite easily. He was cheered vociferously on both occasions. In the first race the time was 1.32½, the best wheel time ever made on the Fredricton Park. Mr. Crowe has many friends in Peterborough who will be pleased to learn of his ability on the winged steed.

Our Lacrosse Boys.

The Peterborough Lacrosse club will go to Belleville to-morrow to play the return match with the "Quintes," whom they defeated here by 5 goals to 1 in June. The following players will compose the team: Goal, F. Adams; point, G. Parks; cover point, F. Pakenham; 1st defence, J. McDonough; 2nd defence, G. Heap; 3rd defence, E. Hickey; centre, Joe Begley; 3rd home, W. Phelan; 2nd home, C. J. Phelan; 1st home, J. T. McCabe; outside home, J. Smart; inside home, E. Wasson; field captain, W. E. Loch. The boys are confident of victory. An exciting game is expected. In this connection the Ontario says: The Peterborough Lacrosse club will play in Belleville on Wednesday next. The match promises to be sharply contested as both clubs are in good shape. Belleville has put in some good work within the past few weeks, and will be in a position to give the visitors a hard fight.

TENDERS will be received for the stock of Dry Goods belonging to the undersigned, in the store next door to Jas. Long's confectionery. Tenders to be in not later than July 13th, as I am going out of Dry Goods.

Mr. Geo. Wareham, Water street, leaves to-morrow on an extended visit to his many friends in Lake Linden, Michigan. Mr. Wareham takes the trip for the benefit of his health and will be absent some months.

Mr. Geo. Matthews, of Lindsay, and W. E. Matthews, of Ottawa, sail to-morrow for England from Montreal. Mr. Matthews is establishing an agency in London in connection with his Peterborough, Lindsay and Ottawa branches.

Dr. J. B. Hall, of Schenectady, N.Y., arrived in town last evening, and started to-day for Buckhorn on his annual fishing excursion. We are told that Tom Eastwood has been herding a 24 pound 'lunge in the corner of the lake for the past two weeks for the Dr. to catch to send home.

Mr. Harry Danford, of H.M.S. "Phylades" now lying at Montreal, is in town on furlough, visiting his sister, Mrs. Ball, Ashburnham, whom he has not seen before in 20 years. Mr. Danford is a splendid specimen of the British tar, and has been over 19 years in the British service, entering it at the age of 15.

Mr. Samuel Jordan, late of Toronto, has purchased the old homestead of Mr. Frank Mason, on Argyle street. He will engage in the wholesale and retail flower and seed business. Mr. Mason will continue his retail business on the corner of Brock and Water streets. Mr. Jordan has many friends, who will wish him success in the horticultural business.

Changed Hands.

This afternoon the Commercial House changes proprietorship, Mr. Arthur Rountree, of Winnipeg, having purchased the complete outfit from Mr. John Fanning. Mr. Rountree has taken possession, and his experience in the west, where he conducted a first-class hotel, is sufficient guarantee that the "Commercial" will be carefully and efficiently managed. Mr. Wm. McGregor, who has also just returned to town from Winnipeg, will take charge of the bar.

Court Littlejohn's Excursion.

On the Civic Holiday Court Littlejohn Foresters run their annual excursion to Toronto, Niagara Falls and to Grimsby Park, with the privilege to excursionists of extending the trip to Buffalo at a reasonable rate. Toronto will look its best; Grimsby Park (the Canadian Chautauqua) will attract many who would like to see the locality and enjoy the exercises; Niagara is in its summer glory, and the works of the big Tunnel Company, now nearly completed, will prove of great interest. Rates will be announced in a few days, and will be so low that every one who has never been out of the township may go, and those who went before may go again. Keep your engagements open until you learn full particulars.

Peterborough Cricket Club.

There is general dissatisfaction among the enthusiastic members of the cricket club at the poor turnout to practice every night. Last evening only four members were present. The secretary says that he has written nearly every cricket team in Ontario to endeavour to arrange matches. To half of the challenges sent, no answer has been received and those clubs who did condescend to notice the challenge assigned several reasons for not being able to play. They all want matches in their own town and are unwilling to play an outside team on its own grounds. The cricket club, this spring, started under the most favourable auspices and has had a good record so far, consequently there is no good reason, whatever, that it should decline now when cricket should be at its highest.

—The town council will hold a special meeting to pass the sewerage by-law on Monday evening next. The council will meet in Committee of the Whole on Friday night.

—Another large party of excursionists left for Stony Lake this morning to occupy their summer cottages and to enjoy the fishing and fresh air of Peterborough's delightful resort.

—G. N. Leavens, of Belleville, secretary of the Bay of Quinte yacht club, has received a challenge from J. E. White, yacht Onward, Rochester, N.Y., for the Fisher cup. The Norah will probably meet her on July 30th.

—This is the season of dullness, heat and oppression. Several large manufacturing establishments in town have closed down for some weeks from lack of work and orders to be filled. There are others to follow in the same wake.

—Two police were called to quell the disturbance which a party of a dozen young men and women were making on George street on Sunday night between eight and nine o'clock. The racket created by them was disgraceful.

—Mr. Ramsay, C.E., and his staff of assistants, have completed the work of locating the Peterborough, Sudbury and Sault Ste Marie railway as far as Lakefield. Mr. T. L. Hewson, P.L.S., to-day began the work of plotting out the proposed road.

—Lovers of astronomy took delight last night in watching the occulation of Jupiter. There was an occulation of Jupiter and Venus on Feb. 11th. A citizen said last night that it was 16 years since he saw Jupiter hidden by the moons bright face.

—The town bears a deserted appearance, about 800 persons including the Orangemen leaving for Lak field to-day to take part in the great Orange demonstration in that village. Three trains left this morning, all of which were loaded down with passengers.

—Mr. H. Young, 23 Lucas street, Secretary of the Junior Excelsior Baseball club, Toronto, writes the EXAMINER that his club would like to arrange a match with any junior baseball club in Peterborough. The average age of the junior Excelsiors is 16 years.

—Mr. John Piece, who is employed in the machine shop of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co. had the misfortune of having the finger and thumb of one of his hands jammed against an emery wheel on Monday. Dr. Caldwell dressed the wound.

—The drinking fountain on the corner of George and McDonnel streets sadly needs some mending. There is a large leak hole in the bottom of the reservoir, which allows the water to drop down in front of the fountain, causing a large pool of mud and water. The leak should be mended.

—The lacrosse match which was to have taken place on Friday evening next between the Peterborough Juniors and the Shamrock Lacrosse club's has been declared off on account of the band concert on that evening at which all the players are desirous of being present. These two clubs will cross sticks later on.

—Mr. Geo. W. Rubidge yesterday moved his tobacco store to the place of business lately occupied by Mr. G. W. Wyatt, jeweller. Mr. Rubidge occupied his old stand for a long time, and has built up a large and increasing trade, which no doubt will remain with him in his new, large and more comfortable premises.

—A fight occurred at the G.T.R. depot this morning between an Orangeman and a young man from the country. Hot words led to blows and a scuffle ensued in which fists played a salient part. The contestants were separated by a brakeman. The police received a call but all was quiet when Officer McGinty reached the scene.

—A ratepayer stated to day that during the eight years he was in the council, the charity donated to No. 2 Ward never exceeded $200 in any year. At the last report of the Charity Committee the charity for No. 2 Ward for the past three months was more than that amount, and it overbalanced the total expenditure in all the other three wards.

—Mr. Wm. Hopkins, an enthusiastic Orangeman, has a rare curiosity in his possession in the shape of an orange silk handkerchief, which he has carried continuously during the last twenty years. He purchased the handkerchief, which he prizes very highly, from the store of A. Mercer & Co. in 1872, before leaving to attend a great Orange demonstration in Port Hope. The handkerchief is comparatively new yet, being very little worn though carried so many years.

B. McKee, E. H. D. Hall, C. McGill and W. H. Hill. One of the old members of the society paid for a period of 5 years for one of his children.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Nervous Headache

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

Address and Presentation.

Mr. Wm. Kindred and Wife, the new Proprietor of the Temperance House Kindly Remembered by his Many Otonabee Friends Last Night.

On July 1st Mr. Wm. Kindred who has for a number of years past been a resident of Otonabee township, leased the Temperance House on Hunter street for a term of years succeeding Mr. Patrick Heenan as proprietor. Last evening a pleasant surprise awaited the new occupant of the house and his wife in the way of an address and presentation from their Otonabee friends and neighbors. The visitors assembled about 8 o'clock to the number of fifty, laden with baskets of choice provisions and at once proceeded to take possession of the new landlord's establishment. The following address was then read:—

TO MR. AND MRS. WM KINDRED AND FAMILY:

We, as neighbors and friends, though sorry because of your removal from among us, trust you may enjoy success in your new home. We would ask you to accept this present which is but a slight token of the respect in which you are held by us. In the future when you are separated from us we hope you will look upon this with pleasure, feeling confident that you live in our esteem and affections.

Again we wish you success in your new undertaking, and pray that you may enjoy long lives of prosperity and happiness.

Signed on behalf of all,
WILLIAM RUTHERFORD,
ANDREW KENT.

Mr. Anthony Taylor read the address, and Mr. Wm Rutherford made the presentation, which was a purse of money.

Mr. Kindred, who was naturally taken by surprise, replied in a few words accepting the gift, and thanking his friends for their kindness and good wishes, and wishing them all success. Speeches were also made by Mr. Anthony Taylor, Chas. Kindred and others, all expressing the hope that Mr. Kindred would meet with the best of success in the management of his new house and in his new business.

During the evening a sumptuous repast from the baskets brought, was partaken of in the dining room and duly appreciated by all. In the sitting room playing and singing were indulged in, and a pleasant time spent until a late hour, when all separated for their respective homes. Mr. Kindred has many friends who will wish him success in his management of the Temperance House.

The Band Concert.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—The people of Peterborough, especially those who wish the town to have a band that can play good music on good instruments must bestir themselves generally. The tickets are going rapidly, but it takes a large sum, a good deal larger than will be taken in at this concert, to provide a band with instruments. There is no use in growling at this or any other band when the growler should pay his shilling to help on the work and will not do it. This is really the first time that the public has had the opportunity of helping the band. The instruments remain in possession of the town and players that come after these now in the band will find good material at hand, that is if the people have the public spirit to buy the tickets. The battalion owes it to itself to support this concert with all its influence. There is an old and true saying that "every little makes a muckle" which it is well to remember.

Yours, etc.,
THOROUGHNESS.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition. They are the governors of the system, continual disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

AGRICULTURE

The Hamburg was a great favorite among both poultry fanciers and farmers 20 years ago. But with the many new breeds coming into prominence each season, a change inevitably came. The Plymouth Rock, Wyandot and Langshan soon displaced them, and in many sections they have been entirely dropped. The Hamburg is not a large fowl, being about the size of the Leghorn, but its character is well shown by the saying in Holland, their native home, that they are every-day and everlasting layers.

The Spangled and Black Hamburgs are favorite English strains, being extensively bred and improved on the farms throughout Great Britain. The Golden Penciled is also a favorite. On the farm the Silver Spangled or Penciled varieties are usually preferred, as the white in the plumage is more striking and looks better than it does a towns or cities, where they are apt to get dirty.

Hamburgs all require ample range because they are active workers, like the Leghorn. If penned up they pine for liberty. Their bright, active ways disappear, and from a naturally happy disposition they soon appear the most wretched of fowls. They do finely if they have a large grass run, and but few breeds exceed them in profit. They are small eaters and wonderful layers. I have known some that would lay in 12 months 200 eggs. As a rule the Hamburg is healthy, and for the farmer a very excellent fowl. True, they are not so easy to get desirable for market breeds as some others, but the chicks are early and quite hardy when young. The chicks should always be kept outside of the old flock, as they will thus do much better and be less liable to injury. The pullets begin laying when five months old, if well cared for. This is particularly the case with the Silver Penciled varieties.

The Silver Spangled Hamburg is an old breed, having been bred in and about Yorkshire, Eng., for years. Great care has been given it by English farmers. Hence it is more perfect and pure in marking than some of our present new breeds. This variety is one of the best for a practical farm fowl. Their plumage is black spots or spangles on a white body ground, each spangle being entirely separate and accurately defined, making a picture in feathers seen on no other breed.

The Golden Spangled Hamburg looks precisely like the Silver Spangled, except that the ground color is a chestnut brown, with spots of greenish black over the breast, wings and tail. The Golden Spangled Hamburg is not considered as steady a layer as the Penciled varieties and, although a very beautiful fowl, it lacks the activity of the Penciled breeds. Some strains differ in this regard, but this is the rule. The Silver Penciled Hamburgs are somewhat smaller in size than the Spangled varieties. The Black Hamburg is a very useful fowl, and by some considered a better layer and a better farm fowl than many of the other varieties, but this has not been my experience.—J. W. Caughey, in Farm and Home.

The Summer Death-Rate.

The greatest evidence of the dangers of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, is the increase in the death-rate of all the leading cities during the summer months. Men and women can not be too careful of their habits of life during the heated term, and particular attention should be paid to the diet of children. A supply of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER should always be at hand, for it is the only medicine that can be relied on at all times as safe, sure, and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case; but in severe attacks it is occasionally necessary to bathe the sufferer's stomach with the PAIN KILLER. All reputable druggists have it for sale. 25c. price per large bottle.

Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia and too hearty eating is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this. dw

MALARIAL FEVER AND CHILLS are best broken up and prevented by using Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

DUSKY GIRL-BRIDES.

Maori Maidens Often Marry at the Age of Thirteen.

The young Maori women are often very good-looking, with splended black or dark brown eyes, masses of black hair—never wool—snow-white teeth, and supple, round, well-shaped figures and limbs. They do velope very early, a girl of thirteen or fourteen being quite a woman and often a mother; and, as they get older, they soon become coarse and ponderous. They are of a laughing, good-natured, amiable disposition, and those who have come within the sphere of their charms say they have wonderfully seductive ways.

It is not uncommon for white men to marry Maori girls; but the instances of white women marrying Maori husbands are extremely few. The half castes are a very handsome race, some of the girls being perfect belles. They are said to combine all the vices of both the Europeans and the Maoris with none of the virtues of either; but that is altogether too severe a judgement.

Many of them are as good as they are agreeable, writes Edward Wakefield in the Cosmopolitan. They are usually delicate and the women bear few children, it any; so that there is no likelihood of a mixed population springing up to any large extent. The process is entirely one of whitening the Maoris, not of blackening the Pakehas.

To Preserve

The richness, color, and beauty of the hair, the greatest care is necessary, much harm being done by the use of worthless dressings. To be sure of having a first-class article, ask your druggist or perfumer for Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is absolutely superior to any other preparation of the kind. It restores the original color and fullness to hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. It keeps the scalp cool, moist, and free from dandruff. It heals itching humors, prevents baldness, and imparts to a silken texture and lasting fragrance. No toilet can be considered complete without this most popular and elegant of all hair-dressings.

"My hair began turning gray and falling out when I was about 25 years of age. I have lately been using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and it is causing a new growth of hair of the natural color."—R. J. Lowry, Jones Prairie, Texas.

"Over a year ago I had a severe fever, and when I recovered, my hair began to fall out, and what little remained turned gray. I tried various remedies, but without success, till at last I began to Ayer's Hair Vigor, and now my hair is growing rapidly and is restored to its original color."—Mrs. Annie Collins, Dighton, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for nearly five years, and my hair is moist, glossy, and in an excellent state of preservation. I am forty years old, and have ridden the plains for twenty-five years."—Wm. Henry Ott, alias "Mustang Bill," Newcastle, Wyo.

I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles is—Try it. You will soon be convinced. THE IMPASSIBLE WALL.

Simple Ropes Suspended Vertically Will Protect a Fragile Object.

If you strike with a cane the lower end of a cord or rope suspended vertically, you will be surprised at the slight effect which your blow will produce. Instead of throwing the cord or rope away back, it will be moved but slightly. The cause of the phenomenon is easily discovered. Because of the inertia, the lower end of the cord tends to remain still while the part struck tends to move. The result is that the end of the cord rises and winds around the cane, checking the blow completely. This simple observation will explain the little trick known as the magic or the impassible wall.

Suspend a series of these stout cords or small ropes, by stringing them on a broomstick, which you can support by laying across the tops, of two doors, as indicated in the cut.

Behind these cords thus suspended, place upon the floor any fragile object—even a costly one, and defy one of your friends, placed outside the "wall," to break that object. No matter how hard he strikes at it with his cane across the ropes, he will succeed in doing nothing but getting wound up in the cords, and may strike as long as he likes, he will not hit the article aimed at.

A Good Short Stop.

A simple contrivance for fastening bars in place is a spring made out of hoop iron.

Take a piece 1 foot long and punch two or three holes in one end. Nail this to one side of the barn at the sliding end. Push the bar in place and it slips out against the post, holding the bar in place. To open push against the spring and slide the bar.

Walked 25 Miles While Asleep.

MOSHERVILLE, Mich., July 11.—Thursday night Clark Weldon, a bright young man of this town, got up in his sleep and walked to Jackson, a distance of 25 miles. When he arrived there he had some trouble at a hotel, but finally told the clerk that F. C. Case, a keeper in the prison, was a friend of his. Case was called and had the man sent home. Weldon does not remember anything of the whole affair.

They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

INTENSE SUFFERING!

Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable. They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the head or rheumatic affection of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door, was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life. I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."

ST. JACOBS OIL

"ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT."

ST. MARK'S CENTENNIAL.

A History of the Old Anglican Church at Niagara-on-the-Lake.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, July 11.—The old parish church of St. Mark's, Niagara, celebrated its centennial Saturday and Sunday by memorial services. On Saturday afternoon a brass tablet in one of the side walls was unveiled, giving the history of the parish, the building, its restoration and the names of its incumbents. The tablet was unveiled by Rev. Canon Read, after which Rev. E. J. Fennenden delivered a charge, eloquent in its description of the missionary zeal of the Church of England. After him came the venerable rector, Archdeacon McMurray, who read in a clear voice a history of the parish and closed with the well-known charge of St. Paul to the Corinthians to continue in the faith and work. There were large congregations, including many clergymen. Bishop Coxe of Western New York preached on Sunday.

History of St. Mark's.

Built about 1792 or 1793 St. Mark's church has had the remarkable record that in the following century completed this year it has had but three rectors. The first, Rev. Mr. Addison, went to Niagara as the pioneer missionary in that section of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. He continued as incumbent for 37 years, dying Oct. 6, 1829, aged 75. Rev. Thomas Green succeeded him and preached for 27 years, dying at Niagara in January, 1864. Tablets to both the above clergymen are in the church. Archdeacon McMurray has completed the remaining 36 years. Virile and active at the age of 82 he bids fair to pass Rev. Mr. Addison's record and get well into the new century.

Prior to the second war with England St. Mark's history was doubtless that of a quiet country parish, except the good Mr. Addison used to travel long distances to baptize, marry and bury. He was a scholar and reader. His library of rare theological and other works is in perfect preservation at the rectory in Archdeacon McMurray's study.

Along came the dogs of war in 1812, and this stone church built by the poor frontiersmen at a cost of £1200 became a pivot in the sharp fighting in and about Niagara. In one of the engagements in the winter of 1813 St. Mark's took fire and only the strong walls remained.

The church and its grounds were quite in the foreground during the operations along the Niagara. After the battle of Queenston Heights it became an hospital for the wounded English soldiers. Then the Americans quartered their soldiers in it. Imagine St. Mark's as a barracks! Finally the English stored supplies there. In the romantic graveyard the moss-eaten tombs are hacked rudely by axes. Sacrilegious soldiers had used the convenient flat stones as butchers' blocks.

Only part of the present church bears date prior to the fire. It was rebuilt in 1815. The Lord Bishop of Quebec consecrated it Sunday, August 30, 1828, in the presence of the governor, Sir Peregrine Maitland, K.C.B. In the parish register, whose first entry is July 9, 1792, are many letters and documents throwing light on the varied past of the church. The writer has given Archdeacon McMurray's estimated date of 1793 as the time it was first built. Miss Janet Carnochan, the talented historical writer of Niagara, says she has not found documentary evidence of the exact date of erection. Before getting a conventional house of worship, the congregation met in the old court house, and when the church was in ruins the Indian Council chamber afforded a shelter.

Dean Stanley visited but two persons in Canada. One was the Governor-General, the other Archdeacon McMurray at Niagara. He was much struck at the Old Country style of St. Mark's environment and said 'twould be shameful to alter the ancient fixtures. The lamented Dean's advice has not been followed. Convinced that comfort in existence extends to modernizing their house of prayer, the younger element of the parish last year tore out the box pews that lent so curious a look to the interior, and along with a house cleaning replaced the stuffy hair seats with airy oak pews. The whole aspect of the interior is light and cheerful and in no wise harmed.

About 20 marble tablets will cause the sightseer to linger long in contemplation of words about deceased heroes of 1812 and respectable old folks who died in the love of Christ. Over the altar is the first stained glass made in Canada.

The most prominent name in the nave is that of Colonel John Butler, chief of the notorious Rangers, and Royal Indian Commissioner. He was a founder and first patron of St. Mark's parish and died at Niagara in 1796.

At the advanced age of 82 Dr. McMurray is a marvel of physical and mental activity. Up to within a few years he had regularly conducted the services of his church, but gave way to Rev. Mr. Garrett, curate, not long since. His life is intensely interesting, and a memory that clings to smallest details makes Dr. McMurray one of the best of conversationalists.

NOW IT IS IN IDAHO.

Battle to the Death Between Union and Non-Union Men.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 12.—A battle occurred at the Frisco mine and gold mine at the town of Gem yesterday between union miners and non-union miners. The fight lasted for several hours. Four men were killed. Among the killed are Gus Carleson and Harry Cummings, union men. The other two were guards at the mines.

During the engagement the miners went around the hills of the canyon above the mine, loaded a car with 750 pounds of giant powder and sent the car down the track towards the Frisco mine. Directly in front of the mill an explosion occurred, shattering the mill to splinters, making it a complete wreck. The non-union men then showed the white flag and surrendered. They were marched down to the miners' union hall and guarded.

After the mill was blown up the non-union men in the Frisco mine hung out a flag of truce. Hostilities ceased and about 60 men surrendered. The men are now under guard at the miners' union headquarters at the town of Gem.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 12.—The 14th Regiment, numbering 450 men, and the 18th Regiment, numbering 414 men, of the National Guards from the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny, left last evening on the Pennsylvania Railroad east bound. It is thought their destination is Brinton station, but this is not positively known, and no information on the subject could be obtained from the officers in command. Battery B, with 60 men, left soon after the infantry. The battery took to Homestead four field pieces, three inch rifle guns and two gatling guns.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 12.—At a mass meeting of the strikers yesterday it was decided by a unanimous vote and amid enthusiasm that the militia should be welcomed to the city by brass bands and other ceremonies. It was also resolved that any striker who should shoot at the militia or otherwise fail in proper respect to the State's representatives should be ducked in the river, and a committee was appointed for that purpose.

On call board business was very dull the only offering being two cars of wheat by sample at 62c with 50½c bid.

The Central Experimental Farm Tries Caledonia Land Plaster.

OTTAWA, July 12.—There was received at the Government Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, the other day a carload of the mineral gypsum, commercially known as land plaster, and largely used throughout the country for fertilizing purposes.

It was consigned by Mr. Nicholas Garland, an East York elector, the owner of extensive mines at Caledonia, Haldimand county, and is a sample of plaster that for whiteness of color, pureness of quality and fineness of grinding has not hitherto been equalled by any received at the Farm. Quantities of this mineral are yearly imported from the States, but of a very inferior quality.

Prof. Croft, as the result of an analysis, reported the white Caledonia plaster to be composed of 93 per cent. gypsum, while the best of the American plasters only held 76 per cent.

At the request of Prof. Saunders, director of Experimental Farms, Mr. Garland will exhibit samples of his plaster at the World's Columbian Exhibition.

Wanted to Die.

TEESWATER, Ont., July 12.—Robert Hassard, a moulder in Gillies & Martin's foundry here, has been committed to Walkerton jail as a dangerous lunatic. For the past few days he has been acting very strangely and threatened to either kill himself or his wife. Yesterday he attempted to carry out his threat by throwing himself into the upper mill pond. He was pulled out after a violent struggle with his rescuers and confined in the village lockup.

Drink and jealous hallucinations are said to have caused his sudden derangement.

Killed By Lightning.

GEORGETOWN, July 12.—A terrific thunderstorm swept over this town yesterday and was attended with fatal results. Thomas Hume, a young lad, was down at the Credit River bathing. With some other boys he was walking along the railway track on the way home when suddenly his companions were dazed by a sudden flash of chain lightning. On looking around they perceived young Hume's body rolling down the steep embankment. When they picked him up he was dead. His clothing was torn in shreds and the boots twisted off his feet. He was placed on a lorry and was taken to the railway station. A doctor was summoned and said that death had been instantaneous.

A $30,000 Hunting Horn.

LONDON, July 12.—At yesterday's sale at Christie's the Colworth collection of famous Limoges enamels was disposed of. The article which brought the highest price was a hunting horn from the Strawberry Hill collection, which was bought by Herr Pfeaugst of Berlin for £6816. The next highest priced article was an ewer of Henry II. faience, which was secured by M. Lowengard of Paris for £3880.

Toronto Is Sending Up Money and Supplies.

TORONTO, July 12.—The citizens of Toronto are not going to be behind in sending help to the fire-stricken city of St. John's, Newfoundland. A special meeting of the board of Trade was held yesterday, President Baird in the chair, to consider ways and means.

Up to 3 o'clock yesterday evening the total amount subscribed through the board was $2350, the Bank of Toronto and the Bank of Commerce each subscribing $500. The other banks, it is said, will follow suit.

Letters were received at the Secretary's office from the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways expressing their willingness to transport over their lines free of charge all contributed supplies, food and clothing.

A NOTE OF TRIUMPH

Sounded by the Gladstonian Liberals.

THEIR MAJORITY NOW SIX

Provided the Balance of the Elections Go the Same as Heretofore—May Fight the Lords—In Case They Reject the Home Rule Bill a Contest May Be Precipitated That Will Violently Agitate the Whole Country.

LONDON, July 13.—At 1 a.m. yesterday the total returns showed that the Conservatives had 210 members and the Liberal Unionists 31, making a total of 241. The Liberals had 174, Labor 5, anti-Parnellites 35 and the Parnellites 4, a total of 219.

The net Liberal gain is 37, and as 34 gains extinguished the Government majority of 68 at dissolution the Liberals now have a majority of 6, provided the remainder of the 210 constituencies yet to be voted go as before.

The aggregates of the polling so far is: Ministerialist 1,513,131, Opposition 1,598,237.

Where the Changes Took Place.

LIBERAL GAINS.

In the Woodstock division of Oxfordshire, Benson (Liberal) secured 4278 votes and Morrel (Liberal-Unionist), the late member, 4167. In the bye-election the Unionist majority was 688.

In the Egremont division of Cumberland Lord Muncaster, the late member, was defeated by David Ainsworth (Liberal) by 471. In 1886 Ainsworth was defeated by 164.

In the Accrington division of Lancashire, England, Robert T. Herman Hodge, the late Conservative member, who had 220 majority in 1886, was defeated by Less (Liberal).

Another Liberal gain was made in the Doncaster division of Yorkshire, where Fleming (Liberal) defeated Hon. H. W. Fitzwilliam (Unionist), whose majority in 1886 was 211.

Still another Liberal gain was made in Lancashire, where the Middleton division was formerly represented by Thomas Fulden (Conservative), who defeated C. H. Hopwood in 1886 by 318. Hopwood reversed this majority by defeating his old-time opponent.

CONSERVATIVE GAINS.

The Liberal-Unionists made another notable gain in Scotland in the election of Whitelaw (Unionist) in the northwest division of Lanarkshire. The seat was formerly represented by R. Cunningham Grahame (Liberal), who had a majority in 1886 of 332.

EDINBURGH, July 13.—In spite of the bad weather the Midlothian poll was remarkably heavy. The Unionists had the advantage of the possession of most of the vehicles. Col Wanchope made a tour of all the booths to stimulate his supporters.

The Liberal church party made a strong effort to give Mr. Gladstone a lesson on the church disestablishment question. They had no desire to unseat him, but they claim to have reduced his majority by 2000 as a warning. It is known that at the bankruptcy court in Edinburgh the poll went against Gladstone in the proportion of 5 to 1.

What the Liberals Say.

LONDON, July 13.—There was an air of contentment and repose about Liberal circles last night. Although not achieving the success they anticipated they feel that there is a certainty of some majority and the assured prospect of office has a soothing influence.

Groups at the National Liberal Club now discuss the constitution of the Gladstone Ministry. It is taken for granted that the Liberals will cohere on the Home Rule Bill, and that the Irish sections will accept Mr. Gladstone's scheme. The bill will be expedited immediately upon the assembling of the House of Commons and the House of Lords will be challenged under a menace of the extinction of hereditary peers to throw the act out.

The elections in the counties, though not fulfilling the most sanguine Liberal expectations, gives them confidence of having such a majority as will oblige Lord Salisbury to place his resignation in the hands of the Queen as soon as Parliament assembles.

A Gladstonian whip, Arnold Morley, speaking at Mansfield to-day, said that if the Lords were foolish enough to run counter to the vote of the House of Commons they would be either mended or ended.

The first fight in Parliament will probably be over the election of Speaker.

A section of the Liberals oppose the re-election of Speaker Peel, and unless Mr. Gladstone sits on the project there will be a hot party contest for the Speakership. For the past 50 years party leaders have always assented to re-elections to the Speakership, refraining from regarding the chair of the House as a party appointment, and probably Mr. Gladstone's customary reiterance of precedent will cause him to suppress the attack on Mr. Peel.

It is different, however, with Mr. Courtney's post of Chairman of Committees, which is strictly a party post, and Mr. Courtney will be ousted.

The Solicitor-General Speaks.

LONDON, July 13.—Sir Edward Clarke, the Solicitor-General, speaking yesterday at a meeting at Torquay in the interest of Mr. R. Mallock, the Conservative candidate, pointed out that the leading populous centres—Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield and Leeds, with a total of 2,225,000 population—had returned 21 Unionists out of a total of 31 candidates. Even London still had 35 Unionists, against 25 Liberals, all of whom elected won on a London reform program, not Home Rule.

If Mr. Gladstone introduced his Home Rule bill in the next Parliament, Sir Edward said, it would be defeated or abandoned. The question would pass away from public life like the politician proposing it.

LONDON, July 13.—William Redmond, accompanied by some hundreds of his adherents, went from Ennis to Scariff, County Clare, Ireland, yesterday to hold a meeting.

The anti-Parnellites, hearing of his approach, met the Redmondites as they entered town, and a hand-to-hand fight occurred with empty bottles, stones and sticks.

When the fight was hottest Mr. Redmond leaped out of his wagon and mounting a horse called upon his followers to form in a square.

It was a rather difficult task, but at long h Mr. Redmond got his men in a fairly solid phalanx, presenting on all sides a bristling display of shillalahs.

This disconcerted the foe, who had not been accustomed to the square method of warfare.

Then Mr. Redmond gave the word to fall to, and in a short time the enemy were routed and scattered.

Having thus secured possession of the field Mr. Redmond proceeded to deliver an address.

Gladstone's Final Address.

LONDON, July 13.—Gladstone addressed the final meeting of the electors of Midlothian at Penicuik yesterday. He said the polls completely convinced him that the great majority of the British were in their hearts friends of the Irish cause. Next to Home Rule labor questions would be the main subject for the attention of statesmen. Replying to criticisms on his foreign policy, Gladstone said it was quite true that the last Liberal Government had wars to deal with, but he contended that every one of those wars were undertaken to redeem honorable engagements in which the Government's predecessors had entered or to remove difficulties which they had created. The responsibility of continuing the Home Rule controversy, he declared, rested with the nation, for now the nation voted and ruled and upon the nation would be the honor of victory or the shame and disgrace of failure.

The Native of India.

Here is a brief history of the Liberal member for Finsbury (Central), who is a native of India: Naoroji, Dadabhai is a son of the late Mr. Naoroji, a Parsee priest, b. 1825, educated at Bombay Elphinstone Institution and at Elphinstone College, in the former of which he was head native teacher and in the latter institution successively assistant professor and professor of mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and in 1855 came to England as a partner in the firm of Cama & Co. of London and Liverpool, with agencies at Bombay and Calcutta and in China. In 1857 he succeeded with the co-operation of a few English friends in establishing the East India Association, of which he was for some time honorary secretary, and in 1874 upon one of his visits to Bombay he accepted the position in the interests of both Baroda and the British Government of Dewan of Baroda, and was also elected a member of the Bombay Corporation and Town Council, and was a member of the Legislative Council of Bombay from 1885 to 1888. Unsuccessful candidate, Holborn division of Finsbury, 1886.

Notes of the Campaign.

Election rights occurred at Newbridge, Monmouthshire, yesterday. The police dispersed the rioters. Many persons were injured.

Mr. Morley yesterday joined Mr. Gladstone, who remained quietly at Dalmein Park during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone and son will start for Braemer to-night for a rest and a change of air.

Lord Rosebery will go yachting.

The Standard says: The Unionists should redouble their efforts where contests are still to be decided. Six seats may make all the difference whether Gladstone will undertake the risk of office or forthwith acknowledge Home Rule legislation impracticable.

Such Irish results as are in show the Parnellite faction to be in the same trivial minority as heretofore, save in North Galway, where Col. Nolan has held the seat against a new comer in the person of Dr. Tanner. Nolan, however, is by no means a bitter partisan. He is personally popular with Irishmen of both factions.

Parnellite Pranks.

[Special despatch to The Toronto World.]

LONGFORD, July 13.—The despatches that I have hitherto sent you have contained a true picture of Mr. Blake's reception in Ireland. I have nothing extenuated nor aught set down in malice. I have not been carried away by enthusiasm, but have merely reflected the enthusiasm and cordiality of the people wherever he has gone.

Yesterday I may say I presented the reverse side of the shield. To-day for the first time the Parnellite section of the Home Rulers began to show itself. At a meeting here there was considerable stone-throwing and conflict and the Parnellites were very free in their execrations. This stirred another portion of the electorate—that portion which would sooner find fault than be elated by the grand principles of a great movement. This crowd are expressing great disappointment that Mr. Blake has only delivered two speeches in the constituency and, indeed, has only been three days in it.

They say whenever he has an opportunity, instead of staying amongst them he slips off to Dublin.

"We never see him in the street," say they. "He is altogether too sure of his election. To hell with him; we will show him."

I hear all this, and I think I estimate it at its true value. I believe it to be a comparatively small and certainly a very narrow section of the community. Its mouthings have not altered my opinion of the certainty not alone of Mr. Blake's election but also of that of Mr. McCarthy in North Longford, against whom the same sort of threats are being made.

I have no doubt in the world that Mr. Blake would not have been exposed to this sort of criticism had he not taken part with Healy in the North Longford conflict in favor of Justin McCarthy.

The priests are labering for him tooth and nail. Nevertheless the poll, I think, will be a small one. The Parnellites are working the cry that a native of the country should represent South Longford for all it is worth.

The Protestants, on the other hand, express great disgust that Mr. Blake took part at the Sunday meeting. The Sunday political meeting is looked upon as one of the works of popery and is religiously shunned by the Protestant element. What has disgusted the Protestant element has correspondingly elated the Catholics. Mr. Blake himself has thanked the Catholic clergy for their efforts in his behalf.

Mr. Blake was also gracious enough to give some words of praise to The Toronto World, which had sent its representative with him to Ireland to tell his people how he fared in the land of his fathers. Mr. Blake has decided that he will in case of election take up his residence in the town of Longford when not engaged in his Parliamentary duties. At Granard, the centre of the North Longford fight, Messrs. McCarthy and Blake yesterday created much enthusiasm. Tim Healy's farewell to the electors was a very effective bit of talking.

A COLUMN OF CANADIAN.

FURTHER CONTRIBUTION TO ST. JOHN SUFFERERS.

The Dominion Government and the Canal Tolls—The Intercolonial Railway at Last Pays Expenses—Several Persons Killed By Lightning.

OTTAWA, July 13.—An order in council has been passed amending the order in council of April 4 last with reference to rebate on canal tolls on grain from Lake Ontario ports, passing through the St. Lawrence Canals for export from Montreal. The order as passed allows rebate only on shipments from "Canadian" Lake Ontario ports. The new order simply strikes out "Canadian" so that wheat or coarse grains shipped from American ports on Lake Ontario passing through St. Lawrence canals and exported from Montreal gain the advantage of the rebate. This has no bearing on the transhipment at Odgensburg of western wheat, which still remains liable to full tolls.

The Intercolonial Pays.

Hon. Mr. Haggart's change on the Intercolonial is beginning to be felt. For the first time during the existence of the road the receipts during the last three months exceed the expenditure, and the indications are that the current fiscal year will show considerable surplus.

Quite Safe in Surrendering.

LONDON, July 13.—James Percival was a young postoffice clerk here over two years ago, at the time when letters were missed and were supposed to have been stolen. Suspicion fell upon Percival, but he decamped and had not since been heard from until yesterday when he surrendered to the postoffice authorities and was immediately arrested. Assistant Crown Attorney McKillop said the letters supposed to have been stolen were addressed to a woman of loose character then in the city. The woman had since gone away and nothing of her whereabout was known, and the Crown accordingly could offer no evidence and Percival was discharged.

More Miracles Reported.

MONTREAL, July 13.—More miraculous cures are reported among pilgrims who visited Ste. Anne de Beaupre last week, under the direction of the Fathers of the Holy Sacrament. One of these alleged cures is that of a boy 12 years of age who had completely lost the use of speech as a result of an attack of the grip. After he had prayed at the shrine of the saint he began to speak aloud in the church and the effect upon the large number of worshippers present was such that there was almost a panic, everyone rising and climbing on the benches to see and hear the boy to whose enthusiasm and joy over his sudden cure there seemed to be no limit. It was with some difficulty that the priests present succeeded in restoring order.

The Deadly Tetanus.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 13.—Edward Woodman's 14-year-old daughter went picking strawberries at Digby and accidently penetrated her foot with a small piece of wood. Lockjaw set in and she died a day or two later.

Killed by Lightning.

HAMILTON, July 13.—Isaac Flewelling, a farmer living a mile and a half south of Troy, and his hired man, Ned Croft, were working on a farm owned by Mr. Flewelling, near Wo[illegible] when both were struck by lightning.

Croft, the hired man, remained unconscious for some time. Flewelling was instantly killed. The lightning struck the deceased on the back of the neck and the fluid passed through his body, burning a hole in his socks and tearing off his heavy shoes. His whiskers and his face were burned.

WOODSTOCK, July 12.—William Williams, a farmer, while returning home to-night in his hayrack, was struck by the 9.10 C.P.R. train and instantly killed. The engine cut the wagon in two and pitched the unfortunate man against the fence.

Death of an ex-M.P.

DIGBY, N.S., July 13.—The citizens were startled yesterday afternoon to learn of the death of John Chipman Wade, Q.C., ex-M.P. The deceased gentleman had been in failing health for the past three months. Mr. Wade was for many years in the Nova Scotia Legislature, being Speaker in the House of Assembly when the Confederation scheme was passed.

Two Murderers Reprieved.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., July 13.—Charlie and Johnnie, the two Indians sentenced to be hanged on July 16, have had their death penalty commuted to life imprisonment. A telegram was received by Sheriff Armstrong to that effect yesterday.

Montreal Votes $10,000.

MONTREAL, July 13.—The City Finance Committee held a special meeting yesterday afternoon and voted $10,000 towards the sufferers by the St. John fire.

A public meeting of citizens to-night decided to forward supplies. The Allan steamship Newfoundland has been placed at the disposal of the committee.

St. John, N.B., Sends $6000.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 13.—The common council yesterday voted $6000 to the St. John fire sufferers. Private subscriptions are being taken up and in the vicinity of $2000 has already been subscribed.

A Prospector Killed.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 13.—The decomposed and badly mangled body of a man lying in a heap at the foot of a steep bluff was the find Joseph Cook, a prospector, struck yesterday morning in Devil's Gap on Leech River, in the interior of this island. The body is that of prospector, George Morrow.

Morrow was an old British Columbian. He has been mining in the province since the very earliest of the early days and was known to all pioneers. He was getting along in years and fast losing his vigor.

Died on the Wheel.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Without a moment's warning Harry O. Snyder of No. 1312 Park-avenue was stricken dead yesterday morning while riding a bicycle at 21st and Diamond-streets.

A Sarnia Fire.

SARNIA, July 13.—Fire yesterday destroyed Fraser's grocery here, including almost the entire grocery stock. The building was owned by W. H. Hill and the stock by William Fraser. Both were insured, but not fully.

Will Mothers Rely on Professional Experience and Advice?

More than one-half of the mother's everyday worries, cares, watchings and anxieties are caused by the cross, peevish and sickly infant. Hundreds of mothers have this daily experience, and many of them wonder why other mothers are more favoured and blest. Loving and self sacrificing mothers are inclined to ask why other babies are so bright, happy and robust, while theirs are so troublesome and weak.

This is quickly and easily explained; and, judging from the letters which thankful mothers daily send in, the following reason will satisfactorily unfold the truth:

The happy, bright and vigorous babies who coo all day long in healthy glee, and who rest and sleep well at night, are all fed on Lactated Food; while the multitude of weak, puny, cross and peevish babies are daily fed with a poor quality of cow's milk, often stale and diseased; or with some of the poorly prepared artificial foods, which do not contain the elements necessary for a baby's nourishment and growth.

This is the season when Lactated Food shows its vast superiority over all other foods. This is the time when careful and sensible mothers appreciate its worth. Disease and infantile summer complaints may hover around us, sending forth deadly arrows; yet amidst all this danger, the babies who are fed on Lactated Food are safe from pestilence and sickness; they go forward from strength to strength, and mothers are not worried and careworn regarding their condition.

This is only true when life-giving Lactated Food is used; experience has proved the correctness of this assertion.

Physicians are strongly urging its use in the family, knowing its great value. Can you rely on professional experience, dear mother, or will you still trust your own judgment and small experience, and run the risk of losing your dear babe from cholera infantum, dysentery, or some other summer complaint?

A Penalty for Rowdyism.

The following clipping is taken from the Bobcaygeon Independent and may well apply to any parties who are in the habit of creating a disturbance at a picnic and enforcing their society and language upon women and children who can not avoid it as in the present instance:—Mr. S. W. Crabtree, J.P., held a court on Saturday last to hear complaints laid by the Agricultural Society against John Hodge, Wm. Hodge, of Verulam, and Wm. Kennedy of Rice Lake, for profane language and raising a disturbance at the farmers' picnic. Witnesses were called and it appears that whilst the Paloma was on the way to Crowley's Island, with the farmers' picnic party, a disturbance was caused by certain parties either holding the floor for dancing or endeavoring to get the floor. The result was a ruction and a large amount of bad language. Of the three complained against, Kennedy admitted the charge, and was fined $4 and $2.25 costs. John Hodge was found guilty, and fined $6 and $3 10 costs. In each case fines to be paid forthwith, or 30 days in jail. The charges against Wm. Hodge was not proven, and was dismissed. In imposing the fines, the magistrate explained that the case, under the circumstances, was not an ordinary case at all. When such conduct as was shown to have taken place, occurred on board a boat, it was necessarily within sight and hearing of a large assembly of women and children who were unable to avoid it. There was no getting away from it, and in a crowded boat, there was very serious danger of even loss of life, in case of women and children becoming frightened. In the present instance he dealt with leniency, but in any future charges under similar circumstances, he would most certainly deal with the fullest severity. It is hoped the action of the Society and the remarks of the magistrate will have the effect of checking all approach to rowdyism at future pleasure gatherings.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The many friends of Mr. James Collins will be sorry to hear of his sudden illness. Mr. Collins went to Manitoba last spring, and has been having good health until lately, when a paralytic stroke disabled him. We learn his daughter, now Mrs. Might, is going to see him. We wish him speedy recovery.

Mrs. Hugh Weddell and her son went on a visit to the Old Country last Monday to see their friends.

CENTREVILLE.—An old resident was interred in the cemetery here on Sunday last.

Mr. John Fair was over to Rochester and Buffalo lately on a visit.

Put Me in My Little Bed.

I am dizzy, dizzy, dizzy,
And I want to go to bed,
I've no appetite to eat,
And headache racks my head.

In other words, I am suffering from a bilious attack, but Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will bring me around all right by to-morrow. They often cure headache in an hour. I have found them the best cathartic pill in existence. They produce no nausea or griping, but do their work thoroughly. They are convenient to carry in the vest pocket, and pleasant to take. In vials—25 cents.

Gives Good Appetite.

SIRS.—I think your valuable medicine cannot be surpassed, according to the benefit I received from it. After suffering from headache and loss of appetite for nearly four years, I tried B.B.B. with the greatest success, finding it gave me great relief and good appetite. I now enjoy good health which I owe to your valuable medicine.

dw MISS MINNIE BROWN, London Ont.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1891.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

Results of the Midsummer Promotion Examinations in the Peterborough Public Schools—The Names of the Successful Candidates, Their Teachers, and Numbers of Marks Obtained.

Following are the results of the recent midsummer promotion examinations in the public schools of Peterborough. The names of the successful candidates appear in the order of merit, except the primary class of the South Ward School, together with the names of the teachers of their divisions and the number of marks obtained by each pupil. Those entitled to honours had to obtain 75 per cent. in each subject, and 65 per cent. on the total number of marks. Those entitled to a pass had to obtain 25 per cent. on each subject, and 50 per cent. of the total number of marks. The EXAMINER congratulates all those candidates who have succeeded in passing, and wishes them a pleasant vacation. The letters "P" and "H" at the head of the column to the right of the number of marks indicates passed and honours respectively:—

—OF—
SUMMER CLOTHING
—AT—
H. LeBRUN & CO'S.

In order to secure a very large turn over during the next two months, the City Clothing Store has decided to make a Big Break in Prices throughout its entire stock of Ready-Made Clothing, Ordered Clothing, Gents' Furnishings, &c., &c.

THE BREAK IN READY-MADE CLOTHING will be a relentless one. Our mammoth stock is brimful of Suits, Coats, Vests and Pants, for Men and Boys, and in all these we have determined to make the prices to pave the way for a general clearance sale, if the profits amount to nothing.

ALL ORDERED CLOTHING from this date will suffer a similar fate, and a decided cut of from 15 to 20 per cent. reduction will be made on every garment turned out of our establishment.

ALL CLOTHS AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS—of which we carry the largest stock in Peterborough—will also be reduced in the same proportions, so as to sweep everything before us clear and clean, during the next 60 days.

This is business, now come and take away your Bargains

Mr. Huffman says that the cave discovered last fall by some Peterborough gentlemen is not the veritable Myer's cave, but one that has been known to the woodsmen for years. He is confident that he will locate it this time by clearing away the rock obstructions that have obliterated the mouth.

Weddings Bells.

One of Peterborough's most popular young men, and a former well-known young lady, were united in marriage at Wykeham Hall chapel School, Toronto, this morning at 8 o'clock. His Lordship Bishop Sweetman performed the ceremony that united Mr. Arthur Stevenson, of the firm of Denniston & Stevenson, barristers, to Miss Maud Beck, daughter of the late J. W. B. Beck, rector of St. John's. The bride was supported by Miss Mildred Beck, her sister, and Miss Florence Stevenson, sister of the groom, while the latter was assisted by his partner, Mr. R. Max. Denniston. The newly-wed after the ceremony departed on their bridal tour, which will embrace New York and the Eastern States. Both parties are well known in Peterborough and very highly respected. The best wishes of a very wide circle of friends go with them in their new relations, and the EXAMINER adds its own to the cordial congratulations which the auspicious event inspires.

BATTLE OF THE BOYNE

Duly and Loyally Celebrated at Lakefield.

Splendid Weather—An Immense Gathering—The Hospitable Villagers—The Procession Through the Streets—The Speeches in the Park—A Very Successful Celebration.

Yesterday, Tuesday July 12th, the 203rd anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, was favoured with beautiful—typical—twelfth of July weather—bright and warm, and the village of Lakefield witnessed one of the most pleasant and successful celebrations the district has ever known. This success was due not only to the visitors but to the hearty hospitality which the Lakefield brethren and the citizens generally extended to outsiders. The village was beautifully and profusely decorated. Flags flowed from every point of vantage and evergreens and flowers abounded everywhere. From the station to the fine grounds of Mr. John Hall, the village street was profusely decorated with

ARCHES, BANNERS AND STREAMERS

The first arch encountered after leaving the station was one erected by the local Orangemen, and the front bore the motto "No. 122 welcomes our visiting brethren." Farther on a streamer with the blazon "Welcome" in huge letters spanned the street. Then came the loyal prayer "God save the Queen," and the True Blues arch, with the double motto, "Union is Strength"; "With heart and hand." At one end of the bridge beyond the town hall there was displayed the motto, "The Bible and the Crown," while at the other end were the words "Civil and Religious Liberty." Further on, at the entrance to the park there was a beautiful arch, bearing on its emerald front in bold letters, the legend "No Surrender."

At an early hour the villagers were astir, and visitors began to arrive by team, and the influx had begun. Three heavily laden special trains from Peterborough brought a multitude. The steamer route brought the Dummer contingent, and from every point of the compass, every highway poured in its quota, till at least, it is estimated, five thousand persons were present in the town. And though the visitors might be warm, they had no need to go either hungry or thirsty. Refreshment booths, drinking stands, where the seductive lemonade and the festive gingerbread invited patronage, were to be seen at every step almost from one end of the street to the other, and all did a roaring trade. The hotels were crowded constantly and the huge dining tents that supplemented their feeding capacity, were also crowded. The Presbyterians had converted the village hall into a dining hall, and there they fed the public by the thousand. No person need have gone hungry in Lakefield yesterday unless he lacked money or preferred drink instead, and these latter were very few. There was, of course, the usual proportion of young hot heads, who always "make a day of it" whenever they get in reach of whisky, but on the whole the great crowd was orderly and sober. There was some fighting done, but the unruly element was small in comparison to the large number present.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession had been duly arranged to take place at eleven o'clock, but the railways failed to supply material in time. The special trains arrived so late that it was necessary to have dinner before the procession began, and this consumed considerable time, and it was late before the brethren could be gathered together at Mr. Hall's grove, whence the procession started. Mr. S. Nelson was master of ceremonies, and the positions of marshall were held by Mr. J. G. Weir County Master, Mr. John Montgomery, D.D. of C., and Mr. John McClelland. Finally the procession was organized and started in the following order:

Norwood Brass Band.

THE ADDRESSES.

There were on the platform, Mr. J. Graham Weir, county master, who presided, Mr. Police Magistrate Holland, Port Hope, Mr. T. B. Collins, P. G. M., Millbrook; Mr. Robert Weir, D.G.M., Royal Black Knights of Ireland; Rev. S. J. Bartlett; Mr. C. W. Sawers, C.S.

The chairman in a few introductory remarks, referred to the duty of Orangemen in protecting Canada from the Fenian hordes to the south of us, from the danger that threatened in the east, and to protect generally the British flag, the crown, the Queen and constitution in all parts of the Empire. He called upon

Rev. S. T. Bartlett, who said that the younger men should take lessons from the history of the past. The progress of this country would be in proportion to the fidelity of its members to Protestantism. The importance of this should be taught the rising generation. There was a tendency to place policy before principle. Every Orangeman should love truth because it was truth. Knowledge, truth, freedom were the three great words of Protestant development. When we forget the principles of truth we would decline as a nation. All should strive to uphold truth from conviction, and not because it was rammed down the throat by an archbishop or pope. The past of this country was glorious, and the future would be more glorious.

Mr. C. W. Sawers, C.S., said that seven years that day he was made an Orangeman, and had never regretted the step. The obligation he then took would, if observed, make him a better Christian and a better man. He referred to the Battle of the Boyne, and the triumph it represented. Among the Queen's 300 million subjects were 500,000 Orangemen. He defended the character of Orangemen, and cast back the insult that Orangeman" were the scruff of the world." We were living in troublesome times, when the Dominion Grit and Tory leaders were both Catholics. Continuing he inquired what Orangemen had got from the Ontario Governments. In the county of Peterborough Catholics had got all the best offices—even a recent bailiffship had gone that way. The Catholics, he asserted, had met and selected a candidate and the sitting member had no option but to appoint him because he was a Catholic. He had no objection to the man but to the principle. Though a Conservative, he hoped the Manitoba Liberals would triumph, because they were opposed to Separate Schools as he (the speaker) was. At the Convent in Peterborough Messrs. Stratton and Kendry had presented medals, and both were fishing for the Catholic vote. He was disgusted with Mr. Kendry. No one offered medals to the Public Schools—there was no chance for his boys "winning the golden treasure." He denounced Separate schools as tending to keep the people apart. He had two boys going to school and they did not know a single Catholic boy. He asked if that was right. Referring to the election contest in Britain he asserted that if Pope Gladstone were returned to power he (the speaker) would be glad to send over the price of ten rifles to equip the Protestants to defend their rights. He had had the honour of sending over the price of one rifle already.

Mr. T. B. Collins, P.G.M., Millbrook, had never missed a twelfth since he was able to walk in the ranks. The Protestants of Ireland were able to help themselves in the present crisis, especially with the help of Canadian Orangmen would give. Home rule would be a bad thing for the Catholics of the North of Ireland.

Mr. Police Magistrate Holland, Port Hope, pointed out that Orangism taught the purest and noblest love that the heart of man was capable of as represented by the motto, "My God, my Country and my Queen." These three points could not be too strongly enforced, especially at a time when secret treason was lifting its serpent head in praise of republican institutions. It was refreshing to find at this time that Ontario has so staunchly and loyal a man at the head of the government of Ontario. He vigourously commended Sir Oliver Mowat for the prompt dismissal of the traitorous crown attorney, Elgin Myers. He closed by inviting the Orangemen to spend the next 12th at Port Hope.

During the speaking the falling rain had largely decreased the crowd round the platform and the proceedings closed with the usual cheers, at the conclusion of Mr. Holland's remarks.

NOTES.

Several special constables were sworn in by the village authorities, but the general good behaviour made their services unnecessary.

Lakefield hospitality was abundantly vindicated yesterday. A visitor could not take a dozen paces on either side of the main street without meeting a booth where soft drinks and hard food could be procured.

The heat was at times terrific, but the attractions of the dance smothered the heat. Mr. Alf Parker's dancing booth, in spite of the heat, drove a roaring trade though it was not regulated by the infallible clock. Mr. J. Wigestor's services as master of ceremonies were in constant demand. The heat of the light fantastic toe was incessant to the stirring music of Scringeour & Blanchard's orchestra. A dancing platform in the Tremont hotel also flourished greatly.

The compound duplex electric hook action drum-major with L. O. L. No. 82, Cavan, by his energetic ambidexterity elicited loud applause.

The Twelfth of '92 was on the whole a great success.

FRILLS OF FASHION.

Latest Manifestations of Feminine Styles and Materials.

Parasols for garden parties are lined with rose color, and decorated with a wreath of flowers outside with grasses for fringe.

Fringes are going out in Paris. The hair is waved down either side or waved back from the forehead carelessly, as is most becoming.

Hats are more worn than bonnets this season, and the indications are that they will supersede bonnets for a time, even among middle-aged matrons.

Sandalwood, first introduced by the Duchess of Marlborough as a perfume, is the most popular odor for a scent sachet, and "Dorothy," a blending of the fragrance of orange blossoms, lemon flowers, and jessamine, is the fashionable perfume.

Parisian ladies take the centre seam of their long skirts, raise it within a few inches of the waist, and secure it there with a fancy pin, producing thus a rational kind of walking skirt, which shows just the edge of the dainty petticoat below.

An odd and pretty trimming for hats and bonnets consists of shaded oats dyed to any color desired. Crimson oats, purple and brown shading to a light fawn tint, are formed into wreaths that ornament the brims of bonnets with charming effect.

The bell skirt for thin silks, zephyrs, and batistes is three yards around the bottom. For organdies and fine muslins it is fuller. Sleeves in the thin material should be three-quarters of a yard wide and gathered with a cuff or strapped three times with ribbon or insertion.

Among the royal ladies of European courts the Czarina of Russia has the reputation of wearing the most beautiful and sumptuous gowns. Her costume at the golden wedding of the Queen of Denmark was of white brocaded satin, woven with a design of orchids in gold, and trimmed with jonquil yellow velvet and purple gold Russian lace embroidered with real pearls. The lace is valued at $300 a yard.

A pretty trimming for wash dresses consists of three rows of falling loops of baby ribbon, each row in different tint and corresponding with the color of the gown. Another arrangement of the baby ribbon is to thread it in and out of ecru worked lace, or lace beading, in harmonious tints, sometimes as many as seven colors being employed. It is used as bands on the skirt and for the belt's yoke and deep cuffs of the sleeves.

A pretty fashion introduced by Queen Margharita for races and other out-door entertainments necessitating opera glasses is that of carrying the glasses in a reticule formed of flowers. The royal lady's gown on a recent occasion was of fine light gray cloth in combination with gold brocade. Her tiny bonnet of Capri straw had a bunch of pale yellow roses, and long strings of the same color were tied beneath her chin, and a reticule of yellow satin covered with fresh flowers contained her opera glass.

Habits of Order and Moral Training.

I will now dwell shortly upon the importance of training the children themselves by means of good order and rule, and quiet, gentle discipline.

Children imitate before they can reason, hence the importance of setting them a good example from the first. How will it be, if instead of this they get used to seeing articles left about, drawers open, untidiness in little daily matters?

On the other hand, what a picture of brightness and happiness is the well-ordered nursery! "A place for everything, and everything in its place"—cheerful faces, freshness, innocent mirth. In these little ways the training for the future, both of mind and body, is begun, developing as they do with the child's growth. A notion seems sometimes to prevail that attention to trifling matters such as these should be set aside for the sake of more important considerations, but surely "these ought ye to do, and not to leave the others undone."

Our first notions of home start from the nursery. Here, where all the wants of early life are met, healthy development soon leads to conscious comfort. The youngest child has the happy knowledge. Rooted in the nursery, it grows and gains upon us there. Children come to feel that food, rest, quiet and pleasant ease belong to the place to which they are always brought back after all the changes that excite or tire, where some one shows them care and love, and the greeting of another self is sure. This kindly attention, with all around orderly, clean and cheerful, not only makes childhood happy, but leads to strength, good nature, trust, courage and virtue.

Such elements of comfort and completeness in a house are always serviceable; no better accommodations could be offered to friends or visitors than what is designed for the most cherished members of a family. If happily peopled by children, this part of home becomes to them the dearest spot on earth. It may afterward be the delight of children's children, the rallying point or center of a family, that shall attract its many members and hold them together, knitting the generations each to each.

It is the wise and loving discipline of nursery days which lays the foundation of all that is pure, and good, and lovely, and strong, in the character of a man or woman. Upon the foundation given to a house much depends, almost everything in fact, and the same is true of a human being.—Mrs. Gladstone, in Ladies' Home Journal.

"August Flower"

What Is It For?

This is the query perpetually on your little boy's lips. And he is no worse than the bigger, older, balder-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is AUGUST FLOWER FOR?" As easily answered as asked; It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this brimful. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country town. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right along—it cures Dyspepsia.

CARDWELL HOUSE

Russia is far ahead of every other country of Europe, except Denmark, in one thing at least; that is in the matter of mourning clothes. Beautiful and rich as is the mourning of to-day, there is something fearfully depressing about the costume of unmitigated woe which casts a gloom over everybody.

How much more becoming white would be—white crepe and white henrietta! How fetching a pretty young widow would be in white weeds, with a long cream colored crepe veil hanging down her back, and a bunch of deep purple violets nestling on her bodice!

White mourning has been introduced into Denmark by the Czarina, and has already been adopted by the English Princess, who it is hoped will transplant the custom to British soil.

The illustration represents the Czarina in a gown of cream colored silk warp henrietta. A fold of white crepe, half a yard wide, trims the Russian skirt around the bottom, and bands of it ornament the bodice and form the collar and cuffs. Her small bonnet is of dull finished white silk, entirely concealed by her long white crepe veil, which falls down her back. White undressed mousquetaire gloves, heavily stitched, were worn with it, and Her Majesty carried a translucent parasol, entirely made of sheer white crepe.

Smallpox At Victoria.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 12.—Smallpox is epidemic here, there being over 40 cases reported up to last night. There is a general panic.

The disease first broke out three weeks ago in a house which was promptly quarantined, and it was supposed the disease had been stamped out.

The Driard House, the leading hotel, was closed yesterday voluntarily, and the health officers have closed the Clarence, the Balmoral and Western hotels, and a number of boarding houses.

Hops Takes a Jump.

It is probable the combine will be extended into the new crop season.

EXECUTION OF THE ANARCHIST RAVACHOL

"I Have Something to Say," He Remarked Just as the Knife Descended—Suppressing the Students' Clubs in Berlin on Account of Their Sympathy With Bismarck.

PARIS, July 12.—Ravachol, the Anarchist, murderer and thief, was executed yesterday morning. The condemned man assumed an air of cynical indifference, and when the ministrations of the prison chaplain were offered to him he refused to accept them and broke out into strong invectives against religion. The approaches to the scaffold were guarded by lines of troops, who kept the way clear for the condemned man and the executioner's party.

Once alongside the guillotine the prisoner was seized by the assistants of M. De Block, the executioner, who soon bound him hand and foot. His elbows were drawn back behind him and bound together; his shirt was opened at the neck and turned down, and in a moment his unresisting form was pushed upon the bascule, the sliding plank that carries the body forward in a reclining position, so that the neck is directly under the knife.

Just as he was slid forward Ravachol shouted, "I have something to say."

De Block paid no attention whatever to this but proceeded to let the knife drop.

Just as the heavy blade started on its fatal journey Ravachol shouted, "Vive la Republique!" and a second later his severed head was lying in the basket placed in front of the guillotine to receive it.

Mount Blanc's Victims.

BERNE, July 12.—No American, it has been ascertained, was on the steamer Mont Blanc when her boiler burst yesterday at Ouchy, on Lake Geneva.

The number killed is now stated at 26 and about 30 were injured. The cries of the wounded could be heard across the lake.

A horrifying sight was witnessed in the saloon of the Mont Blanc when the rescuers were able to get in. The steam had poured through the saloon door, blocking the only means of escape. Most of the port holes were closed, and as there was no way of dissipating the dense volumes of steam the unfortunate passengers were roasted alive.

The victims had been hurled pell mell with the boat's furniture, lamps, etc., to the end of the saloon, where they lay in a heap. The bodies of eight dead persons were found huddled with the bodies of 24 others yet alive, who were writhing on the floor and shrieking in agony.

Some were literally scalped, the hair and flesh being boiled from their heads, and their faces were scorched and swollen beyond recognition. The hands of some looked like gloves turned inside out. Several who were alive when carried out of the cabin soon died, some before they could be removed from the vessel and others on the way to the hospital.

One passenger became raving mad from agony and tried to commit suicide by throwing himself into the lake. It took the combined strength of a number of men to restrain him.

The Lausanne Revue says a committee of inquiry inspected the Mont Blanc's boilers a month ago and found some slight defects, but passed the vessel for another year on the owner's promise that new boilers would soon be put in.

Polyglot Arbitration.

PARIS, July 12.—The delay in the appointing of a French Behring Sea arbitrator is due to Foreign Minister Ribot's objecting to English as the official language of the conference. M. Ribot contended that French is the official language on such occasions.

The United States Legation sent several cablegrams to Washington on the subject, and finally a compromise was arranged.

The protocols will be kept in English and French, while French may be the official language of the conference, but the decision of the conference will be given in English.

FRENCH CABINET MAY RESIGN.

Overwhelming Defeat of President Carnot and His Supporters.

PARIS, July 12.—By a vote of 287 to 150 the Chamber of Deputies called upon the Government to place operations in the colonies under a single control. The Minister of Marine is the only officer affected by the vote. Shortly after the vote was announced a Cabinet Council was convoked and the ministers discussed the question whether the whole cabinet should resign.

Chinamen Slew a French Convoy.

PARIS, July 12.—An official telegram from Ha-Noi, capital of Tonquin, says that a French convoy fell into a Chinese ambuscade near Bacle.

Commander Bonneau, Capt. Carpentier and ten men were killed and several others were wounded.

It will not be necessary for any of the ministers to go back for re-election.

Small Hope of the Factions Coming Together.

DUBLIN, July 13.—Mr. John Dillon, speaking at Gort, a town of Galway, said that the McCarthyites were winning all along the line, and he trusted that their old friends would join the majority in the battle for the liberty of their country.

John Redmond at Mayo said he was anxious to stop the quarrel and restore peace, but was unable to attain this end, as Mr. Dillon would not stand on the same platform as the Independents even on the question of political amnesty.

An Elephant Ran the Town.

BANGOR, Me., July 13.—While being transferred to the cars at Pittsfield yesterday one of Forepaugh's most vicious elephant's broke loose. He tore down fences, ruined lawns and seemed to own the town as he ran trumpeting from one point to another. Then the other elephants were unloaded from the cars, and the keepers on their backs managed to drive the angry pachyderm back to his railroad car, though several of the keepers were hurt.

Cyrus W. Field Dead.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Cyrus W. Field, the man who laid the Atlantic cable, died yesterday at 9.30.

Referring to the cable in The June Youth's Companion Mr. Field wrote: "In looking back over these eventful years I wonder how we had courage to carry it through in the face of so many defeats and of almost universal unbelief. A hundred times I reproached myself for persisting in what seemed beyond the power of man. And again there came a feeling that having begun I could not turn back; at any cost I must see it through.

"At last God gave us the victory. And now, as we see its results, all who had a part in it must feel rewarded for their labors and their sacrifices.

"That iron chain at the bottom of the sea is a link to bind nations together. The magnetic currents that pass and repass are but the symbols and the instruments of the invisible yet mighty currents of human affection that, as they pass to and fro, touch a thousand chords of love and sympathy and thus bring into nearer, closer and sweeter relations the separated members of the one great family of mankind."

The Toronto Suicide.

HAMILTON, July 13.—The body of George Mowat, who committed suicide in Toronto, was brought to his late home in this city yesterday. Mowat was a bricklayer by trade and was 27 years of age. He was in good health and spirits when visiting his home here a month ago, and his parents were not aware he had been ill. He leaves a widow and two small children.

Astor Worth Many Dead Men Yet.

LONDON, July 13.—The death of William Waldorf Astor, cabled yesterday, was untrue. He is out of danger.

Death of Jacob D. Spence.

TORONTO, July 13.—Mr. Jacob D. Spence died at his residence, 210 Sherbourne-st., at an early hour yesterday. The deceased has been identified with the temperance cause for over 60 years and took an active part in the Father Matthew movement. He left Ireland for this country 51 years ago yesterday. He has long been a local preacher in the Methodist denomination, and was a member of Sherbourne-street Church since its organization. Since taking up his abode in Canada he has traveled as a temperance lecturer and organizer over nearly the whole of this country and the United States. He was a Liberal in politics, though he did not take an active part in election canvasses. At the time of his death he was a member of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Alliance, of the Toronto Temperance Reformation Society and of St. John's Lodge of Good Templars. Mr. Spence was taken ill last Friday week and gradually sank, not under any disease, but by weight of many years well and profitably employed. He leaves four sons and four daughters residing in the city, besides Rev. J. M. A. Spence of Haliburton and F. S. Spence, the well-known temperance lecturer. The fund for the relief of the St John's sufferers is rapidly assuming substantial proportions, and Toronto's generosity will alleviate the sufferings of many a destitute Newfoundlander. Nearly $5000 has already been subscribed through the Board of Trade.

At a late hour last night Dr. Temple informed The World that Sir Daniel Wilson was in a very low condition, though he had made some slight improvement through the day. The result of the illness, Dr. Temple stated, depends entirely upon the way he takes his nourishment; if that proves satisfactory he may recover. However, at present everything is entirely problematical.

Stoneman is Dead.

DETROIT, July 13.—John Stoneman, the flying roller who some weeks ago was enticed into Louis B. Gnau's North Side saloon, where he received a free hair cut and shampoo, died at Buffalo Saturday morning, where he went shortly after the hair-cutting ceremony. His death was not the result of hard usage at the hands of the "fake" barbers, but was caused by consumption, from which he had long been a sufferer.

The Canadian Bisley Team.

LONDON, July 13.—The Canadians arrived at Bisley Tuesday. It has been raining hard ever since and practically nothing is doing, the time being taken up with small matches. The Canadian team had a good practice at Cambridge. While there they fired two matches, the first with the Suffolk Regiment, 16 men a side, at two ranges. The Canadians made a score of 886 and the Suffolks 825.

They also had a match with the Cambridge Rifles team of eight men. The Canadians made 557 and Cambridge 504.

The match for the Kolapore Cup will be fired on Saturday.

CRUSTS AND SCALES
Hair and Eyebrows Fell Off. Doctor and Many Remedies No Benefit. Entirely Cured and Hair Restored by Cuticura.

My wife has been troubled for years with dry crusts and scales on her head and eyebrows. After ceasing to be dormant for years in her system, it broke out over a year ago in all its fury. Her hair came out in big patches, her eyebrows all fell off, and she presented a pitiable condition. We tried almost everything, but she continued to get worse. Then we tried one of our best physicians, but all to no purpose. Finally my wife believed that the CUTICURA REMEDIES would cure her. After she had used nine boxes of CUTICURA, and about a dozen cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and four bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, she was cured entirely. Her hair came on again, and to-day she has as fine a head of black curly hair and as smooth skin as any lady in Allentown. Her eyebrows are heavier than they ever were, her scalp is free from dandruff, and her health is excellent. Now for the benefit of those suffering with same disease, or to those who may doubt the truthfulness of this statement, write me, inclosing a stamp, and I will cheerfully answer. I am sure that the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured my wife, for she used nothing else during the four or five months she used them.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

MORE GAINS BY THE LIBERALS YESTERDAY.

The Net Gain to Date 48—No Doubt Now But That Gladstone Will Have a Majority—Some Notable Defeats—The Reduced Majority in Midlothian.

LONDON, July 14.—It is now settled that the Liberal and Irish supporters of Mr. Gladstone will have a small majority in the coming Parliament.

The result of the contests for 534 seats was known last night. The Conservatives and Liberal-Unionists have elected 263; the Gladstonians, including both the Irish factions and the labor men, 266.

Liberals made 12 gains yesterday and the Conservatives 1. There were several important Liberal gains, but the result in Midlothian overshadows everything.

Of the 136 seats still to be filled the Conservatives hold 42, the dissident Liberals 15, the Gladstonians 48 and the Irish Nationalists 31.

The Morning Post thinks Mr. Gladstone is now certain of 40 majority and perhaps more.

The Chronicle expects a Liberal majority of 50.

Where the Changes Were Made.

LIBERAL GAINS.

Eugene Wason (Liberal) is elected in South Ayrshire, defeating Hon. Greville R. Vernon (Unionist), who had 4 majority in 1886.

Sinclair (Liberal) carried Dumbartonshire, Scotland, where Sir Archibold Orr-Ewing (Conservative) had 32 majority in 1886.

In the Malone division of Essex, Todd (Liberal) overcame the Conservative majority of 1700 and was elected by 168 majority.

In the Cirencester division of Gloucestershire, England, Arthur G. Winterbotham (Liberal) is elected by 153 majority over Master, Conservative. Winterbotham was returned unopposed as a Liberal-Unionist in 1886, but subsequently became converted to Home Rule.

Yorkshire, Colne division—Sir J. Kitson (Liberal) 4987, Luyder (L.-U.) 4281. In 1886 the Liberal-Unionists were unopposed.

Lincolnshire, Gainsboro division—Bennett (Lib.) 4945, Eyre (Con.) 4037. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 85.

Radnorshire, Wales—Edwards (Lib.) 1973, Bradley (Con.) 1740. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 242.

Durham, Houghton division—Fenwick (Lib.) 6256, Wood (Con.) 4887, J. Hargraves (Temperance) 814. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 812.

Roxburghshire, Scotland—Napier (Lib.) 2672, A. R. Elliott (L.-U.) 2514. In 1886 the Liberal-Unionist majority was 428.

Somersetshire, Frome division—Barlow (Lib.) 4747, Viscount Weymouth (Con.) 4260. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 704.

Lancashire, Lonsdale division—Smith (Lib.) 4203, Crewdson (Con.) 3426. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 800.

Norfolk, East division—Price (Lib.) 4743, Birkbeck (Con.) 4303. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 578.

Lancashire, Darwen division—Huntington (Lib.) 6637, Viscount Cranborne (Con.) 6423. In 1886 the Conservative majority was 276.

CONSERVATIVE GAINS.

Northumberland, Hexham division—Clayton (Con.) 4092, McInnes (Lib.) 4010. In 1886 the Liberal majority was 957.

Viscount Cranborne, Conservative and son of Lord Salisbury, is defeated in Darwin.

The agricultural voters continue to show the utmost indifference for the feelings of the nobility and gentry. The most notable instance of the kind recorded to-day was the defeat of Vincent Weymouth, Lord Thomas Henry Thynne, eldest son of the Marquis of Bath. For over three centuries the Thynne family have lorded over a large domain in Wiltshire and Somerset. It was only in late years that their absolutism began to be questioned, and now at length Hodge has actually rejected a Thynne for a comparatively obscure plebeian named Barlow.

Tim Healy made a surprising run in North Wexford, securing 5728 votes to 859 for Col. Magrath, the Liberal-Unionist.

Sir Charles Dilke's fight in the Forest of Dean division of Gloucestershire is not without its compensations. As an offset to the resolution reflecting upon his moral character, which drove Lady Dilke to tears, a resolution, proposed by a clergyman, was passed to-day, condemning the Social Purity party for un-Christian-like conduct in assailing Sir Charles.

Right Hon. J. Lowther (Conservative and formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland) is elected for the Isle of Thanet division of Kent. This constituency was represented until 1886 by the late Col. King-Harman.

For Carlow, Ireland, the seat formerly represented by The O'Gorman Mahon, J. Hammond (anti-Parnellite) is elected.

THE RESULT IN MIDLOTHIAN

How the News of the Reduced Majority Was Received.

LONDON, July 14.—Considerable depression has been caused in the Liberal camp by the announcement of the result of yesterday's election in Midlothian, Mr Gladstone's constituency. The registered electors in Midlothian number 13,236, and 11,000 of them cast ballots. Mr. Gladstone's actual majority is 672, reduced from 4631. The Conservatives and Liberal-Unionists are in high glee over the result. They say if anywhere in Great Britian a campaign of education has been carried on it has been in Midlothian. There Gladstone in his numerous addresses has explained as fully as he explains anything the real intentions of the Liberal party. They hold that the announcement of to-day shows that he has signally failed in winning supporters to his Home Rule scheme.

Gladstone's Conservative opponent, Col. Andrew Gilbert Wauchope, is a soldier with a gallant record, a C.B. and C.M.G., personally beyond reproach either as to his civil or military career. Col. Wauchope presented no obstacle to drawing out the full Conservative and Liberal-Unionist vote of Midlothian, and the story told by the figures to-day shows how thoroughly that vote was drawn out. Col. Wauchope is overwhelmed with congratulations by his Tory friends as much as if he were the victor, while from all parts of Scotland have poured into the Colonel who, brave soldier as he is, with a record of gallantry as an officer of the Black Watch in Ashantee and Egypt, is said to be astonished at the fame thrust upon him. He has the prestige of being a native of the soil, whereas Mr. Gladstone, although of Scottish ancestry, was born in England. Col. Wauchope is a Midlothian laird as well as a soldier, and a generous landlord at that, and this fact gave him great strength. Up to the declaration of result to-day the Conservatives seemed to believe that Gladstone was beaten, and this confidence on their part naturally added to the anxiety of the Liberals.

The excitement in London has not been so intense since the beginning of the elections. Fleet-street was crammed from Ludgate Circus to Chancery-lane with an anxious multitude both of Unionists and Liberals. The moment the figures were bulletined a great volume of shouts, groans and of cheers went up from the people. The Unionists cheered as loud as the Gladstonians. This aroused the resentment of the latter, and the more intense parties nearly came to blows.

Mr. Gladstone received the news with calmness. Whatever his feelings may have been he gave no expression to them.

In Edinburgh the news caused the wildest excitement. Throngs were assembled since early morning waiting for the result.

Col. Wauchope served in the 42nd Royal Highlanders, Black Watch, in India, Ashantee, and was severely wounded, Egypt, 1882, Tel-el-Keber; severely wounded on the Nile, 1885, and at Kirbercan dangerously wounded.

Gladstone is Thankful.

EDINBURGH, July 14.—Prior to his departure for Braemer Mr. Gladstone made the customary address to the Midlothian electors, saying: "I gratefully thank you that you have chosen me under circumstances of special stress and difficulty in your own country the sixth time as your representative in Parliament. It is my earnest hope not to fall behind you in the desire and effort to minister to the happiness of the people of the three kingdoms and to the strength of solid union of the Empire."

SALISBURY'S INTENTION.

Radical Politicians Mapping Out a Program for Him and Gladstone.

LONDON, July 14.—Since Lord Salisbury's return from Windsor the Carlton Club has appeared to have received information that the Government will remain in office until it is defeated on a party division. Lord Salisbury will meet Parliament with the Queen's speech, declaring his policy, and inviting an attack on a division following debate on an amendment to the address. The Government will be defeated and the Cabinet will resign. Lord Salisbury thereupon will recommend to the Queen that she send for Mr. Gladstone.

Prominent Radicals in the National Liberal Club are to-night discussing what Mr. Gladstone ought to do. They favored postponing the Home Rule Bill for a year and to open the session of Parliament with the labor and rural reform program. The reasons for adopting this course are, first, the recognition of the fact that Home Rule will precipitate a dissolution the first year of Parliament and, second, if Home Rule is postponed the members can rest for two years and the next will give Mr. Gladstone time to perfect the details of the measure. Representations to this effect will be made to Mr. Gladstone, but it is doubtful if they succeed, as in his private conversation with his colleagues he has never faltered in his intention to expedite Home Rule and then retire from public life.

The Radicals will nominate Mr. Labouchere for the Home Office or the Local Government Board.

Owing to the defeat of Sir Horace Davey at Stockton Mr. Rigby, the member for Forfarshire, will certainly be Solicitor-General.

FIGHTING IN IRELAND.

A Parnellite Organ Threatening Many More Cases of Petition.

DUBLIN, July 14.—Serious rioting has occurred at Kilrush, county Clare. A band of Parnellites made an attack upon Simons' Temperance Hotel and completely wrecked it. Several other houses in More-street, including that of a lady who is not identified with either of the societies of the Irish party, were also wrecked.

Mr. R. Maguire, the Parnellite candidate in the west division of county Clare, had a narrow escape from a shower of empty bottles that were thrown at him while he was entering a hotel.

Rioting continues in West Clare. The Parnellites tried to upset a train bringing anti-Parnellites to Milltown-Malbay. The engine of the train was thrown off the rails, but nobody was injured.

The Independent (Parnellite) says that in addition to the petitions which will be lodged against the elections of Mr. William O'Brien and Mr. Timothy Healy on the ground of clerical bulldozing, a series of petitions throughout Ireland is threatened on the same grounds. Wicklow, Leinster, West Kerry, Tyrone and Galway have all been scenes not only of violent political speeches from the altar, but of physical violence under the aegis of clergymen. Among the ballots was found a piece of paper on which was written, "As Father ——— told me," the voter evidently having forgotten the name.

At a meeting of the Irish National League to-day Mr. Timothy Harrington violently attacked Archbishop Walsh and Bishop Nulty, accusing them of being primarily responsible for the national disgrace arising from the result of the Dublin elections.

LONDON, July 14.—Messrs. Goschen, Jackson and Stanhope, members of the Cabinet, addressed political meetings last night.

Each one denied Mr. Gladstone's assertion that troops were kept in Ireland to preserve the peace, and declared that on the contrary it was merely a question of barrack accommodations.

Mr. Stanhope, the War Secretary, said that, thanks to Mr. Balfour, he would be quite ready to advise the Queen to remove the troops, but that it was cheaper to keep them in Ireland than elsewhere.

DUBLIN, July 14.—At the meeting of the National Federation yesterday Mr. Matthew J. Kenny charged that the Parnellites were being subsidized by agents of the English Tories. The spirit of the Parnellites, he declared, was not political. They seemed to be possessed of some devil.

[Special correspondent to Toronto World.]

LONGFORD, July 14.—Polling took place yesterday, but at time of writing the result cannot be obtained. The declaration will be made to-day. This is the custom here, but such a lazy-footed way of doing business would not suit Canadians at all. I cannot understand how impetuous Irishmen can brook going to bed without knowing the result of the day's conflict, but so it is. Mr. Blake was not here at all to-day. He spent the day in Dublin. There is some complaint about his taking matters so easily and seeming to show but little interest how the battle goes. I am looked upon as part of the Blake entourage and am expected to give reasons why he does this, that or the other thing. I have been kept busy explaining that it is necessary for Mr. Blake to confer with the leaders of the party whose headquarters is Dublin on many subjects that are of importance to the cause.

The number of votes polled will be small, as the Parnellites abstained from voting altogether. There can scarcely be a doubt, however, of Mr. Blake's election, as Mr. Miller's candidature only called out the anti-Home Rule vote, which is very small.

THE PEORIA DISASTER.

Official List of the Dead Already Recovered—Many Still Missing.

PEORIA, Ill., July 14.—The bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the steamer Frankie Folsom as follows:

Rev. J. H. McMeen of Benson, Lottie Rocher of Pekin, Mrs. Fred Fisher and daughter Cora, and John H. Ahrends of Pekin, Mary Flath, Pekin; Mrs. Henry Dulsduker, Pekin; Mrs. W. G. Wills, Pekin; Miss Lottie Shade of Shelbyville, Ills., and one unidentified.

Capt. Loesch, master of the boat, says a party of about 40 from Pekin went to see Pain's "Last Days of Pompeii." After the exhibition they pulled out, and when in the middle of the river the storm struck them with great fury. The captain attempted to head the steamer towards the shore, and as he did so a terrific gust of wind struck the craft and keeled it over in 19 feet of water. He said the accident was caused by the pilot becoming scared when the storm struck them. Had he kept the steamer headed for the willows on the opposite bank there would have been no danger of its capsizing.

When the boat capsized the women were mostly imprisoned in the cabin, having sought refuge there from the storm, and had no means of egress.

The river will be dragged immediately. Officials are waiting for one of the large Illinois River boats to arrive and the Folsom will then be moved. It is expected there are several bodies under it.

The Folsom was 89 feet in length with 16 ft. beam and 3 ft. in depth. She was built in Stillwater, Minn., in 1886 and was inspected by the Government. There were 84 passengers on board and a crew of six. She is almost a total loss.

AN OHIO TORNADO.

Immense Damage Occasioned at Springfield Yesterday by a Windstorm.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, July 14.—Thirty residences were totally demolished and over 100 partially destroyed by a tornado which struck the eastern portion of the city yesterday. The tornado was a mile long from west to east and three blocks wide.

There were no fatalities but about 25 persons were injured.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in The Queen City.

TORONTO, July 14.—The receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by two loads of oats at 32½c to 35c and one load of peas at 60c. Hay was in fair supply at $11 to $13.50 for old and $8 to $10 for new. Straw sold at $8 to $10.

On call business was very quiet, cars by sample being offered, without bids.

FREE SILVER.

A Close Vote in the House on the Famous Measure.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—In the House yesterday the free silver bill, which passed the Senate, was practically shelved by a vote of 136 to 129.

The motion defeated was one setting apart to-day and to-morrow for consideration of the bill.

THE IDAHO RIOTS.

Idaho Miners Meet Militia With Giant Powder—Capturing Hostages.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 14.—The Union Pacific have just received advices from Coeur D'Alene that the Northern Pacific R.R. bridge, together with several hundred feet of track, were blown up by the strikers west of Mullan this morning. The company is preparing to take all non-union men out of the mines this afternoon to Tokoa. The union men assert that the moment the troops appear on the scene they will blow up the Bunker Hill and Sullivan, Sierra Nevada and Gem mines. The burning of the bridge near Mullan will hold the troops there unless they march to Wallace and Wardner, which is about 10 miles.

It is also reported that the union men have taken Van Delashutt of Portland, William Sweeney and other mine owners and will hold them as hostages until the trouble is over.

Want Reciprocity With Manitoba.

ST. PAUL, July 14.—A joint movement is on foot in Minnesota and North Dakota to bring about reciprocity between the Northwestern states and Manitoba. At a meeting of the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce yesterday a letter was read from the Grand Forks Chamber urging organized effort. The letter says: "If reciprocity has been such a marvelous success in such a brief period of time with southern countries, we in the northern part of the United States should enjoy the same privileges with our Canadian neighbors. It is the policy of the present administration at Ottawa to limit trade as much as possible between Manitoba and our Northwest, in order to hold that lucrative trade for the benefit of Eastern Canada." St. Paul Chamber of Commerce was asked if it would send delegates to a convention to be held at Grand Forks about Aug. 23. A request will be made from the Dakotas, Minnesota, Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest. The proposition is regarded with considerable favor here.

It Burned the Baby.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 14.—Mrs. Joseph Sweet placed her baby in a hammock outside her residence at North River and built a smudge to keep away the flies and mosquitoes. The child, it is presumed, picked off some of its wraps, which, falling on the fire, brought the flames in connection with the hammock and the infant fell on the blazing embers. It survived only a few hours.

Drowned While at Play.

PORT STANLEY, Ont., July 14.—Last evening about 7 o'clock two boys were playing in a boat tied to the dock. One of them, Herbert Herrick, son of Mr. Alonzo Herrick of this place, about 6 years of age, lost his balance and fell into the creek and was drowned.

A Convenient Map.

The EXAMINER acknowledge with thanks from Messrs. Rand, McNally & Co., a copy of their "Indexed County Map and Shippers Guide of the province of Ontario. This map is accompanied by a new and original compilation and ready reference index, showing in detail the entire railroad system of the province, the express companies doing business over each road and accurately indicating the situation of all cities, towns, post offices, railroads, stations, villages, islands, lakes, rivers, etc. The special features of this pocket map are; indicating and placing the branch or particular division of railways upon which each station is situated, the nearest mailing point of all local places, designating money order offices, telegraph stations and naming the express companies doing business at the points where the several companies have offices. The population is given according to the latest official census. The map is invaluable to the business men and especially the shipper. Price 25 cents, published by Rand McNally & Co. Chicago and New York.

The Weather and the Crops.

Reports from the country districts indicate that the heavy rainfall of the past month did comparatively little injury to crops. Upon some low ground the crops were to some extent "drowned out" but the wet season was followed by cool days, and the heat of the past few days has made vegetation grow luxuriantly. Upon well drained or hilly lands the crops will be exceptionally good. In Manitoba and some portions of the Northwest Territories the crops are backward, having been retarded by cold weather in May and the latter part of April, so that there is reason to fear loss by early frosts, inasmuch as the wheat will not be fit for harvesting as early in the season as last year. But so far as Ontario is concerned there is good reason to believe that the damage done by wet weather has been much exaggerated.

The Imperial Liberal Platform

With the return of the Liberals to power in the United Kingdom will come a number of important reforms, including simultaneous voting in all parts of the kingdom at general elections, and one man one vote. The system of extending the polling over two or three weeks is an absurdity. It tends to disturb and interrupt business by keeping up the excitement and uncertainty. The only people whom the present arrangement serves are the Tory fagot voters, who are able now to travel about from county to county voting wherever they happen to own a little property or rent even the smallest of houses.

What a Little Fire Kindled

Long ago the world was requested to note how great a matter a little fire may kindle, and the truth has had another unpleasant illustration in the recent disaster at St. John's. The origin of the conflagration which swept that city out of existence is said to have been the discarded match of a man who lit his pipe in a stable. The chances are that he got away without injury to himself, but if he did not there will be no general mourning. Such a man is first cousin to the idiot who didn't know it was loaded, and might be conveniently killed on sight.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous, strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. dw

POWERFUL TONIC.—The most effective tonic for the liver, stomach and intestines is without dispute Dr. Say's Remedy, which removes rapidly the disorders of these organs.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

A Point in Buying Horses.

When examining a horse with a view to buying, always have him led down a steep or stony descent at the end of a halter, and with no whip near him. Many horses when brought out of the stable are excited by the presence of strangers, and become still more so at sight of a whip. A slight lameness may therefore be momentarily overlooked by the horse himself, just as a man, under strong excitement, will sometimes forget a sore foot. Leading a horse down a slope will show any defect in the forequarters, and running him back will develop any weakness that may exist in his hind legs. Horse sharpers know these facts as well as anybody, so, if the horse is in the least affected, they will generally avoid a hill when showing off a horse to a probable purchaser.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find is impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

The Best Picnic Lunch.

Meats for sandwiches should be boiled the day before; then after removing bone, skin and gristle they should be put in packing tins, heavily weighted, and set in a cool place over night, writes Mrs. A. G. Lewis, in a seasonable article on "Lawn Parties and Out Door Fetes," in the July Ladies' Home Journal. Cut in very thin slices.

Bread one day old is best, and a very sharp knife is needed for cutting it into thin slices not over three inches square. These, buttered slightly, may be daintily filled with ham, salad, sardines, tongue, or whatever one likes.

Then cut pieces of confectioner's paper just large enough to cover the sandwiches neatly. Place them side by side, closely packed, and they will preserve their shape without breaking. The paper is not to be removed until served.

Cakes must also be one day old, and for picnic use a little extra flour in stirring, and an extra five or ten minutes in baking will ensure a firmer crust. Frosting, if put on hot, does not crackle and fall off. Cookies are more desirable than loaf cake, as are, also, cup and gem cakes. Jelly and cream confections are seldom nice for picnic serving.

Pies made of jellies, fruit or sweets are best cooked turnover fashion, the pastry covering the filling entirely. Lay them in paper covers, and they serve thus very conveniently.

Lemon, orange, strawberry, raspberry or currant juices should be extracted, then sweetened, and when well dissolved, bottled. Drinks can then be prepared by adding two tablespoonfuls of the liquid to a tumbler of ice water. All these juices combined make a delicious drink.

Strong coffee or tea may also be prepared and served in the same way. Bright tin mugs are more convenient than tumblers, and there is no danger of breakage.

Hampers, with several trays, are more desirable for packing. Ordinary lunch baskets are a difficulty. White confectioner's paper should be used for lining the basket and for separating the different kinds of food; also, for covering neatly individual pieces. Cookies and crackers must be put in tight boxes. Plates are too heavy, but bright, new biscuit tins—the square shapes are best—are very useful in packing, and with fringed napkins laid inside, they serve well for salvers in handing the food around. Paper napkins are best.

Whatever is to be eaten last should be packed at the bottom of the hamper, and that to be served first at the top. Fruit, pickles, olives and cheese must not be forgotten.

Artistic Match Receiver.

Materials—A piece of China silk eighteen inches long by eight inches wide, and one and a half yards No. 1 satin ribbon, a small, round Japanese basket and a tumbler. Get the tumbler or wine glass to fit the basket, say about two and one-half inches in height, leaving one half inch to project at the top. Make your silk into a bag, sewing together at the end, and gathering it together at the bottom. Turn down the top for a frill, put it over the basket, drawing the gathering thread firmly around the glass. Cut four pieces of celluloid like the design, painting whatever flower may be pretty with the color used in the silk. Punch holes at the points of each piece, and fasten together with a rosette of the ribbon, then draw a ribbon through the holes at the top of the pieces, and tie. Use two ribbons by which to hang the receiver, and place a bow on each side to complete it. Water colors paint best on the rough side of celluloid.—Lena J. Ringneberg, in Ladies' Home Journal.

The Poetry of Wash Day.

A correspondent says: It so happened that one very hot morning, which promised to become a hotter day, that my men folks were obliged to go away very early in the morning. I found that my wash water had been forgotten, and was then purling and singing to itself in a brook at some distance from the house, much too far to admit of my carrying it and then doing a big washing, for my strength is somewhat limited. But I resolved to wash notwithstanding. It is true I had no large kettle in which to heat the water, nor a wooden paddle and bench to beat the wet garments; but I transported a small tub, a washboard with some soap, and a bundle of colored clothes, as a first trial, to the bank of the stream, and pursued my labors under the shade of hickories, grapevines, etc., while a red-bird whistled an accompaniment.

As my water supply was unlimited, I changed the suds often, and rinsed each garment in the creek. I was soon through with my task, and as the clothes were delightfully clean, and it was still early, I returned to the house for the white things. I laid them on the grass to bleach after washing, and old Sol performed that duty well, as I discovered next day. I washed in the same way all last summer, and I mean to do so this year.

Lives of others oft remind us
Married life may be sublime.

We trust to be forgiven this parody of lines from Longfellow's immortal "Psalm of Life." Husbands who are wise and thoughtful know that the happiness of the home depends largely on the health of the mistress of the home. Many are the tasks which daily confront her. How can a woman contend against the trials and worries of housekeeping, if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weaknesses peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy sold by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper. b

Hints to Housekeepers.

For omelette souffle the white of eggs beaten should be firm enough to cut.

A plain but quick and delicious soup may be made by using a can of corn with a small piece of pork. This warmed up quickly, with a little milk added, is very good.

Fried eels should be slightly salted before cooking. Do not cover them with batter, but dredge them with just flour enough to absorb all moisture, then cover them with boiling water.

An excellent salad of cold boiled potatoes cut into slices about an inch thick may be made with thin slices of fresh beet root, and onions cut very thin, and very little of them, with dressing.

In the use of spices remember that allspice and cloves are used with meat and nutmeg and cinnamon in combination with sugar. The white part of lemon under the rind is exceeding bitter, and only the yellow parts should be grated.

It is rather difficult to broil a large fish so the middle will be done and the surface not burned. It is well to wrap it in oiled or buttered paper, and a large baking pan turned over it to hold the heat. When nearly done remove the paper, and allow the surface to brown.

In boiling chickens for chicken salad put them over the fire in cold water and let them come gradually to a boil. They will not only be more tender, but the dark meat is partially bleached so it may be used with the white.

Flour should be kept in a cool, dry place. If possible, have some kind of a cool receptacle for it, and do not provide too large a quantity, as it sometimes spoils by keeping too long. It should be watched to see that it is free from mice.

To avoid duplicating wedding gifts in silver, it would be wiser to give to a friend fine linen. Really fine linen to be used on special occasions will last a long time, and the happy bride who receives it will always bless you for aiding her in making her table handsome.

Ayers' Pills promptly remove the causes of sick and nervous headaches. These Pills speedily correct irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and are the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use. No one should be without them.

A Sensible Man

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

For the St. John's Sufferers.

The local agent of the Canadian Express Company, Mr. E. Dawson, has received notice from the Canadian Express Company, that the latter will transmit free of charge to Halifax any small parcels of provisions and clothing consigned to the sufferers in the late fire in St. John's, Newfoundland, as an act of liberality which should be met with a generous response from the public.

Into Commodious Quarters.

Mr. Geo. Rutledge, tobacconist, has removed his shop from the corner of George and Hunter street, which stand he occupied for over 20 years, to 382 George street, next door to Peter Conmal & Co. The new premises are of the finest in town being large, convenient and well lighted. The front shop is 30 feet, having the largest floor space of any tobacco shop in Peterborough. New shelves have been placed in position and the counter extended by some 10 feet. Behind the shop is a large smoking room, excellently fitted up and well lighted. Mr. Rutledge has now one of the best, handsomest and largest tobacco shops in the province.

For the St. John's Sufferers.

The Board of Trade have opened a subscription list at President Fair's store for the benefit of the St. John's sufferers, Newfoundland, who had their homes and properties so suddenly destroyed by the fiery element last week. The millers of Ontario will contribute a cargo of flour, each one donating from 25 to 50 barrels towards the relief funds. The railways have generously offered to transport everything in the shape of food and clothing free. The Canadian Miller which has taken an active part in the fund is endeavouring to get the large steamships to carry the relief cargoes from Montreal to St. John's free.

Last Night's Auroral Display.

There were "high jinks" in the heavens last night. About 9 o'clock there began the most magnificent auroral display witnessed for years. From that hour till three or four o'clock in the morning the heavens were a shifting blaze of glorious light, the display culminating at about 2 o'clock, when fully four fifths of the heavens were covered with brilliant corruscations of crimson light, the shafts of radiance darting incessantly in conveying lines from horizon to zenith, and occasionally discharging drifts of luminous spray. For hours almost the entire concave of heaven was a scene of ever shifting but always inexpressibly beautiful chromatic splendour.

Fine Refreshment Rooms.

Mr. H. Long, the enterprising George street restaurateur has recently made great interior improvements in his premises. A floor has been laid down throughout the whole shop. A fine light pine partition painted in snowy white and with deep portiers which hang in graceful folds separates the large refreshment room from the shop. Eight handsome and ornate oak tables, with pretty cane seated chairs are place in the refreshment room which has been handsomely papered and trimmed with a deep rich border. The culinary department is to the rear and is separated from this room with fine double doors set with cathedral glass. The rooms of Mr. Long are pretty, bright and commodious and are among the finest in town.

FOR SALE.

The residence of H. S. Griffin, corner of Hunter and Park Streets. This is one of the choicest places in town, good locality, new house, large rooms, beautifully papered, bath room, furnaces. A most desirable home, and will be sold cheap. Easy terms. Furniture will be sold cheap also. Apply to H. S. GRIFFIN.

Blake Elected in South Longford.

The Imperial Canadian Gets a Majority of 2,000.

Special to the EXAMINER.

DUBLIN, July 14.—Hon. Edward Blake was elected for South Longford, Ireland, by a majority of 2,000.

Peripatetic Portrait Philanthropists.

Their Operations in Different Parts of the Province—How They Lie Low for the Guileless Housewife.

A few days ago the EXAMINER referred to the operations of certain crayon portrait operators, exposing the manner in which the business was done, and how the public were taken in. Since that visits have been had from two crayon agents who challenged the correctness of our statements, insisting on the bona fides of their operations, and suggesting a free advertisement in the shape of a retraction of our statement. The reader will notice that no retraction appeared, and he will waste time in looking for one. Since that time our exchanges furnish confirmation of the general ground the EXAMINER took in regard to the style of operations in question. The Kingston Whig of July 13th, under the heading "Crayon Portrait Frauds," deals at length with the matter. As the Whig describes the process, it is essentially the same as that practised here. The frame is the great point in both transactions. The Whig closes its article by sympathizing with the victims of these commercial adventurers as follows: "We do not have much sympathy for people who desert their own townsmen and reputable merchants for strangers like portrait artists and hay fork adventurers. But it is

OUR DUTY AT LEAST TO WARN THEM."

The Woodstock Sentinel Review is moved to ask if the operations of the agents of the Dominion Portrait company are legitimate in view of recent developments in some cases. It also describes the modus operandi the essential points, the 50-cent picture and paid for in advance and the stipulation that the frame must be purchased from the company being the same as in the Peterborough and Kingston cases. In Chatham the Review says that two persons A. F. Biddell and A. E Clark were arrested and lodged in jail charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. In the case of Biddell the police magistrate said he had no doubt that he (Biddell) was guilty of fraud. He knew perfectly well that these innocent women did not know they would have an expensive frame to pay for before securing the 50 cent crayon. He then fined him $50. The other prisoner Clark who elected to be tried by jury was committed for trial and held to bail at the next assizes. In his evidence at Chatham, Clarke said that he and another man named Gurley constituted the Dominion Portrait Company, which was not incorporated. He admitted that the purport of the agreement—the ticket was to sell a frame at prices ranging from $1 90 to $10. The Stratford Herald also exposes the doings of portrait peddlers. The public now know what risk they run in leaving legitimate local firms to do business with itinerant operators who trade upon the credulity of inexperienced women and cloak over their success in "doing them up," insinuating, as an agent did in this office, that it served women right who were not sharp enough to to detect a swindle at sight. It is always safe to show the door to any stranger who poses as a philanthropist and offers to sacrifice money for the benefit of his expected victims. In a word, patronize home business houses, deal with them that deal with you.

A Nocturnal Ruction in Ashburnham.

A lively episode of some interest occurred in Ashburnham about ten o'clock last night. Mrs. Annie Walker, who formerly was a tenant of what is generally known as the "brick house" on Sophia street, moved out some three or four months ago, absenting herself from the village for for a time, leaving some of household effects in the house. Mrs. Walker claims to be married to a person who, after an absence of some months returned to Ashburnham recently. The affair regarding the household effects and the further lease of the house was, it was supposed settled amicably yesterday between Mrs. Walker and May Wilson, who now occupies the house. The furniture was all moved out and taken away, but it seems that Mrs. Wilson and the gentleman friend were not content with giving up their lease of the house so easily and the arrangement concluded was not so satisfactory as at first supposed. Last night about 10 o'clock, as the story runs, they repaired to the house in question, broke in the door and began playing havoc with the contents at once, removing the furniture, tearing up the carpets and creating an exciting scene generally. The occupants were thoroughly alarmed and May Wilson jumped from a second storey window in her fright and ran to arouse Constable John Craig. Mr. Archie Moore, county constable, was also notified of the disturbance, and an attempt was made to arrest the invaders, who offered violent opposition to being deprived of their liberty. It is alleged that Mrs. Wilson flourished a knife in the air, while the man fired two revolver shots at the constables. Finally after a general melee the intruders were lodged in the lock up. This afternoon they were brought up before County Police Magistrate Hamilton charged with house-breaking, assaulting the constables, etc.

Telferdian Temperature Topics

PETERBOROUGH, July 14th.—The 13th was another hot day. At sunrise the mercury stood at 56 degrees, at 9, at 80°, at 12, at 87°, at 1, at 92°, dropping with the small answer at 4 to 88°, and at sundown to 80°. The 13th, I expected it warm, showing 70° in the morning. That is high, but a sharp wind blowing the thermometer never rose higher than 88° during the day. Pretty auroral lights at night will likely soon bring rain.

A Temperance Lecturer.

Rev. J. W. Bell, B.D., Superintendent of the Ontario Missionary Department, Royal Templars of Temperance, who was advertised to give an address on the "Saloon vs. Citizen, Home and State" in the R. T. of T. Hall, Hunter street last evening did not deliver his lecture owing to the small attendance present. He however spoke a few words on the subject of temperance to the small audience, but did not exhibit his powerful magic lantern and 12 foot screen, showing his views on the effect of alcohol and the saloon business on the man, the home and the nation. Rev. Mr. Bell comes highly recommended by the press and all those who have had the pleasure of hearing him, and it is regrettable that there was such a small audience present last night. This was no doubt due to the warm weather and the event not being announced long enough ahead.

'Twas a Famous Victory.

Peterborough Lacrosse Club Defeats the "Quintes" of Belleville by 3 Goals to 1.

The Peterborough Lacrosse club left town at 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning for Belleville to play the return match with the "Quinte" Lacrosse club of that city. Belleville was reached shortly before noon and the boys repaired to the Queen's Hotel, the leading hostelry in the city for dinner. They speak kindly of the fine treatment tendered them by the genial young proprietor, Mr. W. W. Power. In the afternoon the game took place in the cricket field which is fanned by the Quinte's balmy breezes. The grounds are well adapted for lacrosse, the only fault being that they are a little soft at one end. The number of spectators out to witness the game was large, a fair sprinkling of Belleville's handsome daughters being present to lend dignity and grace to the occasion, and to incite Peterborough's handsome young men on to victory sure and certain. The ball was faced at 3:40 o'clock, and the teams lined up in the following order before referee Louis White, of Port Hope:

PETERBOROUGH.		BELLEVILLE.
F Adams	goal	W McLeod
G W Parks	point	W Reid
F Packenham	cover point	W Hitchon
T Murray	1st defence	Geo. Holton
J McDonough	2nd defence	H P Thomas
E Hickey	3rd defence	R Collins
J Begley	centre	J Gordanier
W Phelan	3rd home	H Twining
J T McCabe	2nd home	Wm Harper
J Phelan	1st home	J Elliott
J Smart	outside home	J Thompson
G Heaps	inside home	J A Phillips
Morton Kincaid	field captain	H Collins
J Marnie	umpire	H Burrell
Reserve		Louis White, Port Hope.

The game started auspiciously for the Peterborough's and the ball hovered round the Belleville's flags during all the game. The magnificent team play of the town boys was the marvel of the day, and their clever stick handling and dodging proved an effective factor in the victory. After 22 minutes playing W. Phelan passed to J. McCabe who with a well aimed shot dropped the rubber between the uprights taking the first game for the visitors. McLeod in goal was a star and saved many an onslaught on his quarters from going through the flags.

The second game was taken by Belleville, Elliott, one of Kingston's star players, who was playing with Belleville, doing the work for them in six minutes. The ball was shoved through in a scrimmage. Time, 6 minutes.

The third game was taken by Peterborough in 20 minutes, Walter Phelan putting the ball through the flags.

The fourth game was also taken by Peterborough after nine minutes brisk playing. J. McCabe took this game, which was the last one scored by either team. Eight more minutes of playing was indulged in, but availed nothing for either team, and the contest closed at five o'clock, after an hour and twenty minutes hard playing, the score at the close standing 3 goals to 1 in favour of Peterborough. The home team had barely time to don their clothes and catch the 5 40 o'clock train for home. They came by way of Port Hope and reached here at 9 o'clock last night to receive at the station the congratulations of many admirers. The boys speak in the highest terms of the gentlemanly and honorable game played by the Quintes. There was no rough playing, no jungling, and no hard feeling. Mr. White, of Port Hope, as referee, gave universal satisfaction and Belleville took their defeat like men, acknowledging that they were beaten, and beaten fairly. The main deficiencies in Belleville's playing is her poor team play and stick handling, and not being acquainted with the old but effective round arm dodge.

DROPS ON THE GOAL.

Mr. Morton Kincaid, an old Peterborough boy who is holidaying in Belleville, acted as field captain for the home team.

As every man on the Peterborough team played well, a particularization would be unfair.

The Bellevillians said that Peterborough did the finest team playing they ever saw done on the lacrosse field.

The Bellevilles have greatly improved since their visit to Peterborough.

Belleville played a number of "ringers," and Peterborough's victory is therefore all the more signal. Wm. Harper, who played 2nd home for Belleville, is a prominent member of the Madoc Athletics, W. Reid and J. Elliott, playing point and 1st home respectively, are players on the Kingston Lacrosse Club. These three players had played with their respective teams in the game on Tuesday between Kingston and Madoc at Madoc, and their names are mentioned in the Kingston Whig among the list of players, proving conclusively that they were outside men. R. Collins 3rd defence is also a Madoc man, making four ringers who played with Belleville.

Masonic.

Official Visit of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario.

Right Worthy Brother John Ross Robertson, of Toronto, the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, A. F. and A. M., paid an official visit to the fraternity last night. An emergent meeting of Peterborough and Corinthian Lodges was called for the occasion, which brought out a large number of the local brethren, as well as a number of visiting representatives from Norwood, Lakefield, Omemee and other places. The Masonic Hall on Water street was opened for the reception of the distinguished visitor at 8 o'clock, and the preparations were in keeping with the character of the occasion. The Grand Master was assisted by V. W. Bro. Benj Shortly, P.D.D.G.M., and Wor. Bro. H. C. Rogers, P.M. After routine, the Grand Master delivered an address to the brethren of an elaborate nature on the ancient origin of Freemasonry, going back to the building of the Temple, and claiming that Freemasonry was of Divine origin. The address occupied over an hour in delivery, and was declared by far the most interesting, instructive and important ever delivered here. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Right Wor. Bro. Robertson, for his masterly exposition. The brethren adjourned to their spacious refreshment room, where a very pleasant evening was spent. The Grand Master again spoke on the dignity of the office of Grand Master, his remarks calling forth the admiration and endorsation of the brethren present. W. Bro. Sparham Sheldrake, P.M., of Lakefield also delivered an appropriate and thoughtful address, and was followed by other members, after which the meeting closed.

Admission to the Hospital.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—According to a report of the recent meeting of the Board of Health appearing in the EXAMINER, a doubt appeared to exist in the minds of some of the members in reference to the admission of patients to the Nicholls Hospital. For the benefit of the public generally I quote the following rule from the "Rules and regulations regarding the admission of patients" which explains itself.

"Patients shall be admitted only on the recommendations of one of the medical staff, and on an order of the chairman or pro-chairman, or honorary secretary; but in case of accident the patient may be admitted at once and the order subsequently obtained." I am

Yours, etc.,

Mount Ætna Active.

ROME, July 13.—The eruption of Mount Ætna is rapidly increasing in violence. The fires in the crater's show great activity. Loud explosions are continually taking place.

A severe earthquake shock occurred yesterday, which reduced to ruins the village of Giarre on the coast of Sicily, five hours' journey from the craters of Mount Ætna. The population of Giarre is about 18,000. No mention of loss of life is made, but it is feared here that many must have perished. The whole country suffered severely from the shock.

Engineers have been sent to the threatened points to prevent the vast quantities of lava that are being thrown out by the volcano from entering the wells from which the population obtain their supply of water. Should the lava come into contact with the water the steam generated would destroy the wells.

The craters of Ætna were last active in 1865. Giarre, the destroyed village, lay directly to the east of the famous Valle del Bove on the eastern side of Ætna, a black and desolate space three miles in width, bounded on three sides by perpendicular cliffs from 2000 to 4000 feet high, opening only to the east.

Buried Alive in Quicklime.

LONDON, July 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Times says: "The Official Gazette confirms the report of the cholera at Astrakhan, and says that the people openly drag old corpses out of the hospital, believing that patients were buried alive in quicklime.

A Money-Making Building.

This building, of which a ground plan is shown, will be found useful on many farms. The greenhouse, 20 ft. wide and as long as desired, makes an excellent place for growing hothouse cucumbers, lettuce, early tomatoes and cabbage plants, etc. Or, if the tastes run that way, flowering plants may often be grown with profit. Opening out of the greenhouse is the potting room and just in front a carpenter shop. Beyond this is the ice-house and creamery. Now that hand and small power separators are becoming so common many prefer to make their own cream and butter, having all the advantages of the large creamery. These rooms, even if not used for this purpose, are suitable for any purpose desired. —Farm and Home.

Of Interest to Dairymen.

The American Dairyman of New York, one of the oldest papers of its kind in America, has arranged with the Board of Trade here to have sent to it the reports of the transactions in the Dairyman's Association of Peterborough county. This will be undoubtedly of great help to the county and every assistance should be given to the Board of Trade to furnish complete reports. It will also give the farmers and exporters an acquaintance with a large number of buyers with whom they have not yet come in contact. The Board of Trade has had many such opportunities for the benefit of the community. It would be a good idea if all the dairymen would place themselves in correspondence with the Board of Trade.

To Preserve

The richness, color, and beauty of the hair, the greatest care is necessary, much harm being done by the use of worthless dressings. To be sure of having a first-class article, ask your druggist or perfumer for Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is absolutely superior to any other preparation of the kind. It restores the original color and fullness to hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. It keeps the scalp cool, moist, and free from dandruff. It heals itching humors, prevents baldness, and imparts to a silken texture and lasting fragrance. No toilet can be considered complete without this most popular and elegant of all hair-dressings.

THE HAIR

"My hair began turning gray and falling out when I was about 25 years of age. I have lately been using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and it is causing a new growth of hair of the natural color."—R. J. Lowry, Jones Prairie, Texas.

"Over a year ago I had a severe fever, and when I recovered, my hair began to fall out, and what little remained turned gray. I tried various remedies, but without success, till at last I began to

USE

Ayer's Hair Vigor, and now my hair is growing rapidly and is restored to its original color."—Mrs. Annie Collins, Dighton, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for nearly five years, and my hair is moist, glossy, and in an excellent state of preservation. I am forty years old, and have ridden the plains for twenty-five years."—Wm. Henry Ott, alias "Mustang Bill," Newcastle, Wyo.

"German Syrup"

Asthma. "I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine, Boschee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. I am pleased to inform thee—unsolicited—that I am in excellent health and do certainly attribute it to thy Boschee's German Syrup. C. B. STICKNEY, Picton, Ontario."

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

APPALLING DISASTER REPORTED FROM SAVOY.

Nearly Two Hundred Persons Killed by a Landslide at Well-Known Mineral Baths—Mount Altan Sends Forth Showers of Lava, Killing Many People.

PARIS, July 13.—A terrible accident has occurred at St. Gervais-Les-Bains, in Savoy. A heavy landslide occurred in the mountains that almost overhang the village, and without a moment's warning a number of houses were buried beneath immense masses of rock and earth. The disaster occurred at 3 o'clock in the morning when nearly all the inhabitants and residents were asleep. It has been ascertained that the Bion Nassay glaciers which extend from the northwest side of Mount Blanc became detached and swept down the side of the mountain, carrying the baths and the hamlet of Le Fayet into the river. The loss of life was appalling. There was no possible chance of the people getting out of the way of the tremendous mass of earth, rock and ice, and a great number whose lives were not crushed out beneath the falling debris of their houses were swept into the river and drowned.

Over 150 bodies have been recovered from the Harve, and those with the 30 taken from the ruins of houses brings the death-roll up to 180.

It is not believed that this will cover the entire loss of life as there are undoubtedly many bodies buried under the masses of debris that will never be recovered.

The whole surface of the river is strewn with the wreckage of houses and with trees.

It is believed not a single person in the line of the descending glaciers and the debris they carried along with them escaped with his life. Many of the dead were mangled beyond recognition.

Many visitors were at the place, and a large number of them were among the victims.

The Sherman establishment was completely destroyed by huge masses of rock that were swept against it by the landslide.

Caught While Asleep.

The baths of St. Gervais were in five separate buildings joined by a stone wall erected in a narrow gorge. They were situated about 2066 feet above the sea on a road from Geneva to Chamouix. A glacier became detached from Mount Blanc and fell into the mountain torrent, carrying away the hamlet of Bionnay and filling the torrent with masses of ice. The masses of ice and the wreckage of the village formed a dam which effectually restrained the water for some time. Finally the dam broke and the waters burst like a cataract into the stream of Bon Nant, which passes through St. Gervais. The inmates of the bath houses were awakened about 2.15 a.m. by sounds of rushing water and a loud crashing noise. Before they were able to leave the buildings the torrent filled with the debris of the village and large masses of ice crashed against the bath houses.

Three of the buildings were entirely destroyed and another one partially, while the fifth building sustained no damage being situated upon a higher elevation than the others.

A Stream of Floating Corpses.

The torrent continued into the valley, destroying everything in its course. The village of Le Fayet, lying in the valley was almost entirely demolished.

The wreckage of houses was swept on for miles into the Arve. Down the latter stream corpses and wreckage have been sent floating all day long. The full mortality is not yet known. It is believed that 75 persons perished at the baths alone.

At least 50 of the inhabitants of Lafayet were drowned.

The latest estimate of the number of dead is 180.

St. Gervais is a watering place with sulphurous springs, and is a favorite summer resort. It lies in the wooded region of Mont Joie, half a mile from the Chamon-road on the Bon Nant, Nant being the name applied to all mountain streams in Savoy.

THE FARMER'S CORNER.

TIMELY INFORMATION FOR CANADIAN AGRICULTURISTS.

There is no crop so little known in this country and so little cultivated as rape, and there is no crop which gives such advantages and satisfactory results as this species of the brassica family. As a soiling crop and as a pasture crop for sheep and cattle, and also to plow under as a manure crop, rape has no equal, as it will grow luxuriantly on all kinds of soil and in all seasons, wet or dry. The cultivation is about the same that would be applied to a bone fallow. If barnyard manure can be spared for the rape, its application will be followed by a much better crop. It may be applied in the autumn or in the spring, when the rape is not preceded by rye. The time of sowing may be from 20th of June to the middle of July. The last week in June is probably the best for an early fall crop. The cultivation given at the Government Farm, Guelph, is something like this—the ground is put into low drills by using the double mould-board plow. These may be from 20 to 25 inches apart, and the seed is sown at once with the turnip drill, which should follow closely after the plow when the weather is dry. The field roller may then also be run over the drills as soon as sown. When rape is sown earlier than the period indicated, its later development is arrested. When it is sown later it is too succulent for very profitable feeding. The quantity of seed is about one pound. When sown in drills, if in dry weather, more than this quantity may be sown. Three pounds may be sown when scattered broadcast, but when thus sown the cleaning of the land is not effected. The variety in common use is known as the Dwarf Essex. When rape is sown on the bare fallow, to be plowed in as a green crop, from three to five pounds of seed per acre will suffice. It is useful for this purpose.

Although this quantity of seed is recommended by the Ontario Agricultural College bulletin, a number of good farmers in this London district sow as high as eight pounds of seed to the acre broadcast. The cultivation of rape after it has been sown is much the same as that applied in the case of turnips, with the difference that it is not usual to thin the rape. The horse-hoe may commence to work as soon as the rough-leaf appears, and may be kept going at short intervals until the leaves meet between the rows. If the drills are gone over with the hand-hoes once or twice, all weeds may be prevented from going to seed.

The pasturing of rape may commence in September. The exact time in the month will depend somewhat on the time of sowing. The pasturing may continue until the time of snow, which is usually in the last half of November.

Any class of sheep or lambs may be pastured upon the rape, but some caution should be used in pasturing breeding ewes upon it, lest they become too fat for breeding in best form. It is especially adapted to the fattening of sheep and lambs which are to be sold for meat. The latter are more frequently pastured upon it than any other form of live stock. Cattle may also be pastured upon it, but they destroy more of it through trampling than sheep. Hence, it is not nearly so much used for fattening cattle.

Sheep, or indeed any class of animals, should never be turned in upon rape when hungry. They are then liable to eat too much, which may induce bloating, followed in a short time by death, unless relief is given. As scouring is also likely to be induced at first, the sheep should have access to an adjoining grass field and salt at will, and if they are given a small ration of oats per day, not necessarily more than half a pint, it will in some degree counteract the tendency to scour. If they are trimmed with the shears before going on the rape, the injury from scours is reduced.

The results of growing rape on the Government Farm, Guelph, gave the following: $16.80 as the feeding value of the rape, or a return of $5.03 per cent. over tillage. Next the thorough cleaning of the land, which is about as effectual as though it had been summer fallowed, and again the value which will be obtained from the increase in the good crops which are grown after the rape. It may be here mentioned that rape is not suitable food for milch cows in the dairy, as when they feed upon it the milk becomes strongly tainted. But it is good for pigs, and they are fond of it.

The Manitoba School Case.

LONDON, July 13.—The Manitoba school case came before the Judicial Committee of Privy Council yesterday. The appeal is from the unanimous decision of the Supreme Court of Canada voiding the legislative enactment abolishing separate schools. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., and Joseph Martin, Attorney-General of Manitoba, with the help of Sir Horace Davey, appeared for the appellant. Their opening was unfinished when the committee rose. The argument will probably last two or three days. So far their lordships have expressed no opinion.

"Be sure you get Ayer's," is an important precaution to all who are in search of a thoroughly-reliable blood purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla being the one on which there can be no manner of doubt. It has stood the test of nearly half a century, and has long been considered the standard.

It is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung trouble, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is used regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great Emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds and bronchitis, sore throats and lung troubles tending to consumption. In big bottles, 50c. and $1 at Peterborough drug stores. dw

Cure for A Cough Pneumonia and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents package. dw

IT IS A WARM CAMPAIGN.

THE ELECTORAL BATTLE UNDER WAY IN MANITOBA.

Polling to Take Place on Saturday, July 23—What the Opposition to the Government Consists Of—Probability of Mr. Greenway Being Sustained—The Candidates in the Field.

WINNIPEG, July 14.—The electoral campaign in this province is drawing near a close. Next Saturday will be nomination day, and a week later, July 23, will be the day of the elections. It is probable that there will be a number of elections by acclamation. The Opposition have as yet no candidates in Centre and North Winnipeg, South Brandon, Russell and South Winnipeg; in Woodlands and La Verandrye the opposition candidates are the only ones in the field; in St. Boniface and Carleton the contest is between members of the Opposition.

The campaign has been a very warm one. The Government, so far as it has been able to do so, has forced the fighting on the issue of National schools, while the Opposition have chosen questions of administration for its battle-ground. The Opposition is made up of three elements, Dissentient Liberals who broke with the Government on its railway policy four years ago; old line Conservatives, and the French people, irrespective of their Dominion political affiliation. The Government is supported by the great mass of the Liberals and has a large following among the Conservatives.

The last general election took place on July 11, 1888, and out of 38 constituencies the Greenway Government carried 33. The administration found its majority top-heavy. Evidences of internal rebellion soon began to appear, and within three months of the election half-a-dozen well-known Liberal members had bolted the party on the question of making a contract with the Northern Pacific Railway to build branch lines throughout the Province. The revolt was led by The Free Press newspaper, which had been for years the leading Liberal newspaper. In time all the Liberals in the House returned to their allegiance, excepting Mr. R. P. Roblin, who has since that time been the Government's chief critic in the Legislature, while The Free Press has ever since fought the Government most determinedly.

In 1889 the Government announced its intention to wipe out the Protestant and Catholic schools and replace them with national schools. The official use of the French language was also to be stopped. This was followed by the resignation of Hon. Mr. Prendergast, who represented the French in the Cabinet, and the French Liberals, five in number, went into opposition, which by these accessions was swelled to about a dozen members. About a session ago Mr. Roblin was elected leader of the Opposition in the Legislature.

The school legislation erecting a system of public schools has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court and an appeal is now before the Privy Council. The Government announce as their policy that should the Privy Council uphold the contention of the Catholics that they cannot be constitutionally taxed for the support of non-sectarian schools they will be exempted from taxation, but will not be given power by the Legislature to tax themselves. As a consequence Catholics will have either to voluntarily band together and support schools or do without education. The English opposition in their platform approve of a national school system and bind themselves in the event of their success to ask for an amendment to the constitution should the decision of the Privy Council be adverse to the legislation of the province.

The outcome of the election is being warmly canvassed. The Government at the last session had a majority of 12 in a house of 38. Since then the number of members has increased to 40. There are 5 constituencies in which the Catholic vote is in the majority, and the return of Oppositionists in them is assured. In one or two other constituencies they hold the balance of power. The Government will therefore be handicapped by the certain loss of half a dozen seats.

Many People Shot Down by Soldiers After Sacking the Town.

MADRID, July 14.—There is widespread rioting in Spain against the octroi duties.

At Selva, in the Province of Tarragona, the octroi offices were burned yesterday by a mob. The collector and the employes of the offices when they rushed from the burning building were stoned and several of them were badly injured. The rioters, flushed with their success at the octroi offices, made an attack upon the town hall and carried it by storm. The mayor fled, but was wounded by the rioters. The mob took full possession of the building, forced open the safes and destroyed many documents. The police were powerless and the troops were called upon to suppress the disorders. The rioters showed an inclination to resist the soldiers, but the latter fired upon them killing several and wounding many others.

Death Has Not Shut Off Ta-ra-ra-Boom-de-Ay!

LONDON, July 14.—The report printed in New York of the death of Lottie Collins, the soubret, is unfounded. A correspondent of the International Telegram Company called at Miss Collins' lodgings in Canonbury to-day and saw the lady herself. She said she was never better in her life.

CUPID'S VAGARIES.

A Millionaire's Love Affair Ends in a Suit For Breach of Promise.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 14.—Mary E. Bellanger of Port Townsend has brought suit for $100,000 for breach of promise against Robert E. Craswell, millionaire land owner and elder in the Presbyterian Church of Bloomfield, Prince Edward Island. The plaintiff is a handsome young woman, 25 years old, residing in Port Townsend. Defendant is 63 years old. Miss Bellanger is a member of the Catholic Church, but she says that in consideration of the sum of $50,000 to be settled upon her at the time of marriage she agreed to become a Presbyterian. The defendant, it is alleged, sent her money and she bought a trousseau, but the same night a fire broke out and burned her wedding outfit.

The engagement was broken off, and then the young woman became engaged to another man. Her aged lover became jealous again, tempted her with a $50,000 settlement, and she jilted her second suitor. The Canadian lover went home, and afterwards wrote her to meet him at the Hotel Windsor, in Montreal, where they made arrangements with a minister to be married the next day, June 30, 1891. That night, June 29, the plaintiff alleges that Craswell made entrance to her room and the couple were ejected by the hotel proprietor.

SIX MEN MISSING.

They Went Out in a Small Boat and It is Thought They Were Drowned.

PORT CALDWELL, North Shore Lake Superior, July 14.—A fish boat left here on the 3rd inst. with three men in it for a pleasure trip. Thomas Monder, Alexander Cousnoux and Joseph Lamase. They called at Pic Island and took on three others, Dick Lamase, son of Joseph; Antoine Moses and Mohawk Moses. They all left for a sail and have not turned up yet. As they all live here and had no reason to leave it is supposed all are drowned. They were engaged in fishing here, except Mr Monder, who was section foreman here for the C.P.R.

"Only a Tramp."

IROQUOIS, Ont., July 14.—Yesterday a tramp attempted to board a freight train on the G.T.R. about three miles west of this town. He missed his footing and fell under the rear car, the wheels of which passed over him, nearly severing his legs from his body. He was brought to the station by a subsequent train and died soon after. He has a brother-in-law named John McGlade or McClay living at 505 William-street, Montreal.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

MORE LIBERAL GAINS WERE MADE YESTERDAY.

Hon. Edward Blake Elected By Over 3000 Majority—To Return to Canada in September—The Midlothian Phenomenon and the Comments of the London Press.

LONDON, July 15.—Yesterday's results have not quite realized Liberal expectations, but they are considered satisfactory as confirming the steady flow of gains. When the actual number of the Liberal members returned first overtopped the Conservatives the National club men indulged in prolonged jubilations. Henceforth Mr. Gladstone's total will be in the ascent. If yesterday was a shade disappointing to-day will make up for it, they claim.

Conservatives admit that rural voters are against them.

The feature of yesterday's selection was the fact that for the first time during the present elections more Opposition seats were at stake than Unionist seats. Out of 32 English counties polling 17 were Gladstonian and 15 Unionist. As far as is known at present the former remain Gladstonian.

The contest in two Scottish burghs secured Liberals in their seats and the pollings in eight Irish counties are reported as resulting in the return of McCarthyites. The Liberals thus calculate that to-day's results add 27 to the Gladstonian total.

Returns at midnight showed that the Conservatives had 238 members, the Liberals 230, the McCarthyites 51, the Liberal-Unionists 39, the Parnellites 7 and the Laborists 5. Ministerial total 287, Gladstonian total 293.

The aggregates of the polling up to the present time are as follows: Conservatives and Unionist 1,877,856, Gladstonian 2,030,577.

Where Gains Were Made.

The Liberals made gains yesterday in Suffolk, Kyston division of Yorkshire, and in the middle division of Norfolk and in Woodbridge.

People We Know.

Professor Sheldon, the well-known friend of Canada, has been defeated in Ramsay.

Mr. Coningsby Disraeli, nephew of the late Lord Beaconsfield, was elected in Altrincham, in Cheshire, the seat formerly occupied by Sir William Cunliffe Brooks.

In the north division of County Louth, Timothy Healy, who has already been elected to represent the north division of Wexford, was again successful. His majority is 699, the vote standing 2268 in his favor against 1569 for Callan, Parnellite.

Mr. Birkmyer of the Ayr boroughs, who was elected yesterday on the Gladstonian ticket, is a pronounced laborist and will probably join the Burns faction.

The independent laborists consist of five men, Messrs. Burns, Hartley, Wilson, Pickard and Birkmyer.

The announcement of the victory of Timothy Healy, in North Wexford, over Colonel McGrath, the Liberal-Unionist candidate, was received with disgust by the Parnellites, who have all along been praying for his defeat. It is doubtful if among the anti-Parnellites there is a more hated man than Mr. Healy, and his election is looked upon by some of the Parnellites as a personal affront. They derive some satisfaction, however, from the defeat of the anti-Parnellite candidate in East Clare, where Mr. William Redmond was elected by a majority of 446 votes.

Comments of the London Dailies on This Election Phenomenon.

LONDON, July 15.—The Standard says: "The reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority speaks volumes for the status of his party in Scotland. His son Herbert suffered a similar rebuff. The sooner he digests the moral the better. The revolt in Midlothian is so far the most conspicuous event of the present election."

The Daily News says: "The Tories will, naturally and properly, make much of the reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority. It is a striking phenomenon, account for it how we may. It was the disestablishment question that did the mischief. Col. Wauchope fought like a gentleman."

The Chronicle says: "The reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority is almost eccentric. It is partially due to the unsparing and unceasing influence of the Kirk, to which must be added the power of landlordism. But allowing all possible reductions, we still arrive at the conclusion that mere Gladstonianism as a symbol of personal rather than political faith is waning both in England and in Scotland."

The Chronicle concludes with an invitation to Mr. Chamberlain to return to his allegiance to Mr. Gladstone and endeavor to arrive at a solution of the Irish problem.

It is idle to speculate upon the cause of the reduction of Mr Gladstone's majority. His thinly veiled hostility to the Kirk probably co-operated with the enigmatical Home Rule policy to produce an emphatic reduction, amounting to a defeat.

"The result illustrates again, as it did in Oxford, Lancashire and Greenwich, the great characteristic of Mr. Gladstone as a representative, that the more he is known the less he is liked.

"It is obviously only a question of time when the Great Peripatetic will seek the hospitality of Archbishop Walsh and be content to sit for rebel Cork."

Notes from Midlothian.

EDINBURGH, July 15.—It is stated that sermons were preached against Gladstone in almost every established church in Midlothian last Sunday. It cannot be doubted that the church question was the chief factor in the contest. The telegram giving the preliminary result of the poll, addressed to Mr. Gladstone at Dalmeny Park, and giving the majority as 673, was received by his supporters with the utmost unbelief. Only one paper in Edinburgh took the responsibility to publish these figures. The Liberals appeared incapable of realizing the true state of affairs, and the telegram to Mr. Gladstone was withheld until the figures were confirmed.

Mr. Gladstone is not disheartened by the result of the polling in Midlothian. As an old parliamentary hand accustomed to reverses, he takes the reduction of the Liberal vote in that constituency with equanimity. Private telegrams from him to prominent Liberals in this city may be knew that Col. Wauchope was a strong opponent and had expected that the poll would show a heavily reduced Liberal majority. At the Conservative headquarters in London last night the managers of the party stated that they disapproved of a renewal of the contest in Midlothian until the next general election, and Col. Wauchope is fully in accord with them. It has been decided, however, to challenge John Morley's seat on his appointment as a Cabinet Minister.

Certain Liberals admit that another general election is close at hand, and regard it as inevitable during 1892, while some forecast dissolution on Home Rule as taking place in the spring.

Mr. Gladstone, in a communication to The Star, warns the Liberals to prepare for the next general election, as likely to come "like a thief in the night." Party agents on both sides have been instructed immediately the elections are over especially to watch the registration of votes, which concludes at the end of August. Local electoral organizations are to be maintained in full working order. As the reform of registration is certain to immensely strengthen the Liberals' vote the Gladstone Government is likely to introduce a "one man one vote measure," which the House of Lords could not venture to reject. The next session, according to ideas current at the National Liberal Club, will see the adoption of registration reform, but it will also see Home Rule thrown out of the House of Lords, followed by the dissolution of Parliament.

Mr. Gladstone Explains.

In an interview with the President of the Aberdeen Liberal Association Mr. Gladstone said: "The falling off in Midlothian was not due to the Irish question. About 2000 out of 13,000 electors voted against me on the church question. They were influenced by the exertions of the clergy from the pulpit. But witness the effect of their labors. The churchmen make the elections turn on the disestablishment question. They have demonstrated that a majority of the electors are favorable to disestablishment."

Mr. Gladstone strongly dwelt upon the fact that in Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen Liberal victories had been won in the teeth of the opposition of a majority of the newspapers. He was confident that the final result would be in favor of Home Rule and he was greatly pleased that the counties were doing their duty.

A Cool Reception.

Thousands of people gathered about the station in Aberdeen yesterday afternoon to witness the departure of Mr. Gladstone for Braemer, where he will remain for a week's rest after the fatigues of his Midlothian campaign. He was heartily cheered.

There was a large crowd awaiting Mr. Gladstone on his arrival at Braemer. He was given a rather cool reception.

Rumors are conflicting as to whether the Tories will make Mr. Gladstone fight for his seat when he comes up for re-election after accepting the Premiership, but it is generally believed that they will. In that case, of course, Col. Wauchope will again be his opponent.

It has been positively decided by the Conservatives to fight for Mr. Morley's seat at Newcastle when he comes up for re-election.

The Fighting in Ireland Assuming Serious Proportions—Police Defeated.

DUBLIN, July 15.—It is reported here that the rival political factions at Portadown, 10 miles northeast of Armagh on the Ulster Railway, engaged in a serious riot. The fight was waged with desperation by both sides, and when the police attempted to restore order found themselves powerless. They were forced to retire to the barracks, but in a short time they reappeared with arms and again tried to disperse the mob of infuriated and howling men. The mob comprised 2000 men, and they turned on the police and repulsed them. A number of shots were fired and it is stated that several men were seriously injured.

Further Rioting.

DUBLIN, July 15.—A savage election riot occurred yesterday at Festiniog, in Merionetshire, Wales. When the Conservative candidate for the first time attempted to address a meeting, a mob stormed the platform, overpowering and maltreating the police who were on guard. The police, with the Conservative candidate, at once took to their heels, and were pursued for four miles out of town. The candidate's carriage was smashed, the windows of the Bengren Hotel were shattered and many civilians were badly injured.

Owen Mackin, a veteran, who was assaulted by a Parnellite mob in Dundalk, died in the hospital last night of his injuries. His last words were: "I am for Healy to the backbone." During the polling there was much rowdyism. Healy was assaulted but not seriously hurt.

An election riot is reported at Port Adowa, in Ulster. A mob of 2000 men repulsed the police. Several men have been seriously injured.

RISING FROM ITS ASHES.

Business Being Resumed and Buildings Springing Up in St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 15.—Mrs. Stephens and daughter and Mrs. Hendricks are missing, and are supposed to have been burned. Two serious cases in the hospital are expected to succumb.

The Court House and several other buildings were blown up yesterday.

Marines are patroling the city, which is perfectly quiet.

Business men are recommencing operations and temporary buildings are springing up in various quarters.

The warship Blake left yesterday morning, having accomplished her work. The Emerald remains.

Offers of relief are coming in fast. A strong, representative committee has control of all relief matters, by authority of the Government, and is working arduously.

A small daily, The Despatch, was issued yesterday, after incredible exertion by The Herald staff.

Cable despatches announce that London has already subscribed £700 and Liverpool £1200 towards the relief of the sufferers by the St. John's Nfld., fire.

Halifax Gives $20,000.

HALIFAX, July 14.—Halifax's donation to the St. John's sufferers so far amounts to $20,000.

Gold Standard for India.

CALCUTTA, July 15.—A large public meeting was held here yesterday under the auspices of the Indian Currency Association. It was resolved to petition the House of Commons, in the event of no decision being arrived at by the International Monetary Conference at Washington, to take immediate steps to introduce a gold standard in India.

Hudson Bay Company.

LONDON, July 15.—The venerable knight from Montreal presided yesterday at the annual meeting of the Hudson Bay Company, which was unexpectedly free from heat or acrimonious discussion. The report was adopted without dissent; the old directorate were re-elected and Mr. Chipman, the new commissioner at Winnipeg, enthusiastically sustained in his economic campaign.

JUMPED OVER THE BRINK

A TORONTONIAN SUICIDES AT NIAGARA FALLS.

Coolly Wrote a Note Explaining his Reasons and Then Leaped to Death—The Suicide was a Waiter Belonging to the Queen City.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 15.—A special from Niagara Falls yesterday says: About 2 p.m. a young man supposed to be from Buffalo jumped into the raging torrent at Prospect Point and was carried over over the American falls. He left a note which was written:

DEAR FATHER, MOTHER, BROTHER AND SISTER,—Pardon me for what I have done, but it was all done for that woman.
(Signed) NOBLE KENNEY.

The card on which this was written bore the address of Madame Percy, dressmaking parlors, No. 263 Maryland-street, Buffalo, N.Y. Kenney was lately a resident of Buffalo, a waiter working for Capt. Burslem at the Cafe de Paris, in Washington-street. He left the restaurant this morning, saying to Mrs. Burslem that he was going out for a short time only. That was the last seen of him about the restaurant.

Details of the Suicide.

The suicide occurred at Prospect Point at 2 o'clock. Kenney walked quietly down to the point, where stood a number of ladies and children. He was seen to stop a moment and pull out a card and pencil and hastily write something on it. Carefully placing the pencil in his pocket he laid the card on the top of the stone guard wall along the river bank, then lifting his hat from his head he tossed it over into the water, and placing his hand on the iron rail on the top of the stone wall, he gave a leap and sprang into the rushing waters, striking the water at a point not 12 feet from the brink. In an instant he was seen to pass swiftly over the falls and disappear. The whole matter did not occupy a space of more than two minutes. His coolness of manner was such that he did not attract any particular attention, and not until he had made the final leap was any cry made. A number of women screamed and men shouted, and in an instant the point was packed by an immense throng of excited people all straining their necks and trying to get some trace of the body in the gorge.

When the facts of the case became known to the park authorities there was a hasty move for the bottom of the inclined railway. Here a boat was procured by two of the park police, who rowed out into the river in hope of recovering the remains. Somehow the officers missed them, though hundreds of people at the top of the bank saw the body plainly as it came up from the river and started to float down with the current. The remains were seen for some minutes floating along the surface and they sank out of sight.

From the Burslems it was learned this afternoon that Kenney came here from Toronto on July 1. His father followed on July 4 and both stopped at the Cafe de Paris, where the son secured a job as a waiter. Kenney was 21 years of age. He was a tall, fine-looking man and was neat in his dress.

NEW YORK TO NIAGARA.

The Canadian Pacific Pushing Its Interests Around the Great Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., July 15.—Direct communication with New York seems now about to be realized. Arrangements are about completed for the obtaining of a right of way over one of the American railways from Suspension Bridge to New York and other Eastern points.

A bridge will be constructed over the Niagara chasm between the present cantilever and new Suspension Bridge, and will consist of a single arched steel span, resting on buttresses on either bank some 1200 feet apart.

When this line is established the Canadian Pacific Railroad will have the finest obtainable view of the Falls. Its trains will no doubt be run along the bank of the river, past the Falls and rapids.

This scheme shows that the Canadian Pacific Railroad will cater for the great majority of the World's Fair traffic.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in The Queen City.

TORONTO, July 15.—The receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by one load of fall wheat at 80c, and three loads of oats at 33c. Hay was in fair supply at $12 to $14 for old and $10 to $11 for new. Straw was wanted at $10.

On 'change business was very dull, the only offering being a car of wheat by sample at 70c with 41c bid. No. 2 Manitoba hard wheat was wanted at 85c without bids.

Another Toronto Drowning Accident.

TORONTO, July 15.—Still another name has been added to the list of drowning fatalities in Toronto Bay. George Marshall, aged 8, who lived with his parents at 36 Mission-avenue, was one of a number of children who were yesterday enjoying an outing at Centre Island through the generosity of the Fresh Air Fund Committee. After dinner young Marshall and three or four boys made for the lagoon to bathe. Marshall waded out some distance and, remarking to his companions: "Boys, I'm going to dive," plunged head first into the water. This was the last seen of him until 25 minutes afterwards, when his body was brought to the surface. The body was found in about 14 feet of water entangled in weeds.

A Street Car Mishap.

TORONTO, July 15.—William Kimble, a merchant tailor residing at 276 Spadina-avenue, was boarding a moving street car nearly opposite his residence, when he missed his step on the platform, and the wheels passed over his left foot. He will lose it.

Young's Point.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

A large block of 40,000 logs belonging to the Dickson Lumber Co., under the above foremanship of Mr. James Lyle, George Lemon, clerk, passed through here on Saturday. The manner in which the men conducted themselves while here is a credit to them, their foreman and the company by whom they are employed.

During the past week a large block of logs belonging to the Hilliard, Rathbun, and the Lakefield Lumber Companies, are being sorted in Clear Lake. Mr. James Burris of Campbellford, is looking after the interests of the Rathbun Co. and we are safe in saying that no log having the Star mark will go astray.

Several drives of logs belonging to the Dickson, Rathbun, Gilmour and Lakefield Lumber Companies have been held in Clear Lake Narrows during the past week owing to head winds, and have caused considerable trouble to the steamers, which are unable to reach the landings at some of the islands.

Mr. George Cochrane, of Peterborough, has been here inspecting the timber which Mr. C. Young has taken out for the waterworks dam near Peterborough. He found the timber to be first-class in every respect and it is now being floated down the Otonabee to its destination.

Yesterday a large party of Orangemen from the Dummer lodges passed through here en route for Lakefield, where they spent a very enjoyable day. While here they conducted themselves in a very respectable manner, and their conduct was all that could be desired.

Owing to the fine warm weather of the last few days campers and cottagers are flocking to Stony Lake and the population is being largely augmented every day. Fishing, which owing to high water during the early part of the season was poor is now improving, several large catches having been made this week. Mr. Ed. Brown, at McIntyre's Island, hooked a 'lunge which tipped the beam at 37½ lbs., and Mr. Frank Bardette caught 28 bass and 7 'lunge in a short time at the mouth of Eel's Creek.

The following guests registered at the Carleton House during the last few days:—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ryan, Meriden, Conn., Mr. G. S. Overton, Newark, N.J., Miss M. Riley, Messrs. Geo. Riley, J. Fanning, E. Good, P. Smiley, J. J. Munro, J. N. McCreary, Jas. Cahill and Geo. Cochrane, Peterborough.

Mr. Wm. McFarlane, of the Carleton House, has on exhibition a pet deer, and all who see it are delighted with the little beauty. Many of its admirers have desired to purchase it, but as "Mac" intends going on a deer hunt in the fall, he thinks it desirable to keep one on hand.

Christian Endeavour Evangelization.

An interesting account of evangelising work done by the Christian Endeavour Society in India was given by Mr. Karmarkar at the convention in New York. Twenty members preached six hundred times. Thirty-six members conducted twelve mission Sunday-schools among the heathen, at which there was an attendance of 1,200 Hindu children. The society distributed 16,000 tracts. Since 1888 four or five new societies have been formed at Bombay, and they are all vigorously at work. The movement was begun independently of the American movement.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. dw

READ THIS CAREFULLY.—Professors Lallemand and Perrin, assisted by the chemist Duroy, after a thorough study of the effects of alcohol and a series of observations, on which they have written a book, have noticed the peculiar tendency of alcohol to accumulate in the brain, the liver, and the kidneys, where it is found after the death of inebriates. According to their observations the selective power of alcohol for the brain is nearly twice as great as that for the liver, and nearly three times as great as that for other tissues. The Father Mathew Remedy is the only specific known against the deleterious effects of alcohol.

The Manitoba Elections.

The Rev. Dr. Bryce, of Winnipeg has given to the Ottawa Journal his view of the issues involved in the Manitoba elections, which will be held on the 23rd instant. He believes Mr. Greenway will be returned by a good majority. The Opposition, he says, is virtually led by Mr. Roblin, with Mr. Hagel, a barrister, formerly of Toronto, and Mr. Martin a French-Canadian, as his principal colleagues. After describing the position of parties on the Separate School question, Dr. Bryce says the Government claims the support of the country also on its railway policy, which has resulted in the extension of branch railways to the coal fields of the Souris and different parts of the Province, opening up the country for settlement and facilitating the transportation of all kinds of produce. The Opposition is strongly in favour of the Hudson Bay Railway. The Government is willing to vote $1,500,000 towards building the road, but the Opposition seems willing to give a still heavier guarantee. The immigration policy of the Government is one of its chief claims to the confidence of the country. It claims to have brought in large numbers of the most desirable classes of immigrants, and adopted vigorous measures in the older Provinces, as well as in the old country, to bring the best settlers to Manitoba. Both parties agree upon the importance of a vigorous immigration policy.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

Nice Plants For Hanging Baskets.

To make your hanging basket a success you should group in one pot plants of known varieties and those whose habits are well understood. The engraving represents a basket exceptionally well chosen. In the center, for the one upright plant, is a specimen of D. sœna perminalis; its leaves of shaded crimson give it an almost tropical charm, and its welcome brightness will cheer the dark hours of winter. Variegated dracœnas may be had in shades of cream, bright scarlet and mahogany red. Around this central plant the basket holds several ferns, the adiantum (maiden-hair) and athyrium (one of the spleenworts), a gonilophlebium and a spectabilis. These are all plants that like a warm but well aired room, plenty of moisture and shade, and the basket should be hung accordingly. In airing rooms, do not allow the wind to blow directly upon ferns; the waving is disastrous to the fragile leaves and frond stems, and the chill may be dangerous.

One upright plant is usually enough for a basket, unless it is very large. Running plants may then be set about the edge of the pots and may be trained to run up the three supporting chains or taught to trail below; either hanging loosely or confined to some methodical arrangement beneath. Three oxalis bulbs form sufficient upright central foliage for a basket ten inches in diameter. Variegated ivy, coliseum ivy, the red or the white blooming ice plant, the Madiera vine, the German ivy, the Wandering Jew, the morning glory and the drooping verbena are only a few of the plants that come to mind at the first summons as pretty to trail over the sides of a basket. One of the prettiest vines, to run up the wire chains, is the variegated pink and green leaved ivy-geranium; a young plant in a few months will show itself a free bloomer as well as a ready runner. The Cyclamen Persicum is adapted by beauty of bloom and foliage to a place in the center of a basket. So also are hyacinths and lilies of the valley.

A "basket" may be an oblong zinc tray set in a rustic box; its edging plants may be of the pretty branching mosses that will soon give the box a green border, and it may be filled wholly with bulbs; in the center two tulips or more; each side hyacinths, lillies of the valley and an inside border next the moss of the many hued crocuses. In all baskets any low growing plant or some of the many mosses may be set to fill the spaces between the edging plants and the central plants. The nasturtium is another bright vine that is making itself a favorite in the house. The bloom is not quite as large as in its freer out-of-door life, but it is very charming nevertheless. If coleus and plants of similar habit are used for central pieces, they must be ruthlessly pruned; not only pinched back at the top, but cut "to right of them" and "to left of them," else in height and breadth they will soon over-shadow all.

Sure Death to Thistles.

I had a piece of land which was badly infested with the Canada thistle and after putting on all the fresh stable manure I had I plowed it the first time about June 25, a year ago, with a plow which cut off everything as wide as I turned the furrow, I rolled and harrowed it down and as soon as a few of the thistles made their appearance, which was about three or four weeks after plowing, I again plowed it; with the same plow about 4 inches deep and by several harrowings kept the surface mellow until about Aug. 20, when I plowed it deep and sowed it to fall wheat. At the time of this plowing there was not a thistle to be seen on the fallow and now after having cut the wheat, which was a very fine crop, the field is perfectly clean and not a sign of a thistle or other weed is to be seen. By thoroughly summer fallowing Canada thistle can be killed in a year.—F. L. Walther, in Farm and Home.

Lives of others oft remind us
Married life may be sublime.

We trust to be forgiven this parody of lines from Longfellow's immortal "Psalm of Life." Husbands who are wise and thoughtful know that the happiness of the home depends largely on the health of the mistress of the home. Many are the tasks which daily confront her. How can a woman contend against the trials and worries of housekeeping, if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weaknesses peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favourite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy sold by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper. b

Where the Money Goes.

The cost of raising a colt is not felt very much, for nearly all that he eats is raised on the farm and what grain is bought can be turned into good manure help raise more hay or other crops. Then, is it not better to have a colt to sell every year or two for $150 or $200, than to pay that much for a horse?

When the colt is three years old he will earn his oats and in another year will return a good profit on his work. During the busy season at planting and harvest, nearly everyone is short a horse or two and at this time two or three colts could be worked in, half a day for each, and would soon pay their year's board.

Then again, there are many hillsides and back fields which cannot be tilled. In many places it is almost impossible to keep sheep on account of the ravages by dogs and there is not much profit in raising beef. Horses would do well and these rocky, hilly fields are just what is needed to give the colts good feet, bones and muscle. The soft level lands of the West have a tendency to develop large, flat feet, spongy bone and only one set of muscles, which is a great disadvantage on our hard hilly roads.

As to the class of horses which farmers can most profitably raise, every one must decide for himself. Don't think that all the good qualities and advantages can be found in one horse or in one breed, for if this were the case there would be no use for other breeds. The medium-sized draft horse of 1,300 to 1,500 lbs. is excellent for farm work and always finds a ready market. The large stylish coacher will pull a plow or a carriage and the right customer will pay well for him. The high-stepping, short-jointed cob or hackney is very fashionable and useful. The speedy trotter, also, has a place, but the little 15-hand, 900-lb, light-boned bundle of nerves, spavins and everything else which go to make up the trotting-bred mongrel has no place on the farm or anywhere else. Breed a sound mare to a sound horse and be sure that both have good feet, bone, wind and ancestors. Don't be afraid of paying $25 service fee, and with this combination you are pretty sure of getting a good profitable colt.

Ayers' Pills promptly remove the causes of sick and nervous headaches. These Pills speedily correct irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and are the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use. No one should be without them.

Some Horse Items of Interest.

The fine horse Nutgrove, owned by Mr. James McGuire, of Belleville, proprietor of the Albion Hotel, has already a representative in the 2 30 list. At Belmont Park, Philadelphia, on the 5th inst, the bay mare Christine, by Nutgrove, dam Scottiegood, by George Wilkes, won the first two heats of the 2 34 class, trotting in 2 30, 2.32½. Christine is 4 years old, and last year got a 3 year old record of 2 32½. She is the first of the Nutgroves to enter the charmed circle, but more of them will follow.

So far this year's Canadian additions to the 2.30 trotting and 2 25 pacing lists is six—two trotters and four pacers, as follows:—Clara K., 2.29½, by Clarion Chief; Black Morrill, 2 30, by Ben. Merrill, trotters; Cornerseker, 2 23½, by Texas; Dick Smith, 2 25, by Prince Imperial; Gertie B., 2.24½, by Fulton; and Rosa B., 2 24½, by Bob Ingersoll, pacer, besides two or three other pacers that have beaten 2 30. It will be noticed that so far this season Cornerseker holds the place of honour.

A SPLENDID PROGRAMME.

New Buildings to be Erected.

The number of new buildings and residences being erected in Peterborough this summer is fully up to the average in the building boom. Mr. Wm. Blackwell, architect, Water street, has prepared plans for the erection of the following residences. A handsome brick house for Dr. Greer, of Coldsprings, on the corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets. A fine residence for Mr. John Armstrong, to be erected on the Donaldson property, Water street; a house for Mr. S. Morley which will be built on a fine site near the Barnardo Home; a fine brick residence for Mr. C. B. Rentley, on Stewart street; and a Presbyterian Sunday school building on the corner of Reid and Wolfe streets, dimensions 72x40 feet.

A WORTHY OBJECT.

Retiring from Business.

Mr. H. S. Griffin, as will be seen by advertisement in another column, is disposing of his dry goods stock. He will retire from business and remove to Boston, where he has secured a lucrative position, and consequently he must clear out his stock in order to close up his business as rapidly as possibly. Mr. Griffin has been in business here for about six years. He thinks well of the town both as a business centre and a place of residence, but the chance of improving his financial position in Boston is too favorable to be ignored. Mr. Griffin's departure will make a regrettable break in the ranks of our advanced citizens, as well as in George street Methodist church circles, in which he has occupied a prominent and important position.

TICKETS ONLY 25C.

Home From the Metropolis.

Mr. A. J. Johnston, delegate from Peterborough County to the great international convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour returned home from New York yesterday. Mr. R. J. Colville will return home from the metropolis to-morrow. Mr. Johnston expresses himself as highly pleased with the convention at which 80,000 Christian Endeavourers were present. The sessions of the great body were held in the Madison Square Gardens, no building being large enough to hold the thousands present. The proceedings began on Thursday and closed on Sunday night with one of the greatest prayer meetings ever held. The Gothamites did all in their power to entertain the visitors from both this side and the other side of the Atlantic.

REFRESHMENTS OBTAINABLE.

The Band Concert To-Night.

No true and loyal citizen of Peterborough should miss the band concert in the skating rink to-night, which promises to be the greatest musical event of the season. The musical talent of the members of the Peterborough band is unexceptionally good, but it cannot be brought out to the best effect with the old, worn-out and battered instruments, which the band has used continuously for thirteen years. New and more modern ones are needed, and for the purchase of these, money is needed. The band have always given their services freely for concerts in the park and garden parties, and it would be small reciprocation of gratitude and good will on the part of the citizens if they did not turn out in multitudinous numbers to-night. The concert begins at 8 o'clock sharp. An interesting programme has been prepared; the object is a deservedly popular one; and the admission is only 25 cents. Go one, and everybody, man, woman and child, and give the band a helping hand.

—The Methodist church Sunday-school of Port Hope, Rev. W. J. Crothers, M.A., pastor, and the Bridge street Methodist church, Belleville, Rev. E. N. Baker, pastor, picnicked at Massassaga Park, three miles below Belleville, yesterday. About 1,500 in all took in the great trip.

—The secretary of the Peterborough Cricket Club has received word from East Toronto that they will play the return match here the first week in September. The Campbellford Cricket Club have also written stating that they will not be able to play here until the last week in August.

—A meeting of the Peterborough Gun Club will be held this evening at the hardware store of Messrs. Mackleston & Co. for the purpose of arranging matches with outside clubs. There should be a large attendance of members. The club is holding a shoot at Riverside Park this afternoon.

A rather interesting shooting match with pistols took place in Mark Lockington's shooting gallery yesterday morning. The match was between a Lakefield crack shot, a prominent manufacturer and a hardware dealer. The latter carried off the honours, striking the bull's eye 4 times in 10 shots. The others failed to score.

—The town council will meet in Committee of the Whole to night. A special meeting will be held on Monday evening. The principal business that will claim the attention of the session will be the passing of the by-law authorizing the town to raise the sum of $25 000 for the purpose of constructing an outfall sewer on Townsend street.

—Andrew Peeling an employee of the Trent Valley Woolen Mills Campbellford met with a serious accident on Friday last which nearly cost him his life. He was lacing a belt which caught on a revolving horizontal bar and the sleeve of his blouse catching he was thrown twice around, his body being forced between the shafting and the wall. The bone of his arm was broken and the muscles crushed. It was found necessary to amputate the arm below the elbow.

—The city council of Toronto decided to grant $5,000 to the St. John's sufferers, and Montreal subscriptions in aid of the destitute amounted to a total of $18 000.

—Crops in the townships around Peterborough are looking fine, and far above the average for the past ten years. Owing to recent heavy rains fall wheat is rusting, but to what extent cannot be estimated. Spring wheat is also rusting a little. Hay will be a heavy crop. New meadows were killed out some last winter, but are very heavy in places.

—The trial of Mrs. Walker and George Calder for alleged house-breaking came up before County Magistrate Ellison at the police court this morning. The evidence of Miss McLaren, mistress of the house, was taken. The case is still going on this afternoon. Mr. A. P. Ponsonby appeared for the defendants, and Mr. H. B. Stone for the plaintiffs.

—Some extensive repairs are going on in the Ashburnham public school. Repairs are being made to the foundation and headmaster's room—re-floored. The old town hall building is also receiving attention. The porch on the north side has been torn down, and seats are being placed in what is known as the old council chamber for the accommodation of a new teacher owing to the crowded state of the school.

—The work of paving the drill shed with cedar blocks is progressing rapidly under the supervision of Capt. Langford. Six men are working at the job. The ground was ploughed up and then levelled flat with a roller. The blocks are being fitted in on top of the ground and when the work is done sand will be thrown over them to fill up the crevices and holes. After this the work will be covered with a coat of tar.

—Once again it is necessary to call the attention of merchants and others in regard to sweeping and throwing paper out on the main streets of the town. The practice by the exercise of a little care and trouble could be avoided, and the beauty of the streets would be greatly improved. Papers strewn alongside the road give a town a slovenly and dirty appearance, and flattered by the wind prove an excellent signal to start horses running away.

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

Baseball Jottings.

The Edison Baseball Club will leave tomorrow forenoon at 11 41 o'clock for Port Hope, where they will play a match with the Port Hope nine in the afternoon. An excursion will be run and a large number intend going down. The fare is only 50c. The electricians will place the following nine in the field: Smith, c.; Lomas, p.; Forster, 1b.; LePage, 2b; Parks, ss; Duckworth, 3b; Sweetlove, l.f.; Pomfret, c.f.; and Landers, r.f. Lomas is a new pitcher for the team. He will arrive here from Hamilton to-night, and will make a strong acquisition to the Edisons.

Something must be wrong with the Lindsay baseball club or its secretary. The Peterboroughs have endeavoured in vain to obtain a return match, and the Edisons have challenged the Lindsays again and again—receiving no reply.

There is a great deal of talk among the baseball enthusiasts about holding a great baseball tournament here during the latter part of August. The scheme is a good one, and should receive a hearty support from all the citizens favourable to manly sports. $100 will be raised, to be donated to the visiting teams, $50 to the 1st, $30 to the 2nd, $20 to the 3rd. If the amount can be raised the tournament will take place on the P.A.A.A. grounds, and Cobourg, Port Hope, Lindsay, Belleville, Peterborough and other places will take an active part in it.

Lacrosse Scintillations.

The Belleville Ontario referring to Wednesday's lacrosse match between Belleville and Peterborough, says: "The Peterborough lacrosse club played the return match with Belleville on the cricket grounds yesterday with the result that the visitors got three goals to one. The Peterborough players are a fine looking lot of fellows and capable of standing a long siege on the field. Physically Belleville was no match for their opponents, although they played a good game. The visitors play an easy and graceful game." The Intelligencer says: "W. J. McLeod left last night for his home in Cornwall after completing his commercial course. He will be missed on the lacrosse team, for whom he played goal in a first-class manner. The Peterborough Club is composed of a gentlemanly lot of players who play a first class game.

The Kingston Whig says: "In the lacrosse match between Peterborough and Belleville yesterday afternoon, the former won by a score of 3 to 1. J. Elliott, of the Kingston team, played second home and W. Reid defence. Peterborough put Stephenson, the great lacrosseist from Woodstock, checking Elliott, whom they were sure belonged to the Capitals of Ottawa. The only goal Belleville secured was made by Elliott, but from the looks of his arms this morning he had to work to get the ball through the stakes. The Peterboroughs took every opportunity to use Elliott roughly as he was playing the whole game." The above paragraph is as false as it is malicious Stephenson never played with a Woodstock team in his life, and has been a member of and played with the Peterborough lacrosse for the past four years. Elliott did not score the goal for Belleville, it was put through the flags by a fluke. If Elliott is a specialist of Kingston's best lacrosse players, as he is credited with being, the junior home team can wipe the Kingstons out of sight, and it would be impossible to forecast their fate if Peterborough's senior team crossed sticks with them. Elliott and Reid were nowhere in comparison with the Peterboroughs, the smallest men on the team checking them easily. Elliott thought that the Peterboroughs were not up to the old round arm dodge, and he found himself disagreeably surprised.

Police Court.

FRIDAY, July 15th.

The enlarged case of John and Hannah Bell, of Monaghan township, charged with allowing noxious weeds to grow on their premises next to the Edison Company's property, came up again this morning. The thistles had been cut by the defendants, and the magistrate consequently imposed a lighter fine, that of $1 and costs ($4 20 in all).

The case of Wm. Herrington, of Banismore, charged with malicious injury to property on June 23rd, came up this morning. The alleged damage done was that which consisted in the defendant kicking a 3-story wedding cake out of the hands of an employee of Mr L. Potvin while he was proceeding up Hunter street. Herrington's brother was present at the court and pleaded guilty to the offence for his brother. The magistrate imposed a fine of $5, allowing complainant $5 for compensation, and costs $7 25, making $17 25 in all, a rather expensive price for a bit of fun.

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM VARIOUS FIELDS.

To Run a Mile a Minute—The Novel Device For Rapid Travelling Invented by a Michigan Inventor—In the Electrical World.

Prof. Charles Bartholomew, of Jackson, Mich., has evolved from his inventive mind a novel device for rapid travelling. This queer contrivance he calls a unicycle, and an idea of what it is may be gained from the following illustration and description, given by the Chicago Evening Post:

It is composed of one large wheel, eight feet in diameter, which is supplied with a rubber tire; on each side is attached a circular rim, seven feet in diameter; from the latter are spokes which are connected with the large wheel; extending across from the outer rims or seven-foot wheels are cross pieces, to which the axle is attached. The operator sits on a seat under the axle and propels the machine by pedals similar to an ordinary safety bicycle, and guides it by means of handles like those of a bicycle. Thus provided for the rider can always maintain a perpendicular position, and as brakes are also provided, the operator will be able to turn or stop at will. The machine is light in construction and easy of propulsion. Its circumference is twenty-four feet, and it is estimated that a speed of over a mile a minute can be attained upon a level roadway, and with a perfected machine Prof. Bartholomew claims a speed can be made with comparative safety of seventy miles an hour. He has already received an offer of $100 per week to make exhibitions upon the race track of one of the largest exposition grounds of the United States. He intends patenting his invention as soon as he gets everything working to his satisfaction.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Ayer's Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Ayer's Dandruff has no equal.

Do Not Handle the Bees.

The opinion is gaining ground that it is best to disturb and handle bees as little as possible. Preference is given to section honey by most consumers, and many of our best beekeepers prefer to raise it rather than the extracted article, because it requires less interference with the interior economy of the hive. Extracting disturbs the whole colony more or less and causes the bees considerable trouble in setting their house in order again.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. To Preserve
The richness, color, and beauty of the hair, the greatest care is necessary, much harm being done by the use of worthless dressings. To be sure of having a first-class article, ask your druggist or perfumer for Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is absolutely superior to any other preparation of the kind. It restores the original color and fullness to hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. It keeps the scalp cool, moist, and free from dandruff. It heals itching humors, prevents baldness, and imparts to a silken texture and lasting fragrance. No toilet can be considered complete without this most popular and elegant of all hair-dressings.

"My hair began turning gray and falling out when I was about 25 years of age. I have lately been using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and it is causing a new growth of hair of the natural color."—R. J. Lowry, Jones Prairie, Texas.

"Over a year ago I had a severe fever, and when I recovered, my hair began to fall out, and what little remained turned gray. I tried various remedies, but without success, till at last I began to USE
Ayer's Hair Vigor, and now my hair is growing rapidly and is restored to its original color."—Mrs. Annie Collins, Dighton, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for nearly five years, and my hair is moist, glossy, and in an excellent state of preservation. I am forty years old, and have ridden the plains for twenty-five years."—Wm. Henry Ott, alias "Mustang Bill," Newcastle, Wyo.

IN THE ELECTRICAL WORLD.

Lighting of Trains and Other Advances in the Wonderful Science.

The electric lighting of railway trains is receiving considerable attention at present, and it is predicted that progress in that direction will be rapid and substantial within a few years. Three systems have been tried—direct driving of dynamos by small engines; discharge from accumulators without engines or dynamos; driving by dynamos by connections with the axles of trucks. The first method has received the most attention in this country. The bogie truck is used here exclusively, and attempts to drive dynamos by connections with it have failed because no provision was made for maintaining the armature shaft and axle parallel at all angles of the truck, and because sand and dirt damaged the mechanism under the car. The problem has not been abandoned, however. Trials under the first system have been successful to a certain extent. In England the rigid wheel base is used, and the third system seems to be the most promising there, according to a competent authority. Accumulators are necessary to supply the lights not only while the train is at rest, but when it is running at a speed too slow to drive the dynamos at a useful voltage. The difficulties are peculiar and the mechanical and electrical details are complicated, and, as it is said that the light presents no advantages to passengers, the whole thing is simply a question of relative cost.

Storage batteries have been employed with varying success. Until recently the failures were due to insufficient capacities of the batteries and the deterioration of the batteries, it is said. Improved methods o manufacture, and more intelligent care in handling, have, to a great extent, overcome objections and increased the life of a battery. Operations under the first system have been improved gradually in the country during the past five years. A vertical single-stroke engine in the baggage car was substituted after a few trials by a three-cylinder reciprocating engine with three-inch cylinders and four-inch stroke. The engine and the dynamoes are bolted to a cast iron bed plate and steam is furnished by the locomotive. Batteries are used in connection with the dynamo, each car having thirty-two cells under the center. The total number of lamps for a six-car train is 172, and the wiring is arranged so that the batteries will supply sufficient current if the connection with the dynamo is broken. Running the dynamo by connection with the axle of the truck is considered the ideal way, and electrical engineers believe that a reliable connection with the bogie truck will be made within a year.

The use of electric lights in searching for the wounded at night after a battle has been suggested by the results of experiments by the Austrian Medical Service under conditions as nearly as possible similar to those that would occur in actual warfare. The value of powerful search lights has been proved in naval affairs, and at Suakim and elsewhere on open ground. In the experiments referred to the soldiers carried knapsacks containing electric lanterns fed by storage batteries.

An electric light bath is one of the newest applications of the use of electricity. In a cabinet of the usual size of vapor baths the body is enclosed except the head. The incandescent lamps are arranged in groups around the body, numbering in all about sixty. The light is reflected by the polished nickel sides of the cabinet. In the bath the temperature of a patient is raised to 148° in ten minutes, and the effect of the strong light is to brown the skin as if it had been exposed to the sun. It is said that the effects of the light and vapor baths combined are without the usual depressing effect of the vapor bath alone.

The latest electric launch is operated by the motive power of seventy-eight storage cells, under the seats and floor, and a four-horse-power motor that can be increased to twelve-horse-power on a stretch. Her length is 34 feet, beam 6 feet, draught 26 inches. She can carry twenty-five to thirty passengers, and she is intended for the passenger traffic on the enclosed waters of the World's Fair.

The Great Female Medicine.

They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. DR. CREAM HELD ON A CHARGE OF MURDER.

Meeting in Spain—Several Persons Killed—The Disaster in Savoy—The Queen Donates $250 to the Sufferers by the St. John's Flood—General Cables.

LONDON, July 14.—The jury which has been investigating the death of Matilda Colver, the girl who died in October last and an examination of whose remains showed that she had been poisoned with strychnine, yesterday returned a verdict of wilful murder against Thomas Neill, alias Dr. Cream, the blackmailer.

Gave Pills to a Chambermaid.

QUEBEC, July 14.—Revelations only now made public lead to the belief that Dr. Thomas Neil Cream while in Quebec attempted to make another victim by poisoning. The matter has been kept very quiet and only leaked out accidentally. The facts are these: A day or two ago one of the servants at Blanchard's Hotel told Mr. Barthe, the manager, that one of the chambermaids of the hotel, Matilda Nadeau, had nearly escaped poisoning at the hands of Cream. Mrs. Pelletier, the proprietress, on being informed of this had the girl brought to her and made to explain. The Nadeau girl is some 22 years of age and is said to be rather pretty. She had occasion to meet Cream in the hotel, and as it was his custom to speak to all the girls he soon spoke to her and did so every time they met, trying to ingratiate himself into her favor. On some pretext or another he told her one day that she complained of being unwell that she needed some medicine badly, and that he just had what she needed. He gave her two dark colored pills, saying to her, "Take one at tea time and be sure and take the other as you go to bed." She promised to do this. At supper time she took the first pill, and went about her work as usual until late in the evening, when she began to feel a burning pain in the stomach. She decided not to take the second pill, but went down to the kitchen and complained to the other girls that she was very sick, but not saying what had happened. There were purple blotches in her face and her hands clinched involuntarily, and she felt a general unnatural sensation all over the body. She drank no less than five glasses of milk in the hope of removing the burning sensation. The girls wrapped her in flannel, and finally after much suffering she recovered.

THE SAVOY DISASTER.

Victims of the Terrible Landslide—Searching for the Bodies.

PARIS, July 14.—The work of searching for the bodies of those who lost their lives in the disaster at St. Gervais de les Bains yesterday morning was continued to-day. The bodies of those already recovered are torn and mangled most horribly. In many cases the heads were torn from the bodies, while in others the arms and legs had been cut off by the sharp rocks or huge masses of ice that had passed over them. Again some bodies were found that had been crushed out of all semblance to humanity. The scene at St. Gervais is indeed a most heartrending one. When the glacier slid down into the Ben Nant, on which mountain stream St. Gervais de les Bains is situated, the current was dammed and the water rose rapidly behind the huge wall of ice. Finally the pressure became so great that the dam was broken, and then roaring, grinding and crushing the immense volume of water and tremendous masses of ice started down the ravine. Many of the victims were overtaken in their sleep and instantly swept into the torrent, where they were drowned and their bodies afterwards mutilated by the floating debris or by being crushed. Of the 57 employed in the baths only 9 were saved alive, and 7 of these are severely injured. Among the victims was a Dane, who escaped from the terrible explosion in the steamer Mont Blanc at Ouchy, on the Lake of Geneva, last Saturday, when 26 persons were killed.

At the hamlet of Bionnay, which was swept out of existence by the sliding glacier, 35 persons were killed.

Arrangements are now being made for the funerals. Subscriptions are being raised for the sufferers, and it is hoped a large sum will be raised, as many women and children have been deprived of support. Some marvelous escapes are reported. Fifteen persons who were staying at the baths were saved by the presence of mind of the resident physician, who, hearing the roar of the coming water and debris, opened the doors of the rooms nearest to him and called to the occupants to flee for their lives. The physician led them through a window and up the mountain side to a place of safety. The hair dressers at the baths hastily improvised a bridge across the Bon Nant, and on this 20 persons crossed and reached a sheltered spot, from which they were afterwards rescued.

"Be sure you get Ayer's," is an important precaution to all who are in search of a thoroughly-reliable blood purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla being the one on which there can be no manner of doubt. It has stood the test of nearly half a century, and has long been considered the standard.

It is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Cure for A Cross patron and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents package. dw

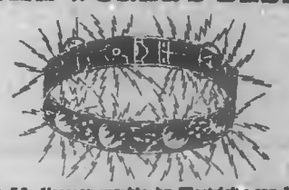
DORENWEND ELECTRIC BELT

And Attachments.

HEAD OFFICE—103 Yonge St., Toronto

THE WORLD'S BEST.



ALL diseases curable by Electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenwend Appliance. The Dorenwend is the only legitimate Electric Belt made which fulfils the requirements of Electro-medical science. It is a complete BODY BATTERY. It has an independent Battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man or the weakest child. It is a CURRENT OF QUANTITY, not merely a sensation current, and the quantity current is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, EPILEPSY, PALSY, HEART DISEASE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, PARALYSIS, VERTIGO, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCE, SEXUAL DECLINE and all diseases of the Nervous and Muscular Systems.

Remember that the DORENWEND BELT is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and made on the best in the world; we defy anyone to build equal to the DORENWEND.

Do not clean this Belt with the harmful compositions of leather and metal with which the country is being flooded. If you wish to experiment with cheap articles, buy them, but if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt, and one that will be a benefit, get a DORENWEND Belt.

WILL NOT RETALIATE.

The United States Congress Will Not Back Up Harrison.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The judgment of Mr. Hitt, who is a member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs as to the probability of retaliatory legislation, is as good as that of any one in Congress. He said last night, referring to the message of President Harrison, that there is no prospect that there will be any hostile legislation towards Canada at this session or any attempt at it, notwithstanding the message of the President. Mr. Hitt's reasons are that should such legislation be proposed a long debate would inevitably follow, and at this stage of the session new legislation could not be started. Moreover, Mr. Hitt said that the Canadian Pacific lobby has been very largely successful, especially as certain senators from the Northwest and Mr. Hale and Mr. Reed of Maine are opposed to such legislation as that suggested. There does not now appear to be any probability that the President can be sustained in a hostile attitude towards Canada. It has probably not been forgotten in Canada that four years ago, at the beginning of the last Presidential campaign, President Cleveland in like manner started upon a belligerent course towards Canadian railroads and proposed retaliation, but Congress did not respond to the appeal. The conditions are now similar; the result is likely to be the same.

Mr. Higgins has introduced in the Senate a bill authorizing retaliation for alleged unjust discriminations by the Dominion of Canada against the United States and it was referred to the Finance Committee.

CANADIAN HORSES.

Cannot be Taken Into the United States Free Without a Bond.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Secretary of the Treasury has written Senator McMillan, declining to allow horses to be brought over from Canada to Detroit or Port Huron for racing or exposition purposes unless a bond is given that they shall be returned to Canada within six months, or the duty paid on them. For some time these horses have been brought over without a bond, and a treasury agent who investigated reported that the practice resulted in many irregularities, by which horses were brought over to Detroit and Port Huron ostensibly for show purposes and never returned. No bond was taken to compel their return. Now, however, Secretary Foster will insist upon the strict letter of the McKinley law, which requires a bond.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

Serious Loss of Cattle En Route to England—Death From Heat.

MONTREAL, July 15.—The first big cattle loss of the season occurred on the steamship Virginian, which lost 37 cattle between here and Father Point. The cattle were all distillers, and are supposed to have died from the heat. The shippers of distillery cattle on the Virginian were Aikens & Flanagan, Toronto; S. J. Blacke, Waterloo, and M. Acer, Montreal. They were insured for $100 each. The Virginian had 731 cattle, the bulk of them distillers, and it is feared that more will perish before she reaches Liverpool.

DIED OF CHOLERA.

Death of a Methodist Missionary's Wife in China.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 15.—A cable from Chen Tu, China, conveys the intelligence of the death from cholera of the wife of Dr. Kilborne, medical missionary of the Methodist Church. She was a daughter of Prof. James Fowler of this city, and was married last August.

The Gas Ignited.

NEWARK, N.J., July 15.—An explosion occurred at noon yesterday in the large produce house of Quinn Bros., at 22 Commerce-street, in this city, which seriously, if not fatally injured Joseph Schroat, aged 19 years; George Bebringer, aged 23, and Benjamin Morehouse, jr., all of whom were employed in the store. Schroat went into the cellar to get some butter from a storage room, and lit a match. The cellar was filled with gas from a leaky pipe and at once exploded.

Firemen's Tournament.

STRATHROY, July 15.—The firemen's tournament and band competition here yesterday passed off most successfully, not less than 2500 people being in the grounds. The number of companies present was gratifying, but the number of bands was not as good. The following is the result of the competition:

Hose reel—Watford 1, time 1:09½; Forest 2, time 1.10¼.

Hook and ladder race—Sarnia 1, time .51; Forest 2, .51½.

Band—Forest 1, Watford 2, Oil Springs 3.

OTTAWA, July 15.—An emigrant woman from Iceland, journeying to Winnipeg by the C.P.R., gave birth to a child just as the train reached the city yesterday. The woman was in a very low condition and was removed to the Maternity Hospital. The babe died.

Killed in Michigan.

Eloped With His Old Aunt.

MONTREAL, July 15.—A young man named Courtemanche, belonging to Chambly, has forged notes to the extent of $3000 on the Bank of St. Johns, Que., afterwards eloping to the United States with his aunt, a widow, much older than he. Courtemanche left behind him a young bride of three weeks.

Newman Hall Retires.

LONDON, July 15.—In the presence of an immense congregation at Christ Church last night there was presented to the Rev. Newman Hall a silver tea and coffee service, a purse of 200 guineas and an illuminated address on the occasion of his retirement.

Numerous deputations from various parts of England and Dr. Pentecost from America presented addresses.

The Rev. Mr. Hall announced that his successor would be Frederick Meyer of Regent's Park Chapel.

Suffocated by Slime.

Jack the Ripper Again.

LONDON, July 15.—Before the committal of Neill, alias Dr. Cream, for the murder of Matilda Clover yesterday Coroner Braxton Hicks read to the jury an anonymous letter, declaring that Neill was innocent. The writer of the letter said that, disguised to resemble Neill, he had poisoned the girls, his object being to put an end to their career of crime and misery. This letter was signed "Jack the Ripper."

FEW ELECTIONS FRIDAY.

BUT GLADSTONIANS MADE A GAIN IN TWO.

Sir Charles Dilke Rolls Up a Tremendous Majority in the Forest of Dean—Alleged Bigotous Priests—Parnell's Brother Soundly Trounced.

LONDON, July 16.—With 622 out of the 670 members of the House of Commons elected, interest in the elections has to a large extent subsided. The Liberals may win five to 10 more seats, and it is practically certain that Mr. Gladstone's majority will be somewhere near 40.

Lord Salisbury summoned a Cabinet council for next week to decide whether the present Government shall meet Parliament or forthwith resign. A large section of his party urges him not to resign, on the ground that a majority of the British electors have voted against Home Rule, but it is doubtful whether Lord Salisbury will take a course that will only prolong the crisis.

At 1 o'clock yesterday the Liberals had 250, the Unionists 43, the Parnellites 8, the anti-Parnellites 60, the Laborists 3 and the Conservatives 258. The Government has thus 301 members and the Opposition 321.

Mr. J. W. Parnell, brother of the dead Nationalist leader, was badly beaten in the West division of Wicklow, even the Conservative candidate polling several hundred more votes. James O'Connor, who defeated Parnell, formerly belonged to the staff of The United Ireland and suffered imprisonment for his political opinions.

Hopes of carrying the Huntingdon division of Huntingdonshire for the Liberals against Mr. Smith-Barry were not realized. The successful Conservative candidate is an Irish landlord and vice-President of the Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union. He carried the seat by the narrow margin of 22 votes.

London's Lord Mayor, Sir Joseph Savory, was a successful candidate yesterday. He was returned for the Appleby division of Westmoreland.

Michael Davitt has captured North Meath from the Parnellites by 403 majority. The constituency was formerly represented by Pierce Mahony, Nationalist, who was returned unopposed.

Sir Charles Dilke has been elected in the Forest of Dean division by 2418 votes over the Conservative candidate. At the last election in July, 1887, Godfrey B. Samuelson (Lib.) defeated Edward Wyndham (Con.) by 1550 majority. The return of Sir Charles Dilke greatly embarrasses the Liberal party.

Joseph Arch (Lib.), the farm laborers' advocate, is elected in Northwest Norfolk by 1089 majority. This is a Liberal gain, Lord Henry Bentinck (Con.) having defeated Arch in 1886 by 20 majority.

The Conservatives made a gain, capturing North Dorset, which was formerly represented by Hon. Edwin L. Portman (Lib.)

The Liberals captured Inverness-shire, Dr. McGregor having 329 majority. Last election the Liberal-Unionist was unopposed.

The Falling Off in Midlothian.

The figures officially announced yesterday at Edinburgh as the result of the Midlothian contest were as follows:

Mr. Gladstone	5,750
Col. Wauchope, Liberal-Unionist	5,077
Mr. Gladstone's majority only	673

Mr. Gladstone was not opposed at the last election. The previous year he obtained a majority of 4595, the poll standing:

Gladstone	7,879
Dalrymple, Tory	3,284

In a letter to H. G. Reid, the Liberal candidate in the Handsworth division of Staffordshire, Mr. Gladstone says: "I cannot help hoping that the Conservatives would, if left to themselves, have had good sense enough to restore harmony between England and Ireland, but here are a set of gentlemen whose creed is summed up in hatred of the Irish cause, and who, in the indulgence of that unhappy sentiment, have forsworn one by one all their Liberal ideas, yet retain the name of the political creed of which they are masked but not dangerous enemies. The country has already destroyed the Government majority. It only remains to raise to the highest possible point the Liberal majority which seeks to remove out of the way the Irish controversy and to prosecute with vigor the arrears in Liberal reform."

Joseph Chamberlain, speaking at Halesowen, Shropshire, yesterday, counselled the Unionists to work harder than ever during the remaining elections. Once Ireland gets Home Rule, he said, she will want other things, and unless her desires are gratified the result will be a civil war in order to reconquer the country.

A Few Words to Our Edward.

The Times says: "Mr. Blake seems to believe in the genesis of Home Rule as a scheme of pure benevolence, devised to meet the demands of disinterested patriotism; a brief experience of Irish politics will undeceive him."

The Chronicle says: "It is a trifle ominous that the first politician whom Gladstone has taken into his confidence since the election is Mr. Morley, who is more hopelessly out of the House with the vitalizing tendencies of modern politics than any man professing Liberalism."

In Peaceful Ireland.

A quarrel between a priest and a weakly countryman ended in the priest felling the man with a blow of his fist. This nearly occasioned a serious riot. The young men were with difficulty prevented from retaliating. The Parnellite candidate, Mr. Mahoney, reproached the priest, Father Clarke, for presuming on his cloth, and Father Clarke again raised his fist, when the police interposed and parted the parties.

A similar incident occurred in the afternoon, in which Father Casey was the hero, and which resulted in a factional fight. Four policemen were injured and 50 persons received scalp wounds. At a late hour last night the police were still charging and using their clubs to clear the streets.

There was a scene in the grand jury room on the declaration of the result of the poll in North Louth yesterday. Mr. Callen, assisted by his son, attempted to assault Timothy Healy, the successful candidate, and prevent him from returning thanks. The sheriff and bystanders appealed to Callen to preserve decorum and permit the usual formalities to be observed. The only reply they got was redoubled yelling on the part of the Callenites during Healy's speech. When the Healy party left the hall the police had to intervene to prevent the Callenites from mobbing them.

CANADIAN PRIZE WINNERS.

How the Team is Getting Along at Bisley—The Kolapore Cup.

BISLEY CAMP, July 16.—An interesting match was fired yesterday for a series of prizes given by Major Palliser for competition among the members of the Canadian team. The match was at Queen's ranges, and the interesting feature of it was that it was fired with the new magazine rifle with which the regular army is now armed. This was the first experience of the Canadians with the new weapon. The first prize of £10 was won by Staff-Sergt. Simpson of the 12th York Battalion, the second of £6 by Sergt. Marris of the 13th Battalion, Hamilton, and the third of £4 by Staff-Sergt. Rolston of the 20th Battalion.

The following have been selected as the eight to represent Canada in the great match for the Kolapore Cup to be fired on Saturday: Lieut. Mitchell, 12th; Staff-Sergt. McAdam, Victoria Rifles; Sergt. Windatt, Royal Grenadiers; Sergt. Marris, 13th; Staff-Sergt. Mitchell, 12th; Staff-Sergt. Simpson, 12th; Staff-Sergt. Armstrong, G.G.F.G; Staff-Sergt. Ogg, Wallard Field Battery.

PRICE OF FURS DECLINE.

The Hudson Bay Company Compelled to Close Several Posts.

LONDON, July 16.—At a meeting of the Hudson's Bay Company held yesterday the chairman announced a dividend of 6s. 6d. He said he regretted the decline in the prices of furs. Beaver skins had dropped 20 per cent. and bear and fox skins 10 per cent. Owing to the state of trade the directors had closed a number of the company's posts.

The prices realized from land sales were improving. The amount received from this source reached $57,300 during the last quarter, as compared with $48,000 during the corresponding period last year. The company still holds 3,596,300 acres.

The injuries which he sustained in falling resulted in his death.

Smallpox in British Columbia.

MONTREAL, July 16.—The Provincial Secretary of British Columbia has telegraphed to the Provincial Board of Health here to the effect that there are 48 cases of smallpox in Victoria, five in Vancouver and one in New Westminster. There is none elsewhere so far as known, and all cases are under the supervision of the authorities.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 16.—The City of Nanaimo, from Victoria, has been quarantined by Nanaimo authorities on account of the prevalence of smallpox at Victoria. Ninety-five passengers from Nanaimo were quarantined.

Premier Davie has advised the Nanaimo authorities that their action is illegal. A mandamus was granted by Chief Justice Burgie yesterday commanding the Nanaimo authorities not to prevent the landing of the passengers from Victoria, the quarantine law affecting domestic ports having been complied with.

Should the opposition to landing passengers continue at Nanaimo measures to suppress mob law will be taken.

The disease here is well in hand and the scare is virtually over.

Committed Suicide in the House in Which He Was Born.

MALONE, N.Y., July 16.—George L. Hutchins, 60 years old, a farmer residing near the village, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself to the bedpost. He was in a kneeling position when his wife and son discovered him. For some time he has been subject to fits of melancholy. He was born in the house in which he committed suicide.

To See if He was Fat Inside.

TAYLOR, Texas, July 16.—Three boys named Jackson, one about 3 years old and two under 8 years of age, were playing in the garden. The 3-year-old child was very fat, and the boys determined to see if he was fat inside like a hog. They secured a plow handle and knocked the baby on the head as they had seen their fathers kill hogs. Then they secured an old rusty plowshare and chopped and hacked the child, finally tearing off the legs and arms, and after much hacking and tearing completely disemboweled the child.

FIN DE SIECLE ENOCH ARDEN.

Returns After Twenty Years and Marries His Wife.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 16.—A case is solved in considerable romance has just come to light in Amherst, N. S., which threatens to outrival the story of Enoch Arden.

In 1871 Rebecca Hicks of Sackville, married Michael Cahill. For a few years their married life was uneventful, except in the birth of one child—a boy—until the husband, who followed the sea, decided to return to that occupation, and did so. The birth of another son occurred three months after his departure.

On leaving home Cahill made over to his wife half his pay, which she continued to receive for some time and then it stopped. Subsequently she heard that he had been drowned at sea, and for seven years after heard nothing to the contrary.

At the end of that time she again entered the bonds of matrimony, this time with a George Betts of Point de Bute. After being married three years he died, leaving his widow with two other children, a boy and a girl.

After the death of her second husband she moved to the States as a dressmaker, but subsequently returned to this country and finally settled down in Amherst, where she has since remained.

For over 10 years, until Tuesday last, nothing, whatever, was again heard of Cahill, he having then been away from home for 20 years. On that day, Cahill returned to Amherst, expecting to find his wife dead. He heard, however, of her whereabouts, and a reconciliation was soon effected he having accumulated considerable wealth during his absence. He consented to start his married life over again, with the addition of Bett's two children to his household.

DRANK PARIS GREEN.

A Farmer Poisoned Through Carelessness in Quenching His Thirst.

GANANOQUE, Ont., July 16.—A farmer named Cochrane, living about four miles from Lansdowne station, was running after some cattle, and, becoming warm, stopped at a pump and taking a cup drank his fill of water. Before reaching home he was taken sick. On investigation it was found that the cup had been used for paris green and contained quite a large quantity. Cochrane will die.

A Hawkesville Woman's Sudden Death and the Sensation It Caused.

BERLIN, Ont., July 16.—The little village of Hawkesville was thrown into the wildest excitement by the sudden demise of a young girl named Marian Strauss, daughter of a professional nurse. According to the story circulated, Mrs. Strauss was called to a neighbor's to minister to a sick person, and during her absence an agent for a medicine of some kind or other called, and as the eldest girl had a swollen limb which occasioned her much trouble, he volunteered to cure it with the aid of his remedies. An hour after the diseased limb was doctored the girl was a corpse.

The village was in a state of the wildest excitement. Searching parties were organized to hunt down the pedlar and threats of lynching were freely made until some one suggested that a doctor be summoned. This was accordingly done, when it was found that the girl died from heart failure, and the sensation subsided.

A Mother Saves Her Son.

HAMILTON, July 16.—Howard Baine, aged 4 years, son of Mr. Thomas J. Baine of the Bell Organ Company, who lives at No. 193 Park-street, was playing with matches in the woodshed yesterday and set fire to a pile of light kindling wood. Soon the fire spread to the boards, and the structure was quickly a mass of flame, with the lad cut off from succor. Just then the attention of the mother was attracted to the door of the shed and she dashed into the burning building, grabbed the youngster in her arms, and saved him from a horrible death. As it was Howard had his hands badly burned. Mrs. Baine had her hands, left side of her head and neck painfully burned.

Died Alone and Friendless.

TORONTO, July 16.—An old colored man named Robert Brown, who has lived in the "Ward" for many years, was found dead and alone in his house at 79 Hayter-street, yesterday morning. He has been living alone for some time, and being an old man and almost helpless the neighbors have been looking after him. When found he was lying on the floor with a chair standing beside him.

Coroner Powell was notified and decided that death had been caused by heart failure. The body was taken to the Morgue, where it now lies.

Both were removed, together with the other inmates of the laundry, out of town and quarantined and the laundry burned down. Since then energetic efforts have been taken to prevent spreading and it is believed the disease is effectually stamped out here.

One Boy Pushes Another Into a Fire.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 16.—Stephen Rose, two years old, was attracted last evening to a bonfire, around which several children were playing. One of the youngsters poured kerosene over little Stephen, and another, Joseph Thompson, five years old, pushed him into the fire. The boy was frightfully burned.

SUGAR AND 'TATERS.

The sage of the Bobcaygeon Independent writes with a pen feathered with fun but his quill digs up many a tid-bit of truth nevertheless. In last issue he discourses airly on sugar and 'taters and pricks the protection bubble in this regard with a good deal of point: He says,

If there is any one article of food that Ontario can grow to perfection it is potatoes. The district north of this village grows potatoes that are admitted by competent judges to be the finest in all creation. If there is any one article of food which cannot be grown in Ontario it is sugar, and the district north of this village though it still produces a little maple syrup has practically abandoned all idea of ever producing its own sugar, and in other districts sugar production is simply impracticable. Very well—so much about Ontario.

If there is any one article of food which the West India Islands can grow to perfection it is sugar. Experts in sugar production admit that sugar of the West India Islands is the best and cheapest in the world. If there is any one article of food which cannot be grown in the West Indies it is potatoes, for though they can raise sweet potatoes and yams and such truck, they couldn't raise a back country 'tater, no, not if the salvation of all the Islands depended on its production.

These are facts which everyone knows. Why, if you were to catch a Krim Tartar in Central Africa, and ask him where's the best place for 'taters he would say Ontario, and if you were to ask him the best place for sugar he would answer West Indies. The human being that doesn't know that Bobcaygeon is the metropolis of the greatest region on earth for 'taters is a mere animal, and isn't fit to live, and the man who doesn't know that the West Indies is the native home of the sugar cane is too ignorant to be worth talking to.

The question this journal now put to you is as follows: What sort of a man must he be who insists upon the West Indies growing their own 'taters and on Ontario growing its own sugar? Please answer that question. What is the word you use? Oh, that's it. Thank you. Yes, he must be idiotic.

With these few brief introductory remarks this journal desires to call your attention to the fact that the Dominion Minister of Finance has caused a resolution to be passed by the Canadian House of Commons granting a heavy bonus out of the Canadian treasury for the production of home grown sugar! He wants to make it from beet root! He, He! Don't send your 'taters to Barbadoes, and get sugar in exchange, but eat the 'taters yourself, and make your own sugar from your own beet root! That's what the Minister wants you to do, and he will give you a money bounty out of the people's taxation to encourage you!

What was the word you used? Ah, that's it. Thank you, once more. Yes, the man who wants Ontario to raise its own sugar, and the West Indies to raise their own 'taters, is idiotic. You are quite right. You are really very clever, and have a singularly happy knack of selecting exactly the right word on every occasion. This journal offers you its compliments and entertains the hope that you will express your opinions, and use the right word on all occasions when sugar and 'taters are under discussion.

THE new Dominion criminal code is particularly severe in the matter of firearms. It declares it an offence punishable by a fine not exceeding $50, for anyone to sell or give "any pistol or air gun or any ammunition therefore," to a minor under the age of 16 years unless he can establish the fact that he has used all due diligence in endeavouring to find out the age of the minor before making such a sale or gift. Another section makes it a finable offence to neglect to register the date of the sale of any air gun or pistol, the name of the purchaser, and make of the weapon. Between Sir Oliver Mowat's anti-tobacco law and Sir John Thompson's anti pistol legislation, the rising young Canadian experiences largely increased difficulty in injuring his health and blowing himself into fragmentary remains in blissful ignorance of its being loaded.

The Summer Death-Rate.

The greatest evidence of the dangers of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, is the increase in the death-rate of all the leading cities during the summer months. Men and women can not be too careful of their habits of life during the heated term, and particular attention should be paid to the diet of children. A supply of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER should always be at hand, for it is the only medicine that can be relied on at all times as safe, sure, and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case; but in severe attacks it is occasionally necessary to bathe the sufferer's stomach with the PAIN KILLER. All reputable druggists have it for sale. 25c. price per large bottle.

Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia and too hearty eating is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this. dw

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

THE AMERICAN DOCTORS
(20 Years practice in Europe and America.)

THEIR SERVICES ARE FREE.

A staff of eminent American Physicians and Surgeons have opened an office for medical and surgical attendance, at No. 1262 St Catherine Street, Montreal. They give free services to all who call upon them before August 1st, 1892, and frankly tell you if your case is curable or not. All incurable cases are rejected. Special attention is paid to every case. Invalids living outside of Montreal should address their letters to Mr. JOHN MURRAY, Manager, and inclose three 2 cent Stamps for symptom blank and question sheets

The Blue Ribbon Meet.

A Detroit paper in referring to the great annual Blue Ribbon meet, which opens in that city on Monday next, says: "Budd Doble has arrived at the Detroit driving club's track with the trotters and pacers he had at the Philadelphia meeting last week. In the string are Nancy Hanks, Jack McDoel, Martha Wilkes, Belle Vara, Sea Girl, Kate Sparks, Viator and Jimmy Temple. Axtell and the other fast ones that he is handling this season are still at Terre Haute, but will be shipped to Detroit within a week. C. J. Hamlin, of the Village farm, Buffalo, has engaged twenty stalls at the track, and his horses will be here in a few days. R B, the cyclone broncho, arrived yesterday. His trainer, Herman, Fox, reports him in gilt edged condition and prepared to make any horse entered in the free-for-all pace make wonderful time to beat him. Pete Moody has been sent from the Eaton Rapids track, and his trainer thinks he has an excellent chance of winning in the 2:35 class. Brother Dan was given a mile at the trace this morning in 2:29, the last quarter in 33½ seconds. Lochinvar went a mile in the same, and finished the last quarter in 33. The blue ribbon meeting opens next Monday." A large number of horsemen from Peterborough intend leaving for Detroit on Monday next to take in the great horse meet.

The Doctor Gave Him Up!

Lactated Food Brings Life, Health and Strength.

Lactated Food has been the means of saving the lives of thousands of infants and young children who had previously been fed on cow's milk and the common prepared foods of the day. Children who were not nourished by Lactated Food, were reduced to mere skeletons by cholera infantum and dysentery; but as soon as the life-restoring Lactated Food was fed, a new life seemed to dawn, and the infant quickly recovered.

Mrs. Samuel McCool, of Londesboro, Ont., writes as follows:—

"I have a little boy, twenty two months' old, whom the doctor gave up. We tried a prepared food, but it did not agree with him. We next tried your Lactated Food, with the result that he is now the picture of health and strength. He has already used six dollars worth of your Lactated Food. I would recommend it for all delicate and weak babies."

The Children's Celebration.

It is understood the Education Department will recommend the teachers of Ontario to have suitable celebrations in their schools to commemorate Oct. 12, the discovery of America. There is no doubt the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the continent of which Canada forms such an important part, would be a suitable opportunity for bringing to the notice of pupils by songs, essays, recitations and patriotic addresses the greatness of that historical event.

Gladstone's Majority.

The Woodstock Sentinel Review thinks that Gladstone should be able to wiggle along with a seven-hundred majority when politicians in this country, who are not statesmen, hold their seats in Parliament by virtue of the returning officer's certificate or a partisan judge's warrant.

Africa.

Africa, north of the equator, is mostly Mohammedan; in the division of the whole country, British Africa stands first with a population of over forty million; then French Africa and Arab Africa with the same population between them; the Congo State follows with fifteen million; Turkey, Italy, Germany and Portugal bring up the rear. Russia and Austria have no possessions in Africa.

Put Me in My Little Bed.

I am dizzy, dizzy, dizzy,
And I want to go to bed,
For no appetite to eat,
And headache racks my head.

In other words, I am suffering from a bilious attack, but Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will be long me around all right by tomorrow. They often cure headache in an hour. I have found them the best cathartic pill in existence. They produce no nausea or griping, but do their work thoroughly. They are convenient to carry in the vest pocket, and pleasant to take. In vials—25 cents.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition. They are the governors of the system, constipation disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

REFRESHING.—Capilline is the most pleasant and refreshing lotion. By using it every morning you will promote a healthy growth of the hair.

If sick headache is misery what are Carter's Little Liver Pills if they will positively cure it? People who have used them speak frankly of their worth. They are small and easy to take. dw

A Liberal Triumph.

Scores of men and women who have always suffered their prejudices to blind them to the merits of Burdock Blood Bitters now use and praise this wonderful tonic purifier as the best remedy known for dyspepsia, constipation and all blood diseases. dw

The St. John's Sufferers' Fund.

Thursday the subscriptions collected by the Toronto Board of Trade for the St. John's fire sufferers amounted to nearly $7,000. The grant made by the City Council of Toronto is $5,000, and other sums bring the amount contributed in and about Toronto to nearly $12,000. The Ontario Government has made a grant of $10,000. We are quite sure that in doing this they are carrying out the wish of the people of the Province, and that those who are unable to contribute anything individually will feel glad that they are thus allowed to help the unfortunate people of St. John's as citizens of Ontario.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

PETERBOROUGH, July 16 — The last of our hot spell on the 14th morning examination stood at 65° at 12, 80° at 1, 88° at 2. 90° between 2 and 3, and sundown to 80° The 15th was a little cooler, the highest reached being 90°, and after our thunder storm coming down at sunset to 64°. My forecast on the 14th has been fully verified in that we would soon have a storm of rain after our brilliant auroral lights on the night of the 13th. We will now have it a little cooler.

The Work of Some Villain.

Mr. T. Cavanagh, proprietor of the Balmoral hotel, had sixteen ivory pool balls stolen from the pool and billiard room of his house sometime between Saturday and Monday evenings last. The balls, fifteen of which were pink in color and the other a blue spotted one, were placed in their cupboard and locked up. Mr. Cavanagh had occasion to use only the one table on Monday and in the evening when he went to get the balls from their cupboard he found them all missing. The set was a valuable one, representing a loss to the owner from $40 to $50. Mr. Cavanagh has no trace of the man that did the deed and offers a liberal reward for any information that will lead to the recovery of his property and the conviction of the criminal. He has been unable to secure another set of balls until to-day, and has lost not only the value of the stolen property but also the revenue arising from a week's use of the table.

The Lightning's Flash.

The fire brigade were called out shortly after six o'clock last night and promptly responded to the call of duty. The scene of the blaze proved to be the barn of Mr. Wm. Spencely, who resides on the Douro side of the river near Auburn, just on side the town limits. When the brigade reached the scene the building was nearly consumed, and finding that their services were not required, no water being at hand anyway to extinguish the blaze the firemen returned. The fire originated from a sharp flash of lightning striking the barn and in an instant the frame structure was all ablaze from floor to roof. A hen house and pig sty were also burned and great difficulty was experienced in saving the house. Mr. Spencely lost a quantity of hay and other articles in the building. The loss will be about $400, insured in the City of London for $2 000. Mr. Felix Brownscombe agent.

—Engineer Wm. Johnston, of Lindsay, who was so badly scalded in the railway accident near Campbellford, in which young Pardy lost his life, has recovered from the injuries he received.

—The Gee Club had a shoot yesterday afternoon. Five rounds were shot. R Tivey scored 11 J. Clancy, C. Amys and S. Ray each scored 1. Mr. Ray used smokeless powder for a novel experiment. It worked fairly well.

—The Edison baseball club left for Port Hope this afternoon. They will play the Port Hope nine a rattling game of ball. The boys were accompanied by about 100 outsiders who took advantage of the excep 50 cent trip.

—Mr. Allan Macdougall, C.E., of Toronto will arrive in town on Monday on business connected with the Edison drain and the sewerage system. He will meet the Sewerage Committee on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Mr. F Knowlson, secretary of the Lindsay opera house company, is already in receipt of a number of applications from first class companies asking the privilege of "opening" the building when completed, by a week's engagement.

—The C.M.B.A., E.B.A. and St. Peter's Court C.O.F., will hold a great union excursion on Peterborough's Civic Holiday. The objective point will be decided upon at the joint committee meeting to be held on Tuesday evening next.

—Mr. T. E Boddy, local agent of the Dominion Express Company, this morning received word that the company would ship all food, clothing and other relief cargoes for the St. John's sufferers free, as far as their accommodation extended, which is Halifax.

—Capts. Dooley and Adams, government steamboat inspectors, Kingston, who were in town yesterday on an official visit. They will spend three days inspecting the lake steamers. From there they will go to Lindsay and Bobcaygeon on a tour of inspection.

—Mr. Walter Kerr had his peanut stand out in front of the skating rink at the band concert last night and did a rushing business. He has named his outfit "The City Peanut Stand." Walter will ask the council to name him a place for the location of his stand.

—Mr. John Craig's blacksmith shop on Elizabeth street, Ashburnham was struck by a flash of lightning yesterday afternoon during the progress of the storm. Several shingles were torn off and the wheel of a waggon which was standing in front of the shop struck.

—The Lindsay Post says:—Gough Bros. of the great ready-made clothing house are reported to have done the largest day's business last Saturday that they have yet done since coming to Lindsay. That shows what judicious advertising will do, even in this, the dullest season of the year.

—The fire brigade and Citizens' Band, of Orillia, will run a grand excursion to Peterborough on July 28 h. A large number are expected. A lacrosse match will be played between the Orillia and Peterborough teams. Mr. J. W. Mitchell is chairman and Mr. E. W. Robbin secretary of the excursion committee.

—Mr. Wm. Wallace of Glasgow, Scotland, is in town staying at the Cavanagh House. He is buying carriage horses for the old country market, first class animals that do not stand under 16 hands high. He is also purchasing some heavy draught horses weighing 1,500 and 1,600 pounds, which he will ship to Glasgow.

—The public fire alarm did not sound very loud when rung last night. This was from no fault of the bell, but the apparatus for ringing it was out of repair and did not work well. Mr. John Kincaid will remedy the defect, and by the next time that occasion demands the bell to be rung, it will peal forth its warning notes with no uncertain or subdued sound.

—The Ashburnham house breaking case was continued before County Police Magistrate Ermison at the court house yesterday afternoon. The evidence of several witnesses was taken and the case for the prosecution concluded. The defence moved for a non-suit, but the presiding magistrate refused to allow this as a case had already been established. The trial was further enlarged until Monday at 11 o'clock, when the evidence of the defence will be taken.

Representative to the Grand Lodge—Bro. R J Stewart, P.G. Norwood.

After the election the Havelock brethren entertained the visiting brethren at a grand repast in Connally's hotel. Speeches were delivered, songs sung and a splendid time spent until a late hour. The Havelock Lodge is in a flourishing condition, 15 members having been added during the past term.

The tobacco of Martinico was once the favorite with the smoking world, and when old Father Hennipen descended the Mississippi about 1860 the Indians were much surprised to see a European with such an excellent sample of their native plant. But the smokers of "Myrtle Navy" would give but a poor account of the once celebrated Martinico. Their favorite brand is as much superior to it as it was to the raw and uncured leaf which the Indians of that day smoked.

A Violent Storm.

Thunder and Lightning—Driving Rain and a Terrific Gale—Trees Uprooted—Buildings Unroofed—Cattle Killed and Men Injured.

A few minutes before six o'clock last evening a mass of clouds, black and threatening, rose in the west; the wind increasing, rose from a stiff breeze to a gale. At the same time incessant flashes of lightning and a continuous roar of thunder accompanied a driving rain, with which was mingled broken branches, severed leaves of trees, driven before the wild gale. The town evidently got only the margin of the storm, which came from the north west. Reports of the storm have reached here from Lindsay, showing that the storm reached that far at least. The steamer Ocondoka while returning to Lindsay was struck by the storm, the wind catching the wooden awning of the upper deck covered with tin, and piling it over on the smokestack. In Peterborough there are no reports of any serious damage being done. Some fine trees had large limbs off, but fortunately only nine mishaps are reported. Across the river however the elements began in earnest, the

LIGHTNING DOING ITS FATAL WORK.

The barn of Mr. William Spencely was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, details being printed elsewhere in this issue. The storm swept south-eastward across Otonabee, gathering strength as it advanced and doing great damage, uprooting trees and levelling fences, unroofing barns, etc. The first building to suffer was the log barn of Mr. Wm. Condon which was blown down. The trunks of a wayside grove of pines were snapped like macaroni, and the highway so filled with the rubbish that the adjoining fields had to be opened for traffic. Next in the tempest's path was the farm buildings of Mr. Creighton Metcalfe, and away went the roof of barn and stables, and large trees in the vicinity were uprooted, and a buggy blown down the road and badly broken. Continuing the storm next played havoc with Mr. Robert Deyell's new brick house The walls were up and the rafters just placed. The wind swept off the upper story entirely, and twisted the lower story out of shape except rebuilding. The roof was also blown off Mr. Dyell's stables. Next the stables of Mr. Wm. Lumson were unroofed. The next visit by the hurricane meant business. The barn of Mr. Erastus Wood, near the cheese factory, was lifted bodily off the foundation and deposited several feet away, and strange to say without doing any other damage, so that all that is necessary to place things in statu quo in this case is to have Allan McCarthy come down, which he will do on Monday and restore the building to its proper site. Mr. Elwin Howson's buildings were the next to suffer. The barn and sheds were unroofed. The barns of Mr. Walter Renwick, jr., were unroofed, but Mr. Walter Renwick, sr., had the MOST SERIOUS VISITATION.

AND BEYOND ANY REPAIR

The son, who had been ploughing in the field, when the storm came up took refuge in the shed with the team, where there were several cattle, while his father was working in the barn. Before the resistless rush of the gale the barn gave way and came crushing down upon the sheds, making a chaotic mass of ruin, injuring the son, killing one cow outright and bruising and maiming cattle and horses. The son knowing that his father was in the barn could neither see nor hear him nor get any response to his frenzied calls. He hurried, though badly hurt himself, to the house and told his mother that he feared his father was killed. A further search revealed the father crawling out from the broken timbers in a half dazed condition. He afterwards became unconscious and is seriously injured. Mr. Richard Short had all and a similar fate visited the barn of Mr. David Kerr. In the matter of buildings hundreds of dollars of damage was done, besides the injury to trees, fences and crops. The short time that has elapsed since the storm prevents the collection of full details.

The storm that did the work in Otonabee threw all its destructive energy into about two minutes of time. Though the wind continued to blow stiffly it was but a zephyr to the cyclonic two minutes that preceded it. The area of destruction of the storm in Otonabee was about a mile in width and from

FIVE TO SEVEN MILES IN LENGTH.

That is not to say that the outskirts of the storm on either side were not of an unusually severe character. Though thrifty, strong growing grain was "lodged," it is not thought that any very serious and irreparable damage was done to the crops, except the fruit trees in the area of the severer part of the storm.

The vicidity of Hiawatha was also visited by the tempest, though no details are at present to hand. Upon the southern shore of Rice Lake it is reported considerable damage was done.

West of the town also the effects of the storm were serious. At Ida the barns of Mr. Thomas Jackson were blown down, and the injuring him so severely that fears are entertained for his life He is at latest reports in a delirious condition. About a mile east the cyclone struck the barns of Mr. Robert Hooten, taking off the roof on the southern side.

Reports of the effects of the storm comes from various quarters. On the Ludgate property, Ashburnham, several apple trees were uprooted, and it is said that in Dummer the storm was accompanied with hail, the second visitation for Dummer, the first occurring a week last Tuesday when a great depth of hail fell.

Down the river the Golden Eye had a tempestuous voyage home. The passengers huddled like frightened doves in the cabin and saw from the windows the tempest twist lofty elms in twain and send detached trunks floating down the turbid stream. Other trees growing near the banks on both sides were uprooted.

The plans were accepted and the committee advertised for tenders for the doing of the work. The tenders must be handed into the town clerk not later than the 25th inst.

Gun Club Meeting.

The Peterborough Gun Club held a meeting at Mucklestone & Co's. store last night. There was a fair attendance, Capt. R. Tivey occupying the chair. The cash statements of the club were passed showing a good surplus on hand. It was decided to purchase two more traps so that the club at future shoots will use three regulation traps. More accurate and quicker shooting can be done when three traps are used. It was decided to drive down iron stakes and rope off the lines to keep spectators back, so that they cannot interfere with the shooting as heretofore. The secretary has written outside gun clubs to endeavour to arrange matches, and is awaiting replies. The club had another shoot this afternoon.

A Success and a Failure.

The Band Concert Last Night a Great Musical Treat—But a Failure as to Attendance—Public Ingratitude—The Difference Between a Free Concert and One With a Nominal Admission Fee.

The concert given in the skating rink last night in the interests of the instrument fund of the band was a great success and a lamentable failure. That is to say, the concert per se, was exceedingly successful, the band presenting one of the best of the many fine programmes they have given the public, but the attendance was far short of the object of the occasion, and a disgrace to a music loving town, that in a building capable of holding an audience of from 1 500 to 2 000, only the select 400 were present. Perhaps the storm of the early evening had the effect of keeping many persons away, but all the same the meagre attendance last night was very discouraging to the band, whose efforts to please the public at free rates have been so eminently successful, and who have never been niggardly of their services, nor backward in assisting any good cause. They have performed gratuitously in scores of instances for church gatherings, besides giving for years during the summer months, concerts of a combined popular and classical character, which met the musical tastes of every class, and were universally voted to be delightful and entertaining and musically instructive in every respect.

Last night there were about 400 persons present at the concert. The galleries of the skating rink were devoted to the auditors, and they made an excellent promenade with unfortunately abundance of room. The band was stationed, 28 strong, under the electric lights in the middle of the skating rink floor. During the evening the following programme was presented:—

"War March of the Priests" (Athalie)..... [Mendelssohn
Overture—(Bohemian Girl).....M W Balfe
Waltzes—(Donau Wellen).....J Ivanovici
Cornet Solo—(Le Reive d'Amour).....H Millars
Popular Melodies—(Babylonia).....Warwick
[Williams
Waltzes—(Summer Roses).....Jasper Vaulane
Grand Selection—(Maritana).....Wallace
Fantasia—(Pride of Scotland).....H Round
The Broken Chain.....
"GOD SAVE THE QUEEN."

It is not necessary to enter into a critical consideration of the programme. It can, however, be said generally and truthfully that it was one of the best and perhaps the best rendered of any programme ever given here by the band. Every member seemed to be at his best, and the result of the combined efforts of the performers was exceeding y satisfactory. The nature of the work done was artistic. The delicate attention to shading was judicious and in fine taste. On the whole the performance of the band was excellent. Those present greatly enjoyed the musical treat as was shown by the hearty applause that greeted the conclusion of the several numbers. If with the inferior and worn instruments now in use such excellent music could be provided, what would have been the effect if the modern and effective instruments, which a large section of the public desire to see the band to have, had been in use? It is to be hoped that hundreds when they come to think of it will be ashamed of not patronizing the instrument fund concert, and hide their blushes behind five-dollar bills.

The small attendance was a most unfortunate, and in a certain degree, discreditable feature of the concert. Almost every evening the band plays in the park there is an audience of about 2,000. But then the band gives everything, free music, free admission. One would think that the dullest sense of gratitude would have suggested to hundreds that the purchase of a 25c. ticket for the band concert would have been only a very inadequate return for the pleasure which several summers of free concerts afforded. It is not right; it is not fair; it is not even honest.

During the evening Mr. Thomas Hooper served refreshments inside the rink, generously donating the proceeds to the instrument fund.

Mr. Walter Kerr, the steel-proof itinerant merchant, had a fine stand at the outer door and did a good trade.

The Stony Lake Copper Mine.

One of the Richest Mines in Canada, Mr. J. B. McWilliams has received the following letter:—

TORONTO, July 12 h, 1892.

Excelsior Smelting and Refining Works, Chemists and Metallurgists.
J. B McWILLIAMS Peterborough.

DEAR SIR.—Of the various samples of your ore (chalcopyrite sulphide of copper) which have been assayed and analyzed in our laboratory an average of the whole run is represented by thirty-six per cent. (36 per cent.) of copper. It is unnecessary to point to the value of this ore, but it may be stated ores of as low as .03 per cent of copper have been worked and that ores of .05 and 10 per cent have been and are worked at a profit merely for the copper. Should the lode continue to carry ore of this quality we have no hesitation in saying it is one of the richest, if not the richest, copper mine in Canada, and would fully justify the erection and putting in of a plant for the reduction of the ore.

We are yours,
J. D. and R. DEWAR

If the Price were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer streets, between Townsend and Park streets—$2,500. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie; work now going on.

A Pretty Table Center Piece.

Pretty designs for table service are always acceptable to the housewife whose household belongings pays a silent tribute to the deftness of her fingers. The illustration is a dainty effect in design and colors. The material employed for the ground is fine white linen.

DAINTY IN DESIGN AND COLORS.

These may be invariably finished according to taste. Some prefer a plain hemstitch border to the fringe; others, again, like a scalloped edge worked with silk in button-hole stitch; but it must be confessed that the preference lies with the fringe made of the linen ravelled out, it only it is managed properly. The effect of the whole set when finished is very dainty, the coloring being kept delicate according to the prevailing taste, the similarity in the shades used for the ribbon throughout, and in the general arrangement and treatment of the designs, giving a harmonious effect to the twelve doilies when seen together, while variety is obtained by the use of different flowers on each mat.

The same finish is used for the center piece in the illustration, and it is well to notice that the labor bestowed upon the edging of the mats in this way is a characteristic of really high class and artistic work, and is a by no means unimportant detail which marks the difference between good and careless needlewomen. The roses on the center piece should be executed in delicate pinks, and the web is preferably of gold-colored silk. One of the flight of butterflies is worked on the linen ground instead of being applied like the others. Sometimes on large pieces the last two or three are embroidered, flatly in this way, and made very small, as if they were fading away in the distance.

The butterfly designs can be employed for other purposes besides table linen. They are especially liked for bureau sets. Very dainty pincushions are made in this manner, and as if the butterfly had just settled on the edge of them. They are pretty when quite small and round, finished with a puffing of silk.

The idea of applying portions of the design in the way described can be carried out with many variations in style. Single flowers can be treated in the same way as the butterflies shown here, the greater part of the work still being embroidered flatly, and a few blossoms being raised and arranged with a view to their greatest effectiveness. Small dragon-flies or other insects having gauzy wings might be rendered in bolting cloth on a ground of the same. The markings could be indicated by a fine thread of silk, or the brush called in to the aid of the needle, and any tint or veinings required painted upon them. This latter kind of work would, of course, not be so useful or so durable as that worked in wash silks upon linen, which can be repeatedly laundered.—Ladies' Home Journal.

All kinds of cooked fish can be served with salads. Lettuce is the best green salad to serve with them; but all cooked and cold vegetables go well with fish.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Ayer's Hair Vigor I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and formed elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal.

A Cincinnati Storm's Havoc.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 16.—At 3.30 o'clock yesterday a heavy storm struck this city from the west. Rain fell to the depth of 2-5 of an inch during the time the storm lasted, which was not over 15 minutes. It blew straight from west to east and kept up steadily during a quarter of an hour. Carrying the rain along in horizontal sheets, peeling the tin roofs off innumerable buildings, carrying off the roofs bodily from many houses and playing havoc generally with shade trees, signs, fences and plate glass windows. The works for the show called "A Night in Pekin," on the old baseball grounds on Harrison-avenue were completely demolished. The fence of the Cincinnati baseball grounds was blown down and part of it was hurled against a passing street car, injuring several passengers, more or less seriously. William E. Ward, sr., proprietor of the Architectural Iron Works at 495 Central-avenue, was standing on the sidewalk when the roof of his factory was blown off. Bricks detached from the building were hurled to the sidewalk. One struck Mr. Ward on the head, fracturing his skull. It is feared his injuries are fatal. Half a dozen other houses in Central-avenue in the same vicinity were unroofed. In Walnut-street near Twelfth-street, the roof of Meyer's veterinary hospital was torn off and hurled bodily against the roof of the Banner Brewing Co on Canal, near Walnut, taking that roof off also. At the river landing the great chains holding the New Orleans wharf boat, beside which was the steamer Mary Houston full of passengers ready to start, was snapped like a yarn thread and the Houston was blown nearly half a mile up stream to the Newport Bridge.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because Cures Catarrh the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It Cures SCROFULA makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. AYER'S Sarsaparilla gives elasticity to the step, and imparts to the aged and infirm, renewed health, strength, and vitality.

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."

CHOLERA DOCTORS KILLED BY RUSSIAN PEASANTS.

A Riot Arising Out of the Rumor That Cholera Patients Were Buried Alive Leads to Wholesale Looting and Slaughter—General Foreign News of a Night.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—Owing to a report that the doctors were causing cholera patients to be buried alive the lower classes of the city of Sartoff revolted against the authorities and the doctors on the 10th inst. The excited populace wrecked and plundered the police station, Cholera hospital and the residence of the Chief of Police. The patients were dragged out of the hospital to save them, as the ignorant mob thought, from being buried alive. The medical assistants were attacked and two were killed.

The rioters threatened to take full possession of the city, and would have done so had it not been for the opportune arrival of troops.

The mob resisted the soldiers and the latter fired upon them. Three of the mob were killed and four wounded. The rioters then dispersed.

There are several cases of cholera in the quarantine station outside Batoum. The victims are persons who recently arrived from Astrakhan.

An official cholera report issued yesterday shows that on July 8 and 9 there were 495 new cases of the disease and 139 deaths throughout all the Russian districts affected. The heaviest mortality at any single place was at Baku, where there were 62 deaths. While there were 191 new cases in Astrakhan there were only 32 deaths there.

MT. ETNA ERUPTION.

Mount Etna Threatens to Destroy Several Villages.

ROME, July 15.—The eruption of Mount Etna is rapidly increasing in violence. Immense streams of lava are pouring down the mountain side, and it appears certain that several villages and a number of dwellings in the path of the lava seem destined to be destroyed. All the craters are active. One is ejecting a stream of lava several yards deep and very wide. This stream presents the appearance of a river of fire and is very beautiful to look at, though it is bound to ruin much property. Another of the craters is spurting large incandescent rocks to an immense height, while the edges of the third crater appear to be crumbling.

Mount Etna has 18 openings, nine of which are active. The lava is flowing in the direction of Nicolosi at the rate of 50 yards an hour. It has already passed the lava deposits formed by the violent eruption of 1886. The flow of lava towards Pedara is less rapid.

The subterranean rumblings and the loud and startling explosions continue. The alarm among the inhabitants of the various villages in the vicinity of Mount Etna is increasing, and the people fear that phenomena of a more dangerous character than that which has already occurred is yet to be experienced.

CHARGED WITH SWINDLING.

Poor Workmen Were Victimized and Robbed.

BERLIN, July 15.—Three brothers named Graudenz, together with Dr. Mantezewski and Prof. Gerhard, have been arrested in Berlin for swindling. They are accused of founding a bogus concern known as the Rixdorf Iron Works. They engaged hundreds of persons to work in the mills, exacting from each applicant a deposit, these sums amounting in the aggregate to a large figure. The concern was said to be operated by the "Graudenz Company (limited)." The promised work was not forthcoming, and it soon became apparent that the workmen who had paid advance moneys had been victimized. Their complaints led the authorities to prosecute the parties now under arrest.

Asparagus in Different Styles—A Table Center Piece in Butterflies and Roses—Different Modes of Finish—An Artistic Match Receiver—Wash Day Poetry.

Asparagus is a delicate dish if properly served, but the stringy, tasteless stalks with but an inch of tender green to a foot of tough, fibrous stems are not the sort of asparagus to tempt one's appetite. To properly boil asparagus, scrape the coarse skin from each blade, laying it in cold water when finished. Tie in an even bunch with broad tapes. Cut the lower ends, after making the tips even, all of one length. A boiler for the special purpose with a drainer that fits it is the proper utensils, but a pot large enough to hold the bunch without bending the ends will answer. The water should be boiling, well salted and to cover the asparagus completely. It will cook in 20 minutes after the water boils again. It should be tender, but too long boiling makes it too soft. Drain well and steam it as dry as possible. Fold a napkin on a hot dish, lay the bunch on this and cut and remove the tapes. Serve sauce in sauceboat. A plain white sauce, cream sauce, or an egg sauce is good. Perhaps the last is the best and is made as follows: Mash the yolk of a hard boiled egg, one to each person, into a powder; add salt and pepper to taste and enough melted butter to make it like a mayonnaise. Some like plain melted butter in a sauceboat, but asparagus should never be served looking like pale milk toast. It must be dry and hot, a separate sauce used and a liberal allowance of sauce for each person. Eaten thus it takes the place of a more substantial vegetable, and is palatable and wholesome.

Stewed Asparagus Tips—Cut the tender tips of asparagus (four bunches make a good-sized dish) into pieces about an inch long and throw them into cold water. Put them on to cook in two quarts of boiling well-salted water, and boil about ten minutes. Drain very thoroughly and return to the fire with two ounces of butter, a pinch of sugar and one of grated nutmeg and six teaspoonfuls of cream sauce. Stir carefully until scalding hot; serve on neatly trimmed slices of thin, buttered toast. The sauce can be easily prepared by taking half a cup of new milk, a large tablespoonful of flour and salt and pepper to taste. Blend flour and butter together over the fire without browning; add the boiling milk by degrees, stirring constantly. Boil three minutes; take from the fire and stir in the salt and pepper.

Asparagus with Eggs—This dainty luncheon dish is made of whatever asparagus may be left over from the previous day. Supposing there are a dozen heads of asparagus, cut the green part into pieces the size of peas, melt an ounce of butter in a saucepan, add a tablespoonful of cream or milk, a tablespoonful of gravy, a little pepper and salt and three well-beaten eggs. Throw in the asparagus, stir the eggs quickly over the fire for half a minute till they are set, and pour the mixture neatly upon slices of bread which have been dipped in boiling water and buttered.

It is commonly reported that Mr. Deacon will be released to-morrow, and that an order for his release has already been sent privately to Nice.

The Manitoba Schools.

LONDON, July 15.—The argument before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the appealed Manitoba school matter was concluded yesterday. Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., and Attorney-General Martin for the appellants put a strong case. Hon. S. H. Blake, Q.C., for the other side, went over the intricate ground lucidly. Her Majesty's Privy Councillors heard counsel on both sides with great attention and reserved their decision. The appeal, it will be remembered, was taken from the Supreme Court judgment, which upset the act of the legislature abolishing Separate Schools.

Looted the City of Chicago.

LONDON, July 15.—Thieves got aboard the wreck of the Inman line steamer City of Chicago, which lies near the old head of Kinsale on the south coast of Ireland, and looted the storeroom, the lock of which was broken. A quantity of bottled beer and tools were stolen.

A salvage steamer was alongside the wreck yesterday and succeeded in saving a large quantity of provisions, chain, etc.

FOR POISONING A WOMAN

DR. M'DONALD ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

He Formerly Practised at Montreal and From There Went to Binghamton, N.Y., Where He Got Into Trouble and Fled—His Arrest in New York.

NEW YORK, July 16.—Dr. Charles M. McDonald, aged 55, formerly of Montreal, Canada, but more recently of Binghamton, N.Y., was arrested here last night on a charge of having conspired with the husband of Mrs. Ernest Schoenrock of Binghampton to poison her. Mrs Schoenrock's life was insured for a large sum of money in favor of her husband.

Early last April Mrs. Schoenrock died in convulsions caused by strychnine poisoning. By whom the poison was administered is not yet fully determined. On the night of her death Mr. Schoenrock was dressing to go to a ball of the German Saengerbund Society, of which he is a member. Before leaving the house he handed his wife a small package of whitish powder, remarking to her, "I was told by the doctor to give you this; you can dissolve it in a saucer of water."

This she did, and placed the saucer and contents on a table in the room, after taking some of the supposed medicine. Soon after swallowing the stuff Mrs. Schoenrock had convulsions. A messenger was sent for Dr. McDonald, whose office was only a few doors away, but he did not respond to the summons for an hour. Then, it is claimed, he picked up the saucer which contained the mixture, poured some fresh water in it and gave it to the sufferer to drink. Soon after she had more violent convulsions and died.

An autopsy of the body disclosed strychnine and Dr. McDonald fled. When arrested to-day McDonald told Detective Jacobs he came originally from South Carolina and that he had also practised medicine in Montreal.

Dr. McDonald is a well-dressed, portly man of good address and courteous manners. He is married, and is said to have lived luxuriously. He was arrested about eight months ago on a charge of malpractice on the wife of a traveling baseball player. Before the case could be brought to trial the baseball man and his wife had left the town, and the charge was not pressed. Subsequently he was arrested on a charge of having assaulted two women in his office. The doctor was released on bail. The case is still pending.

THEY WANT PEACE.

Homestead Wants No More Bloodshed—What One of the Bosses Says.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 16.—In Homestead citizens are all a unit in sentiment. They want no more violence, and they declare that under no circumstances, save a reintroduction of Pinkertons, will they resort to arms. This is a wonderful change in a week, and whether or not the presence of the militia has anything to do with this pacific attitude, the men appear to be thoroughly in earnest and declare that even the presence of non-union men would not provoke them to a breach of the peace, although they would use all moral suasion possible to induce such men to leave town. As an evidence of this sentiment, the telegram of Hugh O'Donnell to Attorney-General Hensel is striking. In the offer to return the Winchesters to the proper parties, O'Donnell merely demonstrated the general desire of the mill workers to conduct the wage conflict on peaceful lines. The men are, of course, as watchful as they ever were, and the rumors of expected non-union arrivals serve to nourish their vigilance. Yet it is safe to say no harm would be done them. The feeling is not friendly towards the troops since strict military discipline has been enforced. The soldiers are attending strictly to their duties and if called upon to act will do credit to the good name already established by the National Guard of the Keystone state. Yesterday a few more offers of financial assistances were received by the leaders of the lookout men, making in all 652 such offers. The men believe that in a week they can collect $10,000 from various labor organizations to be devoted to the payment of day workmen.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 16.—The workmen at the Union mills of the Carnegie Steel Company, at Twenty-eighth and Thirty-third streets, have locked themselves out, and they will have to wait till the company unlocks the gates before they can go back. This is the conclusion of the company as expressed by Mr. Lovejoy, who yesterday said; "If these men who quit work yesterday think they can strike and go in and out of our property and go to work when they please and quit when they please, they are very much mistaken. They will not be permitted to go back until the company say so; nor will they go back under the same terms and considerations. They broke the contract they had with us, and a new one will have to be made before they can work for us again. This is thrown down, and, having broken the contract, we propose to say what and under what terms they shall return. If they wait, as they say they will, till we agree to a conference with the amalgamated men at Homestead, they will have a long wait, for such a conference to take place. The mill will remain idle till we get ready to start. I can state positively that within a week we can get enough men to run full every department of the Union mills, as well as the Homestead plant, and we could do this if we so desired, but we will not start full. We will post no notices as we had first intended, but when the proper time comes we will communicate with our old men and anticipate no trouble in securing at least two-thirds of them."

On 'Change to-day business was very dull, nothing being offered.

The body of Lottie Reutler was recovered yesterday. The search for others continues. Ten bodies have been recovered.

HOW QUEBEC MEDS PASSED.

A Statement That Nine-Tenths of Them Had Seen Copies of the Papers.

MONTREAL, July 16.—The College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec met yesterday.

Drs. Dagenais, Jette and Beausoleil, who had been appointed a committee to enquire into cases of alleged impersonation at last May's preliminary examinations, caused quite a sensation by reporting that actually nine-tenths of the candidates had procured copies of the examination papers before presenting themselves. It was unanimously decided to annul the examination and require all candidates to present themselves again at the September examination.

The Board of Enquiry reported that in the last four years 38 young men had obtained medical certificates by proxy.

The following resolution was passed:

That those gentlemen who presented themselves for the preliminary examination in May, 1892, shall be required to make a solemn declaration before a magistrate and in presence of the examiners that they did not possess themselves by any unlawful means of any of the examination papers, or resort to any dishonest means to assist them in their exams.

GRUSTS AND SCALES

Hair and Eyebrows Fell Off. Doctor and Many Remedies No Benefit. Entirely Cured and Hair Restored by Cuticura.

My wife has been troubled for years with dry crusts and scales on her head and eyebrows. After seeming to be dormant for years in her system, it broke out over a year ago in all its fury. Her hair came out in big patches, her eyebrows all fell off, and she presented a pitiable condition. We tried almost everything, but she continued to get worse. Then we tried one of our best physicians, but all to no purpose. Finally my wife believed that the CUTICURA REMEDIES would cure her. After she had used nine boxes of CUTICURA, and about a dozen cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and four bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, she was cured entirely. Her hair came on again, and to-day she has as fine a head of black curly hair and as smooth skin as any lady in Allentown. Her eyebrows are heavier than they ever were, her scalp is free from dandruff, and her health is excellent. Now for the benefit of those suffering with same disease, or to those who may doubt the truthfulness of this statement, write me, inclosing a stamp, and I will cheerfully answer. I am sure that the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured my wife, for she used nothing else during the four or five months she used them. FREEMAN STOEKER,

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

GLADSTONE WILL HAVE ABOUT FORTY MAJORITY.

Only Eighteen More Seats to be Contested—Balfour Says Ireland Will Not See Home Rule During His Lifetime—Figuring on the Gladstonian Cabinet.

LONDON, July 18.—Six hundred and fifty two out of the 670 members who constitute the House of Commons have now been elected and the parties this morning stand as follows: Liberals 268, Anti-Parnellites 65, Parnellites 9, Conservatives 286, Liberal-Unionists 44.

Out of the 18 seats remaining to complete the House 14 are likely to fall to the Opposition and five to the Unionists The House of Commons will thus finally consist of 315 Unionists, against 355 members of the Liberal sections. The motley composition of this majority as opposed to a compact body of Unionists does not dismay the official Liberals, who are confronting the fact that a considerable majority of the British members are still Unionists. They contend that Mr. Gladstone has the absolute right by law and precedent to carry his Home Rule measure by Irish votes alone.

The tone of the Liberal executive is entirely altered regarding the proposed delay in the Home Rule bill, probably inspired by communications they have received. They now assert that Mr. Gladstone will have the full approval of the party in expediting Home Rule.

McCarthy and Lawson Elected.

Justin McCarthy, the leader of the anti-Parnellites, who was defeated in Londonderry a few days ago, much to the delight of the Parnellites, was elected Saturday in the North Division of Longford, beating his Conservative opponent, J. M. Wilson, by a majority of 2468.

Sir Wilfrid Lawson, an advanced Radical, who favors the disestablishment of the church, the abolition of the House of Lords, and the doing away with standing armies, has been elected in the Cockermouth Division of Cumberland, which he lost in the election of 1885, by a majority of 10 votes, but which, standing as a Gladstonian Liberal, he carried in 1886. Sir Wilfrid is well known for his devotion to the temperance cause, and as leader of the United Kingdom Alliance. He has been in Parliament, off and on, since 1859. In March, 1864, he asked for permission to introduce the measure now so well known as the Permissive bill, the main principle of which was the giving to two-thirds of any parish or township an absolute vote upon all licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors granted within their districts. This bill was supported by 40 members of the House. On June 18, 1880, Sir Wilfrid succeeded in carrying his "Local Option" resolution by a majority of 26.

Strong Temperance Following.

The new House will have 167 members pledged to direct veto and Sunday closing—the strongest temperance party Parliament has ever seen. Mr. Woods, member for Luce Division of Lancashire, joins the Independent Liberals.

When Sir Charles Russell's early elevation to the bench occurs he will be succeeded in the Attorney-Generalship by Mr. Rigby and Mr. Herbert H. Asquith will become Solicitor-General.

The most important change in the inner administration of the Liberal party will be a clean sweep of the whip offices. The present whips, Arnold, Morley and Cyril Flower, will receive peerages. Herbert Gladstone will become chief whip.

The Country Will Not Tolerate Dilke.

A leading subject of gossip is the question whether Mr. Gladstone will venture to offer a seat in the cabinet to Sir Charles Dilke. In the face of almost inevitable elections in 1893, it is believed that he will not take this risk of offending the religious feeling of the country.

The Times says the country not will tolerate Dilke's admission to the cabinet.

When the result of the election in the Forest of Dean division was announced the supporters of Sir Charles Dilke wanted to place him in a chair and carry him in triumph to his hotel. Sir Charles refused to allow this, however, and an enthusiastic crowd escorted him to the hotel. Sir Charles' wife, her face beaming with smiles, met him on the steps, from which Sir Charles delivered an address, thanking his supporters.

A seat will be found for Lord Salisbury's son, Viscount Cranborne, in Kensington, by conferring a peerage on Sir Algernon Borthwick.

Figuring on the Program.

All the cabinet ministers have been summoned to London for Thursday next.

Mr. Balfour, arriving in town Saturday, proceeded to Hatfield House to see Lord Salisbury.

Lord Salisbury went to Windsor Saturday to meet the Duke of Devonshire, who has been staying at the castle for some time. Here he had a conference with Her Majesty and returned to London Saturday accompanied by the Duke of Devonshire. It is expected that some developments of an unwonted character are impending. The Liberal leaders are prepared to take office immediately or await the defeat of the Government on the amendment to the address.

A conference of Mr. Gladstone and his colleagues is expected to take place on Thursday.

Regarding the coming crisis in Parliament a month must elapse before the actual business of the House begins. The swearing in of members takes a fortnight. Then the election of Speaker and of the chairman of committees proceeds, involving possibly a debate, and next comes the discussion of the amendment to the address in reply to speech from the throne. If this is followed by a change of Government, Gladstone may take a fortnight to form a ministry, a number of members of which may require re-election. The Liberals thus calculate that it will be October before the new Government can be called upon to present to Parliament its program. The import of this estimate of progress is that it is probable that Mr. Gladstone will not begin work of legislation in the winter session, but will postpone it until next spring.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

Harcourt Will Be Leader in the House of Commons.

LONDON, July 18.—Mr. Gladstone's first conference on the formation of the new Ministry occurred at Dalmeny Park, the residence of Lord Rosebery. Before he started for Braemar he summoned Mr. John Morley to meet Lord Rosebery and the Right Hon. Sir George O. Trevelyan. The deliberations proceeded on the understanding that Sir William Vernon Harcourt will be First Lord of the Treasury and Government leader in the House of Commons under Mr. Gladstone's direction, and that Henry Fowler will be Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The best informed Liberal forecasts of the Ministry assign Lord Herschel to be Lord Chancellor; Earl Spencer, Viceroy of Ireland; the Right Hon. George Shaw-Lefevre, Chief Secretary of Ireland; the Right Hon. George O. Trevelyan, Secretary of the Home Office; the Right Hon. Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary of State for War; Lord Ripon, First Lord of the Admiralty; Mr. John Morley, Secretary of the Colonies; Lord Rosebery, Secretary of the Foreign Office; the Earl of Kimberley, President of the Council, and the Right Hon. A. J. Mundella, President of the Board of Trade, while Mr. Gladstone will take the sinecure of the Chancellorship of the Duchy of Lancaster. These constitute the Cabinet. The leading posts outside the Cabinet are assigned as follows: Mr. Francis A. Channing as President of the Board of Agriculture; Mr. Sydney C. Buxton, President of the Local Government Board; Mr. Henry Labouchere, Postmaster-General; Mr. William A. Hunt, Secretary for Scotland; Sir Charles Russell, Attorney-General, and Mr. Rigby, Solicitor-General.

Davitt's Victory.

The Chronicle is jubilant over Davitt's victory. It says: "He is the only Irishman who recalls to us the touch of genius of personal magnetism which was so supremely attractive in Parnell. He and his Canadian colleague, Mr. Blake, will form invaluable lines between the Irish people and British democracy at home and abroad."

The Daily Telegraph's Navan correspondent states that Michael Davitt's victory in the North division of Meath, as an anti-Parnellite candidate, will not prevent the Parnellites from contesting the seat at the next election. He also says: "Parnellite resentment against the priests is growing in virulence. The statement is made that it would be well to collect and remit Peter's pence contributions direct to Rome instead of through priests."

WHAT BALFOUR SAYS.

"Home Rule Is Not Likely to Be Passed in Our Time," He Says.

LONDON, July 18.—Mr. Balfour, in a speech at Glossop, said that to the various disasters to the Conservative cause that have recently occurred must be added the fact that the Separatists seem certain to obtain a majority in Parliament, but he did not think that this misfortune would bring serious evil to the cause of the Union.

The ejection of the present Government was in great measure due to the circulation of gross calumnies.

The fact that the Gladstonians had not secured the majority they expected showed that Home Rule was not acceptable to the mass of the nation.

He did not regard the present situation with alarm, except as regards foreign affairs. He had much misgiving as to the course that would be taken in Egypt and in other parts of Africa.

He had no fear in regard to the Home Rule Bill for Ireland, "which," he said, "is not likely to be passed in our time."

He held that the Unionists would be strong enough to control the legislative folly of their successors.

MR. MORLEY TO BE OPPOSED.

Labor Will Run a Candidate Against Gladstone's Lieutenant.

LONDON, July 18.—At a meeting of the Labor party in Newcastle, Mr. Hardie said that it was the duty of Laborists to try their utmost to oust Mr. Morley in the event of his being selected to enter the Liberal Cabinet.

He proposed that Mr. Cunningham Grahame be chosen to contest the seat for which Mr. Morley would stand after his appointment to a Ministerial position.

A resolution was passed by the meeting to the effect that the Labor party would run a candidate in opposition to Mr. Morley.

An Election Row.

DUBLIN, July 18.—Two hundred persons, including a number of women, were arraigned at Limerick Saturday on a charge of throwing stones and wrecking houses during the election riots. During the proceedings a chairman of the sessions accused the Government of officially allowing Parnellite bands to play in the streets. A scene occurred between the chairman and the magistrate and the latter left the bench. Ultimately harmony was restored. A number of the prisoners were fined.

MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

Four of the Members Elected by Acclamation on Saturday.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 18.—Nominations for the Manitoba general elections took place on Saturday and polling will take place next Saturday. In four constituencies of the 40 the members are elected by acclamation, West Bourne electing T. L. Morton (Government), Woodlands H. Armstrong (Opposition), Lorne R. G. O'Malley (Opposition), and Robsell James Fisher (Independent-Liberal.)

WITH ALL ON BOARD.

A Kingsville Party Have Been Missing Since Friday Night's Storm.

KINGSVILLE, Ont., July 18.—Rudolph Blaser, second cook, George Boltard, fireman, Maggie Meecham, vegetable cook, and Anna Dillon, kitchen girl, all employes of the Mellawusa Hotel here, are supposed to have been lost upon Lake Erie in Friday night's storm. The party insisted upon going out despite the protests of the boat house keeper.

Fatal Stabbing in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., July 18.—William Knack was stabbed to death last night by George Bossenberger, a neighbor. The families of both men have been on bad terms for some months, and a quarrel between their boys resulted in the stabbing.

Fished From the Niagara.

CARNEGIE IS DEFIANT.

TWO ULTIMATUMS ISSUED TO THE MEN.

Resume Work at Once Or Quit Forever—Non-Union Men Arrive in Considerable Numbers—What the Secretary of the Carnegie Works Has to Say on the Matter.

PITTSBURG, July 18.—The following notice was Saturday posted by the Carnegie Steel Company at the Homestead mills in the vicinity of the works and sent all over the country:

Notice—"Individual applications for employment at the Homestead Steel Works will be received by the general superintendents either by telegraph or in person until July 21, 1892."

"It is our desire to retain in our service all of our employes whose past record is satisfactory and who did not take part in the attempts which have been made to interfere with our right to manage our business," said Mr. Frick. "Such of old employes as do not apply by the time above named will be considered as having no desire to re-enter our employment, and the position will be given to other men, and those first applying will have the chance of unfilled positions for which they are suitable. This notice will be the last given to the employes of the works, and after non-compliance with this the places will be filled with non-union men.

Confident of Securing Labor.

"That there are non-union men in the Homestead mill and more coming is evident. Mr. Lovejoy says there is not the least doubt that we will have enough men to work the mill in a satisfactory manner. The Homestead mill will be started up July 23, and the notice posted Saturday will be the last.

"The men at Beaver Falls and our Union Mills will be given until Monday, July 18, to return to work under a new agreement. The Union Mills will be started Monday, the 18th, and we will have no trouble in getting competent men to fill the places in spite of what the men say.

A Thorough Scheme of Protection.

"The Carnegie Steel Company has advertised for bids for furnishing materials and building houses for the use of the men employed in the mill. The location is inside of the enclosure and the men will be assured of protection of their houses.

"The front of the Carnegie mill or river bank was last night under guard by soldiers, so that it is impossible for the men to approach the works from any side without being challenged by guards. The town is thoroughly policed by the militia, and guards are in every corner. As a result not the slightest disorder exists and the borough constables are practically supernumeraries."

The story that 180 families are starving here has no foundation.

THE FETTERS WERE STEEL.

A Bridegroom Arrested for a Forgery Committed in Toronto.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 18.—Louis Levenger, aged 28, fled from Toronto two years ago with the proceeds of a forged note for $2000. At the time he was engaged to be married to a young Toronto lady. The police watched the young woman and Saturday she and her mother boarded a train for Suspension Bridge, N.Y. The police of that town were notified and when Levenger met the train he was arrested. He agreed to return to Toronto voluntarily and was sent there in charge of an officer.

Levenger and the young lady were to have been married as soon as she alighted from the train.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in The Queen City.

TORONTO, July 18.—The receipts of grain on the street Saturday were represented by one load of oats at 34c. Hay was in limited supply, 15 loads selling at $11 to $14 per ton, and new at $9 to $11.50. Straw firmer at $9 to $10.50.

Business was dull on 'Change, the only offering being a car by sample at 56c, with 40c bid.

SUNK IN COLLISION.

The Steam Yacht Dixie Sent to the Bottom by the Pilgrim.

BUFFALO, July 18.—The little steam yacht Dixie, valued at about $3000, which ran from Ferry-street to Navy Island, was run down by the river steamer Pilgrim shortly after leaving her dock, and sank in a few minutes. There were about 20 passengers on board, all of whom were rescued.

A Strange Gallows Scene.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 18.—Peter Daniels, a negro, was hung here Saturday for the murder of Silvia Lyle, his paramour, one year ago. The scene at the gallows was a remarkable one. Perhaps a 100 negroes were gathered around the scaffold and joined in singing weird plantation songs, led by the condemned negro. He protested his innocence of the crime until the end, but there is no doubt of his guilt. The evidence on which he was convicted was circumstantial. His paramour was shot down in the dark while in company with another negro, and Daniel's hat was found near by.

Death of Mrs. Shehyn.

Loss to the Rathbuns.

KINGSTON, July 18.—Fire broke out Saturday evening in McCarey's stables, adjoining Rathbun's lumber yard, foot of Queen-street, and spread to the lumber piles. The loss will be several thousand dollars; insured.

Maniac or Hypocrite?

Strange Proceedings of the Perpetrator of the Sidney Outrage—He was a Religious Enthusiast and Possibly Demented.

Chief County Constable Johnson called at our office this morning. He says he was out yesterday investigating the Sidney outrage. So far he can get no trace of the vile perpetrator. He says that it is the strangest and foulest case he ever knew. On reaching the home of Mr. Brown, near Bayside post office, he found the mother of the child nearly prostrated with nervous excitement and horror. The constable asked to see any articles belonging to Wheeler. She produced a satchel, quite heavy. On opening it, the first thing found was one department filled with religious tracts, and another containing testaments, hymn books, hymns and odes, with texts such as these: "Blessed is he whose sin is covered." "Where will I go if I die to night?" "Be sure your sin will find you out," with correspondence from several ladies and gentlemen of the county, all of a highly religious character. Everything about his surroundings, books and other matters would lead one to think that if there was one perfect young man it was Alfred Wheeler. Let us see the other side: a designing vile monster, guilty of a crime, the details of which are far more revolting than those which took Davis and Kane to the gallows.

After gathering all the information he could from the parent, the Constable had Edna (the victim) called in. She is an uncommonly sprightly child for one of ten years—nice looking and intelligent. She has an uncommon ear for music, and without any instruction can play off any tune she hears sung. This brought her much in the company of Wheeler, who is a good singer. They spent hours together, he singing religious odes, she playing the accompaniment on the organ. The girl's person bears evidences of the most gross brutality and her story of the crime is too revolting for publication. The girl says Wheeler got a large knife and told her if she ever gave him away he would cut her throat and kill the baby besides, to whom she was very much attached. The constable can only reconcile his acts as those of a religious maniac, as he claimed in all his preaching about the country a man once saved, as he put it, could not be lost. Only a few days ago the Rev. Mr. Ash, of this city, called at Mr. Brown's for tea. The young Englishman commenced to catechise him as to his belief. Mr. Ash's theology not suiting him, he told him his soul would be lost. The constable says he will use every means in his power to arrest the scoundrel.—Belleville Intelligencer.

The Lindsay Post says: Seventeen years ago Mr. Edward Benson moved from Belleville to Lindsay and established under his own name the hostelry now so favourably known throughout the length and breadth of the province. When it was learned some weeks ago that he contemplated retiring from the hotel business, owing to ill-health, genuine regret was expressed, even by those of pronounced temperance principles. The report proved to be true, and on Thursday of last week Mr. F. J. Daly, of Peterborough, brother of Messrs. Edward and J. J. Daly of this town, assumed possession. Mr. Daly was proprietor of the Grand Central, one of the leading hotels in Peterborough, for years and is well known to the travelling public. He is also well known to the people of Lindsay and country, having spent his boyhood here, and having had long experience, the Benson House will no doubt in the future as in the past, retain the name of being one of the best in Ontario.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

Canada in Search of a Trade Policy.

Mr. John Bertram, formerly of Peterborough, has addressed the following letter to the Globe:—

SIR,—To anyone conversant with the trade policy of Canada during the past fifteen years, and with the disputes and differences of opinion arising therefrom, the present aspect of the question must seem very anomalous. When the policy of protection was instituted in 1879 it was at a very fortunate time, as immediately afterwards followed the boom years of 1880-81-82, and the expansion of business was credited to the new policy. The spectacle was presented to the electors of the then Finance Ministers and others perambulating the country, congratulating and being congratulated on their great success in bringing back prosperity to all. As years went by, however, the chout of acclaim died away and little enthusiasm was manifested, except by the protected classes. The feeling of doubt as to the efficacy of the new policy deepened, the increasing distress manifested by the farmers was echoed by the commercial classes, and to make matters worse the McKinley Bill became law in the United States, and had the effect of reducing the value of many things the farmer had hitherto sold in the American market. The late Sir John Macdonald recognized the situation. He saw that with the N.P. only he could not again carry the country with him, and so in the beginning of 1891 adopted the cry of reciprocity with the United States on the basis of the old treaty of 1854, with variations. He was successful, and since then various missions have proceeded to Washington asking for a reciprocity in natural products. The Americans were asked to abolish their tariff on our farm products, lumber, fish, etc., while we retained our tariff against their manufactured goods. As was to be expected their proposals were politely declined.

On the other hand, the Government party, with Sir Charles Tupper as their mouthpiece, have been asking England to change her trade policy towards Canada. The well-known policy of that country pursued for many years has been to admit all agricultural produce and raw materials free of duty. Sir Charles Tupper and the great majority of Canadian delegates to the trade congress recently held in London asked for preferential treatment in the British market. They wanted Great Britain to revert to the discarded policy of allowing colonial products to enter free and charge duty on all foreign articles of the same description, and this without offering to take down the tariff now charged by Canada on English wares. Here, too, as was to be expected, the proposal was declined and the dominant party of to-day have been met by a decided rebuff both from Great Britain and the United States, to say nothing of their attempts in the West Indies.

To arrive at a proper understanding of the present condition of affairs it is well to remember that the great bulk of Canadian trade is with two countries. The aggregate of Canada on the basis of goods entered for consumption and exported was, in 1891, with Great Britain, $91,328,584; United States, $94,824,252; all others $25,609,684. The treatment, however, accorded to Canadian products is very different in the two countries. Great Britain welcomes our ships to her ports and takes everything we have to offer free of duty. The United States have raised their tariff so high as to be on many things almost prohibitory, and yet the fact remains that more business is done in the aggregate with the United States than with Great Britain. This is a matter of grave importance, and on its proper solution rests largely the wellbeing and prosperity of the Canadian people.

Considering the matter from an international standpoint, in which three parties are interested, in what way can we enlarge our trade with England to begin with? All trade is reciprocal. Selling is contingent on buying, it may be directly or in a more roundabout fashion. As England takes all we have to offer free there is obviously only one way of increasing trade, and that is by lowering our tariff. When this proposition is made there is an immediate outcry from the protectionists, and they claim their trade would be ruined by English competition. It is only reasonable to examine what this claim amounts to. For this purpose let an example be taken of the largest single line of goods imported from England, viz., the manufactures of wool. In 1878 the tariff on woollen goods was 17½ per cent. ad val.; the present tariff averages 30 per cent. In 1891 Canada imported $9,962,744 of woollen goods and collected in duty the sum of $2,963,-248.29. The duty, however, is higher on goods in ordinary use than 30 per cent.; on tweeds costing 2s per yard in England and weighing 12 ounces per yard, the duty is 10 cents per pound and 20 per cent. ad val., or 36 per cent. Even from a protectionist standpoint there must be some limit to a tariff. If manufacturers are asked on what grounds they ask for protection, the almost invariable answer is because wages are higher here than in England. Let this be taken for granted. Then the question may be fairly put, what proportion of the cost of an ordinary piece of Canadian tweed is composed of wages? The answer of the manufacturer in Canada would be not more than 20 per cent. Here, then, is a rule to go by. Let the manufacturer have a tariff of 20 per cent., sufficient to pay all his wages. This would probably be accepted by the tariff reformers, and if the same rule was applied to all English manufactured goods, not, perhaps, strictly, but in a common-sense way, it would so lower the general tariff as to increase international trade and also relieve the burdens of that part of the population who are protected, but are in competition with the whole world.

Turning to the United States, a different problem presents itself. The two countries have a very long line of frontier separating them, which interlocks and overlaps in many places, giving unusual facilities for trading. The highest statesmanship of both has every year resulted building high tariff walls to mask these natural advantages, while the people themselves have built railways, bridges and tunnels to facilitate intercourse. This is surely a ridiculous condition of things, and some method can be found of promoting a more friendly and mutually profitable arrangement.

Canadians have declared their willingness to trade freely with the United States in all products of the farm, the forest and the fisheries. The United States would agree to this on condition that all manufactured goods be added to the list, and further, that Canada gives this treatment to them alone.

In negotiating treaties of reciprocity with other countries the United States have not accorded this preferential treatment to anyone. They negotiated a treaty with Brazil, but left themselves at liberty to treat with other countries on the same conditions, so their demand would be modified. As previously stated, Canada has two main customers, and to negotiate a preferential treaty with one would be practically giving notice to the other that our doors were closed against them. This would be a foolish thing to do, and would be paying too high a price for the privilege of selling part of our exports when they could be sold to advantage in the American markets.

And, after all, free trade with the United States in natural products would not be all in favor of Canada, as even with a high Canadian tariff, a considerable amount of farm produce finds a market in Canada. By reason of the difference in soil and climate many things could be exchanged profitably. Canada could advantageously sell barley to the United States and buy corn and pork. Then, geographically considered, the New England States could be supplied with coal by Nova Scotia, and Ontario by Pennsylvania. Taking it for granted that, being near neighbors, a profitable business could be carried on not only in natural productions but also in some manufactured goods, the question is immediately asked, what kind? There is a class of goods made in the United States and in Canada that may be styled American. This continent has either the raw material, special facilities for manufacturing, or by invention have distanced outsiders. In a list of the kind may be included woodenware of all sorts, lumber, sash, doors carriage and waggon materials, furniture, organs, pianos, carriage, cabinet makers' and builders' hardware, harvesters, mowers, agricultural implements, harness, stoves, axes, hammers, horse nails, horse shoes, sleighs, carriages, waggons, rubber goods, boots and shoes, etc.

An international trade in these and other lines would be valued by the United States manufacturers. At the outset they would have the advantage over their Canadian competitors by reason of their business being more specialized, but this would soon right itself, and Canadian manufacturers, who are now suffering from having only a limited and distant market, would obtain access to an unlimited market at their very doors. Now, supposing it could be shown that American manufacturers obtained an undoubted advantage in this arrangement, would it not be fully counterbalanced by obtaining free entry into the American markets for the products of the farm, forest, mine and fisheries.

To bring about this desirable state of things there would be no need for making a reciprocity treaty at all, and the consent of the home authorities would not be wanted. Canada has now the power to regulate her own tariff and would only require to put on her free list all such items as could be mutually agreed upon with the United States. The remedy is easily applied and very effectual.

If the foregoing positions are sound, then the true policy for Canada becomes very simple and easily understood—reduce the tariff on the class of goods now imported from England to a more moderate and reasonable figure. Trade freely with the United States in all lines of goods; they will trade freely with us on one condition, that we put them on our free list. This would not interfere with any favored nation clause. The tariff would be the same to everybody. Without doubt it would increase trade with England, and on this continent it would be of immense mutual benefit. It would promote harmony, friendly rivalry, and community of interest between the people here and their neighbours on the other side of the line.

The Work of Some Scamp.

On Saturday evening Mr. Christopher Armstrong, of Otonabee, came to town and put his horse and buggy into the Croft House yard. When he went to return home about 9 o'clock he found his top buggy and black horse missing. He had given no one authority to take it away, and the general opinion prevailed that the horse and vehicle had been stolen. At an early hour yesterday morning Mr. Jas. Middleton, who resides on the second concession of Smith, about four miles from Peterborough, heard a horse whinney on the road. Getting up, he discovered an animal attached to a buggy standing in front of his gate. The hind wheel was caught against a post, holding the horse fast. Nothing about the harness or buggy was broken. Mr. Middleton took the horse and buggy into the yard, and sent word to town. Mr. Armstrong was notified and last evening he recovered his lost property. The thieving was no doubt the work of some villian, who thought that he was doing a remarkably smart trick by taking the horse and buggy from the yard and driving off with it.

Arrested on a Serious Charge.

John Wilson and Alex. Ross, who are well known characters in Peterborough, having had an acquaintance with the police court on more than one occasion, have got themselves in durance vile, charged with a serious offence. On the morning of June 8th last the station at Locust Hill, on the line of the C.P.R. between here and Toronto was broken into, and a desperate attempt made to get at the contents of the till. The night operator, Robert Hawkins, was in the ticket office at the time the door was broken open, and intercepted the burglars in their search for booty. The midnight marauders picked up a chair and pounded Hawkins over the head, who bravely endeavoured to defend himself. The altercation awoke the station agent sleeping in the room above and also one or two other parties who hurried to the scene. Becoming alarmed the marauders took to their heels and made off, having secured nothing of value. For a long time it was doubtful whether the night operator would survive the serious injuries he received or not, but after some weeks he rallied. Suspicion at once pointed to Wilson and Ross, who had left Peterborough rather mysteriously, as the perpetrators of the deed. Toronto detectives took the matter in hand and ably assisted by the local police, the parties were arrested. Wilson was arrested on the night of July 12th by Officer McGinty and locked up. Last week Detective Ross of Toronto arrived and took the prisoner to Toronto. Chief Hound received word where Ross was, and telegraphed the authorities at Toronto where they would find him, with the result that Detective Ross arrested Ross at Fingal, a small village seven miles from St. Thomas, on Saturday. Ross was working in the McPherson Manufacturing Co.'s establishment. Both prisoners are confined in the gaol at Toronto, where they will be brought up for trial.

Run Out of Brockville.

The peripatetic portrait artists are operating in Brockville and are having rather hard lines. The Times exposed their operations and the victims came down upon them. One lady followed an "agent" to the water's edge and compelled him to "disgorge his ill-gotten money" and he took the boat and fled to the United States. If any person in Peterborough gets taken in "their blood be on their own head." They have had ample warning.

The Northern Lights Show.

Saturday evening many viewed with unusual delight that luminous celestial phenomenon the aurora borealis. A thousand purple lights radiated to a common centre and painted the midnight heavens in bright array. Ever and anon bright electrified lights commenced the celestial dome, hiding from view the glory of the clouds. The display, entrancing and dazzling was one of the most beautiful exhibitions of heavenly pyrotechnics ever witnessed.—COM

Green Goods Negotiations.

Several responsible citizens have received circulars from a new York dealer in counterfeit money. This shark's way of doing business is peculiar. Each prospective victim is assigned a number, and a telegram (no letters no use) sent from the victim under cover of this number does the business. No money handled without a personal visit to New York. $150 good money for $5000. counterfeit money, "really as good as gold." Mr. "T. Martin" will not get many telegrams or personal visits from Peterborough.

The Sons of Canada have made arrangements for running their fourth annual excursion to Jubilee Point on Civic Holiday. Prof. Butcher's orchestra will provide music for dancing. Be sure and make your arrangements for attending this excursion. The success of past excursions conducted under the same auspices guarantees that this will be the best of the season. Make a note of these four facts: Civic Holiday; Sons of England Excursion; to Jubilee Point; the best of the season.

The Storm Furious Around Belleville.

The serious storm of Friday did great damage on the Bay of Quinte at Belleville. Mr. Fredrick Noyce who was returning from Massassaga Park to the city in a skiff was caught in the storm which overturned the skiff in which he and three boys were seated. The boys succeeded in grabbing the side of the boat, but Mr. Noyce was not so fortunate and was drowned. The yatch Nova rescued the three boys. Mr. Noyce was a baker, highly respected, and leaves a wife and three children. Another unfortunate death occurred at Mr. R Delong's place on Huff's Island. Members of of the family were in a barn milking when the storm broke over that neighborhood. The party heard the creaking of the timbers of the building and made for the cellar beneath. One however, Miss Zufelt, a sister-in-law of Mr. Delong, was caught in the ruins and killed, her neck being broken.

Central Canada Loan & Savings Co. re Company's assessment for income. Appeal argued by D. W. Dumble on behalf of Company, and E. B. Edwards on behalf of town. Judgment reserved.

Jos. Laudy respecting over and wrongful assessment of real estate. Appeal dismissed.

The House-Breaking Case.

Argument by counsel took place to-day in the Ashburnham house-breaking case before County Police Magistrate Edmison, Mrs. Walker last week swore that she was not the wife of George Calder, and this morning in giving evidence she swore that she was his lawful wife. On this ground the prosecution argued that she being Calder's wife, she had no right to give evidence in her husband's behalf. Further argument took place in reference to certain evidence put in by the defense and prosecution; who were the lawful tenants of the house, and whether a case had been established or not. Argument was further adjourned until Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. After judgment had been pronounced on the charge of house-breaking, Mrs. Calder will be brought up on the charge of aiming a knife at Constable Archie Moore with intent to do bodily harm. As Constable Moore was lodging Mrs. Calder in gaol on Wednesday night last, she grabbed a large bread knife and struck at the constable's head saying she would kill him. The knife happily missed its victim's head by the constable striking the woman's arm.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by

The Game of Ball

Played Between Port Hope and the Edison Nines on Saturday Afternoon Resulted in a Great Victory for the Latter Team.

The Edison Baseball Club accompanied by 160 of the employees of the works and citizens generally left on Saturday afternoon at one o'clock for Port Hope. The excursionists who availed themselves of the cheap trip were carried in three coaches attached to a through freight and the seaport town was reached in fifty-five minutes time, where the party disembarked and wended its way to the ball field. An admission fee of fifteen cents was charged to witness the game and out of the 179 tickets taken in at the gates 150 were from Peterborough, proving that the Port Hopers take little or no interest in the scientific game of baseball and the welfare of their team. The game between the teams needs no comments, it being a complete walk-over for the Edisons, who outbatted, outplayed and outfielded their opponents at every turn. Port Hope had imported the Bowmanville battery, Powers and Murgaw, to assist them and they well proved themselves to be a strong element, but received no substantial support. Port Hope was weak at the bat, and poor at both the in and outfields, exhibiting a lamentable lack of practice, as is shown by their error column. Landers, the Edison's new catcher, and Lomas, the new twirler, are "dandies," although the latter did not let himself out in Saturday's match All of the electricians played well, LePage on second and Duckworth on third putting up phenomenal games. The batting of Parks, Lomas and L Page in particular and the remainder of the team was a noticeable feature in their success and accounts for the former's score of 23 to 4 in their favour, the Edisons in the fourth innings piling up nearly half of the total. Capt. Foster may well speak with pardonable pride of his nine. Following are the score and summary of the game which tell the tale of victory in an epitomized form:

TIPS FROM THE BAT.

The Edisons play Lindsay in Lindsay next Saturday and arrangements are being made for another cheap trip which will be announced later on in the week.

Le Page is a great catcher.

Landers behind the bat caught a beautiful game.

For the first day's play and no practice with a strange team, Lomas pitched a good game but better things may be looked for at next Saturday's game.

A more jolly crowd never returned to Peterborough than the one Saturday night. A large number formed a procession and marched up George street to the sweet music of tin plates, kazoos and fish horns.

The Port Hope team are a good crowd of boys but will have to practice every evening with a few matinees thrown in to keep up with the Edisons.

If the Port Hops team ever come to Peterborough they can look for a grand reception.

A grand procession paraded the streets in Port Hope bearing aloft the large Edison flag supported by half a dozen brooms and blowing horns.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J. C Ayer of Lowell, Mass. nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

Keeping Everlastingly At It Brings Success.

More Damage Done

By the Violent Storm of Friday Last—The Cobourg Road Visited by the Cyclone.

The violent storm of Friday last seems to have done more serious damage and swept a wider region of destruction than at first anticipated. The great tempest visited the Cobourg road in Northumberland county, and for miles left the impress of its visitation indelibly impressed upon the community. Mr. Patrick Schiloscey was busily engaged in drawing in hay when the storm made its first sweep. His horses became frightened and ran away, smashing the waggon and throwing Mr. Schiloscey from the load. He sustained severe injuries about the body. Two of his barns were also blown down and are a complete wreck.

Mr. Houghgate had his barn blown down and about $400 damage done by the storm.

A like fate befell the barns of Mr. Michael Cleary.

A great deal of other damage was done to crops. Large trees were severed in twain, apples blown off orchards by the barrels full, and fences levelled to the ground. The country for miles around has the appearance of a dreary mass of ruin in several places.

Mr. Henry Stewart who resides in the 7th concession of Otonabee had his boat house blown over and twirled round and round in the great storm on Friday last as if it were a leaf. In the boat house was a valuable hickory canoe worth $40 which was smashed to atoms. Mr. Stewart found splinters of the canoe in the third field from where his boat house stood. He said the first thing that warned him of the approach of a terrible wind was seeing a heavy maple arm chair which was standing on his lawn picked up by the breeze and hurled high in the air some thirty feet, clearing the barn at a bound.

Miss Smith, of Hiawatha while returning from the river was caught in the storm which came on so suddenly and with such terrific thunder and lightning that she was overcome by fright and fell fainting to the ground where she lay for some time before being discovered. She is now slowly recovering from the effects of her fright.

Mother You are Interested Because it Concerns Baby.

Is your dear baby languishing, frail and weak in this terribly oppressive weather?

We advise you strongly to give Lactated Food a trial; you will soon find the blush of health returning to its cheeks.

Are you sure that baby is progressing and growing as it ought to grow?

If you do not notice regular natural growth, commence with Lactated Food; it is a grand nourisher, and a producer of flesh, bone and muscle.

Is baby's sleep fitful and irregular; does it rest naturally?

If not, you are feeding it improperly. Change its diet at once; give it Lactated Food; then only then, will baby rest and sleep well.

Is baby troubled with constipation dysentery or diarrhœa?

These distressing complaints follow imperfect dieting. Cow's milk and poorly prepared food bring on these troubles. When Lactated Food is used, there is always perfect digestive vigour.

Do your wish your baby to become a joy, a creation of beauty and loveliness?

You devoutly desire this; you pray for it. Your wish will be realized if Lactated Food is used.

Another Form of Fraud.

A recent fraud just heard of by our contemporary exchanges is the butter agent who makes contracts with farmers to handle their butter all summer at 26 cents a pound, the farmer signing a contract to ship the butter, which contract turns out to be a note for $260. Moral:—do business with the town storekeepers, and give the agent a wide berth.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

Just Arrived.

Midsummer number "Illustrated London News" at Peterborough Bookstore. Special matter; four beautiful chromos included.

Mothers and Others:

All who have the care of children should know that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry may be confidently depended on to cure all summer complaints, diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, canker, etc., in children or adults. dw

If you are tired taking the large old-fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills and take some comfort. A man can't stand everything. One pill a dose. Try them. dw Consumptives!

Do not give up until you have tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which makes flesh and blood, is a positive cure for coughs and colds, bronchitis, sore throats, and all lung troubles tending to consumption. Persons have been known to gain from five to ten pounds in weight by taking one bottle of Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which contains hypophosphites of lime and soda. 50c. big bottles, 50c. and $1 at Peterborough drug stores.

Rapid Relief.

DEAR SIR,—I had for years been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache, and found but little relief until I tried your Burdock Blood Bitters, which made a perfect cure. It is the best medicine I ever had in my life, and I will never be without it.

HATTIE DAVIS,
dw Clinton, Ont.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give housewho call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and now an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff as no equal.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It

RETALIATION MEASURE.

WHAT SENATOR HIGGINS WOULD LIKE CONGRESS TO DO.

He Wants a Duty on Fresh Fish, on Vessels Passing Through the Sault Canal and Upon Tea and Coffee Imported From Canada.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Senator Higgins yesterday introduced in the Senate a bill "authorizing retaliation for certain unjust discriminations by the Dominion of Canada against the United States."

The preamble recites, in substance, that Canada denies to American fishermen the right to purchase bait and supplies in Canadian ports and limits their right to shelter except upon unwarranted tributs, while the United States grant these privileges freely; that the Canadian Government imposes a discrimination toll of 18 cents a ton on American products passing through the Welland Canal and discriminating port dues upon American shipping upon the lakes; that it nullifies the operation of the Interstate Commerce law in the case of the competitive traffic between the United States and Canadian railroads by relieving Canadian railroads from all legal restraints; that it grants subsidies amounting to $1,000,000 annually to the Canadian Pacific Railway and its connecting steamship lines, thus discriminating against American railroads and steamship lines, and that it imposes discriminating duties on tea and coffee entering Canada from the United States.

Provisions of the Bill.

Therefore, the accompanying bill provides:

First—For a duty of two cents a pound on fresh fish imported from Canada or it Canadian vessels or cars, in addition to the present duties on preserved fish, a duty three times the present duty.

Second—A tonnage tax of 50 cents per ton on Canadian vessels passing through the Sault Ste. Marie Canal.

Third—An entrance and clearing fee of 50 cents upon Canadian vessels every time they enter an American port on the lakes.

Fourth—The suspension of the long and short haul clause of the Interstate Commerce law so long as it affects competitive traffic between the United States and Canadian railroads.

Fifth—The imposition of the full duties on goods transhipped from one United States port to another over the Canadian Pacific or Canadian Territory and crossing the 115th meridian.

Sixth—Imposition of a duty of eight cents a pound on coffee and 12 cents a pound on tea coming from Canada and twice the present duties on foreign merchandise other than the products of Canada imported into the United States through Canada.

Secretary Foster's Views.

Secretary Foster of the State Department said to-day that the action of the Canadian Council in allowing rebates on tolls on grain shipped from American ports on Lake Ontario passing through St. Lawrence canals and exported from Montreal has no particular bearing on the controversy between this country and Canada on the subject of discriminating canal tolls. He explained that the order applied only to exports from Montreal and made no change whatever in the canal tolls on grain shipments intended for export from any other port. He added that it could hardly be regarded as very much of a concession.

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

Advertise in the Examiner.

Very often it happens that the grower of flowers would like a screen in front of some path or unsightly object, perhaps to mark the boundary between flower and vegetable garden; or it may be necessary to have a fence or hedge in the background. We have few plants which grow large enough to form such a fence or screen without support, and this makes it imperative to use climbing plants that can be trained to a height of several feet, if desired, or if height is not considered can be extended in each direction so that considerable space will be covered with foliage. In order to make neat jobs of this kind of work it is quite necessary that the gardener should have something substantial and neat in design to work with. Vines will grow over a screen of bush or clamber up a stick, but the effect is never quite satisfactory, and until the support is covered the objects used as such are always unsightly, and obtrustive to such an extent that the gardener with an eye for neatness is always annoyed by them.

It is not a very difficult matter to construct very satisfactory frames for screen or fence to be covered with vines at home, and the expense of doing it is slight. It is a good plan to set "the boys" of the family at such work. They will take pleasure in doing it, and it will afford them very good practice in the use of tools. It will be manual training work of a very practical sort. Accompanying this article I give two designs of frames which any boy can readily construct after studying the illustrations carefully. The tools required will be saw, plane, hammer and square.

No. 1 shows a very simple but pleasing panel. It has the merit of being strong, while combining angles and curves in such a manner as to produce a very satisfactory effect when set in place. The upright pieces should be of inch stuff. The cross strips should be of lath. The center can be made from barrel hoops or wire fastened with wire to the cross strips. The frame should be put together with wire nails, which should be clinched on the back. This can be done by laying the frame, when nailing it, on a piece of iron. Driving the nail through the wood, against the iron, will cause the end of it to double down against the wood, thus making a rigid joint. The strips of wood should be planed neatly. In doing work of this kind instruct the boys, or whoever is doing it, to aim at neatness, as the effect is much better where you have well-made panels because they must remain uncovered through the early part of the season, and while they are in this condition it is desirable to have them look as attractive as possible. It is advisable to paint them well for two reasons: They look better, and last longer; and if these panels are housed in fall, they will last for several seasons if well made. In painting them choose some neutral color which harmonizes with the vines to be trained over them. Do not paint them red or white, or any color which will be obtrusive.

No. 2 shows a frame made by fastening barrel hoops to posts set in the ground. To make them firm and secure wire them to the posts and to each other. This makes a cheap screen frame, which can be rapidly constructed, and has the merit of being so easy to make that any woman can put it up. Nos. 1 and 2 can be fastened together at the junction of each panel, when set in place, by hooks and screw-eyes. Or they can be wired together or tied.

In training vines over them some discrimination should be made in selecting plants for the different styles of frame. For No. 1 a vine which does not branch much is most appropriate, as the long growth can be trained around and around the hoop until it is covered, and the outline of the frame preserved; while with a branching vine the frame would soon be completely covered and all distinctness of outlines lost. For this purpose Madeira vine and German ivy are useful. A charming effect is secured by training these two vines along the cross-pieces, and using the scarlet flowering bean for the hoop. The contrast of colors will be very fine. Be sure to confine the bean to the hoop. If it seems disposed to straggle, clip it back. In a short time you will have a solid circular mass of pretty green foliage and scarlet flowers which seems to be supported on bars of green.

OPIUM SANDWICHED WITH EGGS.

An Ingenious Smuggling Scheme Discovered at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 18.—William Watts, a well-known produce dealer in the market, who brings most of his goods from Canada, was arrested Saturday by the United States officials on a charge of smuggling opium.

He had been under suspicion some time and had been watched. The officials learned that he was in the habit of bringing over about $3000 worth of opium each trip.

His scheme was ingenious. He lined the bottom of his wagon with eggs and in the centre put a quantity of opium. The bottom layer of the egg crates was usually filled with opium.

Watts made about $3 a can on the stuff. He bought it in Canada for $5 a can and sold it for $8. There are a dozen Chinamen implicated in the smuggling scheme and they will be arrested to-morrow. The Canadian end of the gang will also be taken in to-morrow.

IT IS EPIDEMIC.

"Help My Poor Family" the Last Plea of a Canadian Suicide.

BUFFALO, July 18.—Henry Rothert of No. 37 Sycamore, whose mother lives at International Bridge, Ont., despondent because of illness and poverty, drew a razor across his throat and passed into eternity. The deed was done on the Pine Hill road just beyond the Polish cemetery some time yesterday morning. The body was found about 4 o'clock in the afternoon lying by the roadside, with the razor near by.

One of the notes, a long one, in which he said he had written it on his knee in the woods, was addressed to "My dear wife and children and all my friends, sister and brother," and told substantially a story of illness and despondency. This was dated July 8.

Another was addressed to "Henry Emrick, International Bridge, Ont.," saying: "Please don't let mother know about it. She will worry too much; she is so old."

Several other scraps which he had written requested: "Please help my poor family."

A YOUNG BORGIA.

A 14-Year-Old Girl Poisons Four Small Children.

TONAWANDA, N.Y., July 18.—Ella Holdridge, a 14-year-old girl, is charged with having given several of her playmates Rough on Rats. A week ago the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steiner was taken sick and died three hours later. It was then thought she had cholera morbus. Wednesday Mrs. Eggleston, who lives near by in Morgan-street, went to Buffalo, leaving her little girls, Susie, aged 10, and Jennie, aged 5, at home. Ella Holdridge came over to play with the children, and while there coaxed the children into the house and forced them to take the deadly poison, which she had mixed with chocolate. She told them it was good and her mamma used it in coffee. The children were very soon taken ill and Dr. Edmunds was sent for. He said they had been poisoned. The Holdridge girl was sent for and questioned. She finally confessed to have given them the poison. Mrs. Garlack's little boy is very ill and his recovery is doubtful. He, too, had been given the deadly poison.

THOUGHT TO HAVE FOUNDERED.

A Tug and Barges With Crews of 35 Men Missing.

OSWEGO, N.Y., July 18.—Nothing has been heard here of the tug Booth and her tow of four coal-laden barges that left Oswego Friday night before the big storm, bound to Montreal. The tow carried crews aggregating 32 persons. The barges were small and heavily laden, and the tug could not tow them more than four miles an hour in fair weather. Sailors here fear they are lost.

To Develop the Great Cataract.

BUFFALO, July 18.—A dispatch from Niagara Falls says: "The Canadian Niagara Power Company, to develop the power of the Horseshoe Falls in Victoria Park, was formally organized Saturday at a meeting held at the Clifton House. The lease of the exclusive privilege to develop the power of the falls in Victoria Park, which was granted to Messrs. Shaw, Stetson and Rankin by the Park Commissioners, was duly transferred to the newly organized company. Colonel Shaw states that they will await the completion of the tunnel on this side before beginning operations in Canada."

She Saw the Queen.

LONDON, July 18.—The old woman named Rix, whose life-long desire to see the Queen has been so pathetically related in recent publications, was presented to Her Majesty at Windsor yesterday. The aged negress was overwhelmed by the realization of her hopes and burst into tears and fell on her knees, sobbing her thanks as she was brought into the royal presence. "Thank God, I see the Queen mother," she exclaimed. The Queen talked kindly with the old woman, asking her history and seemed much interested in the story. She also examined critically the quilt which the old negress had made with so much pains and which was now presented. The Queen expressed her admiration for the quilt, and gave her autograph and photograph in return, after which the aged visitor was dismissed. Rix partook of luncheon at the castle and departed praising the Lord for the honor which had befallen her.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Two Jewish Peddlers Taken Into Custody at Montreal

MONTREAL, July 18.—New York detectives yesterday arrested in this city two Jewish peddlers named Charles Rosencrank and Harris Blank for the brutal murder of another peddler named Joseph Marks, near Towanda, Pa., on March 18 last. The murderers had been traced over half the continent. They have been remanded to Montreal jail to await extradition.

Another Canadian Divorce Case.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Another divorce case has been entered for consideration by the Senate next session. Edmund H. Heward of St. Johns, Que., district of Iberville, manager of the Merchants' Bank of Canada, will apply to Parliament at the next session for a bill of divorce from his wife, Dame Marie Louise Elwes of the city of Chicago.

Stayner Fire Swept.

STAYNER, Ont., July 18.—About 12.30 yesterday fire broke out in the rear of a block of frame stores south side of Main-street. All the business places between the Cameron House and Sanders, brick block are burned down. The sufferers are: John Petrie, grocery store; W. B. Henderson, harness; C. Newton, photographer; D. Gillespie, groceries; C. Livingstone, implements; A. Swallow, jeweler; Miss Sanderson, dressmaker.

Broke Her Neck.

BELLEVILLE, July 18.—Friday's storm wrecked a barn on Hull's Island owned by Richard Delong, whose sister-in-law, Miss Zulfelt was struck by a beam, which broke her neck, killing her instantly.

Alcohol from "Blackstrap."

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 18.—The Old Colony Distilleries Company, which became insolvent about a year ago, reorganized today, and will soon start the plant for the purpose of distilling alcohol from raw molasses, or "blackstrap." The concern first distilled liquor from grain, but owing to high freight rates was driven out of the market by Western distillers.

The new raw material will be brought here from the West Indies in tank boats. The new company will start with a capital of $300,000. Among its stockholders are several New York capitalists.

A Grand Trunk Change.

BUFFALO, July 18.—R. E. Ruse, who has for several years been city ticket agent of the Grand Trunk at London, Ont., has been appointed outside passenger agent of the road in this city to succeed the late Timothy Quill. Mr. Ruse has been succeeded as ticket agent at London by Robert Albertson, who has been connected with the company's office at Niagara Falls.

Remember we advertise to show nothing but new stylish goods, therefore, this season's goods must be sold this season. How the people wonder. How they look in amazement. It is just within the last few months that the people of this community have been aroused to the fact that they have been paying the price of two suits of clothes and only getting one. It is enough to make a man wish he had life to live over again when they find they have never been able to find a Clothing Store such as ours where they can get Ready-Made Clothing, Perfect Fitting, Hand Cut, Hand Made, Fine, New and Stylish Goods

AT HALF THE PRICE YOU PAY TO LEAVE YOUR MEASURE!

You who have never seen our stock, stop and think what you can save by dealing with us. Our goods are all new and made in our own factory. Every garment we turn out we know it will give satisfaction. THE WRECK ON THE G.T.R.

THREE DEAD AND HALF A SCORE BADLY HURT.

Opening of the Inquest—The Collision Was Caused by the Carelessness of a Conductor, Who Was Missing Yesterday When Wanted—A List of the Victims of the Accident.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 19.—A frightful railway collision occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway near here at 10.40 a.m. yesterday between the regular mail train on the Welland division from Port Dalhousie in charge of Conductor Boyle and a special in charge of Conductor Peckham, running to Port Dalhousie to convey the passengers on the Empress of India, St. Vincent de Paul Society picnic from Toronto to Niagara Falls. Both trains were fortunately running light.

The collision occurred near what is known as the Black Bridge, crossing the raceway, near the concession leading from the Lincoln Pulp Mills to the Hartzell-road, and just outside the city limits of St. Catharines. A short wooden bridge crosses the water-power raceway, and the engine on the boat train had just crossed it when the trains met.

Conductor Boyle's train left the St. Catharines station on its regular time. The boat train, which was late, should have waited at Merritton until Boyle's train arrived, but instead of doing so Conductor Peckham started down to Port Dalhousie. At the spot where the collision occurred there is a slight bend in the road, and when the engineers saw each other it was impossible to check the speed of the trains. The motors came together with a terrible crash. They were completely demolished and thrown over on the north bank. The smoking car of the boat train turned upside down and alighted on the bottom of the roadway, while the coach next to the smoker shot over the bank without its trucks and hangs there suspended in mid-air. No one was seriously hurt in this car.

The news of the wreck soon spread and the hands from the Lincoln Paper Mill, spoke factory and other establishments flocked to the scene. All went to work with a will. It was thought at first that some passengers had been carried down with the smoker and were buried under the wreck, but when the water was run out of the raceway and the car raised no bodies were found. The complete list of dead and injured follows:

The Dead.

S. CHAPMAN of Port Dalhousie, engineer of the mail train, head smashed; instantly killed.

DAVID HUNT of Niagara Falls, fireman of the boat train, head smashed.

A. H. VAN SLYKE, employed in King's Iron Works, Buffalo, a passenger on the mail train, body recovered from water terribly mangled, the right leg and arm being torn from body.

Seriously Injured.

PETER WELCH of Port Dalhousie, baggageman on Boyle's train, suffering from concussion of the brain and internal injuries; may recover. Taken to St. Catharines hospital.

WILLIAM SPRATT, baggageman, leg smashed, had limb amputated; will probably recover.

News agent WOLFE of the Buffalo train, badly cut about the body; in St. Catharines hospital.

News agent CLARK of the Buffalo train, seriously injured; in St. Catharines hospital.

The slightly injured include Express Messenger Philip Grobb, cut about head; Peter Flynn, collector customs Niagara Falls; Thomas Gilroy of Toronto, slightly cut about the face; Conductor Boyle, severely cut about the head, leg and arm bruised; Postoffice Clerk E. O. Boyle was cut out of his car after being imprisoned half an hour, slightly injured in head; Thomas Heslop, engineer of the Erie flyer, slightly injured; Powley, fireman of the Erie flyer, slightly injured; Charles Phemister, operator, Merritton, injured in back; Brakeman Johnson, Boyle's train, injured in the head.

How They Escaped.

There were many narrow escapes. Fireman W. Powley of Niagara Falls jumped from the engine of the boat train and escaped unhurt.

Brakeman James Groom of the boat train jumped through the door of the baggage car and escaped unhurt.

How the Accident Occurred.

At the inquest which was opened this afternoon before Dr. Goodman, coroner, H. Davis, the G.T.R. agent at Merritton, testified that Conductor Peckham of the boat train left Merritton station on the time of the mail train without any orders to do so and without his (the agent's) knowledge. When it was discovered efforts were made by the despatcher to stop the mail train at St. Catharines, but it was then too late.

James Welch, baggage checker on Peckham's train, testified the train was moving about 15 miles an hour at the time of the collision, but William Jackson of England claimed the speed was fully 30 miles an hour.

The inquest was adjourned until to-morrow, when Conductor Peckham and his crew will be called upon to testify. They were not on hand when wanted this afternoon and the coroner has taken steps to insure Peckham's presence to-morrow.

Talks With Passengers.

TORONTO, July 19.—Dr. R. J. Wilson and Mr. W. L. Huddart, a builder, residing at 7 Ketchum-avenue, were interviewed last night. They were sitting in the smoker of the train from Port Dalhousie when the accident occurred. The first thing they noticed to attract their attention was a very sudden lessening of the speed of the train, evidently from the application of the air brakes.

"That's a very sudden stop, Doctor," said Mr. Huddart, and then followed a loud crash. The seats of the car rolled about like so many drygoods boxes and its occupants fared little better.

When the two gentlemen got outside they saw the two locomotives smashed up so fine that the mass resembled a heap of scrap iron. The baggage car of the train from Port Dalhousie was little more than a heap of wreck lying in the race way. The front truck of the smoker was smashed, and the whole end of the car badly broken and splintered.

Mr. Hubbard, as an experienced carpenter, superintended the rescuing of the injured from the car in the race way. He found a man, who afterwards gave his name as Philip Crabb, pinned fast in a narrow passageway inside the car. His foot and ankle were caught between the timbers of the floor of the car in such a way that an axe was of little use. A man soon came up with a chisel but refused to lend it for fear it would be dulled, and it was over an hour and a half before another could be obtained. When at last it came the poor man was released and taken direct to the Hospital. Just then Mr. Hubbard heard a voice near by saying, "Come and help me." He found another man, the trainmash he believed, who evidently had just recovered consciousness. He was soon released and was found to be not very seriously hurt.

Dr. Wilson was, during all this time, the only physician present, so that on him fell the care of tending the wounded and placing them in the hacks which the owners had brought to the scene of the accident. It was astonishing, he said, to see how the excitement kept men from thinking of themselves. There were nearly a dozen men hard at work whose faces were all blood which flowed from deep, ghastly wounds about their heads. A Dr. Youmans of St. Catharines had his nose split and was so disconcerted that he did not exactly where he was. When Dr. Wilson discovered that he was a physician he got him to settle down to care for the wounded.

SHEDS FOR THE HOMELESS.

The Legislature to Deal With the Questions of Landlords and Rebuilding.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., July 19.—Temporary sheds have been erected for the majority of the homeless people, and relief is being systematically distributed by a committee appointed by the Government.

A special session of the Legislature will probably be held, which will deal with the questions of rebuilding and landlordism. A great part of the land burned over belongs to absentee landlords, and the tenants will not rebuild on short leases with onerous conditions. The creation of a land court and the purchase by the Government of the whole water front are being agitated. The question will be found to be a difficult one to solve.

British Masons Send Aid.

LONDON, July 19.—The Prince of Wales will take the initiative in the Grand Lodge of Freemasons for the granting of a substantial sum to the sufferers by fire at St. John's, Newfoundland, from the charitable fund at the disposition of the Grand Lodge.

LIFE HAD NO CHARMS FOR THEM.

The Poison and the Rope Brought Into Requisition Yesterday.

GUELPH, July 19.—Charles Buck, a hired man with W. Cordingly, Trafalgar, got up and went to the stable. On his way he passed by a small building, used principally for a storehouse and where Mr. Cordingly kept paris green for killing potato bugs. He went into this house and mixed up some of the poison in a cup and swallowed it. Then he went to the barn, where he was found in a horrible state. He was removed to the house and Dr. Urquhart summoned, who applied antidotes, but without effect, for on the same evening he died.

SCARED TO DEATH BY A LETTER.

A Young Woman in Michigan Warned by White Caps.

JACKSON, Mich., July 19.—Beautiful Miss Rose Woodruff, aged 18, has died of fright in this city, the result of a letter with skull and cross-bones, under which was written, "You are white capped by 12 of your best friends. Look out, we give you but two more of these warnings." Distress caused by this letter threw Miss Woodruff into spasms on Wednesday, of which she died yesterday. Officers will attempt to find and arrest the letter writer.

Two Well-Known Men in Peril.

BOSTON, July 19.—A despatch from Manchester-by-the-Sea says that Cornelius Vanderbilt and Rev. Dr. Greer had a narrow escape from a serious accident yesterday. Dr. Greer was expecting to preach in Emanuel Church at Manchester, and was riding thither with his host, Mr. Vanderbilt, in the latter's carriage. They reached the railway crossing near Sunset Rock almost simultaneously with a wrecking train bound for Boston. Mr. Vanderbilt ordered the driver to stop, but it was impossible to do so, and instead he vigorously applied the whip. The horse sprang across the track just ahead of the train, the locomotive almost striking the carriage.

Killed His Pupil While Fencing.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 19.—While Prof. Castalidi of Newport was giving Dr. C. C. Terry his usual weekly lesson in fencing the button on Castalidi's weapon broke and before it was discovered the steel cut the mask on Terry's face, the blade entering his right eye, badly wounding it and penetrating the brain. Terry fell unconscious and was carried to his home. Six physicians were called, but Dr. Terry, after lingering about three hours, died without recovering consciousness.

A Wreck on the Lake Shore Road.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 19.—The vestibuled limited express eastbound on the Lake Shore road collided with a freight train near Vermilion, 25 miles west of this city, this morning, and a serious wreck resulted. Several freight cars were smashed and Edward Topliff of Toledo, engineer of the limited, was badly injured. None of the vestibuled cars left the track, and the passengers, though badly shaken, were not injured. The track was blocked for five hours.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., July 19.—John T. Demme of this city has taken out a marriage license to wed Miss Julia E. Love. Demme a few years ago was a sufferer from hip disease. He went to New Haven, and after a difficult operation was nursed back to health by the young woman, then employed in the hospital.

A Cake Walker in a Serious Fix.

ASBURY PARK, July 19.—Charles Walker, a well-known fancy cake walker, is in jail here charged with attempting to assault Miss Maria Dowling, daughter of Stafford Dowling of New York. Walker denies the accusation and will have a hearing. Miss Dowling is prostrated by fright and shock.

IN THE LAKE'S DEPTHS.

TWO PROMINENT TORONTONIANS DROWNED.

They Were on a Sailing Excursion When the Skiff Upset—Two Companions Rescued After Being in the Water Several Hours—General Canadian News.

TORONTO, July 19.—A terrible boating accident took place Sunday night near Port Union. Four young men were swamped in a heavy sea and two of them, George F. Macnider, clerk in the Bank of Montreal here, and Harry L. Broughall, son of the Rev. A. J. Broughall, a clerk of the Farmers' Loan Company, have been drowned.

E. R. Ricketts and G. S. Kirkpatrick, the latter a nephew of the Lieutenant-Governor, were saved in an exhausted condition.

The four young men left for Frenchmen's Bay on Saturday afternoon, and expected to return to Toronto last night and leave for Muskoka to-day. They sailed away from the Argonaut Rowing Club and a number of friends saw them off.

During the night the skiff upset and they clung to it in a rough sea, the strongest holding on until rescued by some passing vessel.

Macnider had been in the Bank of Montreal for six or seven years. He was a nephew of Mr. Macnider, the chief inspector of that bank and formerly manager. The young man's widowed mother lives at 22 Balmuto-street.

Harry Broughall was one of the most popular young men of the city. He was widely known and much esteemed. He was unmarried and resided with his father at 20 Bellevue-avenue. His mother is in England at present.

BIG MONTREAL FIRE.

Clendenning's Large Stove Foundry Badly Damaged—Other Buildings Threatened.

MONTREAL, July 19.—Fire occasioned nearly $100,000 damage in Clendenning's large stove foundry in William-street Monday afternoon. The fire originated in the roof of the machine shop, which was destroyed. The rear factory, including the offices of Ramsay & Sons, was also destroyed.

The big fire at Clendenning's was only under control when the firemen were called out to a fire at Marsan's feed store in Gray Nun-street. The fire had made great headway and did great damage. While the fire was in progress some of the firemen were working near a wall, when it suddenly collapsed, burying several firemen under it. Two of the men, Foreman King and Gagnon, were taken out in an unconscious condidition and removed to the hospital in the ambulance. Gagnon is very badly injured, and is not expected to recover. Several other firemen were overcome by smoke during to-day's fires, which have been a big strain on the men.

This position he occupied until the time of his superannuation, in 1880, when he was succeeded by Dr. Bourinot. On May 24, 1882, he was appointed a C.M.G.

The Boundary Bridges Maintenance.

A Conference on the Subject of Their Maintenance—Propositions Presented.

Yesterday afternoon the respective Roads and Bridges Committees of the councils of Peterborough and Victoria met at the court house, Peterborough, to confer respecting the allocation of the cost of maintaining and repairing the bridg s in question. Victoria was represented by Messrs. the Warden, Dr. Cornwall, reeve of Omemee; Capt. Bottom, reeve of Bobcaygeon; Mr. Hopkins, reeve of Oca, and Mr. Switzer, reeve of Emily. The Peterborough representatives consisted of Messrs. Warden Forster, M. Sanderson, John Moloney, W. H. Cassemat, John Burnham and W. Anderson.

Victoria submitted a proposition offering to pay three-tenths of the cost of maintaining the Pigeon Creek bridge, and seven-tenths of the cost of maintaining the Bobcaygeon bridge, Peterborough to pay the respective balances.

Peterborough presented the proposition, offering to pay one-half of the cost of the Pigeon Creek bridge and our quarter of the Bobcaygeon bridge, Victoria to pay the respective balances.

[It is understood that there was an undercurrent of feeling among the members of the Peterborough committee, that if Victoria made a proposition midway between the two main propositions this county would be willing to accept. In view of this feeling we submit that it would be wise for Victoria to meet this county half way. This would be an amicable settlement of a rather vexatious question and perhaps as equitable and satisfactory and possibly more so, than might be the decision of a court of arbitration and would besides avoid the great expense of a court of arbitration, which would doubtless amount to far more for each county than the difference between the respective main propositions of the two counties, and the suggested compromise proposition which we have good reasons to believe the Peterborough representatives would be willing to agree to. The adoption of this course should, it is submitted, be taken into serious consideration by Victoria which should bear in mind that the Pigeon Creek bridge is used more largely by the residents of Victoria county than by the residents of Peterborough county; therefore, the advantages of maintaining this bridge in good repair are correspondingly in favour of Victoria, and consequently its removal would be a greater detriment to Victoria county farmers than to those of Peterborough county. Taking into consideration the proposition which we have every reason to believe Peterborough is willing to entertain, there is the best of reasons for its adoption. The difference is so slight between that and Victoria's proposition that it would be far less than the cost of an arbitration, which might award a a sum corresponding to Victoria's first offer. A vast amount of money has been wasted in costly litigation and though arbitration is preferable, it would be far more costly than the acceptance of either of the propositions made, not to mention the compromise suggested. It is to be hoped that an amicable agreement may be reached, and an entente cordiale between the two counties established—that the hostile chasm that has existed may be bridged in the fullest sense.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The municipal council met at the town hall on July 15th. Present, the reeve, and Messrs. Johnston, McIntosh, Dunlop and Hunter. The first business was the appointment of an arbitrator to act on behalf of the township re the extension of the main sewer by the town of Peterborough. John Moloney, Esq., of the township of Douro, was duly appointed. A petition signed by George Lockie and 14 others was received asking the council to pass a bylaw to open up the quarter line on the 7th concession. It was left over for further consideration. The following accounts were presented and on motion ordered to be paid: James Lillico, gravel, $26.00; George Moncrief, filling washout on 8th concession, $10.50; James Davidson, half cost of building culvert on Monaghan and Smith boundary, $10; W. J. Green, charity for B. Kennedy, $1 75; Wm. Pearson, refund of statute labor tax, 1891, work being performed in 1892; T. Bradburn, refund statute labour tax, paid in error in 1890, $4.00; J. R. Swatton, printing account, $15 80; T. Brown, cedar for culvert, $5.28; Jos. L. Walton, half amount contract on Monaghan and Cavan boundary. On motion the reeve was instructed to make an agreement—if one can be made satisfactory—with Mr. F. W. Wilkins, P. L. S., about making the proposed survey south of the town. The council then adjourned to call of the reeve.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

Mr. F. Umpleby Cased by His Fellow Employees in the Auburn Woollen Mills.

Mr. Fenwick Umpleby during the past two years designer in the Auburn Woollen Mills, was on Friday night at his residence presented with the following address and a handsome gold-headed ebony cane by his fellow employees preparatory to his departure for Gilbertsville, Mass.

Mr. Fenwick Umpleby :

Dear Sir,—Your friends of the Auburn Woollen Mills on the eve of your departure, desire to express their appreciation of the many estimable qualities you have shown as a friend and fellow artisan. Although your time has been comparatively short in Peterborough you have endeared yourself to your fellow workmen and won for yourself a place in their memories that will not be readily effaced. We sincerely regret your departure, and feel satisfied that your place cannot easily be filled.

As a memento of our sincere friendship, we request your acceptance of this souvenir to commemorate the many happy hours your agreeable company has given us. The pleasing traits of character you possess will ever find a responsive chord in the hearts of those with whom you may associate. In saying farewell our best wishes will accompany you and your family, and long shall we cherish your name in pleasing remembrance.

Mr. Umpleby made a brief reply thanking his associates for their esteem and kindness and wishing them all success. Refreshments were then served and an enjoyable time spent in songs, dancing and music.

On Saturday evening by the members of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F., of which Mr. Umpleby was a member and also their pianist, an address expressing regret at Bro. Umpleby's departure was read, and a fitting reply made by the departing Oddfellow. Short speeches expressive of regret and loss at his departure were delivered by Past Grands Cowle, Hill, McIntosh, Junior Past Grands Morrow and others. At the close refreshments were served.

Mr. Umpleby and family left yesterday morning for their future home in Massachusetts where Mr. Umpleby has received a lucrative situation as designer in a large woollen mill.

[The above should have appeared in yesterday's issue, but the "copy" was not furnished by those having the matter in hand. This is all the more remarkable, because the draft address was brought to the Examiner office where it was type written, the natural condition being attached, that the Examiner should be apprised of the date of the presentation, and furnished with particulars of the event, neither of which was done. Newspapers are too much accustomed to working for others without reward or recognition, to be disturbed by so trifling a slight. It is for others to reconcile their action with fair dealing and to justify a rather ungenerous exhibition of ingratitude. —Ed. Examiner.

Quarantining the Cholera.

The New York Herald says that at the recent sanitary conference at Vienna a plan was agreed upon for preventing cholera and other pestilential diseases from reaching Europe by way of the Suez Canal. Under this system ships reaching the Suez Canal from the extreme Orient, which since their departure have had no case of cholera on board, are allowed a perfectly free passage. Those which have had cases of cholera during the voyage, but none for seven days before arrival, will be allowed to pass the canal in quarantine, provided they have a medical officer and a disinfecting stove; because if a new case breaks out the doctor can carry out the disinfection necessary. But infected vessels having cholera cases on board or having had a case within seven days of arrival will be detained, their sick disembarked and isolated. The clothing will be disinfected by the use of steam, which is said to be exceedingly effective.

Seven Years' Suffering.

Gentlemen,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pill's also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

No Legal Label to Fit.

A serious question arose in a St. Louis court. A man was charged with tapping an electric wire in order to get illumination free. The grand jury was in doubt whether it was fraud, and the judge could not make up his mind that it was petty larceny. The prisoner was therefore acquitted, apparently because there was no legal label for the offence.

Mishap With a Restive Equine.

Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock as Mr. Hookaday, of Young's Point, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Chalmers were driving down George street when near Brock the horse taking fright started down the street at a break-neck speed. The top buggy swayed violently from side to side and there was every danger of the occupants being hurled out. The animal was captured in front of P. Connel & Co's. grocery by Mr. Harry Wills, who pluckily ran out and seized the bridle. One of the shafts was broken.

A New Store and Post Office.

Mr. T. W. Robinson, proprietor of the Metropolitan grocery, has completed his handsome two story structure on Juniper Island, Stony Lake. Tois is a great convenience to the campers in that locality and one which will no doubt be appreciated. The daily mail route to the island post office established by the Government, to be open during the months of July and August, is also another boon that will be appreciated.

Serving Out an Old Sentence.

Some months ago Mrs. Elizabeth Allen was brought up before the court in Ashburnham charged with keeping a house of ill-fame. She was found guilty and allowed to go on six months suspended sentence. Last November she was arrested and brought up before the police court in Peterborough charged with the same offence. She was sentenced to six months in gaol and while the warrant of committal was being made out, she was allowed to go on her own recognizance. When a constable went to take her to gaol he found her all packed up ready to leave Ashburnham, and on the advice of the police magistrate she was allowed to leave town without having served her sentence, providing she would stay away and not come back. A few days ago she returned from Lindsay and yesterday afternoon she was arrested by Chief Reand and P. C. Adams and taken to the county gaol where she will serve her six months sentence for her old crime.

Christian Endeavourers

Held a Local Union Meeting in St. Andrew's Church Last Night—Reports Received of the Great New York Convention From the Delegates.

The Local Union of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour held a united meeting in St. Andrew's church last evening. The edifice was comfortably filled. Mr. A. J. Johnston, president of the Local Union, occupied the chair. The choir of the Charlotte street church Y.P.S.C.E was present and led in the singing. After the opening devotional exercises and the singing of a hymn, Mr. R. J. Colville, delegate to the New York International Y.P.S.C.E convention, gave a forcible address on the work of the convention in general. He dealt particularly with the addresses delivered on the great occasion and pointed out the many good things said. A collection was taken up, and a quartette by members of the Charlotte street church Y.P.S.C.E. was rendered beautifully.

Mr. A. J. Johnston, delegate from St. Paul's church, then gave an earnest address on the great gathering of Christian Endeavourers, dealing particularly with the wonderful consecration meeting held on Sunday evening in the Madison Square Gardens.

Mr. Colville spoke again on the temperance work done, and recommended in committee at the convention. He lauded the movement as one of the most important in Christian Endeavour work.

At the close a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Albert Hamilton, seconded by Mr. Herbert Fife, thanking the choir of Charlotte street church for their services, and Messrs. Colville and Johnston for their able instructive and earnest addresses on the convention. This was carried by the audience waving their handkerchiefs—giving the Chautauqua salute. Regret was expressed at Mr. Colville's departure, and praise given for the noble work he had rendered the local union. The best wishes were expressed for his prosperity and success in his new field of labor in Toronto. "God be with us till we meet again" was fervently sung and the meeting closed with the benediction.

Assessment Appeals.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—In your last issue it is stated certain of my appeals were dismissed, which is very pleasing and would have been much more so had the lower court done the same instead of raising them $950. Revision Courts must do the best with the evidence produced and such was the inevitable result. However, being better fortified, His Honour, having heard my personal appeal and understood equalization to be the object investigated another, finding no reason why two unfinished houses on adjoining lots of equal prospective value should be so unequally assessed—$900 and $1,700—the latter only "a month in advance." The former had been raised $200 The decision is as already published. On resuming my wonted tranquility, gratified for your favour, I take this mode of assuring my friends I'm at home, hoping shortly to see we are.

Yours sincerely,
HUGH SPEARS.

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, cost dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I

SEWERAGE BYLAW PASSED

To be Submitted to the Ratepayers August 12th.

The Council Did Considerable Business Last Night—The G. T. R. Siding on Bethune Street—100 Barrels of Flour for the St. John's Sufferers—New Company to Manage the Edison Works—The Edison Drain Business Amicably Settled at Last—Other Matters Grave and Wise.

A special meeting of the town council was was held in the council chamber last night. The proceedings were late in commencing, the sewerage committee holding a meeting in the town clerk's office to discuss the Edison drain and see what could be done in reference to the matter, delayed the opening of the evening session until 9.15 o'clock, at which time Mayor Kendry accompanied by Councillors Cahill, Best, Kelly, Young, Dawson, Ferguson, Meldrum, Mulhern, Dennistoun and McIlwaine filed into the chamber and took their respective seats. There were a few spectators awaiting their arrival. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS PRESENTED.

The following communications were presented:—

JOHN R. COBB:

DEAR SIR,—Please accept our united and grateful thanks for the sympathy expressed by the council of the town in our great sorrow.

Yours sincerely,
MRS. HILLIARD AND FAMILY.

From John Corkery, secretary of Separate School Board, stating that the board requires $4 000 for the current year, same to be levied on Separate School supporters of the town of Peterborough.—Finance Committee.

From Messrs. Hall & Hayes, stating that they were instructed by the Edison company that they (the Co) were still waiting for the council to take action re the drain. The communication reads:—It was understood that an answer would be given to-day (July 12th) regarding the company's offer to build the sewer themselves but they have received no communication of any kind in regard to the matter. The Company's Engineer is being kept here from day to day for the sole and only purpose of attending to the sewer, and the delay of course entails great expense on the Company. We have now to inform you that Mr. Marsh the Company's Engineer, cannot be kept here longer than the 20th inst. at latest, but we must ask you to give before that date a definite answer to the Company's proposal.—Sewerage Committee.

From J. S Kaspman, local manager of the Bell Telephone Co., stating that they had resumed the collection of rentals on July 1st, and that they would agree to connect the following instruments:—Police office, Chief of Police's residence and town clerk's office for the sum of $60 per year, payable half yearly. This was a reduction of $5 per instrument below regular price.—Finance Committee.

From the Wm. English Canoe Company, asking the council to grant them permission to build a warehouse 36x16 feet, two stories high on their premises. The new building (which is within the fire limits) will be sheeted with iron on the outside and roof shingled in mortar, proving nearly as fire proof as a brick building. The Company employ 17 skilled workmen and their business is constantly growing. The Company agree to erect the new building under the supervision of the town's building inspector.—Referred to Building Inspector.

Mr. CAHILL said the by-law provided for the erection of buildings built of sheet iron and near the water. This was near the creek. He thought the building inspector should take this into consideration when dealing with the matter.

From Secretary W. G. Morrow enclosing the estimates of the Board of Education which have already been published in the EXAMINER and asking the council to levy and collect the sum of $18,300 and order the same to be paid to the secretary-treasurer on or before Dec. 14th, 1892.—Finance Committee.

From Walter Kerr asking the council to assign him a stand for his peanut business.—Referred to Chief of Police.

From John R. Cobb, secretary of the Board of Health, enclosing the resolutions recently passed by the Board respecting the use of the George street sewer and the creek for sewerage after the sewerage system is completed, and also the resolution respecting the erection of urinals on the market square.—Health Committee.

From A. E. Armstrong, Ashburnham, making application for a shooting gallery license.—License Committee.

From E B. Edwards, town solicitor, stating that in accordance with instructions received from the Street and Bridge Committee he had examined title to lots 6 and 21 on Plan 85 and had registered the deed of same from Messrs. J. Corkery and R. Sheehy to the town. The conveyance is made for the purpose of a street between Sherbrooke and Bolivar streets. The town receives a good title to the land. The price, $80, is still to be paid to the vendors. The deed was enclosed.—Received.

From C. C. James, secretary of the Bureau of Industries, Toronto, requesting the council to forward the auditors' report at once.—Received.

From John R. Cobb, town clerk, requesting an increase of salary.—Referred to Finance Committee.

From Wm. Collins, township clerk of North Monaghan, stating that at a meeting of the council, John Mooney, Douro township, had been appointed arbitrator to act on behalf of the township re the extension of the main sewer about to be constructed by the town of Peterborough in and through the township of North Monaghan.—Received.

The clerk said that he had notified the town solicitor, and the solicitor said he would notify Mr. Lungford and inside of seven days they would meet and appoint a third arbitrator.

From P. J. McNamara, stating that the fence which was to have been removed on the east side of Park street had not yet been moved. If the people were notified to move their fences the street could be fixed up at once.—Received.

Mr. CAHILL said the parties had been notified. The matter had been referred to the Street and Bridge Committee at the last meeting of the council to deal with.

With reference to to the application of Wm. J. Hall, asking to be relieved of his 1891 income tax, your committee would recommend that his request be not granted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. MAX DENNISTOUN,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Dennistoun moved that the council go into committee of the whole on the second reading of the bylaw for the construction of a main sewer. Mr. Cahill seconded the motion. The council went into committee of the whole, Mr. Young in the chair.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said that the committee had had the advice and counsel of the engineer, Mr. MacDougall, and the estimated cost of the main sewer would be about $20.000. Funds would be required for the construction of main sewers in other localities, which would be needed in the future, and this would require $40.000 in all to be issued in debentures. The voting of this amount was only a precautionary measure.

OPPOSED THE AMOUNT.

Mr. DAWSON strongly opposed the voting of $40,000 for the construction of a main sewer, when it would require only $20,000 to do the work. If the council voted the $40,000 when only $20,000 was needed, it was a shame and disgrace, and the whole amount would be used in its construction.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said the council could not be submitting bylaws to the people every five or six years for the construction of a main sewer. The present sum was calculated to guard against all contingencies. Those who would enjoy the privilages of the main sewer on Townsend street, for which it was proposed to expend $20,000, if another bylaw would have to be submitted to construct a main sewer in another part of the town (as in time they would undoubtedly be compelled to) the residents using the main sewer already mentioned, might be mean and selfish enough to vote against any extra expenditure. It was to guard against such circumstances as these that he moved the blank in the bylaw be filled in with the sum of $40,000.

Mayor KENDRY said he agreed with Mr. Dennistoun's remarks. It was well to vote enough, so as not to compel the council to go to the ratepayers with a bylaw again for some time.

Mr. DAWSON said he never saw a council borrow more money than what was required but that they used it.

Mr. CAHILL said that Mr. Dawson was only looking at the main outfall sewer itself. All sewers over nine inches had to be provided for out of the general tax. All sewers under this came under the local improvement tax. This was done in order to equalize matters. He said that debentures for main sewers would only be issued when required by the council. This would be a safeguard.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said as soon as the matter was understood it would be unanimous. It would be necessary to construct another main sewer in ten years in the northern part of the town. The debentures would only be issued as they were required by the council. The council would let the contract for the sewer itself and would exercise their best judgment in the matter. They would be responsible. The solicitor had taken out the word outfall sewer as the by-law was at first proposed, and changed the reading of it to main sewer, meaning a sewer wherever required.

The MAYOR said if only $20,000 was appropriated and it cost that amount to construct one main sewer, what were those living in the outskirts going to do when other mains were required. A new by-law would have to be prepared.

Mr. DAWSON said it was not fair or honest to ask the ratepayers of the town to pay $40,000 for a system of sewerage which the town could not get the benefit of in the next twenty years.

Mr. KELLY said the $40,000 was not for an outlet sewer, it was for the main sewers of the town. Three main sewers were to be built, one on George, one on Aylmer and one on Park. The amount of money was not to be expended until it was required and the debentures would not be issued until then. Mr. Cahill had said that all sewers over nine inches would be paid for out of this amount and debentures be issued for these amounts as required. They did not want to go to the ratepayers every 6 months for a by-law in order to extend the main sewer.

Mr. FERGUSON said if the by-law was passed the town would sell the debentures only as required.

Mr. DAWSON said the $40,000 debentures could not be used as required. It would all be used up as the work progressed and when a main sewer was to be built on George or Aylmer streets the council would require another sum of money to go on with the work. He spoke strongly of only granting $20,000 for the erection of the main sewers.

THE ENGINEER EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS.

After some further discussion on motion, Mr. MacDougall, the engineer was heard in reference to the cost of constructing main sewers. He said it would be necessary to have a trunk sewer, 18-inch pipe, 7 000 feet along Sherbrooke street to the outfall sewer. This would cost the town $20,000. It would be necessary to connect sewers to this part on Sherbrooke street to Park, across Townsend to George where it came in contact with the outfall sewer. This pipe would be 18 inch and would cost $5,500. Bethune, Rubidge and Park street all would have to have access to the outfall sewer on Aylmer. This would all be favourable to drainage of the northern portion. This would require 18 inch for 1,800 ft., 15-inch for 1,300 ft., and 12 inch for 2,400 ft., taking in Aylmer street from Sherbrooke to Smith, costing $5,500. The Edison drain would cost $4,000. This was $35 000 and it was not too much to allow $5,000 for inspection, engineering and other contingencies. Mr. MacDougall said that under the local improvement plan they could not make use of money for any other purpose.

Mr. DAWSON said it was not wise now to vote for what the town did not require for the next five or six years. If $40 000 was enough for main sewer, vote that sum or what sum was required for immediate purposes, but he did not believe in voting double the sum required for main sewers, which sum would not be required for years.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said they had the town solicitor's opinion that it was not legal to make any charge over 75c. per foot.

Mr. MELDRUM said he was in favour of voting enough money, and to use the money as required. He would like to see the council unanimous in the matter.

Mayor KENDRY said the council would make a mistake in voting too small a sum. The ratepayers might say when it was required to vote the money for the construction of a main sewer, we will vote no more money for sewerage purposes.

Mr. MELDRUM asked Mr. MacDougall, who was an expert in the matter, if he thought $40,000 was too much for main sewers.

Mr. MACDOUGALL said it would be impossible to put in a trunk sewer less than $20,000, and it would never do to stop there. The town would have to make provision for sewers over nine inches in side streets. He did not think the sum of $40,000 any too large an expenditure. The future had to be looked at and contingencies guarded against.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that the sum be made $40,000 for outfall sewers.—Carried.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said that debentures might at 4 per cent. interest sell at nearly par. It would be better that the debentures bear 4½ per cent.; and it would be a great deal better advantage to the town. $40 000 at 4½ created $1800 a year interest, and to this would have to be added the 1 per cent. sinking fund, making in all $2,200.

Mr. Cahill seconded Mr. Dennistoun's motion that the debentures bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Dennistoun seconded by Mr. Mulhern that the by-law come into force on Sept. 1st.—Carried.

Mr Dennistoun said that before the by-law could be submitted to the people it would have to be advertised three times in a newspaper. They could not submit the by-law in that case before the 3rd of August.

Mr. EDWARDS explained that although the by-law required the matter to be advertised three times it could not be crowded into two weeks' time. The advertising had to extend over a period of three weeks.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Mulhern that Friday, Aug 12th be the day on which the by-law be submitted to the people.—Carried.

The same and place of poll together with the deputy returning officers, were then passed.

No. 1 Ward, Mission Building—Joseph Landy, deputy returning officer.

No. 2 Ward, Market building—Charles Cameron, returning officer.

No. 3 Ward, Mastocal Bros.' carriage shop—John Irwin, deputy returning officer.

No. 4 Ward, William Lee's shop, Smith street—William Lee, deputy returning officer.

August 11th was the date appointed for the appointing of agents interested in promoting or opposing the passage of the by-law.

Moved by Mr. Dennistoun, seconded by Mr. Dawson, the bylaw be advertised in both the EXAMINER and Review and that each paper be paid the sum of $10, the customary fee.—Carried.

THAT SIDING AGAIN.

On motion Mr. A. White, district traffic manager of the G T.R was heard. Mr. White said he was present on behalf of the company in reference to the siding of the Royal Oil Co, on Bethune street. The company would like permission to put down track at their own expense and if at any time it proved a nuisance they would take it up on a three months notice given them by the council. Port Hope, Whitby and other places had asked to have lines laid down and the company could not afford to do it at every place. They had decided to do so in Peterborough, in preference to other places providing the council would grant them the privilege on the grounds mentioned.

After some discussion in which Mr. Dawson objected to leave being granted the company to put down a siding, the following resolution was carried.

Moved by Mr. Mulhern seconded by Mr. McIlwaine, that the siding of the Royal Oil Company be allowed to remain on Bethune street provided a suitable understanding approved by the town solicitor be filed with the town clerk.

DONATIONS FOR THE SUFFERERS.

Mr. MULHERN brought up the matter of the recent serious conflagration in St. John's Newfoundland, where nine-tenths of the city had been burned and 14,000 people rendered homeless. He thought the council should contribute its mite to the suffering thousands. He moved that a grant of $500 be made.

Mr. FERGUSON thought the council should give some relief, but Mr. Mulhern's amount was rather large.

Mr. CAHILL thought that 100 barrels of flour should be sent there. The railroads and steamship lines will carry it free.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that the Finance Committee be authorized to purchase and ship to the Mayor of St. John's Nfld 100 barrels of flour as a contribution towards the relief of the sufferers in that city from the recent fire.—Carried.

THE NEW EDISON COMPANY.

On motion Mr. L. M. Hayes was heard. He stated that papers had been taken out for the transfer of the interests and business of the Edison General Electric Company to a new board of managers, and for the change of name to the Canadian General Electric Company. He asked the council to state definitely whether they would transfer the agreement made for the benefit of the old Company to the new Company. The shareholders meet in Montreal on Tuesday next to decide upon the matter of making the change in management and name, and it was of the utmost importance the council's decision should be given at once.

Mr. DENNISTOUN said the council had no opposition to the transfer. He opposed the matter until the town solicitor could be consulted.

Mayor KENDRY said that as soon as the town solicitor reported on it he would call a special meeting of the council to act on it before next Tuesday, when the directors met.

Mr. CAHILL said he hoped the Edison sewer question would be settled before Tuesday, and the council could hold a special meeting on Monday.

The matter was allowed to stand for consideration.

THE EDISON SEWER QUESTION SETTLED.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Meldrum, that the following be accepted as a basis of agreement between the Edison Company and the town in reference to the Edison drain:

That a 15 inch sewer pipe be laid on Townsend street from the company's lands to the river in substitution for the 16 inch pipe therein referred to.

That such 15 inch pipe be connected with the town outfall sewer as soon as the latter is completed.

That the Townsend street sewer when so connected with the outfall sewer may be used by the town as a principal sewerage system for the discharge of sewerage matter proper from Wolfe, Park, Rubidge and Townsend street and the streets running north and south from the dividing line between Dalhousie and Wolfe streets to the dividing lines between Townsend and Rink streets. That an agreement to be approved by the town solicitor, embodying the above terms in the original agreement be executed by the mayor and clerk upon execution of the same by the company.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. Ferguson, that the chairman of the Sewerage Committee be empowered to advertise for tenders for the construction of the sewer from the lands of the Edison General Electric Co. to the river Otonabee, and report to this council.—Carried.

The council adjourned at 11 45 o'clock, a motion being made twice that the time for acting be extended.

SOME SUMMER BEVERAGES.

COTTAGE BEER.

Take one peck of good, sweet bran and put it into ten gallons of water, with three handfuls of good hops; boil the whole together in an iron, brass or copper kettle until the bran and hops sink to the bottom. Then strain it through a half sieve or a thin sheet into a cooler, and, when about lukewarm, add two quarts of molasses. As soon as the molasses is melted, pour the whole into a nine or ten gallon cask, with two tablespoonfuls of yeast. When the fermentation has subsided, bung up the cask and in four days it will be fit for use.

BROWN SPRUCE BEER.

Pour eight gallons of fresh water into a barrel, then eight gallons more boiling hot. Add one gallon of molasses and half a pound of the essence of spruce. When nearly cool put in half a pint of good ale yeast. This must be well stirred and well mixed. Leave the bung out two or three days. After this the liquor may be immediately bottled, well corked and tied, and packed in sawdust or sand, and it will be fit to drink in two weeks.

SPLENDID GINGER BEER.

One teaspoonful of ground ginger, one spoonful of cream of tartar, one pint of yeast, one pint of molasses, six quarts of cold water. Mix and let it stand a few hours, until it begins to ferment; then bottle it, and set it in a cool place; in eight hours it will be good.

HOW TO MAKE MEAD.

Take twelve gallons of water, twenty pounds of honey, six whites of eggs. Mix and let boil for one hour. Then add cinnamon, ginger, cloves, mace and a little rosemary. When cold add one teaspoonful of brewer's yeast. Stir well, and in twenty four hours it will be good.

FAVORITE GINGER BEER.

Take ten pounds of white sugar, nine fluid ounces of lemon juice, one pound of honey, eleven ounces of ground ginger. Boil the ginger in three gallons of water for half an hour; then add the sugar, the lemon juice and the rest of the water, and strain through a cloth. When cold add the white of an egg, half a fluid ounce of lemon. After standing four days it may be bottled off. A glass of this on a hot day, with a lump of ice in it is very refreshing.

GINGER POP.

Take two gallons of hot water (boiling) mix two ounces of ground ginger and the peel of two lemons, one teaspoonful cream of tartar, two pounds of white sugar; let this stand until milk warm. Then put in the other part of the two lemons, one teaspoonful of saleratus, four tablespoonfuls of yeast and the whites of four eggs, to clear. Add cinnamon and cloves to your taste.

The German Crown Prince.

The German Crown Prince, who, on completing his 10th year the other day, was made a lieutenant in the First Foot Guards, is a very bright and pretty little fellow and promises to become a fine man. It is said, indeed, that it would be hard to find a likelier set of youngsters than the six young children of the Empress. The little Crown Prince is especially pert and quick. One day he is said to have asked his imperial father why he never wore the uniform of the "railway regiment," belonging to the pioneer detachment of the guards.

"Why should I wear that uniform, my son?" returned the Emperor.

"O, papa, because thou art always travelling about on the railway," rejoined the spry little Prince.

Eggs as Large as Hailstones.

This has been a season of hailstones and the editor has been keeping tally on the largest specimens. Two days ago a farmer came clanking into the office and paid his subscription.

"I s'pose," he said solemnly, "that you wouldn't object to an item of news on the hail question?"

"Not much," responded the editor, encouragingly, as he reached for pencil and paper.

"Thought not," commented the farmer.

"What have you got?" inquired the editor.

"Eighteen pullets," said the farmer, warily, "that lay eggs as large as hailstones," and out he went, chuckling.—Detroit Free Press.

What Stronger Proof

Is needed of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla than the hundreds of letters continually coming in telling of many cures it has effected after all other remedies had failed? Truly, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses peculiar curative power unknown to other medicines.

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

ECONOMIC BITTERS.—A 25c package of Indigenous Bitters will make four large bottles of concentrated bittera very effective as a digestive tonic and strengthening. It is the great remedy of the day for the stomach.

FEMININE FOLLY.

How Women of Various Nationalities Disfigure Themselves

The ladies of Arabia stain their fingers and toes red and their lips blue. In Persia they paint a black streak around their eyes and ornament their faces with representations of various figures.

The Japanese women adopt the singular method of gilding their teeth, and those of the Indians paint them red. In some parts of India the pearl of the teeth must be dyed black before a woman can be beautiful. The Hottentot women paint the entire body in compartments of red and black. In Greenland the women color their faces with blue and yellow, and frequently tattoo their bodies by saturating threads in soot, inserting them beneath the skin and drawing them through.

In New Holland the women cut themselves with shells, and, keeping the wounds open a long time, form deep scars in the flesh, which they deem highly ornamental. Another singular mutilation is made among them, for they take off the little finger of the left hand of an infant at the second joint. In ancient Persia an aquiline nose was often thought worthy of the crown, but the Sumatran mother carefully flattens the nose of her daughter.

The modern Persians have a strong aversion to red hair. The Turks, on the contrary, are warm admirers of it. In China small, round eyes are liked. But the great beauty of a Chinese lady is in her feet.

An African lady must have small eyes, thick lips, a large flat nose, and a skin beautifully black. In New Guinea the nose is perforated and a large piece of wood or bone inserted. On the northwest coast of America an incision more than two inches long is made in the lower lip and then filled with a wooden plug.

In America women compress their figures into queer shapes by means of straight-waistcoats. Some of them hang by their hands from a trapeze while a serving-maid draws the cords of the waistcoat as tight as possible. American women often fain after undergoing this process, and sometimes die.

Things Worth Knowing.

A harmless freckle lotion is two ounces of lemon juice and one drachm of sugar. Let stand in a glass bottle for a few days, then rub on the face occasionally.

A poultice of ripe figs is one of the best things known for carbuncles or boils. Must be well washed and peeled.

It is, perhaps, not generally known that "cod liver oil" as usually prepared is nothing but cod oil clarified—a process which actually deprives it of much of its virtue, to say nothing of more than doubling its price. Cod oil can be purchased from any oil dealer for one-thirtieth part of the price of "cod liver oil" as usually sold. To make it more palatable and digestible add an ounce of fine table salt to each quart bottle.

The Great Female Medicine,

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

Interested People,

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because Cures Catarrh the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It Cures SCROFULA makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. "German Syrup"

A Cough and Croup Medicine.

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as childrens' troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

AN ISLAND WIPED OUT BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

The Entire Population of Twelve Thousand Persons Perish—The Eruption of Mount Etna—The Shooting Competition at Bisley Camp—General Cable.

LONDON, July 18.—In the contest for the Echo Shield which took place Saturday at Bisley Camp only four points separated the two leading teams when the shooting closed. The Shield was captured by Scotland, the scores being as follows:

Scotland	1096
England	1092
Ireland	1065

In the shooting for the Kolapore Cup, the team representing England secured the trophy, leading the Canadian team, the next highest competitor by 22 points. The scores were:

England	684
Canada	662
Guernsey	659
Jersey	658

The prize is competed for by teams of eight, the team from Great Britain being chosen from the whole of the United Kingdom, eight from the Canadian twenty, eight from the retired Indian civil servants, and eight from any other British colony, the Channel Islands being accounted colonies for this purpose. The winning team, when colonial, gets £80 sterling in addition to the cups, which are held for a year.

The trophy consists of two large magnificent golden cups of superb Indian workmanship, presented by the Rajah of Kolapore in 1871 to the National Rifle Association of Great Britain to be competed for by teams as indicated above. It has been won 14 times by Great Britain and five times by Canada, viz., in 1872, 1875, 1881, 1884 and 1889. The winning Canadian score in 1884 was 665. Last year the Canadian score was 674, against the winning score of 687. The highest Kolapore score ever made was 710 by Great Britain in 1887.

AN ISLAND OBLITERATED.

And all the Inhabitants, Comprising 12,000 Souls, Perish—Awful Results of a Volcanic Eruption.

LONDON, July 18.—The steamer Catterthun, which has arrived at Sydney, N.S.W., reports that when she touched at the Island of Timor there was a rumor current that the Island of Sangir in the Malay archipelago had been destroyed by a volcanic eruption and that the whole population, comprising 12,000 souls, had perished.

The Catterthun steamed for miles through masses of volcanic debris.

THE LEARNED SHOEMAKER.

Death of Thomas Cooper, Chartist, Author and Lecturer.

LONDON, July 18.—Thomas Cooper, the Chartist, is dead.

He was born in Leicester in 1805. While apprenticed to a shoemaker he taught himself Latin, Greek, Hebrew and French. When a young man he taught school and afterwards became a reporter.

At the age of 36 he assumed the leadership of the Leicester Chartists. He lectured in the potteries during the riots of 1842 and was sentenced to two years in prison. In his cell he wrote an epic, "The Purgatory of Suicides," and a series of stories, "Wise Saws and Modern Instances."

After his release he published "Baron's Yeule Feast," and in Douglass Jerrold's paper articles on the working classes Later there appeared "Triumphs of Perseverance" and "Triumphs of Enterprise."

Against Sunday Excursions in Kingston.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 18.—The Evangelical Alliance has laid information against the owners of certain steamers for infringing the law against leaving port on Sunday with excursion parties.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J. C. Ayer of Lowell, Mass nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A Child Saved.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece; frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

Live Stock Notes.

As soon as the cow begins to do extra work give her extra food to sustain her system.

Lambs in movable pens make excellent destroyers of plantains and other weeds on the lawn.

Feed the horse three times daily and never between meals, no matter how much he may whinny. Water before feeding.

Strictly choice cattle are not in excess of the demand at any time. There is always an extra price ready for an extra choice article, and this applies to everything that may be produced.

One reason why fowls pay is because they are economists to turn waste products into salable commodities. Poultry on a large scale fails, owing to the fact that there are not wastes enough to use in proportion to the number of birds kept, and cash goods have to be used for them. Every farm can with profit maintain a suitable flock, but there is a limit beyond which it will not pay most of us to go.

Bantams usually receive more attention in summer and fall than is given them earlier. The matter of profit to be derived from them depends on the uses to which they are put. Bantams find but little sale in market, and their eggs are too small to ship, but in proportion to their size they lay larger eggs than do other breeds and at no greater cost for food, while their eggs are fully equal to larger eggs for use at home, and in that respect they are fully as profitable as the larger breeds.

Hogs require a great deal of water and it would be better wisdom to give them pure, cool water than to stuff them with foul "swill" as so many farmers do. Pure water, clean quarters and foods make the best pork. Sheep are neglected in the way in insufficient water more than any other domestic animals. Formerly it was quite common belief that sheep could get along without water when on pastures and "eat snow" in the winter, but no one now who makes sheep raising a profitable business lets them go without good water and plenty of it. Proper watering is certainly more economical and humane than losing the benefits from feeding because of neglect in this line.

A young calf allowed to suck its dam gets a little warm milk many times a day. It will fatten faster than we have ever been able to fatten calves by any process of hand feeding. One difficulty is that the milk, even if no cream has been taken off, is usually not so warm as that direct from the cow. The great point in hand feeding is regularity. Whatever food is given should be warmed to new milk heat, and fed at two meals, twice per day. The calf eats better than with a noon-day meal, and the food has plenty of time to digest before the stomach is again loaded. In this way healthful digestion is promoted, and if the calf is kept till six months old it will be better than if allowed to rely on its dam for food.

Caution in Using Poisons.

There is no danger in properly using paris green and london purple if the following rules are observed: The poison should be kept in a safe place, and plainly labeled "Poison." Do not distribute the poison with the hands. Always keep to the windward side of plants or trees when applying the powder or liquid. Do not use them upon leaves or fruits which are soon to be eaten. There is seldom, if ever, any danger in eating vegetables and fruit after they have been exposed to the sun and rain for a few weeks, as several pounds or bushels of treated fruits or vegetables would have to be consumed at one time by one individual to get a sufficient dose of the poison to produce serious results. Test the strength of the diluted mixture on a few plants first to ascertain if it will injure the leaves. Never apply it to fruit trees while in bloom, as the poison will kill the bees so necessary to the formation of perfect fruit.

Fifty-Five Years a Queen.

Queen Victoria is 73 years old, and on June 20 she had reigned fifty-five years. Her excellent, if not robust, health gives promise that she will round out the century as Queen and Empress. The story of the scene when the news was brought her of her accession to the throne is interesting. The King died at Windsor and messengers were at once despatched to Kensington to inform her of the event. It was midnight when the sleeping Queen was awakened and she came at once into the room to meet the messengers, attired in a white nightgown, with a shawl thrown over her shoulders, her nightcap off, and her feet in slippers. She was then a slender girl, pale but pretty. Two years later she became the bride of Prince Albert.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

IT WAS A GREAT SCHEME

BUT IT LANDED TWO SIMCOE MEN IN JAIL.

A Bogus Advertisement Inserted in The Toronto Globe Caught Many Victims, But a Lawyer and a Schoolmaster Are Now Confronted With a Charge of Fraud.

SIMCOE, Ont., July 19.—About three weeks ago this advertisement appeared in The Toronto Globe:

TEACHER WANTED—MALE OR FEMALE—not over 30 years old, by a wealthy widow, lately from England, to instruct her two boys, aged 11 and 13, for two years while traveling; salary $900 per annum and expenses; applicants must furnish proof of unexceptional moral character and ability in teaching; applications received until July 2, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope; duties to begin July 22. Address Lock Box 276, Simcoe.

Miss Clara Taylor of Toronto Junction answered the advertisement, and shortly afterwards received a letter signed by W. E. Norton, purporting to be a real estate agent and conveyancer in Simcoe, intimating that Hon. Mrs. Jones, the English lady for whom he was acting, had chosen her from among a score or more applicants. The letter requested that Miss Taylor should meet the writer at the Queen's Hotel, Toronto, on July 23 to at once enter upon her duties. By way of postscript it added that it would be necessary for Miss Taylor to send $10 to lock-box 276, Simcoe, as a "guarantee of good faith." The letter also warned Miss Taylor that the position would only be kept open for her until July 17—that if the $10 had not arrived by that time the position would be given to the next most satisfactory applicant. An agreement, with seals affixed, was enclosed, which was to be signed and forwarded, under which Miss Taylor and the mythical Hon. Mrs. Jones bound themselves severally and jointly to remain the parties to the first and second parts for two years.

Miss Taylor, like the sensible girl that she is, recognized the ear wigs of the ancient fake, and instead of forwarding the $10 promptly handed over the correspondence to the Attorney-General's Department.

W. W. Nichol of Stratford was also lucky enough to be chosen, but the letter which he received from Norton gave the name of the wealthy lady as Hon. Mrs. Stephenson. It requested Nichol to meet the writer at the Kirby House, Brantford, on July 21, and requested the $10 guarantee of good faith to be forwarded by the 15th, otherwise another of the applicants would be engaged.

The case was put in the hands of Detective Murray and he visited Simcoe and learned that box 276 was rented by W. E. Kelly, a lawyer of that town, ostensibly for one Norton. The box contained innumerable postoffice orders and registered letters addressed to Norton, but no person had called for the mail for days.

Detective Murray obtained specimens of Kelly's handwriting and was satisfied that Kelly wrote the Norton letters, but in order that there should be no mistake left for Toronto to have the two compared by experts. He left instructions with the County Attorney to arrest Kelly and an ex-school teacher named Chrysler in the event of the men calling for the letters.

Acting on these instructions Kelly and Chrysler were to-day arrested. Kelly was released on $4000 bail, but Chrysler is still in jail. They will have an examination on July 22.

DR. CREAM REMANDED.

The Alleged Poisoner of Women Arraigned in Bow-street.

LONDON, July 19.—Thomas Neill was arraigned before Sir John Bridge, in Bow-street Police Court Monday, on the charge of having murdered Matilda Clover by administering strychnine to her.

The court room was crowded, and a number of extra policemen were on duty.

Neill looked well and his face betrayed no sign of anxiety or trouble. He asked to be furnished with writing materials, and when they were given him he made copious notes of the proceedings.

C. F. Gill appeared on behalf of the Treasury. He said he would prove the circumstances under which Matilda Clover was murdered, and asked that the prisoner be committed. Mr. Gill added that he would have to refer to the deaths of three other girls who were killed in a manner precisely similar to the Clover girl.

The court granted Mr. Gill's request, and the prisoner was remanded.

Bayoneted to Death.

VIENNA, July 19.—A conflict arising out of Roumanian antipathy to Hungarians occurred at Magura in Galicia on Sunday. A number of Roumanians having been locked up in the court house for stealing horses a crowd of Roumanians surrounded the court house and threatened to shoot the gendarmes on guard unless all the Roumanian prisoners were released. A struggle ensued in which two Roumanians were bayoneted and killed and 25 others, including several women, were seriously wounded. The gendarmes being reinforced finally dispersed the mob.

The Sultan's Lawless Troops.

TANGIER, July 19.—Great anxiety prevails among Christians and Jews here owing to the lawlessness of the Sultan's troops, which were mobilized to suppress the Angheera rebellion. The soldiers are committing many murders and robberies among villagers near by, and the authorities are unable to guarantee the safety of foreigners.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

No Further Gains Yesterday—A Compromise Suggested Between the Tories and Liberals—Sexton's Strong Language.

LONDON, July 19.—There were no further gains or losses yesterday. The aggregates of the polling up to the present time are: Unionist and Conservatives, 2,118,533; Gladstonian, 2,375,337.

A Compromise Suggested.

The Times to-day gives prominence to a letter from Sir Edward Watkin, Liberal-Unionist, member-elect of the House of Commons for Hythe, and chairman of the South Eastern Railway Company, urging a settlement of the Irish question by a compromise between Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury and by the construction of a ship canal across Ireland and a tunnel connecting Ireland and Scotland. The construction of a ship canal, Sir Edward says, would place Ireland on the shortest sea route to all the great west and to the east by way of the Canadian Pacific railway. Surveys, he adds, have shown that the project is feasible, and that the cost would not exceed £20,000,000.

It is officially announced to-day that, as a result of the visit of Lord Salisbury to the Queen at Windsor Castle yesterday, the Conservative Government will meet Parliament on Aug. 4.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that a rumor is in circulation that the Queen will not summon Mr. Gladstone to form a ministry, and that a coalition government under the Duke of Devonshire is possible. The Pall Mall Gazette connects the rumor with the visit of Lord Salisbury, Joseph Chamberlain and the Duke of Devonshire to Windsor Castle last week. The best informed Liberals ridicule a Devonshire coalition as outside of all possible contingencies, importing the acceptance of Home Rule by the Liberal-Unionists and their return to their adhesion to Mr. Gladstone.

The Scotch Tories will give a banquet in honor of Col. Wauchope in Edinburgh tomorrow, at which the prospects for the second contest will be discussed.

Thomas Sexton, in a speech at Listowel, said: A few months ago when things looked black and doubtful the generous Irish race in America and Australia despaired of a Home Rule victory, owing to the factionism in the Nationalist ranks, and the word went round to hope no more for the Fatherland; all its ranks were thin and broken. But to-day its ranks are reunited, and in the next Parliament Ireland's national representatives will wring from their former enemies a measure of Home Rule satisfactory to the national aspirations of Ireland.

Michael Davitt, who also spoke, said the nine seats gained by the Parnellites had been won by Tory money, influence and votes, and that they would be obliterated at the next election.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

GLADSTONE'S MAJORITY WILL BE EXACTLY 42.

Thomas Sexton Elected in County Kerry—Some Political Eclipses—A Number of the Men Who Have Disappeared from the House.

LONDON, July 20.—Thomas Sexton, anti-Parnellite, has been elected to the House of Commons for the North division of County Kerry by 2023 majority. His opponent was H. Burke, Parnellite, who received only 771 votes.

There have now been elected 669 members of the House of Commons out of the 670 comprising that body. With the polling in the Orkney Islands, which takes place next week, the contests will be over. The parties now stand: Conservatives 314, Opposition 355.

The remaining district is certain to return a supporter of Gladstone, so the latter's majority in the next House will be 42.

POLITICAL ECLIPSES.

Notable Men Who Have Disappeared From the British House of Commons.

LONDON, July 20.—In addition to the conspicuous slain in the recent elections there are several prominent eclipses in the rank and file of the British House of Commons.

The Sailor's Friend.

As one of the sailors of the assembly, Sir John Colomb played a useful and respected part—being always on the watch for naval abuses, and always ready to amend them. He is a man of commanding presence, an effective speaker, an earnest upholder of English supremacy on the high seas. With our national defence as his theme, with bluff Admiral Field and suave Admiral Mayne to cheer him on, he was ever in his element, and seldom failed to show that the weal of Great and Greater Britain was an aim worth fighting for.

A Warm Heart for the Poor.

Of a different stamp was Mr. John Kelly. Though this energetic gentleman surveyed mankind from the Conservative benches, there was nothing retrograde about him. He had a warm heart for the poor, never lost a chance of advancing their interests, and did splendid service for destitute children on very many occasions. No matter whether the appeal came from the seller of newspapers, the hawker of matches, or the vendor of "button holes," the member for North Peckham was ready to listen and befriend. It would have been impossible for any man to fight with greater pertinacity than Mr. Kelly displayed, or to have adhered more manfully to any task he essayed to accomplish. If the waifs of Peckham had possessed votes, their Tory friend's defeat might have been averted.

The Jovial-Faced Owner of Houghton Hall.

With regard to the enforced seclusion of Sir George Elliot, it will be generally deplored. Few men were more popular in Parliament than the bright and jovial faced owner of Houghton Hall. His hospitality, his geniality, his irresistible good humor, made him a favorite with members of all parties, and his absence, if permanent, will be regarded as a distinct loss to the Legislature. Though he troubled himself very little about the dry bones of politics, Sir George was keenly alive to the scenes and incidents that mark the progress of so many measures, as well as deeply interested in the manœuvring by which one section of his colleagues tried to outwit the other.

Parliamentary Reporter.

Of the unsuccessful candidates in England Mr. Corrie Grant will be best remembered for the Quixotic daring of his attacks. He had the temerity to assail the seat of Lord Randolph Churchill when—as Sir Wilfrid Lawson expressed it—that famous leader of the fourth party was "member for Woodcock." Though he got well beaten, Mr. Grant had better luck in the pocket-borough of the Marlboroughs than might have been expected. But his latest onslaught on West Birmingham can only be regarded as a forlorn hope, seeing that he was defeated by no fewer than 4418 votes. He is young enough, however, to try again, and with more judgment in the selection of a constituency may ultimately achieve the object of his ambition. Mr. Grant, who was at one time on the Parliamentary staff of The Daily News, is a barrister by profession; but in addition to his legal practice he is still connected with a journal that deals with the sale or letting of land.

Also a Newspaper Man.

Another of the candidates who has failed to win the approval of a constituency is Mr. Bennet Burleigh. He also is a newspaper man, having for several years done good work for The Daily Telegraph. Prior to this appointment he was attached to one of the news agencies, and came conspicuously to the front while acting as war correspondent in Egypt. Mr. Burleigh is a patriotic Scotsman, with a burning desire to represent the land o' cakes in Parliament; but though a vigorous speaker, as well as an incisive writer, he has hitherto failed to find acceptance in the eyes of his countrymen. When standing as a Liberal-Unionist for the Camlachie division of Glasgow in 1886 he was defeated by 159 votes. In his latest essay, as a labor candidate, he fared much worse, having been beaten by an overwhelming majority.

As to Mr. Broadhurst.

Mr. Broadhurst will be remembered as a labor representative who had risen to Ministerial rank—a man who grew stout, and sleek, and somnolent after he became a State official. With his strong voice, his peculiar aspirates, his healthy complexion, his closely cropped hair, and his dress like a rural laird's, Mr. Broadhurst would have attracted attention in any assembly. Though too subservient to the party guides, there can be no doubt as to his capabilities as a legislator. Indeed, a better man intellectually could have been much more easily spared.

Cold and Passionless Sir Horace Davey.

In losing Sir Horace Davey the Liberals are deprived of an acute lawyer, though as a keen politician, or as a pleasant speaker, the late member for Stockton possessed no record. He was cold and passionless in his discourses, repellant in his manner and about as undemonstrative in voice and gesture as either Mr. Gedge or Sir Joseph Whitewell Pease.

The enforced obscurity of Mr. Rowntree will save legislators from many a doleful speech. It was this gentleman's misfortune to visit Ireland during a period of great excitement—when the evictions were being half resisted to death by the evicted—and he never missed a chance of discoursing about his experiences. Nothing could be more monotonous than Mr. Rowntree's dirge, and members may be thankful that for a time at least they will be spared the infliction.

Parliament's Best Dressed Man.

In the disappearance of Sir William Plowden the House has lost one of its best dressed men. To a tall, straight, soldierly figure he added a charming manner, and won the respect of all men by speaking only when he had something good to say.

The Rejected of St. Pancras.

Though sitting beside Sir William—always on the front bench below the Opposition gangway—Mr. Harry Lawson presented a vastly different appearance. The rejected of St. Pancras was short, stout and slightly bald, but with an amount of vitality that was irrepressible. He took a great interest in the London County Council, watched over its interests on every possible occasion, and defended them in many a well-reasoned speech. He is a distinct loss to his party.

Mr. Balfour's Double.

Mr. Coghill, whose innings has closed at Newcastle-under-Lyme, was remarkable for a somewhat curious resemblance to Mr. Balfour. There was a strong similarity in the shape of their heads; but if you heard their voices, without seeing the men, it was almost impossible to detect a difference.

The Man With a Hobby.

Mr. Byron Reed's defeat will be most regretted by the Church party, as he was an indefatigable worker, brimful of facts concerning his pet theme, and a man who could always put his views very attractively before an audience. So with Mr. Milvain. Though a young member he was popular with colleagues of all parties—his record of achievements being far above the average.

Sir T. Sutherland and Sir James Bain are distinct losses to the cause of commerce; while the lawyers, through the disaster to Mr. Forrest Fulton, are deprived of one of the best speakers in their ranks.

Will Not Be Mourned.

With respect to Mr. Buchanan, he will be missed though not sorrowed over. After the Home Rule fiasco in 1886 he became a Unionist. He has since returned to the fold — as did Sir George Trevelyan, Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Winterbottom—and like them has been conspicuous for the zeal with which he has championed a once derided scheme. In the height of his fervor, Mr. Buchanan could either oppose or obstruct the Government, and he did so with a glibness and ostentation which under the circumstances were peculiarly offensive. Most of the eclipsed politicians are sure to be regretted somewhere, but they will be very queer people, indeed, who feel pity or commiseration for the rejected of West Edinburgh.

The Father of the "Parliamentary Steeplechase."

Concerning the two Conservatives who came to grief at Oldham, there is nothing unusual to say. Neither Mr. Macleod nor Mr. Elliot-Lees can be described as aggressive. At least not as a rule. It did occasionally happen, however, that the big, burly, clear-headed Anglo-Indian — the gentleman who once occupied the editorial chair of The Newcastle Chronicle—had to assert his independence, and then official frowns and remonstrances were alike powerless to silence him. Mr. Elliot-Lees was a man of a vastly different stamp. Dainty in dress, springy in gait, jaunty in manner, he went through life pleasantly. But though he loved "society" in the season, he could ride hard after hounds. It was largely through his instrumentality that the "Parliamentary Steeplechase" was established. Though not a big record for a senator, perhaps it will do well enough in place of a better.

A Man to Be Pitied.

Amongst the rejected who are most to be pitied must be placed the name of Mr. Philip Stanhope. He has been qualifying for office, and deserved the distinction—a high meed of praise in these days. Though he seldom takes part in debates, he can speak pleasantly, fluently and sensibly. To lose his seat, as well as his chance of promotion at one swoop, is hard luck.

The Finest Figure in the House.

Captain Price, who has gone down at Devonport, could boast one of the finest figures in Parliament. Having made a study of service questions—especially those relating to the navy—he was always looked to for a speech, and the high opinions formed of his ability were always justified.

He Was too Virtuous.

Mr. Caldwell has fallen because he was too virtuous for any ordinary assembly. He left Mr. Gladstone for Lord Hartington years ago, then he returned to the fold, and since then his ponderous diatribes against the iniquity of backsliding have been "pro-di-gi-ous"! He has now lost his seat—a penalty with which few persons will be disposed to quarrel.

Notes of the Campaign.

The most striking indication of the power of Sir Charles Dilke was seen in the manner of his reception at a demonstration of 35,000 miners at Derby yesterday. A number of members of the House of Commons were on the platform. Mr. Bayley, M.P., who presided, maintained that the working classes would reinstate Sir Charles Dilke in the important position which he formerly held in Parliament, and the assemblage gave Sir Charles an ovation when he told them what they liked to hear in regard to eight hours, employers' liability, workmen's State insurance and other subjects.

The Parsee community of India, chiefly Bombay merchants, has sent £28,000 sterling to Mr. Naoroji, member-elect for the Central Finsbury district division of London, as a defender of Indian interests in Parliament. To this amount an Indian ruling Prince adds £10,000.

The following totals represent the entire vote cast at the recent elections: Unionist 2,146,946, Opposition 2,417,586.

Died of Smallpox.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 20.—Early yesterday morning M. W. Waitt, one of Victoria's old and well-known business men, died of smallpox at his home in Quadra street, above Pandora. He owned two large book and music stores in Government-street, and was the possessor of considerable valuable real estate.

A British Columbia Murder.

NANAIMO, B.C., July 20.—George Ashton, a logger, and his partner Charley quarrelled, and Charley was beaten. The latter went into his cabin and seized a rifle and fired five shots at Ashton. The first shot took effect and Ashton fell to the ground where another bullet entered his cheek causing death.

A COLUMN OF CANADIAN.

THE QUEER WAYS OF THE CANADIAN SEALER.

How the Schooners Are Relieved of Their Catch—Crack Shots Among the Hunters, Who Use a Gin to Kill the "Sleeper"—A Hunter's Remuneration.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 20.—Ever since British Columbia sealing schooners have been numerous enough to be called a fleet, it has been a yearly custom to send a steamship to the North Pacific Ocean to a previously appointed rendezvous to provision schooners and bring back their catch. They would then proceed to Behring Sea and play hide and seek with the Australian revenue cutters with varying success.

To properly understand the reason of sending a supply steamer, some idea must be had of the sealing business. In the first place, there are two seasons, called the coast and the sea season respectively. The first begins in February. The fleet, which has its headquarters in Victoria, gets out of winter quarters at that time and sails south to somewhere off the Oregon coast, where the vessels fall in with the seals moving north.

A schooner carries from four to eight hunters, each one of whom has his boat and crew. Day after day the boats are lowered and go cruising around, sometimes several miles from the vessel, in pursuit of seal.

The hunter stands in the bow of the boat with a shotgun and shoots his game in the head. It is no easy matter to make a good shot on a small boat tossing about on the waves, and a good hunter is therefore a crack shot, or would be so considered ashore.

A hunter receives $3 a skin for each one shot. Often in the course of the season he makes $1200 or $1500. In some schooners Indian hunters are carried. They come from the west coast of Vancouver Island and are as artistic in the management of a canoe in a heavy gale as a South Sea Islander.

Their method of killing the seals is with spears. They paddle quietly alongside a "sleeper"—sleeping seal—and pierce him with the weapon.

The seals move slowly in their progress towards the rookeries and it is the middle of July before they reach there. Then the sea season opens.

In the past this has been the prosperous time of year for the sealers. While not invading the rookeries they have been able to get big catches in the immediate vicinity of the islands. Now the cruisers prevent any schooner from even entering the sea.

For all that the Russian side presents a new and practically untried field, with immense rookeries on Copper Island. That is where many of the schooners were intending to go, when the seizure of the supply steamer Coquitlam on June 22 shut off their provisions and will compel them to come home within the next few weeks.

In former years one rendezvous was appointed for the schooners for early in June, and there the supply steamer would meet them, receive their skins and give them their provisions. Report says the steamer was not always particular whether or not she effected the transfer at sea or within American waters.

This year three rendezvous were appointed, and the steamer Coquitlam, Captain E. Eugene McLilian, was chartered as the supply ship. She left hence June 9, with several thousand dollars' worth of provisions in her hold, and with three cabin passengers.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 20.—Receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by 100 bushels of wheat at 80c and 200 bushels of oats at 34½c to 34. Hay was in light supply, new selling at $8 to $9 per ton. One load of straw sold at $10.

Business was very quiet on 'change today, the only offering being 2200 bushels of peas at 60c with 59c bid.

Still Undiscovered.

TORONTO, July 20.—All efforts to find the bodies of the unfortunate young men who were drowned at Port Union Sunday have so far proved futile. Men are keeping a constant lookout along the shore in the hope that the bodies may be washed up, but no trace of them have yet been found.

A Plucky Conductor's Death.

TRURO, N.S., July 20. — Yesterday morning at 1 o'clock a special train from Halifax, in charge of a conductor named P. Y. Christie, broke apart into three sections between Shubenacadie and Miller's brickyard. The rear part collided with the middle section and the conductor, who was on the van platform, was thrown over the rail of the van by the force of the concussion. The van passed over one of his legs, crushing it in a fearful manner. But he bravely took a handkerchief from his pocket, succeeded in tying it around his leg and tightened it with a splinter torn from a sleeper. He was picked up and brought to Truro and received prompt medical aid, but his injuries were of such a serious nature that he died at 8.30 last evening.

The Merritton Collision.

ST. CATHARINES, July 20.—There is but little change at the scene of the wreck. The tracks have been cleared and trains have been running as usual. Peter Welsh of Port Dalhousie, who sustained severe injuries, died at the hospital yesterday, thus making four deaths in all, their names being: Sayers Chapman of Port Dalhousie, engineer of Boyle's train; David Hunt, baggageman on the boat train; A. H. VanSlyke of Buffalo, passenger on the boat train, and Peter Welsh, brakeman on Boyle's train of Port Dalhousie.

The injured are progressing favorably.

Montreal Street Railway.

MONTREAL, July 20.—The City Council yesterday awarded the 30 years' franchise for an electric street railway to the Montreal City Railway Company. There was an exciting contest between the street railway company and the Williams syndicate of New York, but finally the local company won by a vote of 21 to 15. The company intends to change the present horse car system into an electric system at once. The trolley system will be used.

An Alderman's Mishap.

WINNIPEG, July 20.—Alderman Nash of Rat Portage fell from a railway train yesterday and was so badly injured he may die. His arm, leg and collar bone were broken.

With Paris Green.

BERLIN, Ont., July 20.—Mrs. Schilling of the North Ward took Paris green and died from the effects.

The buyers present were Messrs. Clinton, Cook, Wrighton, Fitzgerald Brower, Fawalle and McCarger. Liverpool was quoted at 43s. and 6d.

Mr. Cook said that Mr. McKeown, cheese instructor, would like to meet the Presidents of the factories around Perrytown at that place on the 21st inst.

Mr. Sanderson said that a new buyer was present at last meeting of the Board. It was a rule of the Board that the cheese should be inspected at the factory as regards quality, and at the shipping point as to weight, and the new buyer had not gone according to rules in his purchase of North Smith factory.

Mr. Brower explained that he had bought the cheese and as an inspection of them at the station did not prove satisfactory he had not taken them.

Mr. Drummond explained the rules of the board for the benefit of new buyers. Unless some special arrangements were made to the contrary, cheese had to be inspected as to quality at the station and as to weight at the shipping point. He hoped no misunderstanding would occur again.

Mr. Cook offered 8c for selections, opening the bidding. Mr. McCarger offered 8¼ for a 1000, Mr. Cook 8¾ for selections, Mr. Clinton offered 8½, Mr. Fitzgerald 8¾, Mr. Clinton 8¾. He selected Ida, Fraserville, Orono, Newtonville and Benefort. Mr. Cook bid 8 11 16 for further selections. Mr. McCargar offered 8 11-16 for balance of Board. Mr. Cook offered 8¾ for selections. A Canadian Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus, diarrhœa and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept in the house. For 35 years it has been the most reliable remedy. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

Gentlemen,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honorable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for constipation and headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy for ladies in clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1 dw

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

The Infant's Appeal!

Though Unuttered or Unexpressed, It Should Touch the Mother's Heart.

What a time of distress, pain, agony and suffering for the weak and helpless babe! You recognize the fact, mother, that this is July weather—the hated season—when the sun pours down its fiercest rays on things animate and inanimate! You are sweltering, hot and uncomfortable! Have you ever thought of baby's condition?

If you have not, mother, let us draw your attention to the fact that baby is a terrible sufferer just now! Look well on the little face as you have baby on your lap, or while it nestles in its cot; and, if you cannot discern restlessness, trouble and suffering, you are no judge of baby nature.

The true mother should easily understand that appealing look—that craving for something that baby's life depends upon.

That mute appeal calls for a satisfying diet—a digestible food during the terribly hot weather. Baby has been fed on cow's milk of a very poor quality, which hardly appeases the pangs of thirst much less satisfying its hunger. Baby, perhaps, from three to five times a day, is fed on some of the common artificial foods. It is more than likely that these articles of diet—stale milk, skimmed milk and poorly prepared foods have caused some intestinal derangement, perhaps irritation of the digestive organs or inflammation of the stomach.

Baby's mute appeal calls for relief from these troubles that lead on to death and the grave. Baby asks for a food that it can relish, a food that will strengthen and invigorate during the depressing heat of summer. In short, baby silently appeals for Lactated Food, in order that it may live and thrive.

Will you respond to this desire of the baby, dear mother, or will you see it withering away with disease? If baby is fed on Lactated Food, it surely escapes every summer complaint, and becomes bright and happy.

It will be well to remember the words of one of our best Canadian physicians who regularly prescribe Lactated Food. He says:

"Mothers in Canada should bear in mind that Lactated Food is meat and drink for the young infant; it is a blessing to all tender children during the heat of summer."

Negroes at the Capital.

The leading negroes of the capital have their own society, and the other negroes are justly proud of them. They live in good houses, they have comfortable incomes, some of them ride in their carriages, their women folk have regular reception days and dress themselves in silks and satins, often employing the dressmakers of their race who rent and sew for their white neighbors. They have their churches, modest but substantial—Methodist, Baptist, and Roman Catholic chiefly—and they like good loud preaching, hearty singing, and much splendor. These churches are sources of constant enjoyment, and theological discussion is an ever-flowing well-spring of pleasure to the negro man or woman.

Like the conventional New England, the life of many of the negroes of Washington centers around the church. The preacher is not always respected for himself, but his gift of speech and his power of lung are objects of great admiration. As for the church buildings, they are always spoken of affectionately and warmly as "she" even when they are designated by men's names.

"How's de John Wesley been a-gettin' on since I's ben away?" asked one old woman of another.

"Oh, she done got her old wooden front tore out, and done got herself a new brick front."

"An' what's John Wesley 2nd ben a doin' wif herse'f?" "She done got herse'f painted red."

It will not be many years before the negro shanties in the heart of the city will disappear. They are already giving way to the march of wealth and splendor. In the north-western part of the town, small lanes dart suddenly away from broad avenues, and out of the rear windows of fine houses there are visions of small wooden dwellings, some of them hovels, and some of them neat with paint and whitewash. Out of the lanes come trim girls with baskets containing some one's washing, or tumultuous small children, or the man who has made himself famous by crying through the streets: "I'm talkin' about debiled crabs." A few modest homes of the thriftier negroes linger in the fashionable thoroughfares of Massachusetts avenue and Sixteenth street. Since fashion made its entrance into this quarter of the city, the black men who were fortunate enough to purchase property there have held on to it with the tenacity of faith that fate has determined that they shall be as rich as the richest. So they will not sell until they are compelled by the stress of circumstance, which means, in this instance, the increase of taxes. Even then there are difficulties in the way, for the negroes are a happy-go-lucky people who have little knowledge of the forms of law, so that their property descends and passes from hand to hand without much regard to the laws governing the transfer of land. Consequently, titles are not always good, and the prudent white man who is desirous of building what the newspapers call a "palatial residence," does not like to invest his money in a piece of ground which, peradventure, may eventually turn out to belong to some one else, than his grantor. Harper's Weekly.

Hawkers and Peddlers.

What ear-splitting cries we hear daily in the streets of every large city! But these itinerant dealers who hawk their wares about are, when under proper restrictions, a useful portion of the community, and not such nuisances as the catarrh hawkers. This is a stubborn disease to conquer, but Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy does it. It is mild, soothing and antiseptic, unlike snuffs that irritate, or solutions that burn. It corrects offensive breath, and restores taste, smell and hearing. Nasal catarrh often ends in consumption. Apply the only cure in time. Price 50 cents, by all druggists. s

Dreamland.

In the dim realm I wandered through,
The shadow land of sleep,
Came many souls of lovers true,
A tryst unknown to keep.

There came the God of Dreams to rule
His phantom kingdom o'er,
And roses white and wonderful,
And ghostly lilies bore.

And as I wandered, loneliest
The spirits free among,
Unto all those whose love was blest
The fairest flowers he flung.

Then I caught his garment's floating hem
Murmuring bitterly:
"King, all the daylight is for them—
And hast thou naught for me?"

An instant as I staid him there
He looked upon my face,
Before his garment's fold of air
Melted from my embrace.

Then, swifter than a shadow flies,
He passed, and no flower fell—
But his eyes were as my lost love's eyes,
Looking a last farewell.

Rescued From a Sinking Barge.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., July 19.—Yesterday the steam barge Nelson Mills of Wyandotte, bound for Cleveland with 425,000 feet of lumber, struck a reef. The distress signal was at once hoisted from the masthead and the steamer Hunter hastened to the sinking boat. In the meantime the crew, numbering 13 and Captain Kearns' family, consisting of Mrs. Kearns, a daughter and a son, got into the yawl boats and were rescued by the steamer Hunter.

Skeleton of a Sea Cow.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The officers of the Fish Commission steamer Albatross, by the expenditure of $150 and freight, have secured for the Smithsonian Institute the skeleton of a sea cow, nearly perfect, and the finest that has ever been obtained. This animal was discovered by the Behring Sea expedition in 1741, and has since become extinct, the last specimen having been seen in 1854. When full grown it weighed as much as 8000 pounds.

The Tremont Changes Hands.

It is understood that Capt. Leon Dion has sold his interest in the Tremont House, Lakefield. The new proprietor is actively at work making important improvements and additions to the hotel premises and grounds, necessary to make it a thoroughly first-class hotel and summer resort, which its admirable situation in fine wooded grounds and close to the lake admit of doing. The new proprietor is Col. Gibson, who has held an interest in the Tremont for some time. He possesses ample means to give effect to his plans and a knowledge of the world and the public requirements which will enable him to conduct the Tremont as a first-class hotel in every respect.
